On the 24th day of January 1944, the Commission issued its Order pursuant to section 11 (b) (1) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 requiring The Middle West Corporation, a registered holding company, to sever its relations with certain properties, operations and companies including, among others, Middle West Utilities Company of Canada, Limited and reserving jurisdiction to enter such further appropriate orders as the Commission should deem necessary to secure compliance with the provisions of the act and rules thereunder and to carry out the provisions of said order.

Middle West Utilities Company of Canada, Limited, is a Canadian corporation, all outstanding securities of which (consisting of preferred and common stock) are owned by The Middle West Corporation. Its activities are carried on exclusively within Canada and all its assets consist of securities of Canadian corporations, the businesses of which are carried on exclusively in Canada, and the assets of which consist of properties located in Canada or securities in Canadian companies operating exclusively in Canada. The principal assets of Middle West Utilities Company of Canada, Limited, consist of all the outstanding common stock and approximately 45.03% of the preferred stock and approximately $30,000 principal amount of bonds of Great Lakes Power Company, Limited, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the Province of Ontario engaged in the generation, distribution and sale of electric energy.

Middle West Utilities Company of Canada, Limited, has received an offer for all its security holdings in Great Lakes Power Company, Limited, such offer having been made by K. S. Barnes of Montreal, Canada, who has advised that the purchase is being made by him on behalf of the Hydro Electric Power Commission, an agency of the Province of Ontario.

By orders heretofore entered in File No. 31-375 on July 9, 1937; May 24, 1939; January 8, 1942, and December 29, 1943, the Commission has exempted Middle West Utilities Company of Canada, Limited as a holding company from all those provisions of the act which would require it to register under said act because of its directly or indirectly owning, controlling or holding with power to vote 10% or more of the outstanding voting securities of Great Lakes Power Company, Limited, its only subsidiary which is a public utility company. Such orders further provide for limited exemptions to Middle West Utilities Company of Canada, Limited as a subsidiary of The Middle West Corporation. Such exemptions, however, as a subsidiary, do not include an exemption from section 12 (d) of the act, and rules, regulations or orders promulgated thereunder.

The Middle West Corporation and Middle West Utilities Company of Canada, Limited, have requested that the Commission now issue its order exempting The Middle West Corporation and Middle West Utilities Company of Canada, Limited, with respect to such proposed sale insofar as the act or the rules, regulations or orders thereunder including section 12 (d) of the Act and the order issued by the Commission pursuant to section 11 (b) (1) of the act require application to and approval by the Commission in respect thereof.

In view of the exemptions previously granted and the fact that the proposed purchaser is an agency of the Province of Ontario, Dominion of Canada, we are of the opinion that the requested exemption may be appropriately granted and that such exemption would not be detrimental to the public interest or to the interest of investors or consumers;

It is therefore ordered, That The Middle West Corporation and Middle West Utilities Company of Canada, Limited be and they hereby are granted exemption with respect to the proposed sale by Middle West Utilities Comjany of Canada, Limited of all its security holdings in Great Lakes Power Company, Limited to the Hydro Electric Power Commission of the Province of Ontario, Dominion of Canada, or its representative from the provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 or the rules, regulations or orders thereunder including section 12 (d) of the act and the order previously issued by the Commission herein pursuant to section 11 (b) (1) of the act, insofar as the same require application to and approval by the Securities and Exchange Commission with respect to such sale.

By the Commission (Commissioners Pike, O'Brien and McConnaughey) Chairman Purcell and Commissioner Healy being absent and not participating.

Dated: August 10, 1944.

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 11th day of August 1944.

Notice is hereby given that joint applications-declarations have been filed with this Commission, pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, by Denis J. Driscoll and Willard L. All interested persons are referred to said joint applications-declarations which are on file in the office of the Commission for a statement of the purpose and nature of the proposed transactions, which may be summarized as follows:

(1) United Coach will be merged into Aucorp, which will assume all its liabilities and acquire all its assets, including an income note, due 1960, of Railway in the amount of $1,218,336.57. Thereupon all the outstanding shares of stock of United Coach held by Agecorp, and all indebtedness of United Coach to Aucorp will be surrendered for cancellation;

Dover will pay for said shares in part by delivering to Aucorp, at the market value thereof at the date of delivery, $200,000 principal amount of 3¾% income debentures, due 1978, and $125,000 principal amount of 8% bonds, due 1940, of Agecorp; and the balance of the purchase price will be paid by Dover to Aucorp in cash;

(5) Agecorp, holding a 2% convertible obligation, due 1963, of Aucorp, amounting to $82,747,814.86 at July 1, 1944, will receive from Aucorp, as payment on account, $3,300,000 in cash; the securities of Agecorp which Aucorp will acquire, as set forth in paragraph (4) above; and certain other securities and indebtedness of Agecorp, Associated Gas and Electric Company, The Mohawk Valley Company, and NY PA NJ Utilities Company, having an aggregate carrying value of $26,527,252.76;

It is stated in the applications-declarations that the purposes of the proposed transactions, as summarized above, are to simplify the corporate structure of the Agecorp holding company system by eliminating unnecessary corporate entities and the transfer of the ownership of substantial amounts of securities to their issuers or to more logical owners. In addition, it is stated, NY PA NJ Utilities Company will be enabled to discharge its oustanding bank loan. It is further stated that the proposed program will facilitate the consummation of the plan of reorganization of Agecorp and Associated Gas and Electric Company.

The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's rules of practice.

It is further ordered, That, without limiting the scope of the issues presented

1. Whether the various proposed acquisitions will serve the public interest by tending towards the economical and efficient development of an integrated public utility system or systems;

PART 944—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE OPERATIONS OF THE PRIORITIES SYSTEM

SPECIAL AUTHORIZATIONS FOR PRODUCTION OF RESTRICTED PRODUCTS

§ 944.46 Priorities Regulation 25—(a) What this regulation does. This regulation establishes methods to be used in authorizing the resumption of civilian production as local conditions permit. It provides a way by which manufacturers may be authorized to make articles which are otherwise restricted or prohibited by orders of the War Production Board but only when they have labor and facilities available which are no longer needed for essential purposes. The present lack of labor, material and facilities is evidenced by present restrictions in WPB orders limiting or prohibiting the manufacture of certain items and requiring substitution of materials and simplification of design. Labor conditions in a number of areas are so critical as to prohibit or severely limit authorization of production under this regulation. Production under this regulation must in no way interfere with either war production, the production of essential civilian articles, or the rendering of services essential to the public welfare. The War Production Board will authorize production under this regulation only under these general policies and when the conditions described below are met.

(b) What products are covered by this regulation. This regulation applies only to those products that are covered by WPB orders (such as an "L" or "M" order) in which provision is made for authorization to manufacture under this regulation, or which are listed on a direction to this regulation. No application to produce should be filed unless the product is covered by an order containing such a provision or so listed on a direction to this regulation. It is contemplated that orders and directions will be amended from time to time as conditions warrant the addition of permitted products or require the elimination of products previously permitted.

(c) Nature of authorizations. Authorizations under this regulation will not affect any provision of WPB orders except to the extent specifically provided in the order or in a direction to this regulation. Generally, such orders or directions will provide that authorizations under this regulation will only permit production of a restricted or forbidden product, and will not change simplification, standardization, specifications, or similar provisions of the order. Any authorization granted a manufacturer under this regulation may be revoked by the War Production Board at any time it finds that the labor, materials, or facilities being used in such production are needed for essential purposes.

(d) How to obtain permission. Production is authorized under this regulation only when specific permission is granted to the individual manufacturer by the War Production Board. If a person wishes to obtain authorization under this regulation and the applicable orders so provide or a direction has been issued to this regulation making provision for authorization to manufacture the product, he should file Form WPB 4000 accompanied by Form WPB 3820 (Revised) with the Field Office of the War Production Board for the district in which his plant is located. The application on Form WPB 4000 should be filed in accordance with the instructions on the form. If the application is approved, the person filing it will receive from the War Production Board an authorization stating the amount of production authorized and any special conditions applicable to manufacture by him.

(e) General policy in the granting of authorizations. The following indicate some important considerations of policy in the granting or denial of applications under this regulation. These should be borne in mind by manufacturers requesting authorization under the regulation:

(1) Authorization to produce will in no case be granted if production will in any way interfere with either war production or the production of essential civilian articles.

(2) The labor and facilities to manufacture must be available to the applicant and not required for more essential purposes. The application will be denied if the applicant's proposed use of labor would interfere with local and inter-regional recruitment of labor.

(3) In general, more favorable consideration will be given to applications where the articles can be produced from idle, excess or frozen materials and components, whether in the applicant's inventory or available from others, than where new materials and components are required.

(4) Preference ratings of AA–5 will be assigned but only for the production of utility items of importance in civilian requirements. A list of these items can be obtained at your nearest local War Production Board Field Office. In general, more favorable consideration will be given to applications for the production of these items.

(5) Before making application, the applicant should investigate the supply situation of the material and components which he will require. In general, more favorable consideration will be given to applications where the new materials needed to produce the product can be readily obtained with an AA–5 rating (if a utility item) or without a rating.

(f) Authorized production schedule, allotments and preference ratings. (1) A manufacturer whose application is approved under this regulation will be given an authorized production schedule and assigned a CMP allotment symbol on Form CMPL–150C. When controlled materials are available, allotments may be made in limited amounts and will be "deferred allotments" under Direction 54 to CMP Regulation No. 1. Preference ratings may be assigned as explained in paragraph (e) (4). Production of the product and the use of the allotment and preference rating are subject to the provisions of applicable CMP regulations. If the product which is authorized will not require the incorporation of steel, copper or aluminum in controlled material form (or incorporation of Class A components) the use of the preference rating is subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation 11B. Persons operating under Priorities Regulation 25 are also subject to the provisions of other applicable priorities regulations.

(2) No person may use any material or products to fill a production schedule authorized under this regulation which he got by use of a preference rating or allotment symbol assigned for another purpose unless he is unable to use or dispose of the material or products for the purpose for which the rating or allotment was given. For instance, if a manufacturer has made vacuum cleaner repair parts by use of an allotment and preference rating assigned for that purpose, he cannot use any of those parts in making vacuum cleaners authorized under this regulation.

(3) Authorization of a production schedule under this regulation does not of itself give the applicant a preference rating of AA–5 under § 944.1 (b) of Priorities Regulation No. 1.

(g) Acceptance and filling of rated purchase orders. A manufacturer who has received an authorization to produce a product under this regulation must continue to accept and fill rated purchase orders for all products in accordance with the provisions of Priorities Regulation 1.

(h) Special treatment of unrated orders placed under this regulation. Certain orders of the War Production Board require a rating of AA–5 before a purchase order for products or materials covered by the order may be placed, or the products or materials be manufactured or delivered. Despite the provisions of any such WPB order, an unrated purchase order placed for materials required to fill a production schedule identified by the CMP Allotment Symbol Z–1 may be accepted and filled. The supplier may reject the order if he desires but if he accepts the order, it must be scheduled for production and delivery as an unrated order. In placing the order the buyer should endorse it with the allotment symbol Z–1 received on the CMPL–150C, and the standard certification of Priorities Regulation No. 7.

(i) Relation to appeals procedure. The appeals procedure provided for in orders and regulations of the War Production Board will continue in effect, with modifications (indicated in the respective orders), for those orders which are amended to permit production under this regulation. Also in the case of orders which have not been so amended and which are listed in a direction to this regulation, authorization is to be requested under this regulation if the only exemption sought is from provisions which prohibit manufacture entirely or restrict the amount of manufacture permitted. If relief from other provisions is sought, an appeal should be filed in the manner indicated in the particular order.

Issued this 15th day of August 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

[Priorities Reg. 25, Direction 1]

WPB ORDERS COVERED BY PRIORITIES REGULATION 25

The following direction is issued pursuant to Priorities Reg. 25:

Production of products covered by the following WPB orders may be authorized under Priorities Regulation 25. The order should be referred to, since it may still restrict models and types that may be made or materials that may be used, or impose other limitations on the product; from these provisions the regulation will in most cases afford no relief.

If one of the following orders is amended to refer to Priorities Regulation 25, authorization under the regulation will affect the provisions of the order only to the extent provided in the amended order.

Until one of the following orders has been specifically amended to provide otherwise, authorizations granted under this regulation will give relief only from the provisions of the order which either prohibit manufacture entirely or restrict the amount of manufacture permitted. The authorization will not in any way relieve the person receiving it from any other restrictions of the order. For example, the following types of restrictions must still be complied with: Restrictions on the types of models which can be made, on the kind of materials which can be used, on the amount of materials which can be used in producing any unit of the article, on the end uses for which production is permitted, on deliveries of the product, on inventories, etc. Thus, with respect to an "L" order not amended to provide otherwise, which restricts both (1) the amount of material used in a plant's total production of an article and (2) the amount of material per unit manufactured, relief would be granted under this regulation from the first restriction but not from the second.

PART 1226—GENERAL INDUSTRIAL EQUIPMENT

[General Limitation Order L-332, as Amended Aug. 15, 1944]

CONTAINER MACHINERY

The fulfillment of the requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of material used in the production of container machinery for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense.

§ 1226.137 General Limitation Order L-332—(a) What this order does. This order restricts deliveries of new, used, and reconditioned container machinery; it does not restrict deliveries of repair parts. The order requires manufacturers to file monthly operations reports.

(b) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Container machinery" means all new, used, and reconditioned machinery and equipment of the types listed in Schedule A of this order having a retail sales value of $500 or more (unless otherwise indicated).

(3) "Manufacturer" means any person engaged in the fabrication, assembly, reconditioning or rebuilding of container machinery.

(4) "Dealer" means any person engaged in the business of purchasing container machinery for resale.

(5) "Order" includes any arrangement for the delivery of container machinery or equipment, whether by purchase and sale, lease, rental or otherwise.

(c) Restrictions on sales and deliveries. After March 1, 1944, no person shall place an order for container machinery and no person shall accept such an order or deliver container machinery to fill an order received after March 1, 1944, unless the order bears a rating of AA-5 or higher. Neither shall any person make or accept delivery under any order placed or accepted before March 2, 1944, if delivery before that date would have violated Order L-83, as amended November 4, 1943.

(d) Exemptions. The limitations and restrictions of paragraph (c) shall not apply to the following transactions:

(1) The renewal of a lease for any container machinery if the original lease or any prior renewal was approved in accordance with this order (or Order L-83) and the machinery is still being used for the purpose approved.

(2) Any order for container machinery for the direct use of the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration.

(3) The seizure of container machinery (but not subsequent disposition or use thereof) upon default, by any person pursuant to the terms of a conditional sales agreement, chattel mortgage, pledge, or other security agreement; and the distraint or levy by execution (but not subsequent disposition thereof) by tax authorities.

(4) The transfer of container machinery (but not subsequent disposition thereof) by will or intestacy, or a transfer by operation of law to a trustee, receiver, or assignee for the benefit of creditors, in bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership, or assignment for the benefit of creditors.

(5) The transfer of container machinery as part of a transaction, such as merger, consolidation, sale and purchase of assets, sale and puchase of stock, or lease of plant, involving the transfer of all or substantially all of the assets of an enterprise, where no liquidation or dismemberment of assets is contemplated.

(6) The transfer of container machinery, within a plant, or within a single corporate enterprise (including majority owned subsidiaries) from one plant or branch to another: Provided, however, That nothing in this subparagraph (6) shall be construed to permit transfers from a portion of an enterprise manufacturing, building or assembling new machinery to a portion using it unless the material for its production was obtained in accordance with Direction 34 of CMP Regulation 1.

(7) The transfer of container machinery (but not subsequent disposition thereof) as a trade-in, where the machinery to be installed is delivered pursuant to an approved order.

(8) Transfers of used container machinery to dealers.

(9) The delivery of container machinery for repair and return, the return of a repaired machine, and the loan of a machine to the user, for a period not to exceed three months pending the repair of the damaged machine.

(10) The transfer of container machinery to be scrapped for its material content.

(11) The unloading, from a vessel, of any imported container machinery.

(12) The transfer of any interest in any written instrument evidencing an interest in container machinery: Provided, however, That nothing in this subparagraph (12) shall be construed to permit the physical delivery or use of container machinery.

(13) The return of any leased container machinery by the lessee to the lessor upon the expiration, termination, or cancellation of the lease.

(14) The exchange of leased container machinery requiring factory repairing or rebuilding for new, reconditioned or rebuilt units fitted for the same size container, and of like model, size and capacity, provided the machinery to be replaced was approved in accordance with this order (or Order L–83) and the machinery to be acquired will be used for the purpose approved.

(e) Operations reports. Each manufacturer shall, on or before the 10th day of each month, commencing with March, 1944, file with the War Production Board an operations report on Form WPB–3551, in accordance with the instructions accompanying the form.[1]

(f) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board as amended from time to time.

(2) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(3) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter, in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal. The letter must be filed with the field office of the War Production Board in the district in which is located the plant or branch of the appellant to which the appeal relates.

(4) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all other communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the War Production Board, General Industrial Equipment Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref. L–332.

Issued this 15th day of August 1944.

FOOD PROCESSING MACHINERY

The fulfillment of the requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of materials used in the production of food processing machinery, for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense.

§ 1226.77 General Limitation Order L–292—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Processor" means any person engaged in the business of preparing, processing, canning, packing or packaging human or animal foods or tobacco for distribution, including the operation of a food processing plant on a farm. It does not include (i) a person to the extent that he engages in the production or raising of crops, livestock, or other farm produce; or (ii) a person to the extent that he prepares food for consumption on the premises (such as a hotel or restaurant), or distributes it at retail (such as a grocery or retail meat market); or (iii) governmental agencies processing food for governmental use, hospitals, charitable institutions processing food for their own use, or educational institutions.

(2) "Food processing machinery" means new machinery and equipment, of the kinds specified in Schedule A with a retail sales value of $50 or more for each machine or piece of equipment, excluding (i) refrigerating machinery and equipment as defined in Limitation Order L–38, (ii) machinery and equipment used on a farm for production of food or tobacco or on a fishing vessel for handling food, prior to delivery to a processor, (iii) scales and balances as defined in limitation Order L–190, (iv) conveying machinery as defined in Limitation Order L–193, (v) machinery and equipment used for packaging, filling or labelling containers, except as otherwise indicated in Schedule A, (vi) oil processing machinery and equipment used in processing animal, fish and vegetable fats, oils and greases, and (vii) water filters as water-treating equipment.

(3) "Manufacturer" means any person engaged in the making or assembling of food processing machinery; and includes his subsidiaries and affiliates in the same business.

(4) "Dealer" means any person except a manufacturer engaged in the business of buying and reselling food processing machinery.

(5) "Approved order" means any order for delivery (under sale, lease, consignment or otherwise) of food processing machinery bearing (i) a rating of AA–5 or higher assigned on any WPB or FEA Form listed in paragraph (c) or (ii) a CMP Regulation 5 or 5A rating applied to replace an existing piece of machinery of substantially the same size and capacity, worn out or damaged beyond repair.

(b) Restrictions on deliveries. (1) No person shall deliver or accept delivery of food processing machinery except on an approved order. Any person who places an approved order shall in addition to the certification used in applying the rating (Priorities Regulation 3 or 7) give the form number upon which he received the rating, or if the rating was assigned by CMP Regulation 5 or 5A, he shall add to the certification a statement substantially as follows: "This rating was assigned by CMP Regulation 5 (or 5A) and the machinery is ordered to replace other machinery of substantially the same size and capacity, worn out or damaged beyond repair."

(2) The restrictions of subparagraph (1) above shall not apply to: (i) Deliveries to a manufacturer or dealer to enable him to fill approved orders which he has actually received, or to replace in inventory machinery delivered by him to fill approved orders, (ii) delivery of food processing machinery to be used directly by the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, or War Shipping Administration, (iii) delivery to a manufacturer of food processing machinery to be incorporated into other food processing machinery, or (iv) delivery of food processing machinery from one portion of an enterprise manufacturing, building or assembling it to a portion using it, when the material for its production was obtained by the manufacturer in accordance with Direction 34 of CMP Regulation 1.

(c) Instructions for obtaining an approved order other than pursuant to a CMP Regulation. (1) Processors seeking food processing machinery for delivery within the United States or Canada, in order to get a rating should file:

(i) Form WPB–617 with the War Production Board for any food processing machinery which is to be installed as part of a project approved under Order L–41.

(ii) Form WPB–748 with the War Food Administration for all other dairy, egg or poultry processing equipment.

(iii) Form WPB–576 with the War Food Administration for all other canning machinery or equipment.

(iv) Form WPB–3155 with the War Food Administration for all other meat canning, meat packing and meat processing machinery or equipment.

(2) All persons, other than processors, seeking any food processing machinery for delivery within the United States or Canada should file Form WPB–541 with the War Production Board.

(3) All persons, including processors, seeking any food processing machinery for export by them to other than Canada should file Form WPB–541 or Form FEA–419, whichever is appropriate with the War Production Board.

(d) Restrictions on manufacture. No manufacturer shall make or assemble any new food processing machinery or equipment of the kinds listed on Schedule B except as permitted by production quotas assigned under paragraph (f) of this order. The limitations and restrictions of this paragraph shall not apply to the manufacture of any food processing machine or piece of equipment for which parts weighing, in the aggregate, not less than 75% of the weight of the finished machine or piece of equipment were made before June 5, 1943.

(e) Conservation of critical materials. No person shall use stainless steel or tin, copper or copper base alloys, secondary copper-nickel alloys (white metal) made from scrap or remelt, nickel or chromium, in the manufacture or assembly of any food processing machinery except in contact parts or corrosion points. (As used herein "contact parts" means those parts which come in direct contact with any food products. "Corrosion points" mean those parts or fittings, stationary or movable, which are exposed to corrosive action from food products, water or brine and which, if corroded, will interfere with the normal operation of the machinery or equipment.) These restrictions on the use of materials shall not apply to repair parts for food processing machinery produced before June 30, 1943, if parts made of other material would not be interchangeable with the parts to be repaired or replaced. This paragraph also does not restrict the use of copper and copper-base alloys in electrical conductors, bearings, valves, instruments, motors, worm driven gears, and cappers.

(f) Production quotas. The War Production Board may at any time issue schedules as amendments to this order, fixing production quotas for certain types of food processing machinery. From the effective date of any such schedule no manufacturer may carry on production except as permitted by the schedule or schedules applicable to the food processing machinery made or assembled by him. The reference to "quota provisions of paragraph (g) (2) (ii) of Order L–292" in schedules issued by the War Production Board before March 11, 1944 shall, for the purpose of such schedules, mean this paragraph (f) of Order L–292.

(g) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Reports. On or before the 15th day of each calendar month, each manufacturer shall file a report on Form WPB–2721. This reporting requirement has been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(2) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board as amended from time to time.

(3) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(4) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter, in triplicate, referring to the particular provisions appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal. The letter must be filed with the field office of the War Production Board for the district in which is located the plant or branch of the appellant to which the appeal relates.

(5) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, General Industrial Equipment Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: L–292.

Issued this 15th day of August 1944.

INTERPRETATION 1

FOOD PROCESSING MACHINERY

Paragraph (a) (5), in defining "approved orders" for food processing machinery, includes orders bearing a preference rating of AA-5 or higher assigned on certain specified forms (WPB-617, 576, 749, etc.). These forms in some cases call for the name and address of the supplier.

In these cases, the information intended is the name and address of the probable supplier. Provided the model actually obtained is substantially identical in value, quality, size, operation and function with that named in the application form, the preference rating may be used to get the product from any manufacturer, dealer or processor who has the product on hand or is authorized to manufacture or acquire it. For example, a rating assigned to purchase a 1" centifugal sanitary pump may ordinarily be used to purchase that size pump from any manufacturer if the value is substantially the same as that of the pump described in the application. On the other hand, a rating assigned for a 6-can-per-minute dairy can washer costing $1000 may not be used to get a 6-can-per-minute can washer costing $2500. Similarly, a rating for a copper lined cheese vat may not be used to get a stainless steel cheese vat.

Approval of the form does not operate to authorize the supplier, whether or not named, to manufacture or acquire the product if that is otherwise prohibited. [Issued March 31, 1944.]

FOOD PROCESSING MACHINERY

In accordance with paragraph (f) of General Limitation Order L-292, as amended, certain quota schedules have been established limiting the amount of controlled materials which may be used in manufacturing certain classes of food processing machinery during a specified quota period. The quota is a percentage of the average annual amount of such material consumed during a specified base period. The percentage applies to each controlled material (steel, copper or aluminum) separately. No part of the percentage of one controlled material shall be added to the total percentage of another. However, the permitted percentage of a particular controlled material may be divided in any way between the several categories of such material. For example: where a manufacturer is permitted to consume during the quota period 110% of the average annual amount of steel and copper he consumed during the base period, he is not permitted to apply part or all of his steel quota to his copper quota and thereby exceed his copper quota of 110%. However, he may consume during the quota period such amounts of carbon steel and such amount of alloy steel as he chooses provided the aggregate does not exceed 110% of the average annual amount of steel consumed during the base period. This rule is subject to the restriction of any order of the War Production Board against the use of a higher grade or larger quantity of material than is necessary (for example, see paragraph (c) (1) of Order M-9-c, dealing with copper). [Issued April 3, 1944.]

PART 3290—TEXTILE, CLOTHING AND LEATHER

The following interpretation is issued with respect to General Conservation Order M-217:

Paragraph (c) (5), limiting the use of colors in footwear, affects the application to shoe manufacturers of the inventory restriction contained in § 944.14 of Priorities Regulation 1. This section of Priorities Regulation 1 provides that no person shall accept delivery of any material if the inventory of such material of the person accepting delivery is, or will, by virtue of such acceptance, become in excess of the practicable minimum working inventory reasonably necessary to meet deliveries of the products of the person accepting delivery, on the basis of his current method and rate of operation.

Paragraph (c) (5) of Conservation Order M-217 prohibits the use of any materials for uppers except material finished or dyed in certain specified colors. Accordingly, any deliveries of upper leather or other material for uppers in colors which are not permitted would constitute a violation of Priorities Regulation 1, since the practicable minimum working inventory reasonably necessary to meet deliveries is, under Priorities Regulation 1, to be computed on the basis of the current method and rate of operation. Inasmuch as manufacturers are not currently permitted to use certain colors, the priorities regulation does not permit the acceptance of deliveries of materials in these colors.

Where either the 50 or 150 pound quantity limitation included in the definition of "Peddler-truck sale" is exceeded, no part of the delivery of sausage to the buyer that day may be considered a peddler-truck sale.

11. The definitions of "Kosher sausage" and "Yield" in section 13 (b) are amended and a definition of "Percent" in the proper alphabetical place in section 13 (b) is added, all to read respectively as follows:

"Percent" when used with reference to the portion of any meat or meat by-product contained in a sausage product, means the portion of the total weight of meat and meat by-products as weighed in the sausage kitchen immediately prior to chopping and mixing; when used with reference to the portion of extender or fat contained in a sausage product, it means the portion of the total weight of the finished sausage product.

12. The last sentence of the definition of "Bologna" in section 13 (c) is amended to read as follows: "It includes knackwurst but does not include Lebanon bologna."

13. The definition of "Type 1 special pork sausage" in section 13 (d) is amended to read as follows:

14. The definitions of "Kosher frankfurters, bologna and knackwurst" and "Kosher salami" in section 13 (e) are amended to read respectively as follows:

"Kosher frankfurters, bologna and knackwurst" means kosher sausage containing no meat other than beef and beef fat and containing no meat by-products; which has been smoked and cooked in the smokehouse; which is stuffed in casings; which has a fat content not in excess of 25 percent; which contains no more than 10 percent added moisture or water; and which contains no extender.

[Rev. RO 16,[1] Amdt. 16]

MEAT, FATS, FISH AND CHEESES

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

The definition of "Household salvage fats", in section 27.1 (a), is amended by adding the following two sentences to the end of the definition: "(When original containers of household salvage fats are placed in drums or other bulk containers for convenience in storing or shipping, some of the household salvage fat may, of its own accord, flow out of the original containers into the drum or bulk container. Such fats do not, for that reason, cease to be household salvage fats.)"

This amendment shall become effective August 19, 1944.

AUBURN, CAYUGA COUNTY, N. Y.

MINIMUM WARTIME WORK WEEK

Designation of the Auburn Labor Market Area as subject to Executive Order No. 9301.

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Regional Manpower Director of Region No. II by § 903.2 of War Manpower Commission Regulation No. 3, "Minimum Wartime Workweek of 48 hours," (8 F.R. 7225), and having found that such action will aid in alleviating labor shortages which are impeding the war effort, I hereby designate the Auburn Labor Market Area as subject to the provisions of Executive Order No. 9301.

I. For the purposes of this designation, the Auburn Labor Market Area shall include:

Cayuga County in the State of New York.

II. The effective date of this designation is September 15, 1944.

III. Not later than the effective date, each employer in the Auburn Labor Market Area shall, in accordance with War Manpower Commission Regulation No. 3:

(a) Extend to a minimum wartime workweek of 48 hours, the workweek of any of his workers whose workweek can be so extended without involving the release of any worker;

(b) If extension of the workweek of any of his workers to a minimum wartime workweek of 48 hours would involve the release of any workers, submit to the Area Manpower Director the number and occupational classification of the workers whose release would be involved, together with proposed schedules for their release, and thereafter extend such workweek when and as directed in schedules authorized by the War Manpower Commission;

(c) File an application for a minimum wartime workweek of less than 48 hours for those workers engaged in employment in which the employer claims that a workweek of 48 hours would be impracticable in view of the nature of the operations, would not contribute to the reduction of labor requirements, or would conflict with any Federal, State or local law or regulation limiting hours of work.

Date of issuance: August 11, 1944.

(1) Aluminum kitchen and household ware may be made only as described in Order L–30–e;

(e) Applicability of other orders and regulations. This order and all transactions affected by it are subject to all other applicable orders and regulations of the War Production Board.

(f) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(g) Appeals. Any appeal from this order except from the provision of paragraphs (b) and (e) should be made on Form WPB–1477 which should be filed (in triplicate) with the field office of the War Production Board for the district in which is located the plant to which the appeal relates. No appeal should be filed from paragraphs (b) and (e).

PART 3284—BUILDING MATERIALS

[General Limitation Order L–212, as Amended August 16, 1944]

INCANDESCENT LIGHTING FIXTURES

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply for defense, for private account and for export of materials and component parts which enter into the production of incandescent lighting fixtures; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense.

Section 3284.51 General Limitation Order L–212 is hereby amended as follows:

§ 3284.51 General Limitation Order L–212—(a) Purpose of the order. This order places limitations on the manufacture and assembly of residential incandescent electric lighting fixtures and parts. It also restricts the sale and delivery of all new incandescent electric lighting fixtures and parts except residential.

Restrictions on Manufacture and Assembly

(c) Residential incandescent lighting fixtures. (1) No person may manufacture or assemble a residential incandescent lighting fixture containing more than 20 ounces of metal. This weight limit is maximum and no overweight tolerances are permitted. In calculating the weight of the metal, the weight of the items listed in paragraph (b) shall not be included.

(2) Aluminum may be used as a substitute for other metals in making residential incandescent lighting fixtures but the 20-ounce weight limit set forth in subparagraph (1) must be complied with. Furthermore, any person who uses aluminum as a substitute for other metals may not use, during the third quarter of 1944, more steel and aluminum (by weight) in total than the quantity of steel (by weight) that he has been allotted for the third quarter under the Controlled Materials Plan, and may not make a larger number of units than he could have made with the allotted steel. In the fourth quarter of 1944 and in subsequent quarters, the quantity of materials (including aluminum) permitted to be used in making residential incandescent lighting fixtures, and the number of units he may make, will be controlled by the size of the allotments of controlled materials (including aluminum) which are made under regular War Production

Board procedures. Insofar as the provisions of this paragraph are inconsistent with Order M–1–l, this paragraph controls.

(d) Restrictions in other orders. No person may manufacture or assemble an incandescent lighting fixture or part from materials prohibited by M–1–g (Aluminum Paint), M–6–b (Nickel), M–9–c (Copper), M–11–b (Zinc), M–18–b (Chrome), M–43 (Tin), M–65 (Cadmium), M–126 (Iron and Steel), or any other applicable order of the War Production Board.

Restrictions on Sale and Delivery

(e) Preference ratings. No person may sell or deliver any new incandescent lighting fixture or part except on an order or contract bearing a preference rating. (An order or contract for a complete fixture bearing a preference rating lower than AA–2 must be regarded as an unrated order or contract, if the supplier knows or has reason to believe that the rating is a blanket MRO rating. But if the order or contract is for a component part which is to be used solely for repair of an existing fixture, then a blanket MRO rating of AA–5 or higher will be sufficient. The term "blanket MRO rating" is defined in PR–3.)

(f) Exceptions to the restrictions contained in paragraph (e). There are seven exceptions to the restrictions on sale and delivery in paragraph (e). No preference rating is necessary for:

(1) The sale and delivery of a residential fixture or part;

(2) The delivery of a fixture or part to an established testing laboratory for testing purposes only;

(3) The delivery of a fixture or part to a potential customer for demonstration, but not for stock or for sale except in accordance with paragraph (e);

(4) Sale and delivery of a fixture or part on a special sale under PR–13;

(5) The delivery of a fixture or part from one branch, division or section of a single enterprise to another branch, division or section of the same enterprise, but not for installation in the branch, division or section;

(6) The sale and delivery of an illuminated exit sign of the type commonly installed in public buildings under the fire laws and bearing no advertising matter;

(7) The sale and delivery of illuminating glassware.

Definitions

(g) The term "incandescent lighting fixture" means any complete lighting fixture or complete lighting equipment designed or constructed for the purpose of illumination which employs or is used in connection with an incandescent electric light source of any size or with a mercury vapor light source rated only 250 or 400 watts.

(1) Industrial portable incandescent lighting fixtures as defined in paragraph (k).

(2) Industrial attachable incandescent lighting fixtures as defined in paragraph (l).

(3) Stage lighting fixtures and stage lighting equipment, whether fixed, portable or attachable.

(4) Illuminating glassware specifically designed for use with incandescent lighting fixtures controlled by Order L–212.

Such fixtures are designed to be plugged into an electric outlet and are usually equipped with either a handle, a hook, or a base fitted with free rolling casters.

(l) An "industrial attachable incandescent lighting fixture" is one which is designed to be used with some piece of factory equipment (such as an industrial machine, tool, or assembly bench) and is so constructed that it may be permanently affixed by screws to the equipment or to an adjoining wall. Such fixtures are designed to be plugged into an electric outlet.

(m) A "residential incandescent lighting fixture" is one which is designed and constructed to provide illumination for a human habitation. The term includes, but is not limited to, residential bracket fixtures (interior and exterior) and residential porch ceiling fixtures. The term does not include portable or pin-up types, which are controlled by Order L–33.

Miscellaneous Provisions

(n) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order may be filed either on Form WPB–1477 (formerly PD–500) or by letter in triplicate referring to the particular provision appealed from and fully stating the grounds for the appeal. Such appeals shall be filed with the Field Office of the War Production Board for the district in which is located the plant or branch of the appellant to which the appeal relates.

(o) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(p) Routing of correspondence. Communications concerning this order (except appeals) shall be addressed to the War Production Board, Building Materials Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: L–212.

(q) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

Maximum Price Regulation 530 is amended in the following respects:

1. In section 8 (a), subparagraph (3) is amended to read as follows and subparagraphs (4) and (5) are added to read as follows:

(3) "Broker" (i) With respect to pulpwood produced in the Province of Quebec, a "broker" means any person who sells such pulpwood to United States consumers, which pulpwood has not been cut or prepared by such person, but which was purchased by him in the condition in which it is to be delivered to such consumer.

(ii) With respect to pulpwood produced in the Provinces of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, a "broker" means any person who sells such pulpwood to United States consumers, which pulpwood has not been cut or prepared by such person, but which was purchased by him in the condition in which it is to be delivered to such consumer, and who sold and delivered not less than 5,000 cords of pulpwood to United States consumers in the 1943–1944 operating season, or who shall sell and deliver not less than 5,000 cords of pulpwood to such consumers in any subsequent operating season. "Operating season" means the period between the first day of May in one year and the last day of April in the next succeeding year;

(4) "Dealer" means any person other than a broker who sells pulpwood to United States consumers, or vendors to such consumers, which pulpwood was not cut or prepared by such person, but which was purchased by him in the same condition in which it is to be delivered to a United States consumer, and includes a broker when the broker sells to a person other than a United States consumer;

(5) "United States consumer" means any person who purchases pulpwood to be consumed by it within the continental limits of the United States.

2. Section 9 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 9. Import prices for pulpwood produced in the Provinces of Quebec, New Brunswick and Nova Scotia in the Dominion of Canada—(a) Maximum import prices. The maximum import price per cord for pulpwood produced in the Provinces of Quebec, New Brunswick and Nova Scotia in the Dominion of Canada shall not exceed the appropriate domestic Canadian ceiling prices as established by Administrative Orders Nos. A–1281, A–1282, and A–1283 issued by the Canadian Wartime Prices and Trade Board and effective on and after July 20, 1944 by more than the following:

Species	Canadian funds
Poplar:
Rough	$0.50
Peeled	.50
Spruce and Jack Pine:
Rough	.75

(b) Broker's and dealer's commissions. (1) Where a United States consumer buys pulpwood produced in the Province of Quebec in the Dominion of Canada through a broker as defined in section 8 (a) (3) (i) hereof, such consumer may pay such broker, in addition to the maximum prices provided in section 9 hereof, a commission not to exceed $1.00 per cord for rough pulpwood and $1.50 per cord for peeled pulpwood.

When a broker procures such pulpwood from a dealer, the broker may split his commission with the dealer.

(3) Persons who have not qualified as brokers, but who intend to do so, shall state their intention so to do in writing to the Paper and Paper Products Branch of the Offices of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to prohibit payment of a broker's allowance in escrow to a bank or bank and trust company to be paid to such broker if and when it shall have been determined by the Paper and Paper Products Branch of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., that such broker has qualified so as to be entitled to receive such commission, but otherwise to be repaid by such fiduciary to the United States consumer at the end of the calendar year.

A–1281, A–1282, A–1283, the person importing such pulpwood may apply to the Paper and Paper Products Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., for authority to pay the amount necessary to cover such exception or adjustment. Such application shall set forth (1) that the application is based on an exception or adjustment granted to the producer and/or seller by the Canadian Wartime Prices and Trade Board or any other duly authorized person; (2) the name and address of the producer and/or seller; and (3) the amount of exception or adjustment so granted.

Unless the Office of Price Administration or a duly authorized representative thereof shall, by letter mailed to the applicant within 10 days from the filing of such application approve, disapprove, adjust, amend or extend the time within which to do any of the foregoing, such application shall be deemed to have been approved, subject to non-retroactive written disapproval or adjustment at any later time by the Office of Price Administration.

This amendment shall become effective August 16, 1944.

ARTICLE I—GENERAL PROVISIONS

SEC. 1.1. What this regulation does. This regulation fixes the maximum prices at which any person may sell mild-cured salmon. It further fixes the maximum prices at which any processor may sell cured and smoked fish covered in the regulation.

SEC. 1.2. Relation to other regulations. (a) The provisions of this regulation supersede the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation with respect to sales and deliveries by processors of cured or smoked fish.

(b) The maximum price at which a person may export cured or smoked fish shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Second Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation issued by the Office of Price Administration.

(c) Maximum Price Regulations Nos. 421, 422 and 423 apply to sales by wholesalers and retailers, as defined in those regulations, who are not processors.

SEC. 1.3 Where this regulation applies. The provisions of this regulation shall apply to the forty-eight states of the United States, to the District of Columbia, and with respect to mild-cured salmon to the Territory of Alaska.

SEC. 1.4. Sales to which this regulation does not apply. The provisions of this regulation shall not be applicable to sales or deliveries of cured or smoked fish if, prior to August 21, 1944, such cured or smoked fish has been received by a carrier other than a carrier owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to the purchaser.

SEC. 1.5. Prohibitions. Regardless of any contract or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver and no person may buy or receive cured or smoked fish in the course of trade or business at a price higher than the maximum price fixed for such sale by this regulation, and no person shall agree, offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of these things. Prices lower than the maximum prices may be charged and paid.

SEC. 1.6. Enforcement. On and after August 21, 1944, any person violating any provision of this regulation is subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, suits for treble damages and proceedings for revocation of licenses provided by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

SEC. 1.7. Licensing. The provisions of Licensing Order No. 1, licensing all persons who make sales under price control, are applicable to all sellers subject to this regulation. A seller's license may be suspended for violations of the license or of one or more applicable price schedules or regulations. A person whose license is suspended may not, during the period of suspension, make any sale for which his license has been suspended.

SEC. 1.8. Evasion. No person shall evade any of the provisions of this regulation by any scheme or device, and no person covered by this regulation shall indirectly charge or receive for the cured or smoked fish listed in this regulation a price higher than the maximum price permitted by this regulation. No person shall as a condition of selling any cured or smoked fish covered by this regulation require a purchaser to buy any other cured or smoked fish or any other commodity.

SEC. 1.9. Brokers. In accordance with trade custom every broker shall be considered the agent of the seller and not the agent of the buyer. In each case, the amount paid by the buyer to the seller plus any amount paid by the buyer to the broker shall not exceed the seller's maximum price, including allowable transportation costs actually paid by the seller or by the broker. In other words, the seller may not collect from the buyer any more than his maximum price, including allowable transportation costs so paid, less the amount which the buyer pays the broker.

SEC. 1.10. Notification to wholesalers and retailers. With the first delivery after August 21, 1944, of any item of cured or smoked fish covered by this regulation, the processor shall supply each wholesaler and retailer who purchases from him with the following written notice:

NOTICE TO WHOLESALERS AND RETAILERS

Our OPA ceiling price for (describe item) has been changed under the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. . We are authorized to inform you that if you are a wholesaler or retailer pricing this item under Maximum Price Regulation No. 421, 422 or 423, and if we are your customary type of supplier, you must refigure your ceiling price for the item in accordance with the applicable pricing provisions of those regulations (see section 6 in each case). You must refigure your ceiling price on the first delivery of this item to you on and after .

For a period of 90 days after August 21, 1944, and with the first shipment after the 90-day period to each person who has not made a purchase within that time, the processor shall include in each box, carton or case containing the item the written notice set forth above.

SEC. 1.11 Records and reports. (a) Every person making a sale subject to this regulation and every person in the course of trade or business making a purchase of cured or smoked fish subject to this regulation, or otherwise dealing therein, after August 21, 1944, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, accurate records of each such purchase or sale, showing the date thereof, the name and address of the buyer and of the seller, the price contracted for or received for each item of cured or smoked fish sold and the container and wrapping allowance, if any.

(b) Such person shall, subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942, submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration and keep such other records in addition to or in place of the records required in paragraph (a) of this section as the Office of Price Administration may from time to time require.

(c) Every person making a sale of any cured or smoked fish subject to this regulation shall furnish to the purchaser at the time of delivery a written statement setting forth the date; the name and address of the buyer and seller; the price for each item of cured or smoked fish sold, including separate statements of the container and wrapping allowance, if any.

SEC. 1.12 Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration.

SEC. 1.13. Adjustable pricing. Any person may agree to sell at a price which can be increased up to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery; but no person may, unless authorized by the Office of Price Administration, deliver or agree to deliver at prices to be adjusted upward in accordance with action taken by the Office of Price Administration after delivery. Such authorization may be given when a request for a change in the applicable maximum price is pending, but only if the authorization is necessary to promote distribution or production and if it will not interfere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. The authorization may be given by the Administrator or by an official of the Office of Price Administration to whom the authority to grant such authorization has been delegated. The authorization will be given by order.

SEC. 1.14. Authorization to regional offices to fix the transportation allowance. Any regional office of the Office of Price Administration and such other offices as may be authorized by the appropriate regional office may by order determine and fix for any area or locality within its jurisdiction the transportation allowance or "freight rate" which the processor may add in determining his maximum price for any particular species of cured or smoked fish subject to this regulation. The transportation allowance shall be ascertained by reference to the principal source or sources from which the particular species is shipped to the area or locality and the method of transportation generally used. The transportation allowance thus fixed shall be used by all processors in lieu of the transportation allowance or "freight rate" provided in any other section of this regulation in determining their maximum price for the sale, in the area or locality, of the designated species of cured or smoked fish. The transportation allowance may be made effective for such time as the appropriate office finds proper, and may be changed from time to time to reflect changes in the principal sources of designated species of fish or methods of shipment which occur in the regular course of business. In determining the maximum prices for sales of cured or smoked fish in any area or locality for which a transportation allowance is not established, processors shall add the transportation allowance or "freight rate" as provided in the appropriate section of this regulation. Any transportation allowances established pursuant to the provisions of this section shall have the same force and effect as if specifically established in this regulation.

SEC. 1.15 Authorization to regional offices to fix the container allowance. Any regional office of the Office of Price Administration and such other offices as may be authorized by the appropriate regional office may by order determine and fix for any area or locality within its jurisdiction the container allowance, including the allowance for special refrigerant, which the processor may add in determining his maximum price for any particular species of cured or smoked fish subject to this regulation when such cured or smoked fish is shipped by common or contract carrier. The container allowance shall be ascertained by reference to the container costs prevailing in such area or locality for such types of shipment. The container allowance thus fixed shall be used by all processors in lieu of the container allowance provided in any other section of this regulation in determining their maximum price for the sale, in the area or locality, of the designated species of cured or smoked fish. The container allowance may be made effective for such time as the appropriate office finds proper and may be changed from time to time to reflect changes in the prevailing costs for such containers. In determining the maximum prices for sales of cured or smoked fish in any area or locality for which a container allowance is not established, processors shall add the container allowance as provided in the appropriate section of this regulation. Any container allowance established pursuant to the provisions of this section shall have the same force and effect as if specifically established in this regulation.

ARTICLE I—EXPLANATION OF THE REGULATION

SECTION 1.1 Scope of this regulation—(a) Kinds of garments covered. This regulation applies to all items of staple work clothing. "Staple work clothing" means men's and boys' garments of the classifications listed in (1) below which are made of cotton body materials of the constructions listed in (2) below.

(1) Classification of garments.

(i) Bib overalls.
(ii) Overall jackets.
(iii) Waistband overalls or dungarees.
(iv) Work shirts (except shirts made of napped fabrics).
(v) Work pants.
(vi) One-piece work suits.
(vii) Work breeches.

(2) Construction of body materials.

(i) Denims, including striped denims.
(ii) Carded yarn shirting chambrays and coverts.
(iii) Carded yarn pants coverts.
(iv) Jeans, drills, and twills, finished and unfinished.
(v) Cottonades, whipcords and moleskins.
(vi) Carded yarn poplins.
(vii) Ducks, excepting water-repellent.
(viii) Pin checks and pin stripes.
(x) Cheviots.

(b) Kinds of sales covered. This regulation applies to all sales including sales at retail, sales at wholesale and sales by manufacturers. These kinds of sales are defined as follows:

(1) Sales at retail. All sales to individual consumers are "sales at retail." Such sales may, of course, be made by someone who is primarily a wholesaler or a manufacturer.

Sales to industrial, commercial, governmental, and charitable institutions which do not resell are also considered "sales at retail" if made by a person who sells principally to individual consumers, and only incidentally to institutions of these kinds. If not made by such a person, sales to these institutions are considered sales at wholesale or sales by manufacturers.

(2) Sales at wholesale. A sale at wholesale is any sale which is neither a sale at retail as explained in (1) nor a sale by a manufacturer as explained in (3). For example, a sale by a jobber, who buys work clothing from a manufacturer and resells it to a retailer or to an industrial user, is a sale at wholesale. Sales from jobber to jobber, and from retailer to retailer are also sales at wholesale, but are called "special sales", as explained in section 3.3.

(3) Sales by a manufacturer. A sale by a manufacturer is a sale of work clothing by a person:

(i) Who fabricated the clothing sold; or
(ii) Who sold or consigned to the fabricator of the clothing any of the principal materials from which it was made; or
(iii) Whose business is directly or indirectly under the same ownership or control as the person who fabricated the clothing.

(c) Where this regulation applies. This regulation covers sales in the 48 states and the District of Columbia.

ARTICLE II—HOW TO FIND CEILING PRICES FOR SALES BY MANUFACTURERS

SEC. 2.1. Explanation of pricing rules for manufacturers. This section explains how to find ceiling prices for sales by manufacturers of all staple work clothing, except "war models" and "thirty yard minimum boys' bib overalls." Ceiling prices for sales by manufacturers of these latter garments, as well as definitions of such garments, are provided in Appendices D and E which appear at the end of this regulation.

The ceiling price for sales by a manufacturer of a garment of staple work clothing, which is not a "war model" or a "thirty yard minimum boys' bib overall", is found according to the rules given below. There are five rules. In finding the ceiling price for a particular garment, the manufacturer must use the first rule which applies.

Rule 1 explains how a manufacturer finds his ceiling prices for garments which are the "same" as garments shown on a specified price list which he may have issued during or before March 1942. "Same garment" is defined in section 2.2 (b) (2).

Rule 2 is used if the garment is the "same" as one which the seller manufactured during the twelve months preceding April 1, 1942, but cannot be priced under Rule 1.

Rule 3 is used if the garment cannot be priced under Rules 1 or 2 and is the "same" as one priced under Rule 1, except for "replacements" or "curtailments" in body materials.

Rule 4 applies if the garment cannot be priced under any of the above three rules because of unusual dimensions, or substandard quality.

Rule 5. If the garment cannot be priced under any of the above four rules, its ceiling price is a price authorized by the Office of Price Administration, under Rule 5.

However, deliveries by a manufacturer of all garments of staple work clothing (including "war models" and "thirty yard minimum boys' bib overalls") are subject to a special quota rule stated in section 2.7. Thus, after finding the correct ceiling price for each garment, a manufacturer should turn to section 2.7 and follow its provisions.

SEC. 2.2. List prices (Rule 1). The ceiling price for a garment priced under this section is the "base price", determined under paragraph (a) below, plus or minus the amount indicated in Appendix B.

(a) How to find the base price. (1) The "base price" for a garment is the price at which the same garment was offered to a purchaser of the same class on the manufacturer's last issued written price list:

(i) Which was generally circulated among the manufacturer's customers or representatives, during or before March 1942; and

(ii) Pursuant to which the manufacturer delivered one or more garments of the same classification during or before March 1942.

(2) If the manufacturer did not offer the same garment to a purchaser of the same class on the last issued written price list described above, the "base price" is the price at which the same garment was offered to a purchaser of another class on that price list, adjusted to reflect the manufacturer's "average differential" (defined in (b) (3) below) between the two classes of purchasers.

(b) Meaning of terms—(1) "Purchasers of the same class" refers to the practice adopted by the seller in setting different prices for staple work clothing for sales to different purchasers or kinds of purchasers, (for example, wholesaler, retailer, government agency, public institution, or individual consumer), or for purchasers located in different areas, or for different quantities or grades, or under different conditions of sale.

(2) "Same garment." A garment is considered the "same" as another when:

(i) The garment belongs to the same classification (as defined in section 1.1);

(ii) The garment contains body material which is the same with respect to construction, weight and thread count (within the tolerance of the Worth Street Rules), finish (including shrinkage treatment), and color fastness;

(iii) The garment consumes substantially the same average yards per dozen and has substantially the same body dimensions;

(iv) The garment contains trimmings of fairly equivalent serviceability;

(v) The garment is constructed and assembled with the same standards of workmanship and inspection.

Differences in color which ordinarily have not been the basis of differences in price shall be disregarded.

A "simplified model" (defined in Appendix A) of any garment is considered the "same" as such garment before simplification, except when such garment becomes the same (under the above definition) as a lower-priced garment in which the seller dealt during or before March 1942.

(3) "Average differential." The manufacturer's "average differential" to any purchaser is the average difference between the prices charged this purchaser and the prices charged the class of purchaser for whom a base price was determined under paragraph (a) (1) above, on all orders accepted during 1941, on the same material and labor cost basis, for the garment being priced; or if data are not available for that garment, for the most closely comparable garment of the same classification for which data are available. If the differential cannot be determined on orders from this purchaser, it shall be determined on orders from all purchasers of the same class.

SEC. 2.3. "In-line" prices (Rule 2)—(a) When this section applies. The ceiling price for a garment shall be determined under this section only if the garment is the "same" as one which the seller manufactured during the twelve months preceding April 1, 1942, but cannot be priced under Rule 1.

(1) How to find the formula price. To establish the formula price for a garment to a purchaser of any class, the seller shall:

(i) Determine the unit direct cost of the garment being priced. "Unit direct cost" is defined in paragraph (c) below.

(ii) Select from garments of the same classification, for which the base price to a purchaser of the same class can be determined under Rule 1, the one which has a "unit direct cost" immediately higher and the one which has a "unit direct cost" immediately lower than the unit direct cost of the garment being priced. If all such garments are either above or below, the one closest in "unit direct cost" shall be selected, and if any such garment of the same classification has the same "unit direct cost" as the garment being priced it shall be selected in addition to the garments immediately above and below.

(iii) Determine the average percentage markup over unit direct cost included in the base prices of the garments selected.

(iv) Apply to the "unit direct cost" of the garment being priced this average percentage markup.

An example of the calculations under Rule 2 is contained in the report form in paragraph (d) below.

(c) How to compute "unit direct costs." To establish the unit direct cost, a seller shall add costs per unit of materials and direct labor, determined as follows:

(1) Material costs shall be calculated at the maximum net price which the seller could lawfully be charged for such materials if purchased on his customary terms from the source of supply most used by him in purchasing materials of the same type during the six months ending March 31, 1942, under the price schedules and maximum price regulations of the OPA in effect on March 22, 1944, or, if the seller made such a calculation for the garments compared under § 1389.203 (c) (2) of MPR 208[1] before March 22, 1944, then he figures on the basis of the price schedules and maximum price regulations of the OPA in effect at the time when the calculation was made.

(2) Wage rates shall be calculated at the rates paid by the seller on March 31, 1942, plus any increase subsequent thereto made pursuant to a collective bargaining contract or other wage agreement which was entered into on or before April 27, 1942, and which provides for an unconditional increase in wage rates of a fixed amount or percent.

(3) Amounts of labor and material used shall be calculated on the basis of the seller's most recent cost records of the manufacture of each garment during the year preceding April 1, 1942, and labor costs shall be confined to labor used in cutting, sewing, assembling and inspecting the garment.

(4) A "unit" is a dozen articles, or any other number customarily used as a basis for calculating costs and prices.

(d) Report of "in-line" prices. The maximum price for a garment priced under Rule 2 shall be reported to the Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C. (Men's Clothing Section). The report shall contain information in the detail set forth in the example below, and shall be in a form similar to the one provided in the example. This report must be filed as follows:

(1) In the case of garments previously priced and offered for sale in accordance with § 1389.203 (c) of MPR 208, the report shall be filed on or before September 25, 1944.

(2) In the case of any other garment priced under this Rule 2, the report must be filed before the garment is offered for sale.

With respect to any garment priced under this Rule 2, if the report is not filed as required by this paragraph (d), no sale or delivery of the garment may be made until the report is filed.

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

The Office of Price Administration may, at any time, disapprove or revise maximum prices reported under this rule so as to bring them into line with the level of maximum prices otherwise established by this regulation.

Adjustment (from Appendix B):
29 yards at +1.5¢ per yard [1] ..... +0.43½
Ceiling price reported 12.91½

The unit direct costs have been calculated in accordance with section 2.3(c), and the ceiling price has been calculated according to the instructions in section 2.3 (Rule 2), of RMPR 208.

[1] The adjustment of +1.5¢ per yard in this example assumes that the body material was purchased after June 30, 1944, and that the base prices of Lot Nos. 991 and 807 were established pursuant to a price list issued after January 1, 1942. Accordingly, Part 2 of Column A of Table III in Appendix B is applicable.
In all reports under Rule 2, the manufacturer must state, in connection with the computation of the adjustment under Appendix B, the date of purchase of the body material and which table of Appendix B he used in figuring the adjustment.

SEC. 2.4. Replacements and curtailments of body materials (Rule 3)—(a) When this section applies. The ceiling price for a garment shall be determined under this section if the garment cannot be priced under Rules 1 or 2, and is the same as one priced under Rule 1 except for one or both of the following characteristics:

(1) One weight, finish or construction of body material is replaced by another;

(2) The yardage of body material consumed is curtailed in order to comply with War Production Board General Limitation Order L–181 as amended (§ 3204.1),[2] and remains within 2 percent of the maximum yardage permitted by that order.

(b) How to calculate the ceiling price. The ceiling price for a garment priced under this section is the formula price, determined under (1) below, plus or minus the amount indicated in Appendix B.

(1) How to find the formula price. The formula price for a garment is found by taking the base price to a purchaser of the same class, of that garment priced under Rule 1 which is nearest in cost of body materials, and is the "same" except for the replacement or curtailment, and adding (or subtracting if the material cost of the garment being priced is lower) a sum calculated as follows:

(i) Find the difference between the "costs of body materials" in the two garments; and

(ii) Multiply this difference by 105 percent in finding a price for sale to wholesalers and to purchasers of classes who are customarily charged the same price as wholesalers or a lower price; and by 110 percent in calculating a price for sale to purchasers of classes who are customarily charged more than the price to wholesalers.

(2) How to find "cost of body materials". For the purposes of this section, the cost of any body material means the maximum net price which the seller could lawfully be charged for such material if purchased on his customary terms from the source of supply most used by him in purchasing materials of the same type during the six months ending March 31, 1942, under the price schedules and maximum price regulations of the OPA in effect on March 22, 1944, or, if the seller made such a calculation for the garments compared under § 1389.203 (f) of MPR 208 before March 22, 1944, then he figures on the basis of the price schedules and maximum price regulations of the OPA in effect at the time when the calculation was made.

(c) Report of Rule 3 prices. The maximum price for a garment priced under Rule 3 shall be reported to the Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C. (Men's Clothing Section). The report shall contain information in the detail set forth in the example below, and shall be in a form similar to the one provided in the example. This report must be filed as follows:

(1) In the case of garments previously priced and offered for sale in accordance with § 1389.203 (f) of MPR 208, the report shall be filed on or before September 25, 1944.

(2) In the case of any other garment priced under this Rule 3, the report must be filed before the garment is offered for sale.

With respect to any garment priced under this Rule 3, if the report is not filed as required by this paragraph (c), no sale or delivery of the garment may be made until the report is filed.

The Office of Price Administration may, at any time, disapprove or revise maximum prices reported under this rule so as to bring them into line with the level of maximum prices otherwise established by this regulation.

An example of a report under Rule 3 follows. All figures are illustrative only.

REPORT OF MAXIMUM PRICE UNDER RULE 3 OF RMPR 208 (Replacements and Curtailments) for Lot No. 000—Men's Bib Overall.

Name: XYZ Company
Address: 2100 Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois
By: J. A. Jones Title: Treasurer
Date of Report: August 30, 1944

1. Base price of garment under Rule 1 (Lot No. 667)		$17.50
2. Cost of body materials:
(a) Rule 1 garment—8 oz. sanf. denim, 29 inch width, 46 yds. at 22.75¢ per yard	$10.46½
(b) Garment being priced—2.20 sanf. denim, 29 inch width, 46 yards at 21¢ per yd	9.66
	.80½
3. Difference (2 (a)—2 (b))		.84½
4. 105% of difference [1]		16.65½
5. Item 1 minus item 4		−.46
6. Adjustment (from Appendix B) [2]—46 yards at −1¢ per yard		16.19½
7. Ceiling price for Lot No. 000

The costs of body materials have been calculated in accordance with section 2.4 (b) (2), and the ceiling price has been calculated according to the instructions in section 2.4 (Rule 3), of RMPR 208.

[1] This example assumes that a ceiling price for sale to wholesalers is being found.
[2] The adjustment of −1¢ per yard in this example assumes that the manufacturer contracted to sell the garment prior to August 16, 1944, and that the base price of Lot No. 667 was established pursuant to a price list issued after January 1, 1942. Accordingly, Part I of Column A of Table I is applicable.
In all reports under Rule 3, the manufacturer must state, in connection with the computation of the adjustment under Appendix B, the date of purchase of the body material, and which table of Appendix B he used in figuring the adjustment.

SEC. 2.5. Garments of unusual dimensions or substandard quality (Rule 4)—(a) Special size and special order garments. The maximum price of any garment of staple work clothing which cannot be priced under Rules 1, 2, or 3 by reason of its unusual size or dimensions shall be the maximum price of the most closely comparable garment of regular size priced under those rules plus the percentage premiums:

(1) Which the seller customarily obtained for such garments during March 1942; or

(2) If the seller obtained no such premiums, which he customarily demanded for such garments during March 1942; or

(3) If the seller neither obtained nor demanded such premiums, which were customarily demanded during March 1942 by the most closely competitive seller of the same class who did demand such premiums.

(b) Imperfect garments, or seconds. The maximum price of any garment of staple work clothing which cannot be priced under Rules 1, 2, or 3 by reason of its substandard quality in any respect shall be the maximum price of the most closely comparable garment of standard quality priced under those rules less the percentage discount:

(1) Which the seller customarily allowed for such garments during March 1942; or

(2) If the seller allowed no such discounts, which he customarily offered for such garments during March 1942; or

(3) If the seller neither allowed nor offered such discounts, which were customarily offered during March 1942 by the most closely competitive seller of the same class who did offer such discounts.

SEC. 2.6. Maximum prices in other cases (Rule 5). The maximum price of a garment of staple work clothing which cannot be priced under Rules 1, 2, 3, or 4 shall be a price, in line with the level of prices established by this regulation, determined by the Office of Price Administration upon application by the seller. The application shall be filed with the Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C. (Men's Clothing Section). Pending action on such an application, a person must not sell or deliver the garment except in accordance with the provisions of section 5.8 (b) (Adjustable pricing agreements).

SEC. 2.7. Special quota rule on deliveries made by manufacturers—(a) Explanation of the special quota rule. Each manufacturer who delivered staple work clothing at "wholesale prices" (this term is defined in (b) (1) below) in 1941 must, during the remainder of 1944 and during each subsequent calendar year, make at least a certain quota of his deliveries of staple work clothing (including "war models" and "thirty yard minimum boys' bib overalls") at "wholesale prices." This quota is that percentage of his total annual deliveries which is equal to his "wholesale percentage" (found under paragraph (b) below).

Example. X, a manufacturer of overalls, has a "wholesale percentage" of 40%, and he expects to deliver 300,000 dozen garments of staple work clothing during the remainder of 1944. Accordingly, during this period, at least 120,000 dozen garments (40% of 300,000—120,000) must be delivered at "wholesale prices." 180,000 dozen garments or less may be delivered at other than "wholesale prices."

If, at the end of a year, a manufacturer fails to meet his quota, he has exceeded his ceiling prices to the extent of the deficiency, and will be liable to civil and criminal penalties accordingly.

(b) How a manufacturer finds his "wholesale percentage"—(1) Definitions of "wholesale percentage" and "wholesale price." A manufacturer's "wholesale percentage" is the percent of his 1941 deliveries of staple work clothing which was made at "wholesale prices."

A "wholesale price", for the purposes of determining a wholesale percentage, means any price at or below which a manufacturer, during 1941, normally supplied wholesalers, or any other large volume purchaser (e. g., chain stores and mail order houses) commonly known or regarded as "wholesale trade." For the purposes of complying with the special quota rule described above, a "wholesale price" means any price provided under this regulation for sales by a particular manufacturer to wholesalers or any other large volume purchaser commonly known or regarded as "wholesale trade." In determining whether certain sales were made at "wholesale prices," allowance must be made for differences in garments sold.

Example. During 1941, V, a work clothing manufacturer, sold a number to jobbers for $10.00 a dozen. He also sold to a chain store for $10.25 a dozen, a number which was similar except for an extra feature that was worth 25¢ a dozen.

Both the $10.00 and the $10.25 sales would be considered sales at wholesale prices.

(i) Find the number of dozens of staple work clothing garments covered by this regulation delivered to all purchasers in 1941.

(ii) Find the number of these which were delivered at wholesale prices in 1941.

(iii) Divide the number delivered at wholesale prices by the total of all deliveries (divide (ii) by (i)). The resulting figure, expressed as a percent, is the manufacturer's "wholesale percentage."

Example 1. P, a work clothing manufacturer, delivered 10,000 dozen garments of staple work clothing in 1941. All these were delivered at prices generally charged to independent retailers, and none at "wholesale prices."

P's "wholesale percentage" is zero.

Example 2. R, a work clothing manufacturer, delivered 100,000 dozen garments of staple work clothing in 1941. All these deliveries were made to volume purchasers including jobbers, chain stores and industrial users and none were delivered at higher prices.

R's "wholesale percentage" is 100%.

Example 3. S, a work clothing manufacturer, delivered 50,000 dozen garments of staple work clothing in 1941. 20,000 of these were delivered to his volume trade at "wholesale prices," and 30,000 to independent retailers at higher prices.

S's "wholesale percentage" is 40% (20,000+50,000).

(c) How a manufacturer uses his "wholesale percentage"—(1) What deliveries are counted. In figuring the quota of deliveries which must be made at wholesale prices in 1944, the manufacturer takes all deliveries from August 26, 1944 to December 31, 1944, inclusive. In any subsequent year, all deliveries for the entire calendar year will be included.

Example. In 1941 the ABC Company sold 70% of its staple work clothing at "wholesale prices" and 30% at higher prices. Its "wholesale percentage" is 70%. From August 26, 1944, to December 31, 1944, its anticipated deliveries of work clothing are 250,000 dozen.

The ABC Company will determine its obligation as follows:

	Dozen
Anticipated deliveries	250,000
Quota to be delivered at wholesale prices (70% of 250,000)	175,000
Remainder which may be sold at other than wholesale prices	75,000

For convenience in meeting the quota of deliveries which must be made at wholesale prices, it is suggested that a manufacturer keep a current record of deliveries made after August 25, 1944, in this form:

Date	Number of dozens delivered at wholesale prices	Number of dozens delivered at other than wholesale prices	Total number of dozens delivered

At periodic intervals (e. g., at the end of each month), the manufacturer should total deliveries made at wholesale prices and all deliveries. He should then divide the former total by the latter. If the proportion of deliveries at wholesale prices is below his wholesale percentage, it would be advisable for him to ship only at wholesale prices until the proportion of deliveries at these prices equals the wholesale percentage. The procedure should be repeated for subsequent periods, until the end of the year.

(2) Calculating and filing the "wholesale percentage." Every manufacturer of staple work clothing, whose "wholesale percentage" is less than 100%, must keep available for inspection by the Office of Price Administration the records and the tabulation or work sheets which he used in figuring his "wholesale percentage". Every manufacturer is also required to file a statement of his wholesale percentage, as provided in section 5.2 (b) (1) (ii).

(d) Inability to calculate a wholesale percentage. Any manufacturer who sells staple work clothing but did not do so in 1941, or who, because of inadequate records, is unable to determine a wholesale percentage, must apply to the Office of Price Administration, (Men's Clothing Section), Washington 25, D. C., for the authorization of a "wholesale percentage." The application must set forth: (1) The manufacturer's name and address; (2) the date when he commenced business; and (3) the total number of dozens of staple work clothing delivered to each class of purchaser during the most recent 12 months of business, or, if the manufacturer does not have one year's experience, during such other portion of time as he has been in business. Until this authorization is granted, the manufacturer must make all deliveries at or below wholesale prices.

ARTICLE III—HOW TO FIND CEILING PRICES FOR SALES AT WHOLESALE

SEC. 3.1. Explanation of pricing rules for sales at wholesale. Under this regulation, there are two kinds of sales at wholesale, "regular sales" and "special sales". "Regular sales" are explained in section 3.2, while "special sales" are explained in section 3.3. Different methods of pricing are provided for these two kinds of sales.

SEC. 3.2. Regular sales—(a) What is a regular sale. A "regular sale" is a sale by a wholesaler to a person who sells principally at retail or is an industrial user, and whose business is not under the same ownership and control as the seller's.

A "wholesaler" is a person or business organization to which all the following statements apply:

(1) It sells goods to retailers in general, and not primarily to a single retailer or to a group of retailers which are under common ownership.

(2) It buys and sells goods in "wholesale quantities" as understood in the trade, and sells through traveling salesmen or circulated price lists or catalogs.

(3) It carries at all times at its principal place of business a representative stock of staple work clothing and makes at least 50% of its staple work clothing deliveries from stock (as opposed to drop shipments).

(4) It is not, directly or indirectly, under the same ownership or control as the person who fabricates the work clothing it sells.

(5) It extends credit, and carries its own accounts. It may, of course, entrust or assign its delinquent accounts to others for collection.

(6) It is not (i) a buying office or other agency representing retailers, (ii) a stock-carrying affiliate of retailers, (iii) a central office or warehouse for stores which are commonly owned or controlled, (iv) a drop shipper, (v) a broker, (vi) a commission-merchant, (vii) a selling-agent or (viii) a job-lot dealer.

A person who wishes to qualify as a "wholesaler" but was not such a wholesaler in 1941, must, before making any sales at ceilings for regular sales at wholesale, send a statement by registered mail to the Office of Price Administration (Men's Clothing Section), Washington 25, D. C. The statement must give the "wholesaler's" name and address, and the date on which he commenced business as a wholesaler.

(b) Where to find ceiling prices for "regular sales." Ceiling prices for "regular sales" of "war models" and "thirty yard minimum boys' bib overalls" are provided in Appendix D (section 6.3) and Appendix E (section 7.2) respectively.

Ceiling prices for "regular sales" of staple work clothing, except "war models" and "thirty yard minimum boys' bib overalls", are provided in column (2) of the tables in Appendix C. There are four tables of prices in Appendix C—a separate table for each of the enumerated different types of garments. The wholesale ceiling prices in each table are arranged according to each different supplier's net selling price, rather than according to particular garment specifications.

Before using these tables, the wholesaler must determine: (1) The type of garment which he is pricing, and (2) his supplier's net selling price for that garment. The supplier's net selling price can be found from the wholesale ceiling price list which, under section 5.1 (c), each supplier is required to furnish his buyer at the time garments are delivered. The wholesaler should then refer to the appropriate table in Appendix C, and follow down column (1), which contains a list of suppliers' net selling prices, until he comes to the bracket of prices which includes his supplier's net selling price for the garment being priced. The price in column (2) parallel to this bracket is the wholesaler's ceiling price for the garment being priced.

SEC. 3.3. "Special sales". Sales at wholesale which are not "regular sales," as explained in section 3.2, are "special sales." They include (but are not confined to) sales by wholesalers to wholesalers, sales by retailers to retailers, and all sales by brokers, commission merchants, job-lot dealers, and like persons.

Example 1: G, a large retailer, buys a dozen bib overalls from a manufacturer at $16.00 per dozen, the manufacturer's ceiling price, and pays 50¢ per dozen for freight. He now wants to resell them to H, a second retailer.

G's ceiling price for this sale is $16.50 per dozen (or $1.37½ per garment), his cost plus freight.

Example 2: L, a wholesaler, buys a dozen dungarees from a manufacturer at $11.80 per dozen, the manufacturer's ceiling price. L now liquidates and resells the garments to auctioneer M for $11.50 per dozen. Now M wants to resell the garments to another wholesaler.

In figuring his price for this second special sale, M finds his ceiling by taking the net selling price of L, which is $11.80, and adds freight paid by him. If M pays 50¢ for freight, M's ceiling is $12.30.

(b) Disclosure in special sales. In any special sale, the seller must mark the bill or invoice with the words "special sale," and must disclose any information required by the provisions of section 5.2 (a) (1).

ARTICLE IV—HOW TO FIND CEILING PRICES FOR SALES AT RETAIL

SEC. 4.1. Explanation of pricing rules for retailers. Ceiling prices for sales at retail of "war models" and "thirty yard minimum boys' bib overalls" are provided in Appendix D (section 6.2) and Appendix E (section 7.2) respectively.

Ceiling prices for sales at retail of staple work clothing (except "war models" and "thirty yard minimum boys' bib overalls") are found as follows. In most cases a retailer will find his ceiling prices by following the instructions in section 4.3. In some cases a retailer must price under section 4.4. In order to find which section applies a retailer should use the following steps:

Step 1. A retail seller must first determine whether he is a Group I or a Group II retail seller, according to the instructions given in section 4.2 (a) below.

Step 2. Next, the seller must determine the type of garment which he is pricing (i. e., whether it is a bib overall or a chambray, covert, or sheeting work shirt, etc.).

Step 3. Thirdly, the seller must find his supplier's net selling price for the garment, according to the instructions given in section 4.2 (b) below.

Step 4. If the seller has previously determined a maximum price for the "same" garment under the General Maximum Price Regulation, the seller must then:

(i) Find the difference between his GMPR ceiling price and his supplier's net selling price for that garment;

(ii) Figure his markup on selling price for that garment by dividing the difference found in (i) by the GMPR ceiling price;

(iii) If the resultant percentage markup is equal to, or below, the markup listed in the table below for garments of the same type sold by the group to which the seller belongs, the seller shall find his retail ceiling price for the garment under section 4.4.

(iv) If the resultant percentage markup is above the appropriate markup indicated in the table, the seller shall proceed to Step 5.

Type of Garment	Percent markup for group I retail seller	Percent markup for group II retail seller
All chambray, covert, cheviot and sheeting work shirts	22	24.5
Other work shirts and work pants (sold separately or as matched sets), work breeches, and one-piece work suits	24.5	27
Bib overalls and overall jackets	12.5	19.5
Waistband overalls (dungarees)	16	23.5

Example 1. A Group II retail seller desires to find his ceiling price for a men's bib overall. His supplier's net selling price for the garment is $19.56 per dozen, or $1.63 per garment. The retailer also finds that he had a ceiling price for this garment under the GMPR of $1.98 per garment. The difference between his GMPR ceiling price and his supplier's net selling price, therefore, is 35¢, and his markup on selling price is figured by dividing 35¢ by $1.98. The result is 17.7%.

In the table above, the markup for bib overalls for Group II retail sellers is 19.5%. Accordingly, since the resultant markup of 17.7% is below the appropriate markup in the table, this retailer must figure his retail ceiling price for the overall under section 4.4.

Example 2. If the retailer in example 1 had a GMPR ceiling price for this overall of $2.25, his markup on selling price would be 27.5% (the difference, 62¢, divided by the GMPR ceiling price.) Accordingly, since the resultant markup of 27.5% is higher than the appropriate markup in the table (19.5%), he proceeds to step 5 below.

Step 5. If a ceiling price for the garment being priced has not previously been determined under the GMPR, or if the percentage found in Step 4 is above the appropriate percentage indicated in the table, the seller shall find his retail ceiling price for the garment according to the instructions in section 4.3.

NOTE: If the garment is bought at a "special sale," the retail seller should disregard the above steps and price it under section 4.5 below.

SEC. 4.2. Definitions which a retail seller must know in order to price—(a) Groups of retail sellers—(1) Group I retail seller. Any one who deals in staple work clothing at retail is a "Group I retail seller" if he is described by any one of the following subdivisions:

(i) In either 1941, 1942 or 1943, he made annual sales of staple work clothing (as defined in section 1.1) totaling $250,000.00 or more. For example, a retail seller which sold $50,000.00 worth of work clothing in 1941, $150,000.00 in 1942 and $300,000.00 in 1943, is a "Group I retail seller."

(ii) In either 1941, 1942, or 1943, he bought more than half of his supply of staple work clothing from manufacturers who regularly supplied wholesalers

(whether or not they also supplied other classes of trade), and paid prices no higher than those manufacturers' prevailing prices to wholesalers. For example, a mail order house would be a "Group I retail seller" if in 1941 it bought 55% of its work clothing from a manufacturer who had regular wholesale and mail order customers and charged mail order houses no more than the wholesalers. In comparing prices, allowance is to be made for differences in specifications.

(iii) In either 1941, 1942 or 1943, he purchased more than one-fourth of the total production of staple work clothing of a single manufacturer. For example, a chain of stores, which does not qualify under (i) above, might have purchased its work clothing from a manufacturer who did not regularly deal with wholesalers, so that subdivision (ii) would not apply either. Yet, if the chain in any one of those years, bought more than one-fourth of the manufacturer's entire production, it would be a "Group I retail seller."

(2) Group II retail sellers. Every person who deals in staple work clothing at retail and who is not a "Group I retail seller", as defined above, is a "Group II retail seller." This group includes most independent retailers. For example, a retailer with one store, who sold approximately $5,000.00 worth of staple work clothing in 1941, 1942 and 1943, and bought most of his supplies from jobbers, would be a "Group II retail seller."

(3) Meaning of seller. A "seller" includes all the departments or selling establishments in a group which is under common ownership or control.

(b) Supplier's net selling price—(1) Supplier's price list. Section 5.1 requires that a supplier furnish each customer with a price list which shows for each garment supplied: (i) the lot number; (ii) a detailed description; (iii) the supplier's net selling price; (iv) the retail ceiling price. Thus, except in cases explained in (2), (3) and (4) below, a retailer can find his supplier's net selling price for a garment by merely consulting this price list.

(2) Purchase of identical lot number from manufacturer and wholesaler. If a retailer buys the same garment of staple work clothing with the identical manufacturer's lot number from a wholesaler and also from the manufacturer, he must take the manufacturer's net selling price, not the wholesaler's price, to figure his retail ceiling price for this number.

Example. B, a Group II retail seller, buys bib overalls of lot number 963, manufactured by the X company, from a wholesaler for $21.80 per dozen, which is the wholesaler's net selling price. Later he buys more overalls of lot number 963 direct from the manufacturer, who charges him $18.00 per dozen, the manufacturer's net selling price.

In figuring his retail ceiling for overalls of this lot number, B takes $18.00 as his supplier's net selling price, and finds $2.00 per garment as his ceiling price for this lot number.

(3) Purchase by Group I retail seller of identical lot number from different manufacturers. If a Group I retail seller purchases the same garment with the identical lot number from different manufacturers at different prices, instead of figuring a different ceiling price for each different supplier's net selling price, he may at his option figure his retail ceiling price on the basis of the average of his different suppliers' net selling prices for this garment according to the instructions set forth in Appendix F.

If a Group I retail seller finds his "average supplier's price" for a garment, he must (except as indicated in Appendix F) keep that price in figuring his retail ceiling price for all future sales of that garment. However, if a seller is unable to figure his "average supplier's price" for a garment, either because there were no deliveries of this garment during the period January 1, 1944 to June 30, 1944, or because his records are incomplete and the calculation described in Appendix F cannot be made, he must figure a different retail ceiling price for each different supplier's net selling price for the garment. Moreover, if the garment being priced is made from sheeting or cheviot body materials, the seller may not figure his average supplier's price for the garment, but must figure a different retail ceiling price for each different supplier's net selling price.

Every Group I retail seller who has figured a retail ceiling price on the basis of his "average supplier's price" must keep and make available for examination by the Office of Price Administration a record of the computation of that price, together with all invoices or other records upon which such computation was based.

(4) Where retail sale is made by manufacturer. Where a sale at retail is made by a manufacturer, the retail ceiling is found from Column (3) of the tables in Appendix C (Sales at retail by Group I retail sellers). But since the manufacturer has no "supplier", he takes his lowest ceiling for these garments and uses this as his "supplier's net selling price."

SEC. 4.3. How to find retail ceiling prices from the tables in Appendix C. Except as provided in section 4.1 (step 4), ceiling prices for sales at retail of staple work clothing (other than "war models" and "thirty yard minimum boys' bib overalls") are provided in columns (3) and (4) of the tables in Appendix C. There are four tables of prices in Appendix C—a separate table for each of the enumerated different types of garments. As indicated, each table has two sets of ceiling prices for sales at retail; one (column (3)) for Group I retail sellers, and the other (column (4)) for Group II retail sellers (these terms are defined in section 4.2). Moreover, the retail ceiling prices in each table are arranged according to each different supplier's net selling price, rather than according to particular garment specifications. For example, column (3) of Table I shows the retail ceiling price for Group I sellers which corresponds to each different supplier's net selling price for chambray, covert, cheviot and sheeting work shirts.

Accordingly, the retail seller, after following steps 1, 2, and 3, outlined in section 4.1, should then refer to the appropriate table in Appendix C, and follow down column (1), which contains a list of supplier's net selling prices, until he comes to the bracket of prices which includes the net selling price of the garment being priced. The price in column (3) or (4) (depending on whether the seller belongs to Group I or Group II) parallel to this bracket is the retail seller's ceiling price for the garment being priced.

SEC. 4.4. How to find retail ceiling prices in other cases. If, under Step 4 in section 4.1, the retail seller has found that the percentage markup, between his supplier's net selling price for the garment being priced and the ceiling price established under the GMPR for the same garment, is equal to, or below, the appropriate percentage indicated in the table in section 4.1, the retail ceiling price for that garment must be calculated to provide a percentage markup on selling price equal to the appropriate markup specified in the table. The price is calculated as follows:

(a) Subtract from 100% the percentage indicated in the table for garments of the same type as the garment being priced, sold by the group to which the seller belongs.

(b) Divide the result into the supplier's net selling price for the garment (already found by Step 3 in section 4.1).

Example. A Group II retail seller desires to find his ceiling price for a men's bib overall. His supplier's net selling price for the garment is $19.56 per dozen. The retailer also finds that he had a ceiling price under the GMPR for this garment of $1.98 per garment. That ceiling price provides, over the supplier's net selling price of $1.63 ($19.56 per dozen÷12=$1.63 per garment), a markup of 35¢, or 17.7% on selling price (.35÷1.98=17.7%).

The table in section 4.1 shows for bib overalls a percentage markup for Group II retail sellers of 19.5%. Since 17.7% is below 19.5%, this retailer must price this overall under section 4.4 and use a markup of 19.5% in calculating his ceiling price for this garment.

Accordingly, he calculates the price by subtracting the margin of 19.5% from 100%, which gives 80.5%, and divides the supplier's net selling price of $1.63 by 80.5%. The result, $2.02, is the retailer's ceiling price for this garment.

SEC. 4.5. Where garments are bought at a "special sale." If the retailer buys a garment at a "special sale," he does not figure his ceiling price by taking the price of his own supplier. Instead, he takes the net selling price (not to exceed the ceiling price) of the supplier of the person who made the "special sale." (The difference between a "regular sale" and a "special sale" is explained in sections 3.2 and 3.3). If a succession of special sales has been made he takes the net selling price of the supplier of the person who made the first of these special sales. Thus, the retail ceiling price of a garment is the same as if the retailer had bought directly from the original supplier, without any special sale intervening.

Example 1. C, a retail chain, buys one dozen dungarees from a manufacturer at $10.00 per dozen, which is the manufacturer's ceiling price. C sells them to D, a Group I retail seller, at $10.35 (which is equal to C's cost plus freight actually paid by him).

In figuring his retail ceiling, D assumes his supplier's net selling price to be $10.00 (the net selling price of C's supplier) not $10.35 (the price D actually paid). Consequently, D's retail ceiling is $1.04 per garment, the price in Table IV for Group I retail sellers.

Example 3. E, an independent retailer, buys chambray work shirts from a jobber at $11.00 a dozen (the jobber's ceiling). He decides to liquidate and sells them to an auctioneer for $10.00 a dozen. The auctioneer resells them to F, a Group II retail seller, for $11.25 (this being the price paid by E, plus transportation charges incurred by the auctioneer).

In figuring his retail ceiling, F takes $11.00 as his supplier's net selling price, so that his retail ceiling is $1.33 (not $1.36 based on $11.25).

ARTICLE V—GENERAL PROVISIONS

SEC. 5.1. Marking of garments and ceiling price lists. This section explains the marking and ceiling price lists which must be furnished in connection with sales of all garments of staple work clothing except "war models" and "thirty yard minimum boys' bib overalls". The marking and informational requirements for sales of these latter garments are provided in Appendix D (section 6.5) and Appendix E (section 7.4) respectively.

(a) Marking required at retail. On and after October 16, 1944, every person is forbidden to sell or offer to sell at retail or display in a retail store any garment of staple work clothing which is not marked as required by this section. The marking must contain the following elements:

(1) The manufacturer's lot number or brand name for the garment.

(2) The retail ceiling price.

(3) Defects (if any).

(b) Ceiling price lists required from wholesalers. Every person who sells staple work clothing at wholesale must supply each purchaser for sale at retail with a list of retail ceiling prices for the garments supplied him, on or after August 16, 1944, as well as those supplied since June 15, 1944. This list must be forwarded by the wholesaler not later than the first invoicing or billing of any garment, or before September 8, 1944 (whichever is later). The wholesaler must keep this list up to date thereafter by sending supplemental lists to each retailer at the time of shipment of any new garments subsequently sold or by sending corrected lists if the wholesaler's net selling price is changed. The list must be in substantially the following form:

RETAIL CEILING PRICE LIST AS REQUIRED BY THE OFFICE OF PRICE ADMINISTRATION

(Group II Retail Ceiling Prices for Staple Work Clothing Bought From A B C Company, Wholesale Distributors)

Manufacturer's lot No. or brand name	Description of garment	Wholesaler's net selling price (per dozen)	Group II retail ceiling price (per garment)[1]
101	Men's 8 oz. denim bib overall, sanforized.	$12.41	$2.15
207	Boys' 2.85 jean work shirt sanforized.	14.29	1.82
XYZ Brand	Men's 3.90 chambray shirt sanforized.	11.04	1.33

NOTICE: OPA requires that each garment must be marked with the retail ceiling price. A garment must not be sold above the ceiling price, but may be sold for less. This list must be promptly displayed to any person on request during regular business hours.

The retail ceiling prices indicated in the list are those provided in the tables in Appendix C of RMPR 208. However, under that regulation, you may be required to sell at a lower price on the basis of the procedure outlined in section 4.4. Accordingly, you should ascertain whether section 4.4 of RMPR 208 is applicable to your case before selling at the prices indicated on this list.

Copies of RMPR 208 can be obtained from your nearest OPA office.

[1] The retail ceiling price indicated in this column must be the ceiling price listed in the appropriate table in Appendix C, based on the wholesaler's net selling price, and must reflect the differentials, if any, allowed for shipments between the "East and Central" and the "Mountain and Pacific" regions.

If a wholesaler so desires, he may list two columns of retail ceiling prices, one each for the two geographical regions, and indicate in the heading to each column the area in which the prices listed in each column apply.

(c) Marking and ceiling price lists required from manufacturers. On and after August 26, 1944, every manufacturer is forbidden to deliver a garment of staple work clothing unless the garment is marked with the manufacturer's lot number or brand name and a statement of defects (if any). If the garment has been simplified as provided in Appendix A, the lot number shall be the number used during or before March 1942, prefixed by the symbol "–S–". No person shall use on any garment a lot number which he used in March 1942 for a different garment.

In addition, each manufacturer who sells staple work clothing must supply each wholesaler and retail purchaser with a list of wholesale or retail ceiling prices, as the case may be, for the garments supplied him on or after August 26, 1944, as well as those supplied since May 15, 1944. This list must be forwarded by the manufacturer not later than the first invoicing or billing of any garment, or before September 2, 1944 (to wholesalers) and before September 6, 1944 (to retailers) (whichever is later). The manufacturer must keep this list up to date thereafter by sending supplemental lists to each customer at the time of shipment of any new garments subsequently sold to him, or by sending corrected lists if the manufacturer's net selling price is changed. The list to be sent to retailers must be in substantially the form suggested in (1) below, while that to be sent to wholesalers should follow the form suggested in (2) below.

(1) Form of retail ceiling price list to be furnished by the manufacturer.

GROUP I RETAIL CEILING PRICE LIST[1] AS REQUIRED BY THE OFFICE OF PRICE ADMINISTRATION

(Group I Retail Ceiling Prices for XYZ Company Staple Work Clothing)

The following list enumerates the garments of staple work clothing (other than "war models" and "thirty yard minimum boys' bib overalls") which we have shipped to you, and indicates your retail ceiling price based on our net selling price listed in column (c). However, if you are using the "average supplier's price" provision of section 4.2 (b) (3) of RMPR 208, disregard the retail ceiling prices on this list, and determine your ceiling prices by use of the tables provided in Appendix C of RMPR 208, according to the instructions contained in section 4.2 (b) (3).[2]

(a) Manufacturer's lot No. or brand name	(b) Description of garment	(c) Manufacturer's net selling price (per dozen)	(d) Group I retail ceiling price (per garment)[3]
S1072	Men's 3.90 chambray shirt, sanforized	$8.54	$0.98
S1075	Men's 3.90 covert shirt, sanforized	8.87½	1.03

NOTICE: OPA requires that each garment must be marked with the retail ceiling price. A garment must not be sold above the ceiling price, but may be sold for less. This list must be promptly displayed to any person on request during regular business hours.

The retail ceiling prices indicated in the list are those provided in the tables in Appendix C of RMPR 208. However, under that regulation, you may be required to sell at a lower price on the basis of the procedure outlined in section 4.4 of RMPR 208. Accordingly, you should ascertain whether section 4.4 of RMPR 208 is applicable to your case before selling at the prices indicated on this list.

[1] In appropriate cases, the list would be entitled "Group II Retail Ceiling Price List."

[2] This sentence concerning "average supplier's price" should be omitted from "Group II Retail Ceiling Price Lists."

[3] The retail ceiling price indicated in this column must be the ceiling price listed in the appropriate table in Appendix C on the basis of the manufacturer's net selling price, and must reflect the differentials allowed for shipments between the "East and Central" and the "Mountain and Pacific" regions. Manufacturer's net selling price (supplier's net selling price) is defined in Instruction 3 to the tables in Appendix C; "East and Central" and "Mountain and Pacific" are defined in Instruction 4 to the tables.

If a manufacturer so desires, he may list two columns of retail ceiling prices, one each for the two geographical regions, and indicate in the heading to each column the area for which the prices in each column apply.

(2) Form of wholesale ceiling price list to be furnished by the manufacturer.

WHOLESALE CEILING PRICE LIST AS REQUIRED BY THE OFFICE OF PRICE ADMINISTRATION

(Wholesale Ceiling Prices for XYZ Company Staple Work Clothing)

The following list enumerates the work clothing which we have shipped to you, and indicates in column (d) your ceiling price for regular sales at wholesale of each garment.[1] In addition, column (e) indicates the Group II retail price for these garments in those cases in which your net selling price to the Group II retail seller is the same as your ceiling price for the particular garment.

You are required, under RMPR 208, to furnish each of your retail customers with a "retail ceiling price list", similar to the one described in section 5.1 (b) of RMPR 208. If your net selling price to a retailer is less than your ceiling price listed below for a particular garment, you must determine from the tables in Appendix C of the regulation the correct retail ceiling price and enter that price on the list which you supply the retailer.

(a) Mfr's lot No. or brand name	(b) Description of garment	(c) Mfr's net selling price (per dozen)	(d) Ceiling price for sales at wholesale[2] (per dozen)	(e) Group II retail ceiling price if sold at wholesale ceiling price (per garment)
602	Boys' 3.20 denim bib overall, mill finish	$9.92	$12.00	$1.33
–S–1072	Men's 3.90 chambray shirt, sanforized	9.90	12.20	1.48
S Brand	Men's 2.80 drill work pants, mill finish	10.73	13.20	1.67

NOTICE: A garment must not be sold above the ceiling price, but may be sold for less. This list must be promptly displayed to any person on request during regular business hours.

[1] Manufacturers may, if they desire, list their entire line of garments, and should indicate in the first sentence that the list constitutes their entire line.

[2] The wholesale ceiling price indicated in this column must be the ceiling price listed in the appropriate table in Appendix C, on the basis of the manufacturer's net selling price, and must reflect the differentials allowed for shipments between the "East and Central" and the "Mountain and Pacific" regions. Manufacturer's net selling price (supplier's net selling price) is defined in Instruction 3 to the tables in Appendix C; "East and Central" and "Mountain and Pacific" are defined in Instruction 4 to the tables.

If a manufacturer so desires, he may list two columns of wholesale ceiling prices, one each for the two geographical regions, and indicate in the heading to each column the area for which the prices in each column apply.

(d) Elements of marking. The elements required to be marked are explained in this paragraph.

(1) Lot number or brand name. The lot number or brand name must be different for each garment having a different manufacturer's ceiling price.

(2) The retail ceiling price. This must be the correct ceiling price for the circumstances in which the garment is offered for sale at retail.

(3) Defects, if any. If the garment is a "second" or imperfect, it must be so marked.

(e) Manner of marking. The required markings must be attached to each garment. The required marking must be attached by stitching, adhesive, pins or staples, except where some other method is authorized. The required markings may be in one or more parts, and may be accompanied by other information, but all portions must be clearly visible to the purchaser.

EXAMPLE OF MARKING

Retail ceiling $1.17

(f) Exemption from marking. In the case of sales at retail of garments of staple work clothing, which are based on orders received by mail pursuant to a mail order catalog, the retail seller need not mark each garment, as required by section 5.1 (a) if he forwards with the garment a sales memorandum stating the retail purchase price (not exceeding the ceiling price), and the identity of the garment.

SEC. 5.2. Informational requirements. (a) Disclosure.—(1) Information for pricing. Any person who has sold for resale any staple work clothing may be required to supply any purchaser with any information needed by him for the marking or pricing of the garments. This information must be furnished in writing promptly upon receipt of a written request from the buyer.

(2) Sales slips and receipts. Any seller who has customarily given a purchaser a sales slip, receipt or similar evidence of purchase must continue to do so. Upon request from a purchaser any seller, regardless of previous custom, must give the purchaser a receipt showing the date, the name and address of the seller, the lot number of the garment or other description (e. g., men's 8 oz. denim bib overall, sanforized), and the price received for it.

(3) Wholesale and retail ceiling price lists. Any retailer who has received from his supplier a "retail ceiling price list," must display the list promptly to any person who requests to see it during regular business hours. If the seller operates more than one department or selling establishment, a copy of the list must be made available in each separate unit where staple work clothing is sold.

(4) Invoices. Every manufacturer selling staple work clothing and every person selling staple work clothing at wholesale must give the purchaser an invoice showing: (i) the date; (ii) the manufacturer's lot number or brand name for each different garment sold; (iii) the quantity sold, and the selling price, of each different lot number or brand name; and (iv) the terms of sale (e. g., net 30 days, f. o. b. factory).

(5) Disclosure by purchasers for resale. Every person who buys or offers to buy staple work clothing for resale may be requested by the seller to furnish a signed statement showing the group of seller to which he belongs. Within ten days after receiving such a request in writing, the buyer must supply the seller with this statement.

(b) Records and reports.—(1) Manufacturers. (i) Manufacturers who have priced garments under Rules 2 or 3 must report the calculation of the maximum prices in accordance with the instructions set forth in those rules, and must retain a copy of each report.

(ii) Every manufacturer whose wholesale percentage is less than 100% must keep the records and work sheets from which he figured his "wholesale percentage" as provided in section 2.7 (b). These records must include a list showing: (a) each lot number of staple work clothing covered by this regulation delivered during 1941; (b) a description of each such number (e. g., men's 3.90 chambray work shirt, sanforized); (c) each class of purchaser (e. g., jobbers, chain stores, mail order houses, independent retailers, industrial users) to which each number was delivered; (d) the quantity (in dozens) delivered to each class of purchaser; and (e) the prices at which delivery was made to each class of purchaser. The records required by this subdivision must be prepared on or before September 25, 1944, and thereafter must be kept and made available on request to the OPA. Further, the manufacturer must file with the office of Price Administration (Men's Clothing Section), Washington 25, D. C., on or before September 25, 1944, a statement showing the total number of dozens of staple work clothing delivered by him in 1941, and the number delivered at wholesale prices.

(iii) In addition, every manufacturer is subject to the information and record requirements of § 1389.210 (a) and (b) of MPR 208.

(2) Retailers. (i) Every retailer shall keep and make available on request to the OPA all records relating to ceiling prices established for staple work clothing, required by the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(ii) Every Group I retail seller who has figured a retail ceiling price on the basis of his average supplier's price under section 4.2 (b) (3) must keep and make available on request to the OPA the record described in that section.

(3) All sellers. Every person selling staple work clothing shall keep and make available on request to the OPA, a copy of each invoice delivered or received pursuant to section 5.2 (a) (4).

SEC. 5.3. When taxes may be added. If a statute or ordinance imposes a tax upon a particular sale or delivery (such as a sales tax, gross proceeds or gross receipts tax or compensating use tax) and permits such tax to be stated separately from the selling price, the seller may collect such tax in addition to the maximum price under this regulation, provided that he states the amount of the tax separately. However, this provision does not apply to any tax imposed on a prior sale or delivery of the same article.

SEC. 5.4. Transfer of business or stock in trade. If the business, assets or stock in trade of any seller of staple work clothing have been or shall be transferred on or after April 28, 1942, and the transferee shall carry on the business, or continue to deal in staple work clothing, in an establishment separate from any other establishment previously owned or operated by him, the maximum prices of the transferee shall be the same as those to which his transferor would have been subject if no such transfer had taken place, and his obligations to keep, make available, prepare and file records shall be the same. The transferor shall either prepare and make available or turn over to the transferee all records of transactions prior to the transfer which are necessary to enable the transferee to comply with the record provisions of this regulation.

SEC. 5.5. Excessive prices forbidden. On and after the effective date of this regulation, the following practices are forbidden regardless of any contract or other obligation:

(a) Charging more than ceiling price. Every person is forbidden to sell or deliver any staple work clothing at a price higher than the ceiling price set by this regulation. A lower price may, of course, be charged.

(b) Buying for more than the ceiling price. Every person is forbidden to buy or receive any staple work clothing, in the course of trade or business, at a price higher than the price set by this regulation.

(c) Combination sales. Every person is forbidden to require any purchaser to buy or agree to buy any other article, service, package or wrapper, in connection with the sale or delivery of any staple work clothing. But any seller may refuse to sell less than a minimum quantity of any one style number, if this minimum has been customary for the seller.

(d) Indirect price increases. Every person is forbidden to do any other act which directly or indirectly increases above the ceiling price the consideration paid by the purchaser for any staple work clothing. Any practice which is a device to secure the effect of a higher than ceiling price is as much a violation as outright raising of the ceiling price. This applies to devices making use of commissions, services, transportation charges, premiums, taxes, special provisions, tying agreements, trade understandings and all similar practices; and to the reduction of the size range in which a garment is offered from the size range in which it was offered during March 1942.

No manufacturer shall so change the allowances, discounts or other price differentials which he customarily made during March 1942 as to require any purchaser to pay a higher net price.

(c) Indirect violations. Every person is forbidden to offer, attempt or agree to do any of the acts forbidden by this section.

SEC. 5.6 Adjustable pricing agreements. Adjustable pricing agreements may be entered into notwithstanding the provisions of section 5.5 to the extent permitted by this section.

(a) When regulation fixes a ceiling price. In cases where this regulation fixes a ceiling price, a person may sell at that ceiling price, subject to an agreement with the buyer to charge a higher price if it becomes the legal ceiling price by the time of delivery. But one must never charge a price which is higher than the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery. Moreover, unless specifically authorized by the Office of Price Administration, a person must not deliver or agree to deliver at a price which is to be adjusted upward in accordance with action by the Office of Price Administration after delivery.

(b) Where regulation does not fix a ceiling price. In cases where a ceiling price is not fixed by the regulation, a person must not make any contract or sale unless the price is expresly subject to adjustment in accordance with any action which may be taken by the Office of Price Administration. Moreover, unless specifically authorized by the Office of Price Administration, a person must not make any delivery until a ceiling price has been fixed by the Office of Price Administration.

(c) When specific authorization will be given. Specific authorization to deliver or agree to deliver at a price which is to be adjusted in accordance with action taken by the Office of Price Administration after delivery will be given only where: (1) A request for the fixing or changing of a ceiling price has been filed; and (2) the authorization is necessary to promote distribution or production; and (3) it will not interfere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

This authorization may be given by the Administrator or by any other official of the Office of Price Administration to whom the power to grant such authorization has been delegated, and may be given by order, letter or telegram.

SEC. 5.7. Licensing and enforcement.—(a) Licensing. The provisions of Licensing Order No. 1, licensing all persons who make sales under price control, are applicable to all sellers subject to this regulation. A seller's license may be suspended for violations of the license or this regulation. A person whose license is suspended may not, during the period of suspension, make any sale for which his license has been suspended.

(b) Penalties. Any person who violates any provisions of this regulation is subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, suits for treble damages, and proceedings for suspension of licenses provided by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

SEC. 5.8. Relation to other regulations.—(a) Regulations superseded. The coverage of this regulation is stated in section 1.1. Where this regulation applies, it supersedes (except as indicated below) the provisions of the following regulations:

General Maximum Price Regulation;[1]
Maximum Price Regulation 208 (Staple Work Clothing).

Exception: Mail order catalogs.—The provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation and of MPR 208 shall continue to apply to sales at retail of garments of staple work clothing, which are based on orders received by mail, pursuant to a mail order catalog, the printing of which was completed or substantially completed (i. e., the printing plates have been made) prior to August 16, 1944.

(b) Contractors' services. This regulation does not apply to charges for contractors' services, which are governed by Maximum Price Regulation 172[2] (Charges of Contractors in the Apparel Industry).

"Contractor" is defined in § 1389.52 of that regulation.

(c) War procurement agencies. This regulation does not apply to sales of staple work clothing made according to military specifications, when the sales are made to any war procurement agency as defined in Maximum Price Regulation 157[3] (Sales and Fabrication of Textiles, Apparel and Related Articles for Military Purposes).

(d) Export sales. This regulation does not apply to export sales of staple work clothing. Such sales are covered by the Second Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation.[4]

APPENDIX B—TABLES OF ADJUSTMENTS TO BE MADE IN BASE PRICES OF GARMENTS PRICED UNDER SECTION 2.2 AND IN FORMULA PRICES OF GARMENTS PRICED UNDER SECTIONS 2.3 AND 2.4

The amount of the adjustment to be made in the base price of a garment being priced under section 2.2, or in the formula price of a garment being priced under section 2.3 or 2.4, to find its ceiling price is given in the tables below. Three tables are listed below. The table to be used depends on the type of body material of which the garment is made. In the case of denim, chambray and covert materials, the date of purchase of the material, or whether the manufacturer has contracted to sell the garment prior to August 16, 1944, is controlling. The tables are to be used as follows:

(a) For all garments made from materials other than denim, chambray, or covert, Table I must be used.

(b) For all garments made from denim or chambray:

(1) Table I must be used if the manufacturer has contracted to sell the garment prior to August 16, 1944.

(2) Table II must be used if the manufacturer has not contracted to sell the garment prior to August 16, 1944, and if the garment is made from material which the manufacturer purchased prior to June 30, 1944.

(3) Table III may be used if the garment is made from material which the manufacturer purchased on or after June 30, 1944.

(c) For all garments made from covert:

(1) Table I must be used if the manufacturer has contracted to sell the garment prior to August 16, 1944.

(2) Table II may be used for all other garments.

NOTE: For garments made from denim, chambray or covert materials, the manufacturer shall comply with these instructions by taking an inventory and account as of August 16, 1944:

(1) Of the number of dozens of each type of garment made from each of these different kinds and weights of materials remaining to be delivered under contracts which the manufacturer has entered into prior to August 16, 1944; and

(2) Of the number of dozens of garments made from each of the different kinds and weights of these materials which he has on hand on August 16, 1944, both completed and in process of manufacture; and

(3) Of the yardage of each of the different kinds and weights of these materials which he has on hand on that date and which he has purchased pursuant to all contracts entered into prior to June 30, 1944.

In making these calculations, the manufacturer shall include only garments of staple work clothing sold or to be sold pursuant to the terms of this RMPR 208 or the predecessor regulation MPR 208 (except war models and thirty-yard minimum boys' bib overalls) and materials used in such garments, and shall exclude garments sold or to be sold pursuant to MPR 157 (Sales and Fabrication of Textiles, Apparel and Related Articles for Military Purposes), and materials allocated to such garments.

Example: Manufacturer X takes an inventory and account as of August 16, 1944, which shows the following:

(1) Garments made of denim, chambray or covert remaining to be delivered under all contracts which he has entered into prior to August 16, 1944:

150 dozen men's 9 oz. sanforized denim bib overalls.
200 dozen men's 3.90 sanforized chambray shirts.
50 dozen men's 3.90 sanforized covert shirts.

(2) dozens of garments on hand, including both garments completed and in process of manufacture:

300 dozen men's 9 oz. sanforized denim bib overalls.
250 dozen men's 3.90 sanforized chambray shirts.
75 dozen men's 3.90 sanforized covert shirts.

(3) Yardage of denim, chambray and covert materials on hand and purchased prior to June 30, 1944:

11,000 yards 9 oz. sanforized denim on hand.
6,000 yards 9 oz. sanforized denim purchased by contract dated May 1, 1944, for future delivery.

Using the 9 oz. denim bib overall as an illustration, X will make his adjustments as follows: the base price for 150 dozen garments (the quantity covered by the contracts mentioned above in (1)) must be adjusted under Table I; the base price for 50 dozen garments (200 dozen, the quantity completed and in process of manufacture, minus 150, the quantity covered by the contracts) must be adjusted under Table II; moreover, the base prices for any garments fabricated from the 17,000 yards of 9 oz. denim on hand and on order must also be adjusted under Table II.

Within a given table, the amount of the adjustment is dependent upon the following two factors:

First. The body material from which the garment is made, and the weight of such material. As indicated in the tables, the amount of the adjustment differs for each type of body material, and, in some cases, for each weight of a particular body material.

Second. The date of the "last issued written price list" pursuant to which the base prices were established for garments priced under section 2.2. If the base prices for garments priced under section 2.2 were established pursuant to a price list issued on or after January 1, 1942, the seller must use column A in the tables. If they were established pursuant to a price list issued prior to January 1, 1942, he may use column B.

(Note that column A is divided into two parts: Part 1 contains the adjustments to be made in determining the ceiling prices for men's garments, and Part 2 the adjustments in determining the ceiling prices for boys' garments.)

The total amount of the adjustment is the product which results from multiplying the number of yards of cloth used in the garment, before simplification (if any), by the number of cents indicated in the appropriate table below, for the body material of which such garment is made. If the product of the multiplication is a minus quantity, that quantity is to be subtracted from the base or formula price; if the product is a plus sum, that sum is to be added to the price.

Example 1. Manufacturer X desires to determine his ceiling price for a men's 3.90 sanforized chambray shirt. Under section 2.2, Rule 1, he has found a base price of $8.95 per dozen for this shirt. This base price was derived from a price list issued February 15, 1942. Moreover, the body material contained in the shirt was purchased prior to June 30, 1944, and X has not contracted to sell the shirt prior to August 16, 1944. Therefore, under the instructions given above, X will determine his adjustment for this shirt under Table II.

X consults Table II (column A, part 1), and finds that he must adjust the base price by plus 0.5¢ per yard. Since X uses 30 yards of chambray to a dozen shirts, the total amount of X's adjustment is plus 15¢ per dozen shirts. Adding 15¢ to the base price of $8.95 gives $9.10 per dozen, which is X's ceiling price for the shirts.

Example 2. Manufacturer Y desires to determine his ceiling price for a men's 8 oz. (2.00) sanforized denim dungaree. Under section 2.2, Rule 1, he has found a base price of $10.80 per dozen for this garment. This base price was derived from a price list issued December 15, 1941. Moreover, the body material contained in the garment was purchased after June 30, 1944. Therefore, under the instructions given above, Y will determine his adjustment for this garment under Table III.

Y consults Table III (column B), and finds that he must adjust the base price by plus 2¢ per yard. Since Y uses 32 yards of denim to a dozen dungarees, the total amount of Y's adjustment is plus 64¢ per dozen garments. Adding 64¢ to the base price of $10.80 gives $11.44 per dozen, which is Y's ceiling price for the dungarees.

Example 3. Manufacturer Z desires to determine his ceiling price for a boys' 2.50 finished drill work pant. Under section 2.3, Rule 2, he has found a formula price of $23.50 per dozen for this garment. The base prices of the two garments priced under section 2.2 which were used in arriving at $23.50 were established by a price list issued March 1, 1942. Therefore, under the instructions given above, Z will determine his adjustment for this garment under Table I (column A, part 2).

Z consults Table I, and finds that he must adjust the formula price by minus ½¢ per yard. Since Z's drill pants contain 34 yards of material, the total amount of Z's adjustment is minus 17¢ per dozen garments. Subtracting 17¢ from the formula price of $23.50 gives $23.33 per dozen, which is Z's ceiling price for the pants.

APPENDIX C—TABLES OF CEILING PRICES FOR SALES AT WHOLESALE AND SALES AT RETAIL OF GARMENTS OTHER THAN "WAR MODELS" AND "30 YARD MINIMUM BOYS' BIB OVERALLS."

INSTRUCTIONS

1. The tables in this appendix list the maximum prices for regular sales at wholesale and sales at retail of all items of staple work clothing except "war models" (which are priced under Appendix D) and "30 yard minimum boys' bib overalls" (which are priced under Appendix E). In using these tables, a wholesaler should bear in mind the rules for pricing which are stated in section 3.2 ("Regular sales at wholesale"), and a retailer should bear in mind the rules which are stated in sections 4.1 and 4.2.

NOTE: A retailer, before using these tables, should pay close attention to step 4 in section 4.1 and find whether the ceiling price of the particular garment being priced must be figured under section 4.4 rather than by use of the tables.

2. Each of the four tables lists wholesale and retail ceiling prices for specified types of garments only. The garments to be priced under each table are specified in the heading of each table. The coverage of each table includes both men's and boys' garments. Accordingly, you must first find which of the tables applies to the garment which you desire to price.

3. In each table, the ceiling price is given according to the "Supplier's net selling price." In finding your ceiling price, therefore, you must determine your supplier's "net selling price" for the garment which you desire to price. "Supplier's net selling price" means the net invoice cost to you, after deducting all discounts available, and shall not include transportation costs paid by you. If transportation costs are included in the amount shown on the invoice, you must deduct from the net invoice cost the amount of transportation charges to find your supplier's net selling price.

4. The ceiling prices listed in the tables apply to you when you and your supplier are both in the East and Central region, or both in the Mountain and Pacific region. If you are in one region and delivery is made from the other region, you locate in the appropriate table your ceiling price for the garment and then may add a specified amount. The amounts to be added vary by type of garment, and are listed in a footnote to each table.

"East and Central" includes all points which are in or east of North and South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma, and Texas, except that points in the following counties of Texas shall not be included: Loving, Ward, Reeves, Pecos, Brewster, Presidio, Jeff Davis, Culberson, Hudspeth, and El Paso.

"Mountain and Pacific" includes all points which are in or west of Montana, Wyoming, Colorado, New Mexico, and the following counties in Texas: Loving, Ward, Reeves, Pecos, Brewster, Presidio, Jeff Davis, Culberson, Hudspeth, and El Paso.

5. When you have found your supplier's "net selling price", look in Column 1 of the appropriate table for the bracket which contains this price. Then look at the figure opposite this bracket in Column 2 (if you are making sales at wholesale) or in Column 3 or Column 4 (if you are making sales at retail—Column 3 is for Group I retail sellers, while Column 4 is for Group II retail sellers). This figure is your ceiling price.

For example. Suppose your supplier's net selling price is $13.60 per dozen for boys' work pants. Your ceiling price will be found in Table II, since all work pants are covered by Table II. Follow down Column 1 in Table II until you find the bracket $13.57–$13.64+. Opposite these figures you find your ceiling price for these work pants. If you make sales at wholesale, your ceiling price is $16.80 per dozen. If you are a Group I retail seller, your ceiling price is $1.64 per pair. If you are a Group II retail seller, your ceiling price is $1.72 per pair.

6. If your supplier's "net selling price" for any garment is higher than the highest price listed in Column 1 of the table which covers the garment you are pricing, your ceiling price is found as follows: (a) take one-half of the supplier's net selling price, and find your ceiling price in the appropriate table for a garment with a net selling price to you of that amount; (b) multiply the ceiling price so found by 2.

For example. Suppose your supplier's net selling price is $33.00 per dozen for bib overalls. Your ceiling price will be found in Table III, since all bib overalls are covered by Table III. The highest price listed in Column 1 of Table III is $31.81. Accordingly, you will find the bracket in Column 1 containing a supplier's net selling price of ½ of $33.00, or $16.50. This bracket is $16.47–$16.54+. If you make sales at wholesale, your ceiling price listed in Column 2 opposite this bracket is $20.00 per dozen; multiply $20.00 by 2 to arrive at your ceiling price of $40.00 per dozen. If you are a Group I retail seller, your ceiling price is 2 times $1.64, or $3.28 per garment. If you are a Group II retail seller, your ceiling price is 2 times $1.88, or $3.66 per garment.

If your supplier's "net selling price" for any garment is lower than the lowest price listed in Column 1 of the Table which covers the garment you are pricing, your ceiling price is found as follows: (a) multiply your supplier's net selling price by 2, and find your ceiling price in the appropriate table for a garment with a net selling price to you of that amount; (b) divide ceiling price so found by 2.

7. Prices in Columns 1 and 2 are stated per dozen garments, while those in Columns 3 and 4 are stated per garment. All prices are stated f. o. b. seller's place of business.

8. Prices stated in Column 2 are net 30 days. If the wholesaler wishes, he may extend more favorable terms. But he may not change these terms if the change would result under any circumstances in a higher net price.

(b) East and Central. "East and Central" refers to sales in which the seller's place of business is located in or east of North and South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas, except that the following counties of Texas shall not be included in East and Central: Loving, Ward, Reeves, Peco, Brewster, Presidio, Jeff Davis, Culberson, Hudspeth and El Paso.

(c) Mountain and Pacific. "Mountain and Pacific" refers to sales in which the seller's place of business is located in or west of Montana, Wyoming, Colorado, New Mexico, and the following counties of Texas: Loving, Ward, Reeves, Peco, Brewster, Presidio, Jeff Davis, Culberson, Hudspeth and El Paso.

SEC. 6.2. Ceiling prices for sales at retail of war models—(a) What this section covers. This section gives the ceiling prices for "war models" of staple work clothing when sold at retail. ("Sale at retail" is defined in section 1.1 (b) (1).) A retailer should also pay particular attention to section 4.5 (Where garments are bought at a "special sale"), and to section 6.5 (Identification of war models).

(b) How to find your ceiling price. The ceiling prices stated in this section apply only if the garment you are selling is designated by the manufacturer as a "war model". If it is, you must first find the weight and finish of the material, which will be shown by the label or given to you by the manufacturer, and then find the line in the table at the end of this section which gives the ceiling price for a garment of that weight and finish.

Next, you must determine whether the garments is labeled with the letters "–B–" or "–C–". If the garment has the letter "–B–", its retail ceiling price will be found in Column B of the tables below. If it has the letter "–C–", its retail ceiling price will be found in Column C. If it has neither letter, its retail ceiling price will be found in Column A.

Finally, you must know whether you are a "Group I retail seller" or a "Group II retail seller." These terms are defined in section 4.2. If you are a "Group I retail seller", your ceiling price is given in part 1 of the appropriate column of prices. If you are a "Group II retail seller", your ceiling price depends on whether you bought the garment at wholesale, or bought it from the manufacturer of the garment. If you bought it from the manufacturer, your ceiling price is in part 2 of the appropriate column of prices. If you bought it at a "regular sale at wholesale", your ceiling is in part 3 of the appropriate column. If you bought it at a "special sale", your ceiling is found by following section 4.5. If you are selling at retail a garment which you yourself fabricated or had fabricated for you by an agent or contractor, your ceiling price is the one shown for sales by "Group I retail sellers."

Although the manufacturer will supply you with a label containing the retail ceiling price, you must determine for yourself what price is correct in your case.

(c) Tables of ceiling prices. All prices given in the following tables are per single garment at the seller's place of business, whether sold for cash or for credit.

These prices apply to sales in the "East and Central" region. If your place of business is located in the "Mountain and Pacific" region, you may add 5¢ per garment to the applicable ceiling price for men's bib overalls and overall jackets, and 4¢ per garment to the applicable ceiling price for men's waistband overalls or dungarees.

SEC. 6.3 Ceiling prices for sales at wholesale of war models—(a) "Regular sales". The following tables give ceiling prices for "regular sales" at wholesale of war models. (The term "regular sale at wholesale" is defined in section 3.2). All prices are per dozen garments, f. o. b. seller's place of business, net 30 days.

The prices in the table apply to regular sales by wholesalers located in the East and Central region. If the wholesaler's place of business is in the Mountain and Pacific region, he may add to the appropriate ceiling price found in the table 50¢ per dozen for bib overalls and overall jackets, and 35¢ per dozen for waistband overalls or dungarees.

Three columns of ceiling prices are listed. If the garment has the letter "–B–" on the label attached to it, the wholesale ceiling price will be found in Column B. If it has the letter "–C–", its wholesale ceiling price will be found in Column C. If it has neither letter, its wholesale ceiling price will be found in Column A.

(b) "Special sales." The definition of "special sale at wholesale" set forth in section 3.3, and the rule provided in that section for finding ceiling prices for such sales shall apply to special sales at wholesale of war models.

SEC. 6.4 Ceiling prices for sales by manufacturers of war models. The following tables give ceiling prices for sales of war models by manufacturers. ("Sale by a manufacturer" is defined in section 1.1 (b) (3).) All prices are per dozen garments, f. o. b. seller's place of business, net 30 days. Manufacturers of "war models" must also observe the special quota rule set forth in section 2.7.

The prices in the table below apply to sales by manufacturers located in the East and Central region. If the manufacturer's place of business is in the Mountain and Pacific region, he may add to the appropriate ceiling price found in the table 50¢ per dozen for bib overalls and overall jackets, and 35¢ per dozen for waistband overalls or dungarees.

Three columns of ceiling prices are listed. If the manufacturer has contracted to sell the garment prior to August 16, 1944, its ceiling price is determined under Column A. If the garment is made from denim material purchased by the manufacturer prior to June 30, 1944, and the manufacturer has not contracted to sell the garment prior to August 16, 1944, its ceiling price is determined under Column B. If the garment is made from denim material purchased by the manufacturer after June 30, 1944, its ceiling price is determined under Column C.

Each column is divided into two parts. Part 1 contains ceiling prices for sales to Group I retail sellers and wholesalers. Part 2 contains ceiling prices for sales to Group II retail sellers. Also, sales by manufacturers to any person who is not a wholesaler (as defined in section 3.2) or a Group I or Group II retail seller must be made at prices listed in part 1 of the appropriate column.

SEC. 6.5 Identification of war models—(a) What labeling is required. Every "war model" of staple work clothing must be marked as required by this section. This marking must be made on one or more labels or tickets which are firmly and visibly attached to the garment. A war model must never be sold at retail without the required label or ticket attached.

(b) What must be on the label. The label or ticket must contain the following information:

(1) The weight of the principal fabric, in yards per pound, or in ounces per yard, by market designation, prorated to a width basis of 28 to 29 inches.

(2) The shrinkage treatment or lack of any, as follows:

(i) If the fabric is shrunk, the word "shrunk" or "preshrunk" or any other words of like effect. These terms must be accompanied by the qualifying statements required by the Trade Practice Rules for the Shrinkage of Woven Cotton Yard Goods (7 F.R. 1593), issued by the Federal Trade Commission.

(ii) If the fabric is unshrunk, the words "unshrunk" or "allow for shrinkage."

(3) If the garment is made from denim material purchased by the manufacturer prior to June 30, 1944, and the manufacturer has not contracted to sell the garment prior to August 16, 1944, the letter "–B–" must follow the description of the fabric weight. If the garment is made from denim material purchased after June 30, 1944, the letter "–C–" must follow the description of the fabric weight. If the manufacturer has delivered or contracted to sell the garment prior to August 16, 1944, no letter shall be used.

(4) The retail ceiling price which applies to the kind of retail sale at which the garment is to be resold. If a manufacturer does not know which retail ceiling price applies, he may request a written statement from the purchaser, and may rely on this statement unless he has reason to believe it is erroneous. Anyone who sells or offers to sell at retail must have the garment marked with the correct ceiling price for the particular transaction. The higher ceiling price for Mountain and Pacific sales may be indicated as an addition to the East and Central price (see example below).

(5) If the required information is not obscured, it may be contained in more than one label, and may be combined with other information. At the manufacturer's option, the garment may also be marked with the words "war model". Here are two examples of possible labels:

(On a bib overall to be nationally distributed through jobbers and independent retailers)

Residual Shrinkage Less than 1%
Ceiling, $2.03
Plus 8¢ Denver West

(On a dungaree to be sold by a large Eastern chain, where label contains additional information)

War Model. $2.20 yd. wt.
No. 907
Waist 34, Inseam 32
Allow for Shrinkage—Ceiling $1.04

(c) Other markings—(1) Source. Each war model of staple work clothing must be marked by the manufacturer with his name, or with the name of the wholesaler or retailer who distributes it, or with a trademark of the manufacturer or distributor which has been registered with the United States Patent Office, or with an identification number which will be assigned upon request by the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C.

(2) Quality. Any war model of work clothing which is not of first quality must be clearly marked with the word "seconds".

SEC. 6.6 Specifications for war models—(a) Effect of specifications. This section gives minimum specifications for war models. Any seller may, of course, supply as a war model a garment which more than meets the specifications (for example, having stronger thread, or larger dimensions than are required). War models are either first quality or "seconds".

(1) First quality. A first quality war model must not be defective when graded by the standards which the manufacturer followed in 1941, and must conform to the specifications in this section, except for the following tolerances:

(i) If a garment is patterned to conform to these specifications, a deviation of ¼ inch in the finished garment by reason of error in cutting or sewing will not disqualify it as a "first quality" war model.

(ii) A bib or waistband overall with a substandard front or back "rise" is still a "first" if the total of its front and back rises is equal to the total of the rises shown in the table.

(2) Seconds. A garment is a war model "second" if it was designed to conform to specifications for a first quality war model, but deviates in excess of the tolerance or is defective by the standards of grading followed by the manufacturer in 1941.

(b) Fabric standards—(1) Weight. Weight of cloth is expressed in yards per pound, by market designation, or in the corresponding number of ounces per yard, to the nearest quarter ounce. The width basis for denim is 28 to 29 inches. Any garment of heavier weight fabric may be sold at the maximum price fixed for a garment containing a lighter weight of the same fabric construction and finish. For example, an 8½-ounce sanforized overall meeting all other specifications could be sold at the price fixed for an 8-ounce shrunk overall.

(2) Shrinkage. A fabric is called "shrunk" if it has been so treated that the residual shrinkage does not exceed 2 percent. This is to be measured by the test for shrinkage of cotton fabrics described in Commercial Standards CS 59–41, issued by the National Bureau of Standards. All other fabrics are called "unshrunk".

(c) Construction standards for all men's overalls. War models of bib overalls, waistband overalls and overall jackets must be constructed with the following minimum standards:

(1) Stitches. 8 stitches per inch on hems at bottoms of pant legs. 10 stitches per inch on all other hems and joinings. 42 stitches to a bar tack.

(2) Thread. On all joinings and hems, thread not finer than 40/3 cord in needle and 50/2 cord in looper. On bar tacks, not finer than 40/3 cord.

(3) Buttons. All buttons to be metal, open top or closed top, attached with single or double prong tack.

(d) Specifications for particular men's garments (minimum requirements)—(1) Bib overalls—(i) Bar tacks or rivets. 13 if hip pockets are sewn into side seams. 15 in all other cases.

(ii) Buttons. 1 on each side opening. 2 on fly through size 38, 3 on fly for size 40 and over.

(iii) Banding. Denim on denim (but may be lighter than body material).

(iv) Bib reinforcement. Hem, banding or double-thickness corners under bib buttons.

(v) Trimmings. 2 front swing pockets, 6½" x 11½". 2 hip pockets, each having a total area of 56 sq. in. 1 or 2 bib pockets having total area of 64 sq. in. Rule pocket, 10½" x 3½", in 1 or 2 pieces. Hammer loop, 1½" x 3".

(vi) Fly. With hemmed button facing, not less than ¾" wide.

(vii) Side opening. Hemmed.

(viii) Suspenders. Single or double thickness. Width at cross 3¾". Width at shoulders 2¼".

(ix) Size range. Waist sizes 30 to 50, inclusive, by choice or balanced assortment. Inseam lengths in unshrunk fabrics up to 36". Inseam lengths in shrunk fabrics up to 36" on waist sizes 30 to 36, and up to 34" on other sizes.

(2) Overall jackets—(i) Buttons. 4 on front. 1 on each cuff.

(ii) Trimmings. 2 patch pockets, each having area of 56 sq. in.

(iii) Size range. 34 to 50, by choice or balanced assortment.

(3) Waistband overalls or dungarees—(i) Bar tacks or rivets. 1 at top and bottom of each belt loop. 9 others.

(ii) Buttons and fasteners. 4 buttons on fly. 1 button or snap fastener at waistband.

(iii) Belt-loops. 6.

(iv) Trimmings. 2 front swing or patch pockets, 6¼" x 10". 2 hip patch pockets, each having area of 40 sq. in. Rule pocket, 7¾" x 3", 1 or 2 pieces. Watch pocket, 3" x 3". Waistband 1⅜" wide.

(v) Fly. With hemmed button facing not less than ¾" wide.

(vi) Size range. Waist sizes 30 to 46 or 29 to 46, by choice or balanced assortment. Inseam lengths in unshrunk fabrics up to 36". Inseam lengths in shrunk fabrics up to 36" on waist sizes 30 to 36, and up to 34" on other sizes.

(e) Garment dimensions. Garment dimensions are given in the following tables for even waist sizes with 32" inseam. On other inseam lengths, the dimensions, including front and back rise, must be graduated proportionately. Odd sizes with proportionate dimensions may be offered. All dimensions are stated in inches.

APPENDIX E.—THIRTY YARD MINIMUM BOYS' BIB OVERALLS

SEC. 7.1 Definitions—(a) What is a thirty yard minimum boys' bib overall. Any boys' bib overall which consumes an average of at least thirty yards of eight ounce shrunk denim per dozen when cut in a range of sizes from 4–16 may be designated by a manufacturer as a "thirty yard minimum boys' bib overall" and may be priced under section 7.3 of this regulation, provided that each purchaser is offered a range of sizes from 4–16 and is notified according to the requirements of section 7.4 that the overalls are being priced under Appendix E. Wholesalers and retailers receiving such notice must then price thirty yard minimum boys' bib overalls under section 7.2.

(b) Definitions incorporated in this appendix. The definitions of "East and Central" and "Mountain and Pacific" contained in section 6.1, and the definitions of kinds of sales contained in section 1.1 (b) apply to sales of thirty yard minimum boys' bib overalls.

SEC. 7.2 How to find ceiling prices for sales at wholesale and at retail of thirty yard minimum boys' bib overalls. (a) In any regular sale at wholesale or retail the maximum price of a thirty yard minimum boys' bib overall shall be determined as follows:

(1) Take the highest price you charged for a boys' bib overall which you delivered in March 1942 and divide that price by the net invoice cost of that garment to you. If you did not deliver any boys' bib overalls during March 1942 take the highest price charged for a man's bib overall which you delivered during March 1942 and divide that price by the net invoice cost of that garment. (If you did not deliver any boys' or men's bib overalls during March 1942, your ceiling price is determined under (3) below.)

(2) Multiply the percentage obtained in (1) above by the net invoice cost (not to exceed the supplier's ceiling price) of the garment being priced under this section. The resultant figure shall be the maximum price of the boys' overall being priced, but in no event shall the maximum price for a retailer be higher than $1.55 a garment in the East and Central area; and $1.58 a garment in the Mountain and Pacific area. The maximum price for a wholesaler shall in no case be higher than $14.81 per dozen where the seller's place of business is in the East and Central area; and $15.16 per dozen where the seller's place of business is in the Mountain and Pacific area.

(3) If you did not deliver any boys' or men's bib overalls during March 1942, the maximum price for sales at retail shall be $1.55 a garment in the East and Central area and $1.58 a garment in the Mountain and Pacific area; for sales at wholesale the maximum price shall be $14.81 per dozen in the East and Central area, and $15.16 per dozen in the Mountain and Pacific area.

(4) "Net invoice cost" means the price on the face of the invoice less all discounts available, but adding transportation or delivery charges.

(b) Ceiling prices for "special sales" (this term is defined in section 3.3) are found under section 3.3. Moreover, if the retailer buys a garment at a "special sale", it should be priced under section 4.5, instead of under (a) above.

SEC. 7.3 Ceiling prices for sales by manufacturers of thirty yard minimum boys' bib overalls. The following table gives ceiling prices for sales by manufacturers of thirty yard minimum boys' bib overalls. The prices listed apply to sales in the East and Central region. If the seller's place of business is in the Mountain and Pacific region, he may add 35¢ per dozen. All prices are f. o. b. seller's place of business, net 30 days. Manufacturers of these garments must also observe the special quota rule set forth in section 2.7.

Three columns of ceiling prices are listed. If the manufacturer has contracted to sell the garment prior to August 16, 1944, its ceiling price is determined under column A. If the garment is made from denim material purchased by the manufacturer prior to June 30, 1944, and the manufacturer has not contracted to sell the garment prior to August 16, 1944, its ceiling price is determined under column B. If the garment is made from denim material purchased by the manufacturer after June 30, 1944, its ceiling price is determined under column C.

Each column is divided into two parts. Part 1 contains ceiling prices for sales to Group I retail sellers and wholesalers. Part 2 contains ceiling prices for sales to Group II retail sellers. Sales by manufacturers to any person who is not a wholesaler (as defined in section 3.2) or a Group I or Group II retail seller must be made at prices listed in part 1.

MANUFACTURERS' CEILING PRICES—THIRTY YARD MINIMUM BOYS' BIB OVERALLS

Fabric	Weight in yards per pound and ounces per yard	Finish	Column A		Column B		Column C
			Sales to group I retail sellers and to wholesalers (per dozen)	Sales to group II retail sellers (per dozen)	Sales to group I retail sellers and to wholesalers (per dozen)	Sales to group II retail sellers (per dozen)	Sales to group I retail sellers and to wholesalers (per dozen)	Sales to group II retail sellers (per dozen)
Denim	2.00 (8 oz.)	Shrunk	$11.83	$14.01	$12.05	$14.28	$12.48	$14.61

SEC. 7.4 Notification to be furnished to purchasers for resale. Every manufacturer, wholesaler or other person who sells or delivers to a purchaser for resale a garment for which a maximum price has been established under Appendix E to this regulation shall furnish at the time of delivery of such garment, to the purchaser thereof, a statement in the following form:

This notice is sent to you as required by Appendix E of RMPR 208, which covers sales of certain boys' bib overalls. We have been allowed to price these overalls, Lot. No. —— under that appendix since they conform to the prescribed yardage requirements. Whether you are a wholesaler or retailer, this notice tells you how to find your maximum prices. You must be certain to follow the method set forth below in order to comply with the law.

HOW TO COMPUTE YOUR MAXIMUM PRICES

Take the highest price you charged for a boys' bib overall, which you delivered in March, 1942, and divide that price by the net invoice cost of that garment to you. If you did not deliver any boys' overalls during March 1942 take the highest price you charged for a men's bib overall which you delivered during March 1942 and divide that price by the net invoice cost of that garment.

Multiply the percentage so obtained by the net invoice cost of the garment being priced. The resultant figure shall be the maximum price of the boys' overall being priced, but in no event shall the maximum price for a retailer be higher than $1.55 a garment in the East and Central area (refers to sales in which the seller's place of business is in a state east of New Mexico, Colorado, Wyoming, Montana, and the following counties of Texas: Loving, Ward, Reeves, Pecos, Brewster, Presidio, Jeff Davis, Culberson, Hudspeth, and El Paso) and $1.58 a garment in the Mountain and Pacific area (refers to sales in which the seller's place of business is in the states or counties previously enumerated, or farther west. The maximum price for a wholesaler shall in no case be higher than $14.81 per dozen for sales in the East and Central area and $15.16 per dozen for sales in the Mountain and Pacific area.

"Net invoice cost" means the price on the face of the invoice less all discounts available, but adding transportation or delivery charges.

If you did not deliver any boys' or men's bib overalls during March 1942, your maximum price shall be:

Sales at wholesale:

$14.81 per dozen in the East and Central area.

$15.16 per dozen in the Mountain and Pacific area.

$1.55 per garment in the East and Central area.

$1.58 per garment in the Mountain and Pacific area.

The pricing method outlined above does not apply to "special sales." Sections 3.3 and

4.5 of RMPR 208 tell you how to determine ceiling prices when there is a "special sale."

Every wholesaler must furnish his retailers with the above notice either by forwarding separate printed, typewritten or mimeographed copies attached to the invoice to accompany each shipment of overalls priced under this appendix or have the notice stamped on the invoice if that is more convenient. Any manufacturer who sells either to a retailer or wholesaler is likewise obliged to furnish such a notice with each shipment.

APPENDIX F—HOW A GROUP I RETAIL SELLER MAY COMPUTE "AVERAGE SUPPLIER'S PRICE"

A Group I retail seller may, at his option, compute the "average supplier's price" for a garment as follows:

(a) The seller should first find from his invoices or other records and information the quantities of the garment shipped to him between January 1, 1944 and June 30, 1944, and the total net costs of all the lots shipped (that is, the total net invoice costs of all the lots after deducting all discounts available and deducting any transportation costs paid by him).

(b) The seller should then divide the total of these costs by the total number of garments in all the lots. The resulting figure is the "average supplier's price" for the garment, unless the garment's body materials consist of chambray, covert, or denim. In this case, the seller should also perform the calculation indicated in (c) below.

(c) If the garment is made of chambray, covert, or denim body materials, the seller may in some instances make certain additions to the figure found in (b) above. The amount of the addition is determined as follows:

(1) For garments which the manufacturer has priced under the former regulation MPR 208, or by using the adjustment in Table I of Appendix B of this regulation, no addition is made; the seller uses the figure found in (b) above.

(2) For garments which the manufacturer has priced by using the adjustment in Table II of Appendix B, the seller may add to the figure found in (b) above the product which results from multiplying the average number of yards of cloth used in the garment by the number of cents for that cloth indicated in column B of Table II in Appendix B.

(3) For garments which the manufacturer has priced by using the adjustment in Table III of Appendix B, the seller may add to the figure found in (b) above the product which results from multiplying the average number of yards of cloth used in the garment by the number of cents for that cloth indicated in column B of Table III in Appendix B.

(4) If the seller purchases a garment, from one manufacturer, which would be adjusted under either subparagraphs (1), (2) or (3) above, and purchases the identical lot number from another manufacturer which would be adjusted under a different subdivision, the seller must make separate adjustments for each garment. Accordingly, he will arrive at different average supplier's prices for each garment, with correspondingly different ceiling prices.

Section 5.2 requires that each supplier, upon request by the buyer, must furnish such information as is necessary to enable the buyer to make these calculations.

Example: X, a Group I retail seller, purchases a men's 3.90 sanforized chambray shirt from the Y manufacturing company at $8.50 per dozen. He also purchases the same garment from the Z manufacturing company at $8.62½ per dozen, and from the A manufacturing company at $8.75 per dozen. All of these garments bear the same lot number.

X determines his "average supplier's price" for this garment as follows:

(1) Lots of this garment shipped between 1/1/44 and 6/30/44	(2) Net cost per dozen on each lot	(3) Total net cost
1. 120 dozen	$8.50	$1,020.00
2. 60 dozen	8.62½	517.50
3. 240 dozen	8.75	2,100.00
Total 420 dozen		$3,637.50

Column (3)÷column (1)=$8.66 per dozen.

Adjustment of $8.66:

(1) If these are shirts which the manufacturer has priced under the former regulation MPR 208 or by using the adjustment in Table I of Appendix B of this regulation, no addition is made—X's "average supplier's price" remains at $8.66 per dozen.

(2) If these are shirts which the manufacturer has priced by using the adjustment in Table II of Appendix B, the addition is figured as follows:

Average yards per dozen shirts	20
Cents per yard adjustment (from column B of Table II in Appendix B)	1¢
Total adjustment	20¢

Therefore, "average supplier's price" for these shirts is $8.86 per dozen ($8.66+.20).

(3) If these are shirts which the manufacturer has priced by using the adjustment in Table III of Appendix B, the addition is figured as follows:

Average yards per dozen shirts	29
Cents per yard adjustment (from column B of Table III in Appendix B)	2¼¢

Therefore, "average supplier's price" for these shirts is $9.31 per dozen ($8.66+.65).

(4) If, for instance, some of these shirts are adjusted under (2) and others under (3), X will have different average supplier's prices for the garments ($8.86 and $9.31) and consequently will have different ceiling prices for the shirts.

Effective date. This regulation shall become effective for sales by manufacturers and sales at wholesale on September 1, 1944, and for sales at retail on September 15, 1944. Prior to the effective date, any person may sell and deliver either at prices determined under existing regulations or at prices determined under this regulation.

NOTE: The reporting and record-keeping requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 16th day of August 1944.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[Rev. SR 14B to GMPR [1]]

BREAD AND BAKERY PRODUCTS

Supplementary Regulation 14B is redesignated Revised Supplementary Regulation 14B and is revised and amended to read as follows:

Supplementary Regulation 14B [2] to the General Maximum Price Regulation was issued to provide a more logical and convenient arrangement for certain provisions which modify the General Maximum Price Regulation, so far as it applies to bread and other bakery products. Since its issuance, it has been amended four times, and this revision, which includes the original regulation, and all of the amendments thereto, is being issued so that persons interested in the regulation need consult only one document. In addition, several new provisions have been added.

Revised Supplementary Regulation 14B does not apply to the bakery products that are subject to Revised Maximum Price Regulations 319 [3] and 495.[4]

The maximum prices, established by this regulation, are, in the judgment of the Price Administrator, generally fair and equitable, and they will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and of the Stabilization Act of 1942, as amended, and of Executive Orders 9250 and 9328.

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

SEC. 2. Weight increases. (a) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b) of this section, whenever the weight of any product subject to this regulation is increased over its weight as produced in March 1942, such product shall be deemed a new product and the maximum price of every seller of such new product must be determined under § 1499.2 or § 1499.3 of the General Maximum Price Regulation or under Order No. 375 [8] under § 1499.3 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(b) (1) If a producer increases the weight of his loaf of bread or sales unit of rolls not more than 25 percent over the weight of his loaf of bread or sales unit of rolls, as produced in March 1942, he may elect to determine his maximum price therefor pursuant to this paragraph, in which case he must increase his maximum price therefor proportionately per ratio of weight, but so calculated as to result in an increase in price of one cent or a multiple thereof, and all other sellers of such increased loaf of bread or sales unit of rolls must increase their maximum prices by an amount in cents equal to the increase herein provided for the producer: Provided, That increased unpackaged rolls shall not be sold at the increased prices, herein provided, until the producer has filed a report with the District Office of the Office of Price Administration in the district in which such unpackaged rolls are produced, showing the weights and maximum prices of the rolls in question both as produced in March 1942, and when increased in size as herein provided.

(2) If a producer has increased his maximum price after increasing the weight of his loaf of bread or sales unit of rolls, as provided for in subparagraph (1) of paragraph (b) of this section, and he sells day-old, stale or crippled bread or rolls of the increased size or weight unit, his maximum price on the sale of such day-old stale or crippled bread or rolls shall be increased one cent per loaf or per sales unit of rolls.

(c) When used in this section, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(1) "Day-old bread or rolls" and "stale bread or rolls" mean bread or rolls which are sold after their customary sale day.

(2) "Crippled bread or rolls" means bread or rolls damaged in production, packaging, or transportation, the food value of which has not been impaired.

SEC. 3. Single maximum prices for sales at wholesale. (a) In any trading area all sales of bread and rolls at wholesale as defined in this section by any seller shall be deemed sales to one class of purchasers, and discounts previously given by any seller in the case of any of his sales at wholesale of said products may be discontinued; and to this end:

(b) The maximum price for all sales of bread and rolls at wholesale by any

seller shall hereafter be such seller's wholesale list price in the trading area, as existing in March 1942, for the same or most nearly similar commodity or, if none, such list price of his most closely competitive seller or, if none, a maximum price as determined under section 3 of the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(c) For the purposes of this section "sales at wholesale" means all sales of the seller to retailers, restaurants and hotels.

SEC. 4. Similar products. In the case of bread and bakery products one product is similar to another if:

(a) It has substantially the same cost at the time of the determination;

(b) It is made from the same basic type of dough; and

(c) It has the same weight when completely finished and ready for wrapping or when ready for sale if sold unwrapped.

SEC. 5. Competitive sellers of the same class. In the case of bread and bakery products one person shall be deemed a competitive seller of the same class only if such competitor:

(a) Performs the same production or marketing function (for example, manufacturing, distributing, retailing).

(b) Is of a similar type (for example, department store, chain store, specialty store, cut rate store, house to house seller).

(c) Deals in the same type of commodities.

(d) Sells to the same type of purchaser (for example, to wholesalers, retailers, route sellers or ultimate consumers), and

(e) Services the same or a similar area.

SEC. 6. Orders of other governmental agencies. No increase or decrease in the maximum price for the sale of any product subject to this regulation shall be made by reason of an order of another government agency unless such increase or decrease in maximum price is specifically required by some provision of this regulation or of some other regulation or order of the Office of Price Administration.

SEC. 7. Pan bread in certain areas—(a) Maximum prices. In the following areas the maximum prices for sales of pan bread shall, at the option of the seller, be either the maximum prices as hereinbefore established or the following maximum prices:

(1) In the State of Utah, in Fargo, North Dakota, and Moorhead, Minnesota:

Net weight per loaf	Sales at wholesale	Sales at retail	Sales at retail by chain store private label
	Cents	Cents	Cents
16 to 18 oz.	7½	8½	7½
19 to 22 oz.	9	11	9
24 to 27 oz.	10	13	10

(2) In the District of Columbia:

Net weight per loaf	Sales at wholesale	Sales at retail	Sales at retail by chain store private label

(3) In Dallas, Texas, and Santa Barbara County, California:

Net weight per loaf	Sales at wholesale	Sales at retail	Sales at retail by chain store private label
23 to 25 oz.	9	11	9

(b) Definitions. For the purposes of this section the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(1) "Chain store private label" refers to pan bread sold under a distinctive name or label in one or more retail grocery or general merchandise stores, comprising the whole or part of a chain of four or more such stores, and operating as cooperatives or under a common trade name or common ownership. Each of said four stores must customarily do more than 60 percent of its business in merchandise other than bakery products.

(2) "Pan bread" means any bread baked in a pan, form or screen.

SEC. 8. Cracker meal—Maximum prices. Maximum prices for sales of cracker meal in containers of five pounds or more by any person other than a person subject to Maximum Price Regulations Nos. 421, 422 or 423, shall be the maximum prices determined in accordance with the provisions of § 1499.2 and other applicable sections of the General Maximum Price Regulation, or:

(a) 6.55 cents per pound delivered at any point within the District of Columbia or any state other than California, Oregon, and Washington; and

(b) 7.35 cents per pound delivered at any point within the states of California, Oregon and Washington.

SEC. 9. Bread crumbs—(a) Maximum prices. (1) The maximum price of every person for the sale or delivery of bread crumbs to any person other than an ultimate consumer shall be 10 cents per pound.

(2) The maximum price of every person for the sale or delivery of bread crumbs to an ultimate consumer shall be 12½ cents per pound.

(3) To the foregoing maximum price, each seller of bread crumbs may add his actual packaging and transportation costs.

(4) If the figure resulting contains a fraction of one-half cent or more, it shall be adjusted to the next higher cent, or if it contains a fraction of less than one-half cent it shall be adjusted to the next lower cent.

(b) Definitions. (1) "Ultimate consumer" is any person purchasing bread crumbs for use in prepared foods. However, it does not include cafes, cafeterias, hotels or other eating places purchasing bread crumbs for use in prepared foods sold or distributed to their customers, or institutions, public or private, purchasing bread crumbs for use in prepared foods for sale or distribution to their customers or inmates.

SEC. 10. Adjustment of maximum prices—(a) Producer's maximum prices. The Office of Price Administration may, either on application for adjustment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,* or on its own motion, adjust the maximum prices of a producer of any commodity subject to this regulation where

(1) The producer's maximum price is below the general price level prevailing for similar products sold by his competitive sellers of the same class, and

(2) The producer is or will be unable to maintain his production at his maximum price or prices, and

(3) The loss of his production would result in consumers having to pay higher prices for the most nearly similar substitute product available, and

(4) An increase in his maximum price or prices will enable him to continue production, and

(5) The Administrator is of the opinion that an increase in his maximum price or prices would, under all the circumstances, be in furtherance of the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act, as amended, and the Stabilization Act of 1942, as amended.

The maximum price increase that may be granted under the provisions of this section shall not cause his price to exceed the general price level prevailing for similar products. Subject to this limitation, (i) an increase may be granted not to exceed the total cost of the product, or, (ii) if the applicant's earnings from all operations before income and excess profits taxes are low in comparison with those of a "representative peace-time period," adjusted for subsequent changes in investment, and if in view of such over-all earnings a small margin of profit is reasonably necessary to permit production, an increase may be allowed estimated to yield such a profit margin.

A "representative peace-time period" means the period of the years 1936 to 1939, inclusive. When 1936 to 1939 does not represent a reasonably normal pre-war (December 7, 1941) period, some other period may be used but its use must be positively justified in the application.

(b) Maximum prices of wholesalers and retailers. If a product for which the producer's maximum price is increased pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section is also sold by wholesalers or retailers or both but is not subject to the provisions of Maximum Price Regulations 421, 422 or 423 as to such sales the Office of Price Administration may increase the maximum prices for sales by wholesalers or retailers or both in an amount not to exceed the increase provided for the producer.

(c) Filing of applications for adjustment. All applications for adjustment submitted pursuant to this section shall be filed with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., except applications for adjustment of maximum prices for bread and rolls which shall be filed with the regional office of the Office of Price Administration for the region in which the bread or rolls are produced.

The Administrator or any Regional Administrator may adjust, and any Regional Administrator may authorize any District Director within his region to adjust, maximum prices in the manner provided in this section.

SEC. 11. Notification of change in maximum prices. With the first delivery of any commodity (except bread and rolls) subject to this regulation, after the maximum price for such commodity has been changed by any provision of this regulation, the producer shall:

(a) Supply each wholesaler and retailer who purchases from him with written notice as set forth below:

MAINTENANCE AND OPERATION OF FLOOD CONTROL WORKS

Pursuant to the provisions of section 3 of the Act of Congress approved June 22, 1936, as amended and supplemented (49 Stat. 1571; 50 Stat. 877; and 55 Stat. 638; 33 U. S. C. 701c; 701c-1), the following regulations are hereby prescribed to govern the maintenance and operation of flood control works:

§ 208.10 Local flood protection works; maintenance and operation of structures and facilities—(a) General. (1) The structures and facilities constructed by the United States for local flood protection shall be continuously maintained in such a manner and operated at such times and for such periods as may be necessary to obtain the maximum benefits.

(2) The State, political subdivision thereof, or other responsible local agency, which furnished assurance that it will maintain and operate flood control works in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary of War, as required by law, shall appoint a permanent committee consisting of or headed by an official hereinafter called the "Superintendent," who shall be responsible for the development and maintenance of, and directly in charge of, an organization responsible for the efficient operation and maintenance of all of the structures and facilities during flood periods and for continuous inspection and maintenance of the project works during periods of low water, all without cost to the United States.

(3) A reserve supply of materials needed during a flood emergency shall be kept on hand at all times.

(4) No encroachment or trespass which will adversely affect the efficient operation or maintenance of the project works shall be permitted upon the rights-of-way for the protective facilities.

(5) No improvement shall be passed over, under, or through the walls, levees, improved channels or floodways, nor shall any excavation or construction be permitted within the limits of the project right-of-way, nor shall any change be made in any feature of the works without prior determination by the District Engineer of the War Department or his authorized representative that such improvement, excavation, construction, or alteration will not adversely affect the functioning of the protective facilities. Such improvements or alterations as may be found to be desirable and permissible under the above determination shall be constructed in accordance with standard engineering practice. Advice regarding the effect of proposed improvements or alterations on the functioning of the project and information concerning methods of construction acceptable under standard engineering practice shall be obtained from the District Engineer or, if otherwise obtained, shall be submitted for his approval. Drawings or prints showing such improvements or alterations as finally constructed shall be furnished the District Engineer after completion of the work.

(6) It shall be the duty of the superintendent to submit a semiannual report to the District Engineer covering inspection, maintenance, and operation of the protective works.

(7) The District Engineer or his authorized representatives shall have access at all times to all portions of the protective works.

(8) Maintenance measures or repairs which the District Engineer deems necessary shall be promptly taken or made.

(9) Appropriate measures shall be taken by local authorities to insure that the activities of all local organizations operating public or private facilities connected with the protective works are coordinated with those of the Superintendent's organization during flood periods.

(10) The War Department will furnish local interests with an Operation and Maintenance Manual for each completed project, or separate useful part thereof, to assist them in carrying out their obligations under these regulations.

(b) Levees—(1) Maintenance. The Superintendent shall provide at all times such maintenance as may be required to insure serviceability of the structures in time of flood. Measures shall be taken to promote the growth of sod, exterminate burrowing animals, and to provide for routine mowing of the grass and weeds, removal of wild growth and drift deposits, and repair of damage caused by erosion or other forces. Where practicable, measures shall be taken to retard bank erosion by planting of willows or other suitable growth on areas riverward of the levees. Periodic inspections shall be made by the Superintendent to insure that the above maintenance measures are being effectively carried out and, further, to be certain that:

(i) No unusual settlement, sloughing, or material loss of grade or levee cross section has taken place;

(ii) No caving has occurred on either the land side or the river side of the levee which might affect the stability of the levee section;

(iii) No seepage, saturated areas, or sand boils are occurring;

(iv) Tow drainage systems and pressure relief wells are in good working condition, and that such facilities are not becoming clogged;

(v) Drains through the levees and gates on said drains are in good working condition;

(vi) No revetment work or riprap has been displaced, washed out, or removed;

(vii) No action is being taken, such as burning grass and weeds during inappropriate seasons, which will retard or destroy the growth of sod;

(viii) Access roads to and on the levee are being properly maintained;

(ix) Cattle guards and gates are in good condition;

(x) Crown of levee is shaped so as to drain readily, and roadway thereon, if any, is well shaped and maintained;

(xi) There is no unauthorized grazing or vehicular traffic on the levees;

(xii) Encroachments are not being made on the levee right-of-way which might endanger the structure or hinder its proper and efficient functioning durin times of emergency.

Such inspections shall be made immediately prior to the beginning of the flood season; immediately following each major high water period, and otherwise at intervals not exceeding 90 days, and such intermediate times as may be necessary to insure the best possible care of the levee. Immediate steps will be taken to correct dangerous conditions disclosed by such inspections. Regular maintenance repair measures shall be accomplished during the appropriate season as scheduled by the Superintendent.

(2) Operation. During flood periods the levee shall be patrolled continuously to locate possible sand boils or unusual wetness of the landward slope arid to be certain that:

(i) There are no indications of slides or sloughs developing;

(ii) Wave wash or scouring action is not occurring;

(iii) No low reaches of levee exist which may be overtopped;

(iv) No other conditions exist which might endanger the structure.

Appropriate advance measures will be taken to insure the availability of adequate labor and materials to meet all contingencies. Immediate steps will be taken to control any condition which endangers the levee and to repair the damaged section.

(c) Flood walls.—(1) Maintenance. Periodic inspections shall be made by the Superintendent to be certain that:

(i) No seepage, saturated areas, or sand boils are occurring;

(ii) No undue settlement has occurred which affects the stability of the wall or its water tightness;

(iii) No trees exist, the roots of which might extend under the wall and offer accelerated seepage paths;

(iv) The concrete has not undergone cracking, chipping, or breaking to an extent which might affect the stability of the wall or its water tightness;

(v) There are no encroachments upon the right-of-way which might endanger the structure or hinder its functioning in time of flood;

(vi) Care is being exercised to prevent accumulation of trash and debris adjacent to walls, and to insure that no fires are being built near them;

(vii) No bank caving conditions exist riverward of the wall which might endanger its stability;

(viii) The drainage systems and pressure relief wells are in good working condition, and that such facilities are not becoming clogged.

Such inspections shall be made immediately prior to the beginning of the flood season, immediately following each major high water period, and otherwise at intervals not exceeding 90 days. Measures to eliminate encroachments and effect repairs found necessary by such inspections shall be undertaken immediately. All repairs shall be accomplished by methods acceptable in standard engineering practice.

(2) Operation. Continuous patrol of the wall shall be maintained during flood periods to locate possible leakage at monolith joints or seepage underneath the wall. Floating plant or boats will not be allowed to lie against or tie up to the wall. Should it become necessary during a flood emergency to pass anchor cables over the wall, adequate measures shall be taken to protect the concrete and construction joints. Immediate steps shall be taken to correct any condition which endangers the stability of the wall.

(d) Drainage structures—(1) Maintenance. Adequate measures shall be taken to insure that inlet and outlet channels are kept open and that trash, drift, or debris is not allowed to accumulate near drainage structures. Flap gates and manually operated gates and valves on drainage structures shall be examined, oiled, and trial operated at least once every 90 days. Where drainage structures are provided with stop log or other emergency closures, the condition of the equipment and its housing shall be inspected regularly and a trial installation of the emergency closure shall be made at least once each year. Periodic inspections shall be made by the Superintendent to be certain that:

(i) Pipes, gates, operating mechanism, riprap, and headwalls are in good condition;

(ii) Inlet and outlet channels are open;

(iii) Care is being exercised to prevent the accumulation of trash and debris near the structures and that no fires are being built near bituminous coated pipes;

(iv) Erosion is not occurring adjacent to the structure which might endanger its water tightness or stability.

Immediate steps will be taken to repair damage, replace missing or broken parts, or remedy adverse conditions disclosed by such inspections.

(2) Operation. Whenever high water conditions impend, all gates will be inspected a short time before water reaches the invert of the pipe and any object which might prevent closure of the gate shall be removed. Automatic gates shall be closely observed until it has been ascertained that they are securely closed. Manually operated gates and valves shall be closed as necessary to prevent inflow of flood water. All drainage structures in levees shall be inspected frequently during floods to ascertain whether seepage is taking place along the lines of their contact with the embankment. Immediate steps shall be taken to correct any adverse condition.

(e) Closure structures—(1) Maintenance. Closure structures for traffic openings shall be inspected by the superintendent every 90 days to be certain that:

(i) No parts are missing;

(ii) Metal parts are adequately covered with paint;

(iii) All movable parts are in satisfactory working order;

(iv) Proper closure can be made promptly when necessary;

(v) Sufficient materials are on hand for the erection of sand bag closures and that the location of such materials will be readily accessible in times of emergency.

Tools and parts shall not be removed for other use. Trial erections of one or more closure structures shall be made once each year, alternating the structures chosen so that each gate will be erected at least once in each 3-year period. Trial erection of all closure structures shall be made whenever a change is made in key operating personnel. Where railroad operation makes trial erection of a closure structure infeasible, rigorous inspection and drill of operating personnel may be substituted therefor. Trial erection of sand bag closures is not required. Closure materials will be carefully checked prior to and following flood periods, and damaged or missing parts shall be repaired or replaced immediately.

(2) Operation. Erection of each movable closure shall be started in sufficient time to permit completion before flood waters reach the top of the structure sill. Information regarding the proper method of erecting each individual closure structure, together with an estimate of the time required by an experienced crew to complete its erection will be given in the Operation and Maintenance Manual which will be furnished local interests upon completion of the project. Closure structures will be inspected frequently during flood periods to ascertain that no undue leakage is occurring and that drains provided to care for ordinary leakage are functioning properly. Boats or floating plant shall not be allowed to tie up to closure structures or to discharge passengers or cargo over them.

(f) Pumping plants—(1) Maintenance. Pumping plants shall be inspected by the Superintendent at intervals not to exceed 30 days during flood seasons and 90 days during off-flood seasons to insure that all equipment is in order for instant use. At regular intervals, proper measures shall be taken to provide for cleaning plant, buildings, and equipment, repainting as necessary, and lubricating all machinery Adequate supplies of lubricants for all types of machines, fuel for gasoline or diesel powered equipment, and flash lights or lanterns for emergency lighting shall be kept on hand at all times. Telephone service shall be maintained at pumping plants. All equipment, including switch gear, transformers, motors, pumps, valves, and gates shall be trial operated and checked at least once every 90 days. Megger tests of all insulation shall be made whenever wiring has been subjected to undue dampness and otherwise at intervals not to exceed one year. A record shall be kept showing the results of such tests. Wiring disclosed to be in an unsatisfactory condition by such tests shall be brought to a satisfactory condition or shall be promptly replaced. Diesel and gasoline engines shall be started at such intervals and allowed to run for such length of time as may be necessary to insure their serviceability in times of emergency. Only skilled electricians and mechanics shall be employed on tests and repairs. Operating personnel for the plant shall be present during tests. Any equipment removed from the station for repair or replacement shall be returned or replaced as soon as practicable and shall be trial operated after reinstallation. Repairs requiring removal of equipment from the plant shall be made during off-flood seasons insofar as practicable.

(2) Operation. Competent operators shall be on duty at pumping plants whenever it appears that necessity for pump operation is imminent. The operator shall thoroughly inspect, trial operate, and place in readiness all plant equipment. The operator shall be familiar with the equipment manufacturers' instructions and drawings and with the "Operating Instructions" for each station. The equipment shall be operated in accordance with the above-mentioned "Operating Instructions" and care shall be exercised that proper lubrication is being supplied all equipment, and that no overheating, undue vibration or noise is occurring. Immediately upon final recession of flood waters, the pumping station shall be thoroughly cleaned, pump house sumps flushed, and equipment thoroughly inspected, oiled and greased. A record or log of pumping plant operation shall be kept for each station, a copy of which shall be furnished the District Engineer following each flood.

(g) Channels and floodways — (1) Maintenance. Periodic inspections of improved channels and floodways shall be made by the Superintendent to be certain that:

(i) The channel or floodway is clear of debris, weeds, and wild growth;

(ii) The channel or floodway is not being restricted by the depositing of waste materials, building of unauthorized structures or other encroachments;

(iii) The capacity of the channel or floodway is not being reduced by the information of shoals;

(iv) Banks are not being damaged by rain or wave wash, and that no sloughing of banks has occurred;

(v) Riprap sections and deflection dikes and walls are in good condition;

(vi) Approach and egress channels adjacent to the improved channel or floodway are sufficiently clear of obstructions and debris to permit proper functioning of the project works.

Such inspections shall be made prior to the beginning of the flood season and otherwise at intervals not to exceed 90 days. Immediate steps will be taken to remedy any adverse conditions disclosed by such inspections. Measures will be taken by the Superintendent to promote the growth of grass on bank slopes and earth deflection dikes. The Superintendent shall provide for periodic repair and cleaning of debris basins, check dams, and related structures as may be necessary.

(2) Operation. Both banks of the channel shall be patrolled during periods of high water, and measures shall be taken to protect those reaches being attacked by the current or by wave wash. Appropriate measures shall be taken to prevent the formation of jams of ice or debris. Large objects which become lodged against the bank shall be removed. The improved channel or floodway shall be thoroughly inspected immediately following each major high water period. As soon as practicable thereafter, all snags and other debris shall be removed and all damage to banks, riprap, deflection dikes and walls, drainage outlets, or other flood control structures repaired.

(h) Miscellaneous facilities — (1) Maintenance. Miscellaneous structures and facilities constructed as a part of the protective works and other structures and facilities which function as a part of, or affect the efficient functioning of the protective works, shall be periodically inspected by the Superintendent and appropriate maintenance measures taken. Damaged or unserviceable parts shall be repaired or replaced without delay. Areas used for ponding in connection with pumping plants or for temporary storage of interior run-off during flood periods shall not be allowed to become filled with silt, debris, or dumped material. The Superintendent shall take proper steps to prevent restriction of bridge openings and, where practicable, shall provide for temporary raising during floods of bridges which restrict channel capacities during high flows.

(2) Operation. Miscellaneous facilities shall be operated to prevent or reduce flooding during periods of high water. Those facilities constructed as a part of the protective works shall not be used for purposes other than flood protection without approval of the District Engineer unless designed therefor. TITLE 41—PUBLIC CONTRACTS

Chapter II—Division of Public Contracts

PART 202—MINIMUM WAGE DETERMINATIONS

FIREWORKS INDUSTRY

This matter is before me pursuant to section 1 (b) of the Act of June 30, 1936 (49 Stat. 2036; 41 U.S.C. Supp. III, 35), entitled "An act to provide conditions for the purchase of supplies and the making of contracts by the United States, and for other purposes," otherwise known as the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act.

On March 15, 1944, the Acting Administrator of the Division of Public Contracts of the United States Department of Labor issued a notice of opportunity to show cause on or before April 30, 1944, why I should not amend the prevailing minimum wage determination for the fireworks industry, issued by me on September 30, 1938, by increasing the prevailing minimum wage from 31¼ cents for the manufacture or supply of commercial fireworks and 37½ cents for the manufacture or supply of fusees, flares, and ship and railroad torpedoes, to 40 cents an hour.

The notice sets forth that: (1) The minimum wage required to be paid by manufacturers of fireworks subject to the provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 became 40 cents an hour on February 7, 1944, pursuant to the wage order of the Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division for the chemical, petroleum and coal products, and allied manufacturing industries; and (2) substantially all employees subject to my prevailing minimum wage determination for the fireworks industry are engaged in commeree or in the production of goods for commerce, and consequently the wage order has the effect of establishing not less than 40 cents an hour as the prevailing minimum wage in the fireworks industry.

This notice was sent to trade unions, trade associations, and publications and was duly published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on March 30, 1944 (9 F.R. 3430). No objections, protests, nor any statements in opposition to the proposed amendment have been received.

Upon consideration of all the facts and circumstances, I hereby determine:

§ 202.20 Fireworks industry. The prevailing minimum wage for employees engaged in the performance of contracts with agencies of the United States Government subject to the provisions of the Public Contracts Act (49 Stat. 2036; 41 U.S.C. Supp. III, 35) for the manufacture or supply of commercial fireworks and for the manufacture or supply of fusees, flares, and railroad torpedoes shall be 40 cents an hour or $16.00 per week for a week of 40 hours, arrived at either upon a time or piece work basis.

This determination shall be effective and its provisions shall apply to all contracts subject to the Public Contracts Act, bids for which are solicited or negotiations otherwise commenced by the contracting agency on or after September 8, 1944.

Nothing in this determination shall affect such obligations for the payment of minimum wages as an employer may have under any law or agreement more favorable to employees than the requirements of this determination.

Until this amended determination becomes effective, my original decision of September 30, 1938 (3 F.R. 2370) shall remain in full force and effect.

Dated: August 9, 1944.

FRANCES PERKINS,

[Augusta Order 1 Under Restaurant MPR 2]

POSTING REQUIREMENTS IN AUGUSTA, MAINE, DISTRICT

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and under the authority vested in the District Director of the Augusta, Maine District Office of the Office of Price Administration by section 16 of Restaurant Maximum Price Regulation No. 2, it is hereby ordered:

SECTION 1. Posting requirements. If you own or operate an eating or drinking establishment, you must, on or before August 16, 1944 show on a poster to be supplied by the Office of Price Administration, your lawful ceiling prices for 40 food items, and meals, as set forth in this Order.

(a) First list on the poster as many of the food items and meals listed in Appendix A of this order, as you offer for sale and your ceiling prices for each. If you find in Appendix A several tables of food items and meals, choose the table most applicable to your establishment.

(b) If you do not offer all the 40 items listed in the applicable table in Appendix A, list first those which you do offer, placing them on the poster in the order in which they appear in Appendix A. Then add as many other items which you usually offer to bring the total number to 40, with your ceiling price for each item.

(c) If you do not offer as many as 40 items, place on the poster all the items which you do offer and your ceiling price for each.

(d) List a la carte items first. In listing meals, list the entree and then indicate the type of meal, for example, steak dinner, leg of lamb dinner, filet of sole lunch, vegetable plate luncheon.

(e) The list of individual items may be printed or hand lettered in ink on the poster in letters large enough so that it can be easily read by your customers.

(f) You must place the poster near the main entrance of your establishment, or in a conspicuous place so that it will be plainly visible to your customers.

SEC. 2. Filing of lists of posted prices. When you have made up the list of food items and meals to be posted and your lawful ceiling price for each, you must make three copies of this list, and send or deliver it to your local War Price and Rationing Board on or before August 21, 1944. Each copy must be clear and legible, dated and signed by the owner or manager of your establishment, with the name and address of the establishment following the signature.

The War Price and Rationing Board shall check this list with your filed ceiling prices. If the prices check, the Board shall make a notation to this effect on one copy of the list and return it to you. You shall keep this copy in your establishment, and make it available for examination by any person during business hours.

If the prices on your list do not completely check with your filed ceiling prices, the Board will call you in for a conference, so that corrections can be made.

SEC. 3. Replacement of posters. If a poster is mutilated or becomes badly soiled or otherwise damaged, it must be replaced by a new one which may be obtained from your War Price and Rationing Board upon presentation of the damaged poster. Erasures or changes of prices listed on the poster are prohibited. The new poster must be filled out exactly like the old one. Large establishments may receive extra posters.

SEC. 4. Geographical applicability. The provisions of this order extend to all eating and drinking establishments located within the Maine District of the Office of Price Administration.

SEC. 5. Exemptions. All establishments which are exempted from the provisions of Restaurant Maximum Price Regulation No. 2 are exempted from this order.

This order shall become effective August 9, 1944.

NOTE: The reporting and record-keeping provisions of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget, in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(a) Choose from the tables in Appendix A the table for your type of establishment. List on the poster the items which you offer which are in this table, placing them on the poster in the order in which they appear in the table, with your ceiling price for each item. Then to bring the total number to 40, add items offered by you which are listed in the other tables, beginning with Table I if you have not already used this table; place the items on the poster in the order in which they appear in the table, and show your ceiling price for each item.

(b) If you cannot find in Appendix A as many as 40 items offered by you, then add as many other items which you usually offer to bring the total number to 40, with your ceiling price for each item.

(c) If you do not offer as many as 40 items, place on the poster all the items which you do offer and your ceiling price for each.

(d) In listing meals, list the entree and then indicate the type of meal, for example, steak dinner, leg of lamb dinner, filet of sole lunch, vegetable plate luncheon.

(e) The list of individual items may be printed or hand lettered in ink on the poster in letters large enough so that it can be easily read by your customers.

SEC. 2. Filing of lists of posted prices. When you have made up the list of food items and meals to be posted and your lawful ceiling price for each, you must make three copies of this list, and send or deliver them to your local War Price and Rationing Board on or before August 30, 1944. Each copy must be clear and legible, dated and signed by the owner or manager of your establishment, with the name and address of the establishment following the signature.

The War Price and Rationing Board shall check this list with your filed ceiling prices. If the prices check, the Board shall make a notation to this effect on one copy of the list and return it to you. You shall keep this copy in your establishment, and make it available for examination by any person during business hours.

If the prices on your list do not completely check with your filed ceiling prices, the Board will call you in for a conference, so that corrections can be made.

SEC. 3. Replacement of posters. If a poster is mutilated or becomes badly soiled or otherwise damaged, it must be replaced by a new one which may be obtained from your War Price and Rationing Board upon presentation of the damaged poster. SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

[File No. 70-929]

Pennsylvania Gas & Electric Corp., et al.

Notice of Filing and Order for Hearing

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 12th day of August 1944.

In the matter of Pennsylvania Gas & Electric Corporation, the Petersburg & Hopewell Gas Company, the Old Dominion Gas & Electric Corporation; File No. 70-929.

Notice is hereby given that declarations and applications have been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("the act") by Pennsylvania Gas & Electric Corporation ("Pennsylvania"), a registered holding company, and by The Petersburg & Hopewell Gas Company ("Petersburg") and The Old Dominion Gas & Electric Corporation ("Old Dominion"), both subsidiaries of Pennsylvania. All interested persons are referred to said documents which are on file in the office of this Commission for a full statement of the transactions therein proposed which may be summarized as follows:

1. Pennsylvania proposes to donate to Petersburg all of the capital stock (5,000 shares) of Old Dominion and the open account indebtedness of $132,000 now owed to Pennsylvania by Old Dominion. Petersburg will thereupon acquire the assets and assume the indebtedness of Old Dominion in connection with the liquidation and dissolution of the latter company.

2. Petersburg proposes to issue and sell $200,000 principal amount of First Mortgage Bonds bearing interest of 3¼% per annum and maturing September 1, 1969, such bonds to be secured by First Mortgage on all physical properties now owned or hereafter acquired by Petersburg, including properties to be acquired from Old Dominion. It is proposed that such bonds be sold privately at a price of 100% to John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company. The proceeds of the sale of such bonds (less expenses incident to their sale) are to be used (a) to redeem all outstanding preferred stock of Petersburg, consisting of 1,493 shares of 6% cumulative preferred stock of $100 par value, at the redemption price of $105 per share and accrued dividends and (b) to pay for construction of and improvements to facilities needed in rendering service.

3. Petersburg proposes to amend its charter so as to eliminate any authorized preferred stock and to provide for a single class of capital stock, consisting of 55,000 shares of $10 par value, such new capital stock to be issued by Petersburg to Pennsylvania in exchange for the 5,500 shares of Petersburg's common stock of $100 par value now owned by Pennsylvania.

The filings state that applications are pending before the State Corporation Commission of Virginia seeking authorization to effect the various transactions herein described. Both Old Dominion and Petersburg are incorporated in, and do business solely within, the State of Virginia.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held in respect of the transactions proposed in the above declarations and applications; and that the declarations shall not become effective nor the applications be granted except pursuant to further order of the Commission:

It is ordered, That a hearing under the applicable provisions of the Act and the rules of the Commission thereunder be held on the 6th day of September 1944, at 10:00 a. m., e. w. t., at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. On such day the hearing room clerk in room 318 will advise as to the room in which such hearing will be held. All persons desiring to be heard or otherwise wishing to participate in the proceedings should notify the Commission in the manner provided by the rules of practice, Rule XVII, on or before September 2, 1944.

It is further ordered, That Henry C. Lank or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearing at such time. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said act, and to a trial examiner under the Commission's rules of practice.

It is further ordered, That without limiting the scope of the issues presented by this proceeding, attention will be directed at the hearing to consideration of the following matters and questions:

1. Whether the acquisitions involved in the proposed transactions are in conformity with applicable provisions of the Act and the rules, regulations and orders thereunder.

2. Whether the issue and sale of First Mortgage Bonds and new capital stock by Petersburg should be exempted from the requirements of section 6 (a) by reason of the provisions of section 6 (b) of the act and if not, whether the issue and sale of such securities are in conformity with applicable provisions of section 7 of the act.

3. Whether, in general, the various transactions proposed are in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers and will not be in contravention of any provisions of the Act or the Rules, Regulations and Orders promulgated thereunder.

4. What, if any, terms and conditions with respect to the proposed transactions should be prescribed in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers.

It is further ordered, That the Secretary of the Commission shall serve notice of the hearing aforesaid by mailing a copy of this order by registered mail to the declarants and applicants and to the State Corporation Commission of Virginia, and that notice shall be given to all other persons by general release of this Commission which shall be distributed to the press and mailed to the mailing list for releases issued under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935; and that further notice be given to all persons by publication of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] ORVAL L. DUBOIS, Secretary.

(2) "Packer" means any person engaged in the business of processing and packaging dried fruit or having dried fruit processed or packaged for his account.

(3) "Producer" means any person engaged in the production of dried fruits; and such term includes, but is not limited to, any owner of fresh fruit at the time such fruit is dried.

(4) "Processing" means grading, sizing, stemming, seeding, or treating dried fruit by the use of water, steam, chemicals, or compressed or hot air; or cutting fresh apples for the production of dried apples.

(5) "Governmental agency" means (i) the Armed Services of the United States (excluding for the purpose of this order, United States Army Post Exchanges, Sales Commissaries, United States Navy Ships' Service Departments, and United States Marine Corps Post Exchanges); (ii) the War Food Administration (including, but not being restricted to, any corporate agency thereof; (iii) the War Shipping Administration; (iv) the Veterans' Administration; and (v) any other instrumentality or agency designated by the War Food Administrator. The term "governmental agency" also includes any person who, pursuant to a war food order, is entitled to purchase dried fruit subject to this order.

(6) "Armed Services of the United States" means the Army, the Navy, the Marine Corps, and the Coast Guard of the United States.

(7) "Director" means the Director of Distribution, War Food Administration.

(8) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(b) Restrictions on packers and producers. (1) No producer may sell or deliver dried fruit except to (i) the Office of Distribution (including but not restricted to any corporate agency thereof); (ii) any person or agency designated by the Director; or (iii) a packer.

(2) Each packer shall, without regard to existing contracts, set aside and hold for sale and delivery to a governmental agency (i) all of the dried fruit which was in his possession; under his control, or under contract to him on August 10, 1942; (ii) all of the fresh fruit acquired by such packer since August 10, 1942, or hereafter acquired by him, for use in the production of dried fruit; and (iii) all of the dried fruit hereafter produced or acquired by such packer. Fruit so set aside shall not be processed or packed except in accordance with instructions furnished by the Director, or by a governmental agency if such fruit is to be purchased by a governmental agency. The Director or any governmental agency may issue specifications at any time as to the processing, packing, labeling, boxing, and strapping of the fruit to be acquired by a governmental agency. The Director may issue specifications at any time as to the processing and packing of dried fruit released for sale and delivery in United States civilian trade channels; and, in the event the Director issues such specifications, no person shall process or pack dried fruit released for sale and delivery in the United States civilian trade channels except in accordance with the specifications issued by the Director.

(3) Each packer shall mail the reports, completely and correctly filled in, to the Director on forms numbered FDO 16–A to FDO 16–G, for the respective dried fruit indicated thereon, not later than three days after the close of the period, from the first day to the fifteenth day, and the close of the period from the 16th day to the last day of each month, inclusive.

(4) If the Director determines that any dried fruit set aside pursuant to this order is not required for a governmental agency, the Director may release such dried fruit at any time by notice directed to the packer. So far as such action is consistent with the public interest and the promotion of the national defense, such releases shall be of such a character as to allow all packers substantially equal proportions of their packs of each fruit for sale to purchasers other than governmental agencies.

(5) Any quantities of dried fruit allocated or released shall, unless otherwise specified, be withdrawn by the packer from the earliest reported stocks of such dried fruit.

(c) Audits and inspections. The Director shall be entitled to make such audit or inspection of the books, records and other writings, premises or stocks of dried fruit of any person, and to make such investigations, as may be necessary or appropriate, in the Director's discretion, to the enforcement or administration of the provisions of this order.

The Director may, after said review, take such action as he deems appropriate, and such action shall be final. The provisions of this paragraph (e) shall not be construed to deprive the Director of authority to consider originally any petition for relief from hardship submitted in accordance herewith. The Director may consider any such petition and take such action with reference thereto that he deems appropriate, and such action shall be final.

(f) Violations. Any person who violates any provision of this order may, in accordance with the applicable procedure, be prohibited from receiving, making any deliveries of, or using the material subject to priority or allocation control pursuant to this order. In addition, any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order is guilty of a crime and may be prosecuted under any and all applicable laws. Further, civil action may be instituted to enforce any liability or duty created by, or to enjoin any violation of, any provision of this order.

MILLER & DUMBAUGH

C. C. Miller and C. T. Dumbaugh, doing business as Miller & Dumbaugh, are contractors and builders, located at 106 East Walnut Street, Butler, Pennsylvania. In December, 1943, they began construction as building contractors, and thereafter continued construction, in remodeling a brick and frame two-story building, located at 324 South Main Street, Butler, Pennsylvania, to be used as a retail store room and two-family apartment, at a cost of approximately $8,000, and obtaining material therefor without permission of the War Production Board. This was in violation of Conservation Order L–41, which placed a limit of $200, on such construction. C. C. Miller and C. T. Dumbaugh were aware of the provisions of Conservation Order L–41 and their beginning this construction without ascertaining whether War Production Board approval had been granted constituted a violation of Conservation Order L–41 which was the result of gross negligence.

This violation of Conservation Order L–41 has diverted critical material to uses not authorized by the War Production Board and has hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States of America. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.597 Suspension Order S–597. (a) From August 16, 1944, through October 16, 1944, deliveries of material to C. C. Miller and C. T. Dumbaugh, doing business as Miller & Dumbaugh or otherwise, their or its successors or assigns, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order, and no preference rating shall be assigned, applied or extended to such deliveries by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders or any other order or regulations of the War Production Board, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to construction jobs which have been begun or contracts for construction which have been entered into by C. C. Miller and C. T. Dumbaugh, doing business as Miller & Dumbaugh, or otherwise, prior to the issuance of this suspension order.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve C. C. Miller or C. T. Dumbaugh, doing business as Miller & Dumbaugh or otherwise, their and its successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S–602, Stay of Execution]

THE WICHITA BEACON

The Wichita Beacon of Wichita, Kansas, has appealed from the provisions of Suspension Order No. S–602, issued August 11, 1944 (§ 1010.602), and has requested a stay on the ground that irreparable harm would be done its business if the Suspension Order were not stayed. The Chief Compliance Commissioner has directed that the provisions of the Suspension Order be stayed pending final determination of the appeal or until further order by the Chief Compliance Commissioner. In view of the foregoing, It is hereby ordered, That:

The provisions of Suspension Order No. S–602, issued the 11th day of August, 1944, are hereby stayed pending final determination of the appeal or until further order by the Chief Compliance Commissioner.

Issued this 16th day of August 1944.

[General Imports Order M–63, as Amended Aug. 17, 1944]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of certain imported materials for defense, for private account, and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1042.1 General Imports Order M–63—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, or any organized group of persons, whether or not incorporated.

(2) "Owner" of any material means any person who has any property interest in such material except a person whose interest is held solely as security for the payment of money.

(3) "Consignee" means the person to whom a material is consigned at the time of importation.

(4) "Import" means to transport in any manner into the continental United States from any foreign country or from any territory or possession of the United States (including the Philippine Islands). It includes shipments into a free port, free zone, or bonded custody of the United States Bureau of Customs (bonded warehouse) in the continental United States and shipments in bond into the continental United States for transshipment to Canada, Mexico, or any other foreign country.

(5) "Place of initial storage" means any warehouse, yard ground storage, or other place, to which the person making the entry or withdrawal from custody of the United States Bureau of Customs of material imported subject to this order directs or has directed that such material be transported from the port of entry to be held until disposed of pursuant to this order.

(6) Material shall be deemed "in transit" if it is afloat, if an on board ocean bill of lading has actually been issued with respect to it, or if it has actually been delivered to and accepted by a rail, truck, or air carrier, for transportation to a point within the continental United States.

(7) "Governing date" with respect to any material means the date when such material first became subject to General Imports Order M–63.

(b) Restrictions on imports of materials—(1) General restriction. No person, except as authorized in writing by the War Production Board shall purchase for import, receive, or offer to receive on consignment for import, or make any contract or other arrangement for the importing of, any material subject to this order after the governing date. The foregoing restrictions shall apply to the importation of any material subject to the order, regardless of the existence on the governing date or thereafter of any contract or other arrangement for the importation of such material. The materials subject to this order are those listed from time to time upon List I, List II, and List III attached hereto.

(2) Authorization by War Production Board. Any person desiring such authorization, whether owner, purchaser, seller, or consignee of the material to be imported, or agent of any of them, shall make application therefor in duplicate on Form WPB–1041 (formerly PD–222C) addressed to the War Production Board, Ref.: M–63, Washington 25, D. C. Unless otherwise expressly permitted, such authorization shall apply only to the particular material and shipment mentioned therein and to the persons and their agents concerned with such shipment; it shall not be assignable or transferable either in whole or in part.

(3) Restrictions on financing of imports. No bank or other person shall participate, by financing or otherwise, in any arrangement which such bank or person knows or has reason to know involves the importation after the governing date of any material subject to this order, unless such bank or person either has received a copy of the authorization issued by the War Production Board under the provisions of paragraph (b) (2) or is satisfied from known facts that the proposed transaction comes within the exceptions set forth in paragraph (b) (4).

(4) Exceptions. Unless otherwise directed by the War Production Board, the restrictions set forth in this paragraph (b) shall not apply:

(i) To the Foreign Economic Administration, U. S. Commercial Company, Commodity Credit Corporation, Metals Reserve Company, Defense Supplies Corporation, or any other United States governmental department, agency, or corporation, or any agent acting for any such department, agency or corporation; or

(ii) To any material of which any United States governmental department, agency, or corporation is the owner at the time of importation, or to any material which the owner at the time of importation had purchased or otherwise acquired from any United States governmental department, agency or corporation; or

(iii) To any material which on the governing date was in transit to a point within the continental United States.

(iv) [Deleted Mar. 30, 1944]

(v) To any material consigned as a gift or imported for personal use where the value of each consignment or shipment is less than $100.00; or to any material consigned or imported as a sample where the value of each consignment or shipment is less than $25.00; or to any used material in the category of household goods imported by the owner for his own personal use; or

(vi) To materials consigned as gifts for personal use by or to members of the Armed Services of the United States; or

(vii) To any material on List I or List II imported by any person under any contract or other arrangement made before, or in existence on the governing date and which, on December 28, 1942, was in transit to a point within the continental United States; or

(viii) To manufactured materials which are imported in bond solely for the purpose of having them repaired and then returned to the owner outside the continental United States; or

(ix) To materials which were grown, produced, or manufactured in the continental United States, and which were shipped outside the continental United States on consignment or pursuant to a contract of purchase, and which are now returned as rejected by the prospective purchaser; or

(x) To materials shipped into the United States in transit from one point in Mexico to another point in Mexico, or from one point in Canada to another point in Canada.

(c) Restrictions on disposition of List I material. Except as hereinafter specifically provided in paragraph (d) hereof:

(1) Restrictions upon owners and consignees. No owner or consignee of any material on List I which is imported after the governing date shall in any way, directly or indirectly:

(i) Dispose of any interest in such material;

(ii) Process or in any way change the physical condition of such material;

(iii) Transfer possession, or cause or permit a transfer of possession, of such material except to the port of entry and from the port of entry to the place of initial storage of such material; or

(iv) Change, or cause or permit a change of, the location of such material except to the port of entry and from the port of entry to the place of initial storage of such material.

Provided: That a consignee of such material may dispose of his interest in such material to the extent necessary to complete any commitment or contract made prior to the governing date. The person to whom he disposes of such interest shall be subject to all restrictions imposed upon owners by this order.

(2) Restrictions upon banks and persons similarly situated. No bank or other person which, as agent, pledgee, beneficiary under a trust receipt, or otherwise, has possession of or any interest in any written instrument evidencing any interest in any material on List I shall in any way, directly or indirectly, dispose of any such interest, or transfer possession, or cause or permit a transfer of possession, of such instrument, unless:

(i) Such material was imported before the governing date; or

(ii) Such person neither knows nor has reason to know that such material was imported after the governing date; or

(iii) Such disposition or transfer is necessary to permit a consignee to make a permissible disposition of material in accordance with subparagraph (1) of this paragraph (c); or

(iv) Such disposition or transfer is made to the owner of the material and such owner has complied with all the provisions of this order.

(d) Permissible disposition of List I materials — (1) Transfer to governmental agency. Nothing contained in this order shall prohibit an owner or consignee of any material on List I imported after the governing date, or a bank or other person having possession of, or an interest in, a written instrument evidencing an interest in such material, from disposing of, or making any arrangement to dispose of, any interest in such material to the Foreign Economic Administration, Commodity Credit Corporation, Metals Reserve Company, Defense Supplies Corporation, or any other United States governmental department, agency, or corporation.

(2) Authorization by War Production Board. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (c), an owner or consignee of material on List I imported after the governing date or a bank or other person having possession of or an interest in a written instrument evidencing an interest in such material, may process such material or may dispose of any interest in such material or any such written instrument, or transfer possession or change the location thereof, or cause or permit such a transfer of possession or change of location, upon written authorization by the War Production Board. Any such person may make application in duplicate for such an authorization on Form WPB–1039 (formerly PD–322A), which form shall be addressed to the War Production Board, Ref.: M–63, Washington 25, D. C.

(3) Exceptions. The restrictions set forth in paragraph (c) shall not apply to any material after any United States governmental department, agency, or corporation becomes the owner thereof, and shall not apply to any material of which any United States governmental department, agency, or corporation is the owner at the time of importation, and shall not apply to any material purchased or otherwise acquired from any United States governmental department agency, or corporation.

(e) Restrictions on disposition of List II or List III material. Unless otherwise provided by the terms of the authorization issued pursuant to paragraph (b) (2), any material on List II or List III, which is imported in accordance with the provisions of this order after the governing date, may be sold, delivered, processed, consumed, purchased, or received without restriction under this order, but all such transactions shall be subject to all applicable provisions of the regulations of the War Production Board and to all orders and directions of the War Production Board which now or hereafter may be in effect with respect to such material.

(f) Reports—(1) Reports on customs entry. No material which is imported after the governing date, including materials imported by or for the account of the Foreign Economic Administration, U. S. Commercial Company, Commodity Credit Corporation, Metals Reserve Company, Defense Supplies Corporation, or any other United States governmental department, agency, or corporation, shall be entered through the United States Bureau of Customs for any purpose, whether for consumption, for warehouse, in transit, in bond, for re-export, for appraisal, or otherwise, unless the person making the entry shall file with the entry Form WPB–1040 (formerly PD–222B) in duplicate. The filing of such form a second time shall not be required upon any subsequent entry of such material through the United States Bureau of Customs for any purpose; nor shall the filing of such form be required upon the withdrawal of any material from bonded custody of the United States Bureau of Customs, regardless of the date when such material was first transported into the continental United States. Both copies of such form shall be transmitted by the Collector of Customs to the War Production Board, Division of Stockpiling and Transportation, Ref.: M–63, Washington 25, D. C.

(2) Other reports. All persons having any interest in, or taking any action with respect to, any material imported after the governing date, whether as owner, agent, consignee, or otherwise, shall file such other reports as may be required from time to time by the War Production Board.

(g) Routing of communications. All communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise herein directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C., Ref.: M–63.

(h) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or who furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority assistance. In addition, the War Production Board may direct the disposition and use of any material which is imported without authorization as required by paragraph (b).

(i) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(j) Effect on liability of removal of material from order. The removal of any material from the order shall not be construed to affect in any way any liability for violation of the order which accrued or was incurred prior to the date of removal.

N. S. C.—No separate class or commodity number has been assigned for the material as described by the Department of Commerce, Statistical Classification of Imports.

No authorization under paragraph (b) of the order is necessary for the release or withdrawal of materials on List II or List III from a free port, a free zone, or the bonded custody of the United States Bureau of Customs (bonded warehouse) in the continental United States regardless of the date when such materials first entered such place. The actual importation, which is the subject of restriction under paragraph (b), is deemed to have occurred before the question of release or withdrawal arises. Also no authorization under paragraph (d) of the order is necessary for the subsequent disposition, processing, or shipment of such released or withdrawn List II and List III materials.

As to List I materials which are similarly situated, no authorization under paragraph (b) of the order is necessary for their release or withdrawal from free port, free zone, or bonded custody, but authorization under paragraph (d) of the order is necessary for their subsequent disposition, processing, or shipment unless they are shipped in bond to Canada, Mexico, or some other foreign country, in which event the foreign destination is deemed to be the place of initial storage as such term is used in the order; Provided, however, That List I materials which are imported in bond after July 2, 1942, can be shipped to Mexico, Canada, or some other foreign country without the express authorization required under paragraph (d) only if the import application filed under paragraph (b) stated that the material was being imported for the purpose of such export shipment. (Issued June 30, 1942, and amended Sept. 23, 1943.)

The following official interpretation is hereby issued by the War Production Board with respect to the meaning of the term "in transit" as defined in paragraph (a) (6) of General Imports Order M–63 (§ 1043.1) as amended:

By amendment dated December 17, 1942, the definition of material "in transit" was changed by adding the following clause, "or if it has actually been delivered to and accepted by a rail, truck, or air carrier, for transportation to a point within the continental United States." The question has been raised as to the meaning of the term as applied to a case where the material on the governing date had been delivered to and accepted by a rail, truck, or air carrier on a through bill of lading for transportation to a specified port and from thence by boat to a point within the continental United States.

The material in the stated case is not deemed to be in transit within the meaning of the term as used in the order. If the material is to be carried to the port of arrival in the continental United States by ship, the material must have been afloat, or an on board ocean bill of lading must have been issued with respect to it, on the governing date in order for it to be considered as having been in transit on such date.

Material which has been delivered to and accepted by a rail, truck, or air carrier on the governing date for transportation to a point within the continental United States is deemed to be in transit within the meaning of the term as used in the order only when the transportation specified in the bill of lading issued by such carrier calls for delivery of the material at the port of arrival in the continental United States by rail, truck, or air carrier, not by ship. (Issued March 5, 1943.)

When by amendment of the order a material already on List II or List III is moved to List I and hence becomes subject to the restrictions of paragraph (c) covering the disposition, processing, transfer, or change of location of such material, the governing date for the application of such restrictions is the effective date of the amendment by which the material was moved to List I and not the date when such material first became subject to General Imports Order M–63. (Issued May 14, 1943.)

Section 1253.1 General Preference Order M–160 is hereby amended to read as follows:

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of beryllium for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1253.1 General Preference Order M–160—(a) Definition. For the purposes of this order, "Beryllium" means and includes:

(1) Ores and concentrates, including beneficiated or treated forms, containing beryllium, commercially recognized;

(2) The element beryllium, sometimes known as "glucinum", in commercially pure form;

(3) Any alloy containing 3% (three per cent) or more by weight of the element beryllium;

(4) Any alloy made for resale in ingot form and containing less than 3% but not less than 0.1% by weight of the element beryllium, if made in whole or in part from scrap or secondary materials;

(5) All chemical compounds containing beryllium as an essential and recognizable component.

(b) Materials removed from allocation. Beginning (the effective date of this order) War Production Board authorization is no longer necessary for delivery or acceptance of delivery of any beryllium (defined in paragraph (a) of this order) except beryllium copper covered by paragraphs (a) (3) and (a) (4).

(c) Materials remaining under allocation. No person shall deliver or accept delivery of beryllium copper covered by paragraphs (a) (3) and (a) (4) of this order, except as specifically authorized by War Production Board.

(d) Exceptions. The following deliveries are excepted from the restrictions of paragraph (c) of this order:

(1) Small order deliveries to persons other than brass mills. Any person may, without authorization from War Production Board, deliver a quantity of beryllium copper in an amount not to exceed two (2) pounds of contained beryllium in any calendar month to any person other than a brass mill. Any person other than a brass mill may, without authorization from War Production Board, accept delivery of beryllium copper from all sources in any calendar month in an amount not to exceed two (2) pounds of contained beryllium.

(2) Deliveries generally to brass mills. Any person may, without authorization from War Production Board, deliver beryllium copper to a brass mill, and any brass mill may accept delivery of beryllium copper without authorization from War Production Board.

(e) How to obtain allocations. Each person requiring permission (pursuant to paragraph (c) of this order) to accept delivery of beryllium copper during any calendar quarter shall, not later than the 20th of the month preceding the calendar quarter in which delivery is desired, file with War Production Board, Washington, D. C., four copies of his application on Form WPB–1122. At the same time, he should send an additional copy to the supplier with whom he may place an order for beryllium copper. War Production Board will return one copy of Form WPB–1122 to the supplier and another copy to the applicant indicating the quantity of beryllium copper which the supplier is authorized to deliver and the applicant to receive.

(f) Reports. All producers and suppliers of beryllium shall file with War Production Board, Washington, D. C., a report on Form WPB–1123 not later than the 15th day of each calendar month.

(g) Special directives. The War Production Board may from time to time issue special directives with respect to:

(1) Deliveries or receipts of beryllium (as defined in paragraph (a) of this order).

(2) The permissible kind or quantity of beryllium which may be used in the composition of any material or product.

(3) The use of any practical substitute for beryllium in the production of any materials or products.

(h) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(i) Budget Bureau approval. The reporting provisions of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(j) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(k) General Imports Order M–63 unaffected. Nothing contained in this order alters or modifies in any way the provisions of General Imports Order M–63 applicable to beryllium.

(l) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M–160.

PART 3294—IRON AND STEEL PRODUCTION

[General Preference Order M–21–b–2, Direction 3]

OIL COUNTRY DISTRIBUTORS

The following direction is issued pursuant to General Preference Order M–21–b–2.

Paragraph (g) (1) of Order M–21–b–2, as amended, states that any person who wishes to become a distributor of any merchant trade product from stock at a location not in operation prior to April 1, 1944, may do so only by purchasing his entire working stock from holders of idle or excess inventories. The order provides, moreover, that each location established by any person pursuant to paragraph (g) (1) shall be considered a separate distributor, even though the location may only represent the addition of another unit to a group operated by the distributor.

These provisions are not practicable for distributors who principally serve the petroleum drilling industry. Branch warehouses of such distributors usually follow the drillers from place to place so that material may be available on the spot to fill local emergency demands promptly.

To enable oil country distributors to operate in their normal manner, the War Production Board will consider, pursuant to paragraph (h) (5), applications for exceptions from the provisions of paragraph (g) (1) of Order M–21–b–2 by distributor companies whose principal business in merchant trade products consists of furnishing such materials from stock to petroleum drillers. Each such application should be submitted in duplicate in the name of the company as a whole, and not for any one or two locations, and must contain the following information:

1. Name and home address of the oil country distributor.
2. Location of each branch store in operation prior to April 1, 1944.
3. The base tonnage for each merchant trade product group held by each producer for each branch warehouse.
4. A complete consolidated report on Form WPB–2892 covering the operations of the company as a whole at all points during the first six months of 1944. Copies of this form may be obtained from the nearest War Production Board Regional Office.
5. A statement of the relief requested and the reasons why the distributor believes his company should be granted relief from certain of the provisions of Order M–21–b–2.

Previous instructions issued to individual distributors under dates of November 22, 1943, November 30, 1943, or January 3, 1944, are hereby cancelled. However, if, on or after April 1, 1944, any oil country distributor has been given an exception by the War Production Board from the provisions of paragraph (g) (1) of Order M–21–b–2, such exception is valid and he need not apply under this Direction.

All applications filed pursuant to this Direction 3 should be addressed to the Warehouse Branch, Steel Division, War Production Board, Room 1528B Social Security Building, Washington 25, D. C.

NOTE: The reporting provisions of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Acts of 1942.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

PART 1364—FRESH, CURED AND CANNED MEAT AND FISH PRODUCTS

[RMPR 156, Amdt. 1]

CANNED MEAT

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 156 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 7 (c) is added to read as follows:

(c) Ceiling prices for sales of sterile canned meat by intermediate distributors. (1) An "intermediate distributor" is a person, other than a "wholesaler" or "marine provisioner" under MPR No. 421, whose entire business in connection with a brand, type and container size of canned meat consists of its purchase and resale. (Examples of intermediate distributors under this regulation are "wagon wholesalers" excluded expressly from MPR No. 421; independent hotel supply houses and marine provisioners who are not wholesalers under MPR No. 421 because they fabricate meat cuts to the extent that the majority of their food sales are not of products which they purchase for resale and distribute without materially changing their form; and manufacturers who purchase and resell certain canned meat products.) The ceiling price for such canned meat sold by an intermediate distributor shall be determined as provided in this paragraph (c).

(2) The ceiling price for a brand, type and container size of sterile canned meat sold by an intermediate distributor of such brand, type and container size of sterile canned meat shall be as follows:

(i) Prior to the first delivery from his supplier to an intermediate distributor of a brand, type and container size of sterile canned meat priced by the supplier under this regulation the intermediate distributor's ceiling price for such canned meat item shall be the ceiling price which he had immediately prior to August 4, 1944. After the first delivery from his supplier, the intermediate distributor's ceiling price for such a brand, type and container size of sterile canned meat shall be determined as provided in subdivisions (ii), (iii) and (iv) below.

(ii) If his supplier's ceiling price under this regulation is less than the supplier's ceiling price under the maximum price regulation previously applicable to the supplier, the intermediate distributor shall subtract the difference from the ceiling price which he had immediately prior to August 4, 1944. When an intermediate distributor first receives a delivery of a canned meat item from his supplier after August 3, 1944, under this subdivision (ii) he may no longer use his former ceiling price.

(iii) If his supplier's ceiling price under this regulation is the same or greater than the supplier's ceiling price under the maximum price regulation previously applicable to the supplier, the intermediate distributor's ceiling price shall be the ceiling price which he had immediately prior to August 4, 1944.

(iv) If an intermediate distributor did not have a ceiling price for any brand, type and container size of sterile canned meat immediately prior to August 4, 1944, his ceiling price for such brand, type and container size of sterile canned meat shall be determined by the provisions of § 1499.2 (a) of the General Maximum Price Regulation, substituting for the purposes of this subdivision (iv) the term "Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 156" whenever the term "§ 1499.2 (a)" is used in § 1499.2 (a) of the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(v) The filing requirements of section 8 shall not be applicable to intermediate distributors.

(vi) The provisions of section 6 (c) dealing with notification to buyers of new ceiling prices are applicable to sales and deliveries by intermediate distributors under paragraph (c) (2) (ii) of this section.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of paragraph (c), no intermediate distributor of canned meat shall sell or deliver such canned meat to another intermediate distributor or a wholesaler or marine provisioner at a price higher than the ceiling price of his own (the selling intermediate distributor's) supplier.

2. Section 11 (a) is amended to read as follows:

(a) Ceiling prices of semi-sterile canned meat products given dollar-and-cents prices on deliveries to persons other than Group 1 and 2 retailers or purveyors of meals. The ceiling price for a delivery, to a person other than a Group 1 and 2 retailer or a purveyor of meals, of a semi-sterile canned meat product meeting the specifications for such product established by section 13 (b) shall be determined by

(1) Adding to the base price specified for such product in section 12 (a) the zone addition specified in section 12 (b) for a carload delivery, or less-than-carload delivery, whichever is made, for the zone in which actual physical possession of the product is taken by the buyer, and then

3. Section 11 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) Ceiling prices of semi-sterile canned meat products given dollar-and-cents prices on deliveries to Group 1 and 2 retailers or purveyors of meals. The ceiling price for a delivery to a Group 1 and 2 retailer or a purveyor of meals, of a semi-sterile canned meat product meeting the specifications for such product established by section 13 (b) shall be determined by

(1) Adding to the base price specified for such product in section 12 (a) the zone addition specified in section 12 (b) for a carload delivery, or less-than-carload delivery, whichever is made, for the zone in which actual physical possession of the product is taken by the buyer, and then

(2) Subtracting from the figure obtained by following paragraph (b) (1) above 25 cents per hundredweight if delivery of the product is not made by the seller to the buyer at the buyer's place of business, and then

(3) Adding to the figure obtained by following paragraphs (b) (1) and (b) (2) above, 6 percent of such figure.

4. Section 11 (c) is added to read as follows:

(c) Ceiling prices for sales of semi-sterile canned meat by intermediate distributors. The ceiling price for a brand, type and container size of semi-sterile canned meat (priced at the processor level under section 11 (a) or section (11) (d)) sold by an intermediate distributor of such brand, type and container size of semi-sterile canned meat shall be determined by the provisions of section 7 (c), substituting for the purpose of this paragraph (c) the term "semi-sterile canned meat" whenever the term "sterile canned meat" is used in section 7 (c).

5. Section 13 (a) (6) is added to read as follows:

(6) "Group 1 and 2 retailer" means a person who buys canned meat for resale in a Group 1 and 2 store as defined in Maximum Price Regulation No. 336, Retail Ceiling Prices for Pork Cuts and Certain Sausage Products.

6. Section 13 (a) (7) is added to read as follows:

(7) "Purveyor of meals" means: (i) Any restaurant, hotel, cafe, cafeteria or establishment which purchases meats and where meals, food portions or refreshments are served for a consideration; (ii) any person operating an oceangoing vessel engaged in the transportation of cargo or passengers in foreign, coastwise or intercoastal trade, to the extent that meat is delivered to him as ship's stores for consumption aboard such vessel; (iii) any hospital, asylum, orphanage, prison or other similar institution, which is operated by any federal, state or local government or agency thereof; (iv) any contract school (means any person who is feeding, pursuant to a written contract with any agency of the United States, personnel of the armed services of the United States, fed under the command of a commissioned or noncommissioned officer or other authorized representative of the armed services of the United States).

SUBSIDY PAYMENT

The War Food Administrator having submitted certain information and recommendations to me on August 15, 1944, with reference to a program for the payment of subsidies in 1944 on surplus pears, it is hereby found and determined that the purposes of the hold-the-line order, specifically, the policy established by Executive Orders 9250 and 9328 (3 C.F.R. § 942.3 Reports of handlers—(a) Periodic reports. (1) On or before the 8th day of each delivery period, each handler, except as set forth in (3) of this paragraph, shall report to the market administrator, in the detail and on forms prescribed by the market administrator, with respect to all milk, skim milk, cream, and milk products which were, during the preceding delivery period, purchased or received from (i) producers; (ii) other handlers; and (iii) other sources, the receipts at each plant, the butterfat content, and the utilization of total receipts.

(2) Reports of payments to producers. On or before the 20th day of each delivery period, each handler shall submit to the market administrator such handler's producer payroll for the preceding delivery period, which shall show the total pounds of milk received from each producer, the average butterfat content of such milk, and the net amount of payment to such producer with the prices, deductions, and charges involved.

(3) Handlers whose sole sources of supply are receipts from their own farm production or from other handlers shall report to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may request.

(b) Verification of reports and payments. The market administrator shall verify all reports and payments of each handler by audits of such handler's records and the records of any other handler or person upon whose utilization the classification of milk depends. Each handler shall keep adequate records of receipts and utilization of skim milk and butterfat and shall, during the usual hours of business, make available to the market administrator or his representative such records and facilities as will enable the market administrator to:

(1) Verify the receipts and utilization of all skim milk and butterfat and, in the case of errors or omissions, ascertain the correct figures;

(2) Weigh, sample, and test for butterfat content milk and milk products; and

(3) Verify payments to producers.

11. Delete § 942.4 and substitute therefor the following:

§ 942.4 Classification—(a) Basis of classification. All skim milk and butterfat contained in milk, skim milk, cream, and milk products required to be reported shall be classified by the market administrator in the classes set forth in (b) of this section.

(b) Classes of utilization. Subject to the conditions set forth in (d) of this section, the classes of utilization of milk shall be:

(1) Class I shall be all skim milk and butterfat disposed of in the form of milk, skim milk, buttermilk, flavored milk, flavored milk drinks, and cream, sweet or sour (for consumption as cream, including any mixture of cream and milk or skim milk, in fluid form irrespective of the butterfat content), and all skim milk and butterfat not included in Class II or Class III.

(2) Class II shall be all skim milk and butterfat used in cheese other than Cheddar, ice cream, and ice cream mix.

(3) Class III shall be all skim milk and butterfat used in butter, casein, Cheddar cheese, condensed (skim or whole) milk, evaporated milk, and powdered (skim or whole) milk and all skim milk and butterfat unaccounted for but in excess of 2 percent, respectively, of the total receipts of skim milk and butterfat from producers. If any products of Class III are ultimately used in Class I or Class II, the skim milk and butterfat used in such products shall be classified in the respective class where such products are ultimately used.

(c) Responsibility of handlers. In establishing the classification of skim milk and butterfat as required in (b) of this section, the burden rests upon the handler from whom reports are required to account for the skim milk and butterfat and to prove to the market administrator that such skim milk or butterfat should not be classified as Class I.

(d) Transfers. Skim milk and butterfat, when transferred in the form of milk, skim milk, or cream from a handler who purchases or receives milk from producers, shall be classified (i) in the class from which such skim milk and butterfat is subtracted pursuant to (e) (9) of this section, if transferred to another handler who purchases or receives milk from producers, (ii) as Class I, if transferred to a handler who purchases or receives no milk from producers, other than such handler's own farm production; and (iii) as Class I, if transferred to a person who is not a handler, unless the market administrator determines such skim milk and butterfat was used in Class II or Class III, in which case such skim milk and butterfat shall be classified in the class in which the market administrator determines such skim milk or butterfat was used.

(e) Computation of skim milk and butterfat in each class. For each delivery period, the market administrator in the case of each handler shall determine:

(1) The total pounds of skim milk received by subtracting the result obtained in (2) of this paragraph from the total pounds of milk, skim milk, cream, and milk products received.

(2) The total pounds of butterfat received by adding into one sum the pounds of butterfat received from (i) producers; (ii) other handlers; and (iii) other sources.

(3) The total pounds of skim milk in Class I by (i) adding together the pounds of milk, skim milk, and cream disposed of in each of the several products of Class I; (ii) subtracting the result obtained in (4) (i) of this paragraph; and (iii) adding together the result obtained in (ii) of this subparagraph and the result obtained in (7) (iii) (b) of this paragraph.

(4) The total pounds of butterfat in Class I by: (i) adding together the pounds of butterfat in each of the several products of Class I; and (ii) adding together the result obtained in (i) of this subparagraph and the result obtained in (8) (ii) (b) of this paragraph.

(5) The total pounds of skim milk in Class II by: (i) adding together the pounds of milk, skim milk, and cream which were used to produce each of the several products of Class II; and (ii) subtracting the result obtained in (6) of this paragraph.

(6) The total pounds of butterfat in Class II by adding together the pounds of butterfat used in each of the several products of Class II.

(7) The total pounds of skim milk in Class III by: (i) adding together the pounds of milk, skim milk, and cream which were used to produce each of the several products of Class III; (ii) subtracting the result obtained in (8) (i) of this paragraph; (iii) subtracting from the result obtained in (1) of this paragraph the results obtained in (3) (ii) and (5) (ii) of this paragraph and (ii) of this subparagraph, which resulting amount shall be known as "unaccounted for skim milk" and shall be classified as follows: (a) that portion not in excess of 2 percent of total receipts of skim milk from producers shall be considered as plant shrinkage and classified as Class III; and (b) that portion in excess of 2 percent of total receipts of skim milk from producers shall be classified as Class I; and (iv) adding together the results obtained in (ii) and (iii) (a) of this subparagraph.

(8) The total pounds of butterfat in Class III by (i) adding together the pounds of butterfat used in each of the several products of Class III; (ii) subtracting from the result obtained in (2) of this paragraph the results obtained in (4) (i) and (6) of this paragraph and (i) of this paragraph, which resulting amount shall be known as "unaccounted for butterfat" and shall be classified as follows: (a) that portion not in excess of 2 percent of total receipts of butterfat from producers shall be considered as plant shrinkage and classified as Class III; and (b) that portion in excess of 2 percent of total receipts of butterfat from producers shall be classified as Class I; and (iii) adding together the results obtained in (i) and (ii) (a) of this subparagraph.

(9) The classification of milk received from producers by: (i) subtracting respectively from the total pounds of skim milk and butterfat in each class, in series beginning with the lowest class, the pounds of skim milk and butterfat received from other sources; (ii) subtracting respectively from the remaining pounds of skim milk and butterfat in each class, in series beginning with the lowest class, the pounds of skim milk and butterfat received from other handlers who purchase or receive no milk from producers other than such handler's own farm production; (iii) subtracting respectively from the remaining pounds of skim milk and butterfat in each class, the pounds of skim milk and butterfat received from other handlers and used in each class; and (iv) subtracting from the remaining pounds of skim milk and butterfat in each class, in series beginning with the lowest class, the pounds of skim milk and butterfat by which the total pounds respectively in all classes exceed the pounds received from producers. The respective resulting amounts in each class shall be known as the "net pooled Class I skim milk"; "net pooled Class I butterfat"; "net pooled Class II skim milk"; "net pooled Class II butterfat"; "net pooled Class III skim milk"; and "net pooled Class III butterfat;" the sum of the "net pooled Class I skim milk", "net pooled Class II skim milk", and "net pooled Class III skim milk" shall be known as the "net pooled skim milk" and the sum of the "net pooled Class I butterfat", "net pooled Class II butterfat", and "net pooled Class III butterfat" shall be known as the "net pooled butterfat."

12. Delete § 942.5 and substitute therefor the following:

§ 942.5 Minimum prices—(a) Basic formula price to be used in determining Class I and Class II prices. The basic formula price per hundredweight of milk to be used in determining the Class I and Class II prices set forth in this section, shall be the higher of the prices determined pursuant to (1) or (2) of this paragraph.

(1) The average of the basic (or field) prices ascertained to have been paid for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received during the delivery period at the following places for which prices are reported to the market administrator by the listed companies or by the United States Department of Agriculture (or by such other Federal agency as may be authorized to perform this price reporting function):

(ii) Add 2.4 times the average weekly prevailing price per pound of "Twins" during said delivery period on the Wisconsin Cheese Exchange at Plymouth, Wisconsin: Provided, That if the price of "Twins" is not quoted on the Wisconsin Cheese Exchange the weekly prevailing price of "Cheddars" shall be deemed to be the prevailing price for "Twins" and shall be used in determining the price pursuant to this paragraph.

(b) Class I prices. Each handler shall pay producers, in the manner set forth in § 942.8 for skim milk and butterfat purchased or received from them during each delivery period and classified as "net pooled Class I skim milk" and "net pooled Class I butterfat" not less than the following prices per hundredweight:

(1) For skim milk and butterfat received at such handler's plant located in the 61–70 mile zone, the prices shall be as set forth in the following schedule:

When the higher of the prices pursuant to (a) (1) or (2) of this section is—	The price per hundredweight for products received from producers during the next succeeding delivery period shall be—

(3) The market administrator shall from time to time determine and publicly announce the freight zone location of each plant of each handler, according to the railroad mileage distance between such country plant and the railroad terminal in New Orleans, or according to the highway mileage distance between such plant and the City Hall in New Orleans, whichever is shorter.

(4) For the purpose of this paragraph, the skim milk and butterfat which was classified as "net pooled Class I skim milk" and "net pooled Class I butterfat" during each delivery period shall be considered to have been first that skim milk and butterfat which was received from producers at such handler's plant located in the 0–20 mile zone, than that skim milk and butterfat which was received from producers at such handler's plants in series beginning with plants located in the freight zone nearest to New Orleans.

(c) Class II prices. Each handler shall pay producers, in the manner set forth in § 942.8 for skim milk and butterfat purchased or received from them during each delivery period and classified as "net pooled Class II skim milk" and "net pooled Class II butterfat" not less than the prices per hundredweight set forth in the following schedule:

During delivery periods when the prices of Class I (§ 942.5 (b) (1)) are—prices per hundredweight		The prices of Class II shall be—prices per hundredweight
Skim milk	Butterfat	Skim milk	Butterfat	Milk containing 4.0 percent butterfat

1.15	65.00	.85	60.00	3.216
1.20	70.00	.90	65.00	3.464

(d) Class III price. Each handler shall pay producers, in the manner set forth in § 942.8 for skim milk and butterfat purchased or received from them during each delivery period and classified as "net pooled Class III skim milk" and "net pooled Class III butterfat" not less than the prices per hundredweight set forth in the following computations:

(1) The price per hundredweight of skim milk shall be computed by the market administrator by: subtracting 7 cents from the average price per pound of non-fat dry milk solids and multiplying the result by 7.5. The price per pound of non-fat dry milk solids to be used shall be the average of the carlot prices for non-fat dry milk solids, roller process, at Chicago as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture (or such other Federal agency as may be authorized to perform this price reporting function) during the delivery period preceding that in which such skim milk was received.

(2) The price per hundredweight of butterfat shall be computed by the market administrator by: Multiplying by 100 the average wholesale price per pound of 92-score butter in the Chicago market as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture (or by such other Federal agency as may be authorized to perform this price reporting function) during the delivery period preceding that in which such butterfat was received.

13. Delete § 942.6 and substitute therefor the following:

§ 942.6 Application of provisions—(a) Handlers who are also producers. Sections 942.5, 942.7, 942.8, and 942.9 shall not apply to the handling of milk by handlers whose sole sources of supply are receipts from their own farm production or from other handlers.

(b) Payment for excess skim milk or butterfat. If a handler, after subtracting receipts from other handlers, and receipts from other sources, has disposed of skim milk or butterfat in excess of the skim milk or butterfat which, on the basis of his reports, has been credited to his producers as having been purchased or received from them, the market administrator in computing the net pool obligation of such handler pursuant to § 942.7 (a) shall add an amount equal to the value of such skim milk or butterfat in accordance with its value at the price for the class from which such skim milk or butterfat was subtracted pursuant to § 942.4 (c) (9).

14. Delete § 942.7 and substitute therefor the following:

§ 942.7 Determination of uniform price to producers—(a) Net pool obligation of handlers. The net pool obligation of each handler for skim milk and butterfat received from producers during each delivery period shall be a sum of money computed for such delivery period by the market administrator by: multiplying, respectively, the pounds of "net pooled skim milk" and "net pooled butterfat" in each class by the respective class prices, and adding, respectively, any amounts, pursuant to § 942.6. The sum of the two amounts shall be such handler's total pool obligation.

(b) Computation of the uniform price. For each delivery period the market administrator shall compute the uniform price per hundredweight of skim milk, butterfat, and milk by:

(1) Combining into one total the net pool obligations for skim milk of all handlers who made payments for the previous delivery periods, and combining into one total the net pool obligations for butterfat of all handlers, who made payments for the previous delivery periods;

(2) Adding respectively the amounts computed by multiplying respectively the total hundredweight of skim milk and buterfat received from producers at plants located in each freight zone farther from New Orleans than the 61–70 mile zone by the appropriate zone differential set forth in the schedule pursuant to § 942.5 (b) (2);

(3) Subtracting respectively the amounts computed by multiplying respectively the total hundredweight of skim milk and butterfat received from producers at plants located in each freight zone nearer New Orleans than the 61 to 70 mile zone by the appropriate zone differential set forth in the schedule pursuant to § 942.5 (b) (2);

(4) Adding respectively an amount equal to one-half the unobligated balances in the skim milk and butterfat settlement funds;

(5) Dividing respectively the resulting sums by the hundredweight of "net pooled skim milk" and "net pooled butterfat"; and

(6) Subtracting respectively not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents. The results shall be known respectively as the uniform price per hundredweight for (i) skim milk and (ii) butterfat purchased or received from producers at plants located in the 61–70 mile zone. The uniform price for milk containing 4.0 percent butterfat received from producers at plants located in the 61–70 mile zone shall be the sum of the values of 96 pounds of skim milk and 4 pounds of butterfat at the respective uniform prices.

(c) Announcement of prices. (1) On or before the 6th day of each delivery period, the market administrator shall notify all handlers and make public announcement of the class prices for skim milk and butterfat received from producers during the current period.

(2) On or before the 10th day of each delivery period the market administrator shall notify all handlers and make public announcement of the computations pursuant to (b) of this section, of the uniform price per hundredweight of skim milk, butterfat, and milk containing 4.0 percent butterfat received from producers during the preceding delivery period.

(d) Computation of pool debits and pool credits. On or before the 10th day after the end of each delivery period the market administrator shall:

(1) Compute the amount by which each handler's net pool obligation for skim milk and butterfat is greater or less respectively than the sum obtained by multiplying the hundredweight of skim milk and butterfat received from producers by the appropriate uniform price. This amount shall be known as such handler's pool debit or pool credit, as the case may be, and shall be entered upon such handler's account.

(2) Notify each handler of the amount of such handler's (i) net pool obligation and (ii) pool debit or pool credit.

15. Delete § 942.8 and substitute therefor the following:

§ 942.8 Payment for milk (a) The amount of each handler's total pool obligation shall be distributed among producers in the following manner:

(1) On or before the 25th day of each delivery period each handler shall make payment to each producer at not less than $3.00 per hundredweight for the milk received from such producer during the first 15 days of such delivery period.

(2) On or before the 15th day of each delivery period, each handler shall make payment to each producer at not less than the appropriate uniform price per hundredweight for skim milk and butterfat received from such producer during the previous delivery period, minus the amount of the payment pursuant to (1) of this paragraph.

(3) On or before the 12th day of each delivery period, each handler shall pay to the market administrator for payment to producers through the producer-settlement fund the amount of such handler's pool debit for the previous delivery period.

(4) On or before the 15th day of each delivery period, the market administrator shall pay from the producer-settlement fund to each handler for payment to producers the amount of such handler's pool credit for the previous delivery period: Provided, That the market administrator may offset any such payment due to any handler against payments due from such handler.

(b) Location differentials. Each handler, in making the payments prescribed in (a) of this section, shall adjust the uniform price with respect to all skim milk and butterfat received from each producer at such handler's plant not located in the 61–70 mile zone by the amount per hundredweight specified in the table pursuant to § 942.5 (b) (2).

(c) Producer-settlement fund. The market administrator shall establish and maintain a separate fund known as the "producer-settlement fund" into which he shall deposit all payments made by handlers pursuant to (a) (3) and (d) of this section and out of which he shall make all payments to handlers pursuant to (a) (4) and (d) of this section.

(d) Adjustments of errors in payments. Whenever verification by the market administrator of reports or payments of any handler discloses errors in payments to the producer-settlement fund made pursuant to (a) (3) of this section, the market administrator shall promptly bill such handler for any unpaid amount and such handler shall, within 5 days of such billing, make payment to the market administrator of the amount so billed. Whenever verification discloses that payment is due from the market administrator to any handler pursuant to (a) (4) of this section, the market administrator shall, within 5 days, make such payment to such handler: Provided, That the market administrator may offset any such payment to any handler against payments due from such handler. Whenever verification by the market administrator of the payment by a handler to any producer discloses payment to such producer of an amount which is less than is required by this section, the handler shall make up such payment to the producer not later than the time of making payment to producers next following such disclosure.

(e) Adjustment of overdue accounts. Any balance due pursuant to this section to or from the market administrator on the 25th day of any month, for which remittance has not been received in, or paid from, his office by the close of business on that day, shall be increased one-half of 1 percent, effective the 26th day of such month.

16. Delete § 942.9 (a) and substitute therefor the following:

§ 942.9 Expense of administration—(a) Payment by handlers. As his pro rata share of the expense of the administration hereof, each handler, except those described in § 942.6 (a), shall pay to the market administrator, on or before the 15th day of each delivery period, an amount not exceeding 4 cents per hundredweight, with respect to all skim milk and butterfat purchased or received by such handlers during the preceding delivery period from producers, including that received from such handler's own farm production, the exact sum to be determined by the market administrator, subject to review by the War Food Administrator.

POSSESSION AND OPERATION OF CERTAIN MOTOR CARRIER TRANSPORTATION SYSTEMS

WHEREAS after investigation I find and proclaim that the motor carrier transportation systems of the motor carriers named in the list attached hereto and made a part hereof are equipped for the transportation of materials of war and supplies that are required for the war effort, or useful in connection therewith, and are now engaged in such transportation; that there are threatened interruptions of the operation of the said transportation systems as a result of a labor disturbance; that the war effort will be unduly impeded or delayed by such interruptions; that it has become necessary in the national defense to take possession and assume control of the said transportation systems for needful and desirable purposes connected with the prosecution of the war and that they be operated by or for the United States; and that the exercise, as hereinafter specified, of the powers vested in me is necessary to insure, in the interest of the war effort, the operation of the said systems:

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and laws of the United States, including the act of August 29, 1916, 39 Stat. 645, the First War Powers Act, 1941, and section 9 of the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940 as amended by the War Labor Disputes Act, as President of the United States and Commander in Chief of the Army and Navy, it is hereby ordered as follows:

During his operation of said transportation systems the Director shall observe the terms and conditions of the directive order of the National War Labor Board, dated February 7, 1944; provided, however, that in the case of each said transportation system the Director is authorized to pay the wage increases provided for by the said directive order of the National War Labor Board, which accrued prior to the taking of possession of the said system under this order, only out of the net operating revenue of the said system.

3. Except with the prior written consent of the Director, no attachment by mesne process, garnishment, execution, or otherwise shall be levied on or against any of the real or personal property or other assets, tangible or intangible, in the possession of the Director hereunder.

4. Possession, control, and operation of any transportation system, or any part thereof, or any real or personal property, taken under this order shall be terminated by the Director when he determines that such possession, control, and operation are no longer necessary for the successful prosecution of the war.

5. For the purposes of paragraphs 1 to 4, inclusive, of this order, there are hereby transferred to the Director the functions, powers, and duties vested in the Secretary of War by that part of

Subchapter B—Executive Vice-Chairman

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

JOSEPH A. HULL

Joseph A. Hull of Portland, Oregon, in November, 1943, began construction of a new family dwelling at 2730 Northeast 77th Place, Portland, Oregon, without authorization from the War Production Board. The cost of this construction was approximately $10,000, which amount exceeded the limit of $200. permitted by Conservation Order L–41 and was in violation of that Order. Joseph A. Hull was aware of the War Production Board restrictions on construction and the beginning and carrying on of this construction without authorization constituted a wilful violation of Conservation Order L–41.

This violation of Conservation Order L–41 has diverted critical materials to uses not authorized by the War Production Board, and has hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States of America. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby ordered, that:

§ 1010.603 Suspension Order No. S–603. (a) Neither Joseph A. Hull, his successors or assigns, nor any other person, shall do any construction on the residence or structure known as 2730 Northeast 77th Place, Portland, Oregon, including the putting up or altering of said structure, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Joseph A. Hull, his successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect on date of issuance.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

PART 944—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE OPERATION OF THE PRIORITIES SYSTEM

[Priorities Reg. 13, as Amended Aug. 18, 1944]

§ 944.34 Priorities Regulation 13—(a) Purpose of this regulation. This regulation, in general, describes the rules under which materials may be sold by persons who are not in the regular business of selling such materials. While most sales of this kind will be sales of frozen, idle, or excess materials the regulation also covers any sale from inventory by such persons. For example, a person who has idle materials on hand because his business has been converted to war work, or because the business he used to carry on has been stopped or limited by War Production Board orders, or whose contract has been cancelled or changed, may sell off the idle or excess materials only under the rules in this regulation and, if he follows this regulation, he does not have to look at any other order or regulation except in a few cases which are described in paragraph (f) (2) below. This regulation also controls all sales by government agencies, liquidation sales, bankruptcy sales, general auction sales, and other special sales, as defined in paragraph (b) (1).

(b) Special definitions used in this regulation. This regulation deals only with "special sales" of "industrial materials" or "finished products." As used in the regulation, those terms have the following meanings:

(1) "Special sale" means a sale of a material or product by a person who does not, in the regular course of his business, sell it in that form. For example, if a manufacturer sells the raw material he has bought to use in making his regular product, it is a special sale because selling raw material is not his regular business. Or, if a contractor has bought building materials and equipment to build a building and cannot finish it and sells them, that is a special sale because his business is building houses, not selling lumber and nails and lighting fixtures. Liquidation sales by trustees in bankruptcy, receivers and other kinds of liquidators (unless they are continuing to operate a business) and sales by general auctioneers are special sales as that type of person is not considered to be regularly in the business of selling any particular products.

(2) "Material" means any commodity, equipment, accessory, part, assembly, or product of any kind in finished, semi-finished or raw material form. It includes both "industrial materials" and "finished products."

(3) "Industrial materials" means the simple kinds of materials that finished products are made out of. It includes simple material forms like pipe, metal sheet and rod, wire, lumber, chemicals, nails, nuts and bolts. These are things that are bought for use in making something else, or are to be put together with other things to make a finished product.

(4) "Finished products" means completed articles which are ready for use just as they are and which do not need to be put together with something else before they can be used. It includes wrenches and hammers, assembled parts, replacement parts and products like tools, machinery, motors, valves, drums and fabricated industrial, agricultural or household equipment. Other examples of what it includes are clothing, furnishings, light bulbs, etc.

(5) "Used materials" means any industrial materials or finished products which have been put into actual use.

(6) Materials not covered by this regulation. There are four types of materials which are not covered by this regulation. They are the following:

(i) Scrap. This includes both scrap normally generated in production and other material which is sold as scrap. There are special orders covering certain types of scrap and except in those cases scrap may be sold to a scrap dealer.

(ii) Rationed products which are controlled by another government agency.

(iii) Foods for humans or animals, medicines, tobacco, oils and fats, petroleum and petroleum products including natural and liquefied petroleum gases.

(iv) Controlled materials acquired or produced by a controlled material producer for the purpose of further conversion into other controlled material forms.

(c) Kinds of special sales which may be made. If a person wants to make a "special sale" (as described above), the rules in this regulation apply and only these rules. There is no need to look at any other order or regulation, and these rules must be followed, no matter how the material was bought, and no matter what any other order or regulation provides. The only exceptions to this rule are stated in paragraphs (f) (2) and (3). The types of special sales which may be made are the following:

(1) Materials not on Lists A or B. (i) Industrial materials not on List A may be sold freely to anyone.

(ii) Finished products not on List B may be sold freely to any producer who makes such a product in the form in which the holder has it, or to a wholesaler whose regular business is selling that sort of a product either to industrial users or to other distributors for resale. They also may be sold to anyone else on a rating of AA-5 or higher. If a holder has a total of not more than $100.00 worth of the particular finished product he wants to sell, he may sell it freely to anyone. In deciding whether he has $100.00 worth, he must count all products of the same type and style. For example, all wrenches, or chairs or ash cans. This does not mean that a person may sell freely separate lots worth less than $100.00 if he has more than that amount. It only allows the sale if all he has of that product is worth $100.00 or less. A holder may also make a special sale of a finished product which is not on List B if he obtains permission from the War Production Board as explained below in paragraph (c) (2) (iii).

(2) Materials on List A or List B. If the material that the holder wants to sell is one of the industrial materials listed on List A or is a finished product appearing on List B, the following are the only kinds of sales that can be made.

(i) Sales may be made in accordance with List A or List B. Those lists have four columns showing classes of buyers who might want to buy materials. Opposite each material on the lists in each column is shown whether, and under what conditions, sales can be made to the class of buyer described in the heading of the column.

(ii) A holder may sell freely to one of the following Government corporations, or to anyone buying as agent for one of them: Commodity Credit Corporation, Defense Supplies Corporation, Metals Reserve Company or Rubber Reserve Company.

(iii) A holder may sell if he has been given permission by the War Production Board to make the particular sale. Form WPB-1161 (PD-470) should be used in applying for permission. It shows the information which is needed before permission can be given and it should be sent to the regional office of the War Production Board in the region where the material is located. Copies of this form can be obtained from district or regional offices of the War Production Board. If a note in List A or List B states that another form is to be used, application should be made on that form.

(iv) A holder may sell freely to anyone if he has a total of not more than $100 worth of the particular material to be sold, unless it is one of the few materials for which special rules and amounts are stated in Column 6 of List A or List B. In deciding whether the holder has $100 worth he must count all material of the same type and composition. For example, all zinc sheet or cattle hides, or all cotton duck, or all shovels or hammers. This paragraph does not mean that a person may sell freely lots worth less than $100 if he has more than that amount. It only allows the sales if all he has of that kind of material is worth $100 or less.

(v) If the material is copper, copper base alloy, aluminum or steel in a form described as a "controlled material" in CMP Regulation 1, the holder may sell it to a buyer who gives him an order bearing a CMP allotment symbol or number and this certification:

> The undersigned purchaser certifies that he is entitled under CMP regulations to place an authorized controlled material order for the above material.

Or the certification may be in the form set out in CMP Regulation 7 or in any other form which may be used in placing an authorized controlled material order. The buyer must charge material bought under this paragraph, against his CMP allotment account. If the material which the holder wants to sell is steel he may also sell it to steel warehouses, dealers or distributors on orders bearing the endorsements described in M–21–b–1 and M–21–b–2.

(vi) Special permission to sell controlled materials. The War Production Board may give special permission to sell idle or excess controlled materials for any use which is permitted under War Production Board orders or regulations either to a person who has no allotment or to a person who already has an allotment and an authorized production schedule under the Controlled Material Plan. This permission may be given only if the material has been reported to the War Production Board as idle or excess and if the material is iron, steel, aluminum, copper or copper base alloy in controlled material form. The War Production Board will only grant such permission if in its judgment there will be no interference with war production or labor requirements therefor. If this permission is given, the holder need not get from the buyer the certification provided in paragraph (c) (2) (v) above and if the buyer has an allotment he does not have to charge against his allotment account the amount of controlled materials bought under this special permission. The seller may apply for this permission in person or by writing, wiring or telephoning, giving full details about the size, shape, analysis, specifications and quantity of the material and the purpose for which it will be used. Requests for such permission should be directed to the regional office of the War Production Board for the region in which the material is located or to the appropriate materials division.

(3) Special orders. If the War Production Board, by an order or in any other way, has ruled that all persons engaged in a particular business may sell or exchange materials between themselves, they can do so.

(4) Used materials. Used materials may be sold freely to anyone unless there is a notation in List A or List B restricting the sale of the particular used material which the holder wants to sell.

(d) Transfers within a company. If a person wants to transfer material from one of his plants or operating units to another one which normally purchases separately, the transfer is considered equivalent to a sale and he may make it only under the same conditions as he could make a special sale under this regulation. In any other case where a person who has obtained material with priorities assistance wants to use it for another purpose, he should refer to § 944.11 of Priorities Regulation 1 or (in the case of controlled materials or Class A products obtained with an allotment) to paragraph (u) of CMP Regulation 1.

(e) Replacing material sold. If a person sells material under this regulation to someone who gives him a priority rating or a CMP allotment symbol or number, the seller cannot use this rating or allotment to replace the material he has sold. The effect of this rating or symbol or number stops when the seller receives it.

(f) Sales covered by this regulation. (1) This regulation applies only to "special sales" (as described in paragraph (b) (1)) and if the holder is regularly engaged in selling a material a sale of it by him is not a special sale and he is governed by all orders and regulations of the War Production Board which apply to the material he is selling.

(2) Provisions in any orders or regulations issued before August 18, 1944 which say that this regulation does not apply may be disregarded, except for Order U–1 affecting utilities, WPB Directive 16, which provides special rules for aircraft inventory transfers, and Order P–98–c, which applies to special sales in the petroleum industry. To find the rules for making a special sale there is no need to refer to any order or regulation other than Priorities Regulation 13, outside of the three exceptions stated. However, if another order or regulation issued after August 18, 1944 expressly mentions Priorities Regulation 13 and says that this regulation does not apply to a particular type of sale, then that order or regulation takes the place of this regulation.

(3) If any seller is allowed to make a sale under this regulation, the buyer is permitted to buy and accept delivery, except that:

(i) The buyer may not violate any regulation or order controlling the quantity of material which he may have or buy or receive or the amount of any product he may make or the use or disposition that he may make of any particular material. All the prohibitions in orders against the use of materials for particular purposes remain in effect.

(ii) If any order or regulation provides that a buyer of material must make any report or furnish any information either to the War Production Board or to the seller, this regulation does not excuse him from these requirements.

(iii) If any holder of material knows that a person who wants to buy it will use it for a prohibited purpose or would have more of it than he is permitted to have, the sale cannot be made.

(g) Records. Any person making a sale under this regulation must keep sufficient records so that he can show that the sale was permitted under this regulation.

(h) Listing materials with the War Production Board. If anyone has any excess, idle or frozen material that he wants to sell, he should report it to his nearest War Production Board office giving full details about its size, shape, analysis, specifications and quantity, and they will try to help him.

(i) Letters and questions. Any letters or questions about this regulation should be sent either to the Redistribution Division of the War Production Board in Washington, marked "Ref: P.R. 13", or to any of the field offices of the War Production Board.

(j) Revisions of Lists A and B. Lists A and B attached to this regulation will be revised from time to time. A person wishing to sell material under this regulation should be sure that he has the list which is in effect at the time of the sale. Copies may be obtained from any field office of the War Production Board.

Issued this 18th day of August 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

LISTS A AND B

NOTE: Lists A and B amended Aug. 18, 1944.

Explanation of Lists A and B: Column (1) of List A lists the industrial materials (as defined in paragraph (b) (3) that are restricted under the regulation. This shows in some instances the class or group of materials and does not always list all the trade names and related materials.

Column (1) of List B lists the finished products to which the general sales rules in paragraph (c) (1) (ii) do not apply because the finished product is either more or less restricted than the general rule.

Columns (2), (3), (4) and (5) each apply to a type of possible buyer. Opposite each material in each column is shown the conditions under which a special sale of the particular material may be made to the person described in the heading of the column.

Column (2) applies to persons who make or produce material in the form in which the holder bought it. This includes non-integrated producers. If the holder bought copper wire, column (2) refers to a wire mill, which makes copper wire. If he bought a machine tool, it refers to a company which makes that kind of a product.

Column (3) refers to persons who are permitted to buy and use the material for production, construction, maintenance, repair or operating supplies or for capital expansion or replacement.

Column (4) refers to persons who buy new, rejected or second grade materials and who rework them. This includes persons who change the form of the material by redrawing, rerolling, etc., except that it does not include controlled material producers.

Column (5) refers to persons who are regularly engaged in distributing at wholesale the material the holder has like a wholesaler in chemicals or textiles. A wholesaler means anyone whose regular business consists in whole or in part of the sale from stock or inventory of the particular materials or products to other persons either for industrial uses or for fabrication or assembly into other products or for the purpose of resale. It also includes persons who recondition or rebuild equipment and machinery for resale to industrial users. Such a person is not, however, relieved from compliance with any orders or regulations of the War Production Board which control the distribution of the material by him.

Column (6) contains notes which should be read whenever a star (*) or note shows on the list.

If the list shows "no," it means that the holder cannot sell to the class of person mentioned in the column head without special permission of the War Production Board except when a note in column (6) allows certain kinds of sales. Paragraph (c) (2) (iii) of the regulation tells how to get permission.

If the list shows "PR" followed by a letter and number, like "PR AA–5," it means that the holder can sell to anyone who gives him an AA–5 priority rating for the sale, or a higher rating.

If the list shows "W. O. P.," it means the holder can sell to the person at the head of the column without any priority rating or allocation or allotment being necessary.

If the list shows "X," it means that there are no persons who fall in the description at the top of the column so far as that particular material is concerned.

PART 1407—RATIONING OF FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[Rev. RO 3,[1] Amdt. 43]

SUGAR

A rationale accompanying this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 1407.75 is amended to read as follows:

§ 1407.75 Consumers who need more sugar because of illness may apply for a certificate. Any consumer whose health requires that he have more sugar than he can get with his war ration book may apply for a certificate authorizing him to take delivery of such additional amounts. The application must be made on OPA Form R-315, by the consumer himself or by someone acting for him, and may be made in person or by mail. The application can be made only to the Board for the place where the consumer lives. The application (on OPA Form R-315) must be accompanied by a written statement signed by a licensed practitioner who is authorized by the laws of the State in which he practices to diagnose and treat the illness as to which the certification is made and who is lawfully entitled and properly qualified to register under the Federal Narcotic Law (26 U.S.C.A. sec. 3221). The statement must contain a specific diagnosis of the applicant's illness or condition; must show, if possible, the probable duration of the illness; and must show why the applicant must have more sugar and the amount he needs during the next ten weeks (or a shorter period if the illness is of shorter duration). The Board shall send the application to the District Office for decision. However in emergency cases, if the Board finds that the applicant needs additional sugar, it may issue to him one or more certificates to enable him to get additional sugar during the next two weeks. If during that period, no decision has been made on the application, the Board may issue to him one or more certificates, if the emergency continues, to enable him to get additional sugar for another two weeks. The Board may continue to issue certificates for succeeding two-week periods as long as the emergency continues and until a decision has been made. If the District Office is unable to pass on the application it shall send it to the Regional Office for decision or take such other action as the Regional Office may authorize or direct. A District Office may authorize a Board which has a medical advisory panel to act on all applications under this section.

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

[Gen. RO 5,[1] Amdt. 78]

FOOD RATIONING FOR INSTITUTIONAL USERS

A rationale accompanying this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

General Ration Order No. 5 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 5.7 (a) is amended by inserting between the figures "7.9," and "26.1" the figures "13.2 (e), 13.3 (g),".

3. Section 13.3 (f) (1) is amended to read as follows:

(1) The allotment of each rationed food given by the district office, as computed prior to the reduction imposed by Section 5.7, is divided by the number of persons the district office estimated he would serve meals and the result is multiplied by the number of persons served meals during the last thirty (30) days, computed in accordance with paragraph (e);

4. Section 13.3 (f) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) His use of rationed foods for meal services during the last thirty (30) days of operation is determined in pounds for sugar and in points for processed foods. His use of foods covered by Revised Ration Order 16 is determined in the following way:

(i) Determine his use in points of foods covered by Revised Ration Order 16 which had a point value during the entire thirty-day period;

(ii) Determine his use in pounds of foods covered by Revised Ration Order 16 which had a zero point value during any part of that period. This use is determined separately for each of the classes of foods listed in Supplement 2 to this order;

(iii) Multiply the figures in (ii) by the December use factors for the classes of foods in question, contained in Supplement 2 to this order;

(iv) Add the figures obtained in (i) and (iii);

(v) The result is considered to be his use of foods covered by Revised Ration Order 16 during his base month for the purpose of determining his base for meal services.

5. Section 13.3 (f) (3) is added to read as follows:

(3) The lower of the figures obtained in (1) and (2) shall be his base for meal services.

6. A new section 13.3 (i) is added to read as follows:

(i) An institutional user whose base was computed by reference to the number of persons served and his use of rationed foods at any time during the May–June 1944 or July–August 1944 allotment period, and who did not report the information described in paragraph (a), may file an amended report containing that information. If he does so, his base shall be recomputed in accordance with the procedure described in paragraph (f) of this section.

This amendment shall become effective August 22, 1944.

WALNUT LUMBER AND WALNUT GUNSTOCK BLANKS

Maximum Price Regulation No. 217, Walnut Gunstock Blanks is redesignated Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 217, Walnut Lumber and Walnut Gunstock Blanks, and is revised and amended to read as set forth below:

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, the Stabilization Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders 9250 and 9328. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this regulation.

Such specifications and standards as are used in this regulation were, prior to such use, in general use in the industry affected, or have previously been promulgated and their use lawfully required by other government agencies.

AUTHORITY: Secs. 1 to 17 inclusive (§1384.101) issued under 56 Stat. 23, 765; Pub. Law 151, 78th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871; E.O. 9328, 8 F.R. 4681.

SECTION 1. Higher than maximum prices prohibited. (a) On and after August 23, 1944, regardless of any contract or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver, and no person shall buy or receive in the course of trade or business, any walnut lumber or walnut gunstock blanks, for direct mill shipment, at prices higher than the maximum prices fixed by this regulation, and no person shall agree, offer, or attempt to do any of these things.

(b) Prices lower than the maximum prices may, of course, be charged and paid.

SEC. 2. What products are covered. (a) This regulation covers all walnut lumber and walnut gunstock blanks produced anywhere in the United States, whether or not the grades, sizes and specifications are specifically named in the price tables.

(b) All grade terms for walnut lumber have the meaning given in the "Rules for the Measurement and Inspection of Hardwood Lumber" issued by the National Hardwood Lumber Association, effective January, 1944.

(c) "Walnut gunstock blanks" means gunstock blanks made of walnut lumber, either green, air-dried or kiln-dried.

SEC. 3. What persons are covered. Any person who makes the kind of sale or purchase described above, for himself or others, is subject to this regulation. The term "person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group; their legal successors or representatives; the United States, or any Government, or any of their political subdivisions, or any agencies of the foregoing.

SEC. 4. What transactions are covered—(a) Direct-mill shipments. This regulation applies to all shipments originating at a mill, no matter who the seller is, and no matter whether he usually is known as a mill, concentrator, wholesaler, retailer or anything else. It does not apply to sales out of distribution yard stock. A shipment is regarded as originating at a mill if the lumber reaches the purchaser without ever becoming an integral part of the stock of a distribution yard. A sale is considered a sale out of distribution yard stock only if the lumber was a part of regular yard stock at the time the sale was made.

(b) How to tell a mill from a distribution yard—(1) General tests. The term "mill", as used here, covers what are known in the trade as sawmills, planing mills and concentration yards. Three types of establishments are described below: The first, (i), a typical sawmill or planing mill; the second, (ii), a typical concentration yard; and the third, (iii), a typical distribution yard. An establishment which resembles a typical sawmill or planing mill or a typical concentration yard more than it does a typical distribution yard is considered a mill; and one which resembles a typical distribution yard more than it does a typical sawmill or planing mill or a typical concentration yard is considered a distribution yard.

(i) A "typical sawmill or planing mill" is an establishment which is chiefly engaged in manufacturing lumber from logs or rough lumber by sawing or planing; which is located in or near a lumber producing area; and which makes and sells walnut lumber and/or walnut gunstock blanks.

(ii) A "typical concentration yard" is an establishment which concentrates and prepares lumber for commercial shipment; which keeps in stock mostly hardwood lumber; which has its lumber brought in chiefly in rough green form by truck from small local sawmills and sells chiefly for rail shipment; and which has been located at its particular site to be near a lumber producing area.

(iii) A "typical distribution yard" is a wholesale or retail lumber yard which gets lumber from mills or other yards; unloads, sorts, stores, and resells or redistributes it; which regularly maintains a varied stock of lumber from different regions; which gets its lumber mostly by rail and sells mostly for truck shipment; which is equipped to make quick deliveries of many different items of lumber; and which has been located at its particular site in order to be near a lumber consuming area.

(2) New yards. In order to prevent violation of this regulation by unnecessarily routing through yards, the Office of Price Administration will not recognise a distribution yard set up after July 31, 1944, unless the new yard writes to the Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C., and proves that it satisfies the requirements of the definition and that the purpose is not to get around this regulation by means of unnecessary yard business. Until approval is received, the new yard cannot consider itself a distribution yard for the purpose of this regulation.

SEC. 5. Retail-type sales excepted. A "retail type" direct-mill sale is not subject to this regulation. A "retail type" direct-mill sale means a sale of not more than 2,000 feet of lumber in which the purchaser requests delivery to a point not more than 20 miles from the mill at which the shipment originates. It includes only sales of lumber to contractors or consumers for use in construction, remodeling, repair, maintenance, fabrication, or remanufacture, and it does not include sales for resale in substantially the same form. "Retail type" direct-mill sales remain subject to the General Maximum Price Regulation.

SEC. 6. Maximum prices for walnut gunstock blanks. (a) The maximum f. o. b. mill price for walnut gunstock blanks, manufactured in accordance with United States Government specifications, shall be as follows:

	Condition
	Kiln dried[1]	Green[2]
Springfield (U. S. Rifle, Cal. .30 M 1903 A3)	$2.05	$1.80
Enfield (U. S. Rifle, Cal. .30 M 1917)	2.05	1.80

[2] Includes any blanks not kiln dried to an average moisture content of 8 percent or less.

(b) Every manufacturer of walnut gunstock blanks who sells or delivers walnut blanks for wooden gun parts, other than stocks, shall file with the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C., within 30 days of entering into the contract for sale of such parts, a report stating the specifications for such blanks, the quantity sold, and the price received.

SEC. 7. Maximum prices for walnut lumber. (a) The maximum prices shown below apply to all walnut lumber, when sold on grade-rule-range widths and lengths, or widths and lengths substantially the same as grade-rule-range widths and lengths, or in specified average widths or specified average lengths which are substantially run-of-the-log.

(b) Maximum prices. The maximum f. o. b. mill price for 1,000 feet[1] of steamed walnut lumber in standard or near-standard grades in a rough air dried condition shall be as follows:

WALNUT LUMBER

Thickness (inches)	FAS (regular)	FAS (6" and 7")	FAS—one face	Strips	No. 1 common	No. 2 common
4/4	120.00	108.00	100.00	94.00	72.00	33.00

10/4	201.00	182.00	168.00	161.00	126.00	61.00
12/4	212.00	192.00	176.00	171.00	137.00	67.00

16/4	282.00	332.00	294.00	----------	220.00	99.00

(c) Green lumber. For walnut lumber shipped in a "green" condition, deduct from the maximum prices for air-dried lumber established in this section, 10 per cent of the maximum price for rough, air-dried material in the same specifications.

This deduction shall apply to any walnut lumber which requires further air seasoning by the purchaser before being placed in the kiln for kiln-drying, or before fabrication if not kiln-dried.

The mere fact that the lumber is not used immediately, but is stored on the purchaser's yard, does not necessarily mean that green lumber has been shipped, but in case of dispute any lumber which weighs 25% or more in excess of the air-dried weight as published in the Rules for the Measurement and Inspection of Hardwood Lumber, issued by the National Hardwood Lumber Association January 1, 1944, or for weights filed with the Office of Price Administration by the individual shippers, shall be considered to be "green".

Any purchaser who accepts "green" lumber at prices applicable to "dry" lumber is guilty of violation of the regulation to the same extent as the seller.

[1] "Feet" means board feet of lumber except that with reference to lumber in thicknesses of ½", ⅝" and ¾" "feet" means surface feet.

(d) Additions. When ordered by the customer and furnished by the seller, the following indicated additions may be made to the maximum prices in this section:

	Thickness (inches)
	1/2, 5/8, 3/4	4/4	5/4	6/4	8/4	10/4	12/4	16/4
Price	$6.00	$8.00	$10.00	$12.00	$15.00	$20.00	$25.00	$35.00

(ii) For kiln drying the lumber to a moisture content greater than 8 percent in the case of lumber thinner than 8/4" and greater than 8 percent in the case of lumber 8/4" and thicker, but in either case not exceeding 12 percent at the time the lumber leaves the kiln:

	Thickness (inches)
	3/4, 5/4, 6/4	4/4	5/4	6/4	8/4	10/4	12/4	16/4
Price	$5.00	$6.50	$8.00	$9.50	$12.00	$16.00	$20.00	$28.00

(2) Millworking.

	Less than 1", 1", and 1¼" thick	1¼ to 2" thick
Resawing 1 line	$4.00	$2.50
Resawing 2 lines	6.00	5.50
Surfacing 1 or 2 sides	3.50	3.00
Surfacing 2 sides and resawing	6.00	5.50
Resawing and surfacing 1 or 2 sides	7.50	7.00

(3) For inspecting, grading and measuring after kiln drying. When at the request of the purchaser, the seller inspects, grades and measures the lumber after kiln drying, an addition may be made of 5 percent of the f. o. b. mill rough air dried price of the lumber.

(4) End; racking or band sawing. No addition.

(5) Custom kiln drying. Where walnut lumber is kiln dried for the seller through a custom kiln and such custom kiln is not owned or operated by, or connected with, the sawmill, the seller may add the actual cost of this custom kiln drying. The amount added may not be higher than the custom kiln's maximum price established by Maximum Price Regulation No. 165,[1] As Amended, Services, for such kiln drying.

(6) National Hardwood Lumber Association inspection certificate. Where the purchaser requests an inspection by, and an inspection certificate issued by, the National Hardwood Lumber Association, the seller may make an added charge which does not exceed the inspection fees and expenses charged by the Association to the seller and shown on the certificate.

(c) Combination grades. For walnut lumber sold on "Log run", "Mill run", or "No. 1 Common and better" grade for which no specific maximum price has been established in the price tables, the maximum price shall be the maximum price established in the table for the lowest grade of lumber contained in the stock that is sold on the special inspection grade. The seller, however, may grade and ship the lumber on the standard grades included in the special inspection grade and invoice the footage in each of the standard grades at a price not to exceed the maximum price established in this regulation for the respective standard grades.

(f) Grades, specifications and extras not specifically priced. (1) If a seller wishes to sell a grade or item which is not specifically priced in the price tables, he must apply to the Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C., for a maximum price. He must provide the following information:

(i) The requested price;

(ii) A complete description of the item to be priced;

(iii) The price differential between it and the most comparable item in the price tables, in October 1941, from the seller's own records, or if that is impossible, from experience of the trade. If no established price differential existed, a detailed analysis of the calculation of the requested price should be furnished.

(2) The requested price may be ordered reduced, if it is found excessive. But if the price is not disapproved within 30 days of the receipt of the report, it is approved.

(3) A seller using this pricing section can go ahead with delivery of the lumber and collection of the price he has computed or requested. But he must tell the buyer that the price is subject to revision within the thirty-day period, and, if the price is ordered reduced, must refund any excess over the final approved price.

SEC. 8. Transportation addition. (a) A delivered price in excess of the maximum f. o. b. mill prices set forth in sections 6 and 7 above may be charged, consisting of such maximum prices plus the transportation charges set forth below:

(1) Kiln drying. (i) For kiln drying the lumber to a moisture content not exceeding 6 percent for lumber thinner than 8/4" and 8 percent for lumber 8/4" and thicker, at the time the lumber leaves the kiln:

Quantity ordered:	Addition per M
3,000 to 4,000 ft.	$1.00
2,000 to 2,999 ft.	2.00
1,000 to 1,999 ft.	2.50
999 ft. and less	3.00

These additions are not applicable unless the purchaser specifically orders walnut lumber in the above quantities.

Provided, That the invoice shows the point of origin of the shipment; the destination; the applicable rail or truck rate; if shipment is by private truck, the amount added for transportation; and the words "Direct-mill shipment".

(i) Common or contract carrier. When shipment is by common or contract carrier, the following rules govern:

(i) When estimated weights are used, the rate times the estimated weight is the proper transportation charge. Estimated weights may be used only if they have been filed with the Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C. The weights must be the weights used by the seller during the period October 1 to October 15, 1941. The estimated weight must be the weight for the exact kind of lumber actually shipped; for example, green weights may not be used if dry lumber is shipped. The transportation charge may be evened out to the nearest quarter-dollar per 1,000 feet.

(ii) When estimated weights are not used, the amount added for transportation must not be more than the amount actually paid to the common or contract carrier.

(2) Private truck. When shipment is by truck owned or controlled by the seller, the amount added for transportation may not be more than the actual cost to the seller of delivery by truck; and, no matter what the actual cost is, the amount added may not be more than the railroad charge at the carload rate for the most similar haul. However, if this railroad charge is less than $1.50, and if the actual cost of delivery is more than $1.50, a transportation charge of $1.50 may be made.

(3) Truck delivery after rail haul. Where the shipment is by rail followed by truck delivery, the amount added for transportation may include, in addition to the amount added for rail transportation, the actual cost of truck delivery.

(4) Trucking to rails. Where a truck haul precedes a rail shipment as where a mill located away from a railhead hauls lumber by truck to the railhead, no addition may be made for the truck haul. However, in the following two cases, a mill may apply to the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., for special permission to make an addition:

(i) Where the mill was located away from rail connections because it specialized in water-borne lumber, and where shortage of shipping has forced it to operate by rail;

(ii) Where a mill's rail connection has been abandoned since September 5, 1941.

(b) Small-quantity additions. The following additions per 1000 feet may be made where the purchaser orders walnut lumber in one thickness and grade:

SEC. 9. What the invoice must contain—(a) Basic price. All invoices must contain a complete description of the lumber to show whether the price is proper or not. Any working, specification, or extra which affects the maximum price must be mentioned in the description. The amount added for these does not have to be separately shown.

(b) Transportation charges. In delivered sales, the invoice must contain the:

(1) Point of origin of shipment;

(2) Destination;

(3) Rate of common carrier, if estimated weights are used; otherwise the actual amount added for transportation.

(4) The words "direct-mill shipment".

(c) Delivery and custom milling or custom kiln drying charges. Any separate charge which the seller is permitted to make for the following must be separately shown on the invoice:

(1) Truck delivery after rail haul, or trucking to railhead.

(2) Custom milling or custom kiln drying. The invoice of the custom mill or custom kiln must be attached to the lumber invoice of the seller.

SEC. 10. Prohibited practices—(a) General. Any practice which is a device to get the effect of a higher than ceiling price without actually raising the dollars-and-cents price is as much a violation of this regulation as an outright overceiling price.

(b) Purchasing commissions. It is unlawful for any person to charge, receive or pay a commission for the service of procuring walnut lumber or walnut gunstock blanks (including buying, selling, or locating lumber, or for any related service such as "expediting") which does not involve actual physical handling of the lumber, if the commission plus the purchase price results in a total payment by the buyer of the lumber which is higher than the maximum price of the lumber. For purposes of this regulation, a commission is any compensation, however designated, which is paid for the procurement of lumber. This prohibition has no application to the case of a bona fide employer-employee relationship where the employee serves only one employer, insofar as lumber procurement is concerned, and where the compensation paid by the employer is a fixed salary and is not based directly or indirectly on the quantity, price or value of the lumber in connection with which the service is rendered.

SEC. 11. Records. All sellers of walnut lumber and walnut gunstock blanks must keep records which show a complete description of the quantities and grades of items sold, the name and address of the buyer, the date of the sale and the price. Buyers must keep similar records, including the name and address of the seller. These records must be kept for any month in which the seller or buyer sold or bought products covered by the regulation to the value of $500.00 or more. These records must be kept for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for the duration of the Price Control Act or for two years, whichever is the shorter.

SEC. 12. Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provision of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, suits for treble damages, and proceedings for suspension of licenses provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(b) War procurement agencies and their contracting or paying finance officers are not subject to any liability, civil or criminal, imposed by this regulation. Persons who make sales covered by this regulation to war procurement agencies, however, are subject to all the liabilities imposed by this regulation. "War procurement agencies" include the War Department, the Navy Department, the United States Maritime Commission and the Lend-Lease Section in the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department, or any of their agencies.

SEC. 13. Licensing. The provisions of Licensing order No. 1,[2] licensing all persons who make sales under price control, are applicable to all sellers subject to this regulation or schedule. A seller's license may be suspended for violations of the license or of one or more applicable price schedules or regulations. A person whose license is suspended may not, during the period of suspension, make any sale for which his license has been suspended.

Such authorization may be given when a request for a change in the applicable maximum price is pending, but only if the authorization is necessary to promote distribution or production and if it will not interfere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 as amended. The authorization may be given by the Administrator or by any official of the Office of Price Administration having authority to act upon the pending request for a change in price or to give the authorization.

The authorization will be given by order, except that it may be given by letter or telegram when the contemplated revision will be the granting of an individual application for adjustment.

[2d Rev. MPR 215,[1] Amdt. 7]

DISTRIBUTION YARD SALES OF SOFTWOOD

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 16 (b) of Second Revised Maximum Price Regulation 215 is amended to read as follows:

(b) Sale out of distribution yard stock. A sale out of distribution yard stock means a sale made by a distribution yard for shipment of lumber which was a regular part of its stock at the time the order was taken. However, sales of lumber to a purchaser whose certified order is extended to obtain lumber from a mill in accordance with War Production Board Order No. L-335 for delivery to that particular purchaser may be construed to meet the requirements of the preceding sentence provided the lumber is actually stored and handled as regular yard stock by the distribution yard before delivery. Sales of lumber subject to release by the Canadian Controller of Timber and requiring end use as a condition of release may likewise be considered sales out of distribution yard stock provided the lumber is actually stored and handled as regular yard stock by the distribution yard before delivery.

Chapter XIII—Petroleum Administration for War

USE OF MATERIAL IN SPECIFIED FIELDS IN TEXAS AND LOUISIANA

§ 1515.19 Supplementary Order No. 13 to Petroleum Administrative Order No. 11—(a) Scope of this order. Except as otherwise modified by the provisions of any other order issued as a supplement to Petroleum Administrative Order No. 11, as amended July 1, 1944, or by the provisions of any exception issued pursuant to paragraph (m) of Petroleum Administrative Order No. 11, as amended July 1, 1944, the provisions of this supplementary order shall, to the extent provided herein, be applicable to the use of material in petroleum production operations in those fields in the States of Texas and Louisiana specified in Exhibit I, but not elsewhere.

(b) Definitions. The definitions of Petroleum Administrative Order No. 11, as amended July 1, 1944, shall apply in this supplementary order.

(c) Authorized uses of material in oil development drilling operations. Material may be used to drill, complete, and provide additions to any well in the fields specified in Exhibit I for the purpose of producing oil, except in a "Restricted Area", if there is compliance with the following provisions:

(1) The well must be located on a drilling unit consisting of at least 10 contiguous surface acres upon which no other drilling or producible well is located, and

(2) The drilling unit upon which the well is located must not be attributed in whole or in part to any other drilling or producible well, and

(3) The distance between any two points farthest apart on the drilling unit upon which the well is located must not exceed a distance of 1100 feet; and

(4) All separate property interest in the drilling unit upon which the well is located must first be consolidated, and

(5) The well must be drilled with due diligence to maintain a vertical well bore.

However, a well may be intentionally deviated from the vertical if the surface location of the well (in this case, the place on the surface directly over the bore hole at the lowest level at which the well is open to production) conforms to the other applicable provisions set out above.

Where a well is intentionally deviated from the vertical, a directional survey of the well bore must be filed with the Director of Production of the District in which the well is located within 30 days after completion of the well.

(6) If any well drilled in conformity with the provisions of this paragraph (c) is completed as a gas or condensate well, it shall not be produced except to provide fuel for drilling or fuel for other lease operations, or for testing the well for a period not exceeding 15 days, and no material may be used to produce the well or provide additions therefor, except as necessary for such purposes, until authorization has been granted by an authorized official of the Petroleum Administration for War.

(d) Authorized uses of material for deepening and recompletion of wells. (1) Material may be used to deepen, recomplete, and provide additions to any well in the fields specified in Exhibit I in another pool, if, with respect to the pool in which the well is to be deepened and recompleted, there is compliance with the provisions of paragraphs (c) (1), (c) (2), and (c) (4).

(2) Material may be used for the multiple completion of any well deepened in conformity with paragraph (d) (1).

(3) If any well completed or recompleted in conformity with the provisions of this paragraph (d) is completed or recompleted as a gas or condensate well in any pool not theretofore opened for production to the well, it shall not be produced from such pool except to provide fuel for drilling or fuel for other lease operations, or for testing the well for a period of not exceeding 15 days, and no material may be used to produce the well from such pool or provide additions therefor, except as necessary for such purposes, until authorization has been granted by an authorized official of the Petroleum Administration for War.

(e) Computation of acreage attributable to oil wells. (1) The acreage attributable to any oil well in the fields specified in Exhibit I spudded on or before December 23, 1941, shall be determined by assigning to the well an acreage equivalent to that of the existing well density contiguous to the well. In no event need the attributed acreage be greater than that required for a new well drilled and completed pursuant to this supplementary order.

(2) The acreage attributable to any oil well in the fields specified in Exhibit I spudded after December 23, 1941, need not be greater than that required for a new well drilled and completed pursuant to this supplementary order.

(f) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this supplementary order, or who, by any act or omission, falsifies records kept or information furnished in connection with this supplementary order is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment.

Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this supplementary order may be prohibited from delivering or receiving any material under priority control, or may be subject to other appropriate action.

(g) Effective date. This supplementary order shall take effect on the date of issuance.

1938), made application for permission to employ messengers at wages lower than the applicable minimum wage specified in section 6 of the Act; and

Whereas, after due notice, a hearing on said application was held on March 1, 1944, before Isabel Ferguson, the representative of the Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division duly authorized to receive evidence, hear argument and make her findings of fact and recommendations on the following questions:

1. Is it necessary, in order to prevent curtailment of opportunities for employment, to provide by regulations or orders for the employment in the telegraph industry of messengers, employed exclusively in delivering letters or messages, under special certificates, at wages lower than the minimum wage applicable under section 6 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938; and if such necessity is found to exist,

2. Under what limitations as to wages, time, number, proportion and length of service may special certificates be issued authorizing the employment of such messengers at subminimum wage rates.

Whereas, following the hearing, the said Isabel Ferguson duly made her findings of fact and found, upon the basis of the record made at the hearing, that it is not necessary, in order to prevent curtailment of opportunities for employment, to provide for the employment of messengers employed exclusively in delivering letters and messages, under special certificates, at wages lower than the minimum wage applicable under section 6, and recommended that the application of the Western Union Telegraph Company be denied; and

Whereas, said findings and recommendation were duly filed with the Administrator together with a complete record of the proceedings, and said findings and recommendation are on file at the national offices of the Wage and Hour Division, 165 West 46th Street, New York, 19, New York, and available for examination by all interested parties; and

Whereas, pursuant to a notice published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on June 28, 1944 (9 F.R. 7174), the opportunity was given to all interested persons to file their written objections to the said findings and recommendation within 15 days after June 28, 1944, showing cause why the Administrator should not approve the recommendation and deny the application of the Western Union Telegraph Company; and

Whereas, no such written objections to the Presiding Officer's recommendation have been received; and

Whereas, I have reviewed, considered, and appraised the entire record, read the briefs submitted, and consulted with subordinates who have reviewed and analyzed the record and the briefs;

Now, therefore, I hereby determine that the recommendation of the Presiding Officer that the application of the Western Union Telegraph Company be denied should be approved and, accordingly, the application of the Western Union Telegraph Company for permission to employ messengers engaged exclusively in delivering letters and messages at wages lower than the minimum wage applicable in the telegraph industry under section 6 of the Act is hereby denied.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION.

[Docket No. IT-5909]

FLORIDA POWER CORP.

ORDER FIXING DATE OF HEARING AND SUSPENDING RATE SCHEDULE

AUGUST 14, 1944.

It appearing to the Commission that:

(a) Florida Power Corporation has on file an agreement and rate schedule designated in the files of the Commission as Florida Power Corporation Rate Schedule FPC No. 9, providing for the sale and delivery of electric energy by Florida Power Corporation to the City of Quincy, Florida, for resale.

(b) On June 17, 1944, Florida Power Corporation submitted to the Commission for filing a superseding agreement and rate schedule dated May 22, 1944, between Florida Power Corporation and the City of Quincy, Florida, designated as Florida Power Corporation Rate Schedule FPC No. 15, providing for changes in the rates or charges for the sale and delivery of electric energy by Florida Power Corporation to the City of Quincy, Florida, and requested that the proposed Rate Schedule FPC No. 15 be allowed to take effect as of May 28, 1944.

(c) Since this Rate Schedule FPC No. 15, dated May 22, 1944, was not accompanied by the information required by the Commission's Rules of Practice and Regulations under the Federal Power Act to be filed with proposed changes in rates, Florida Power Corporation was advised of this omission by letter of June 27, 1944, and requested to submit the required information; on July 15, 1944, Florida Power Corporation's response was received; without waiving full compliance with the Rules of Practice and Regulations this rate schedule was accepted for filing on July 15, 1944.

(d) Unless suspended by order of the Commission, Florida Power Corporation Rate Schedule FPC No. 15 will become effective as of August 15, 1944, pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Power Act and the Rules of Practice and Regulations thereunder.

(e) The changes in rates or charges provided for by Florida Power Corporation Rate Schedule FPC No. 15 may result in excessive rates or charges to the City of Quincy, Florida; may place an undue burden upon ultimate consumers of electric energy; may be discriminatory; and will result in increased rates or charges which have not been shown to be justified.

The Commission finds that:

It is necessary, desirable and in the public interest that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the proposed increased rates or charges and that said proposed increased rates or charges be suspended pending such hearing and the decision thereon.

The Commission, upon its own motion, orders that:

(A) A public hearing be held on November 15, 1944, at 9:45 a. m., in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the lawfulness of the rates or charges provided for in Florida Power Corporation Rate Schedule FPC No. 15 for the sale and delivery of electric energy to the City of Quincy, Florida, for resale.

(B) Pending such hearing and decision thereon, the operation of the schedule of increased rates or charges for the sale of electric energy for resale provided for in said Florida Power Corporation Rate Schedule FPC No. 15 be and the same is hereby suspended and the use of such rates or charges deferred for a period of five months beyond August 15, 1944, unless the Commission shall otherwise order.

(C) During the said period of suspension the rates or charges now being collected and received by Florida Power Corporation from the City of Quincy, Florida, as provided in Florida Power Corporation Rate Schedule FPC No. 9, shall remain and continue in effect, insofar as they apply to the sale of electric energy for resale.

(D) At such hearing, the burden of proof to show that the proposed increased rates or charges are just and reasonable shall be upon the Florida Power Corporation.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

[Project No. 1893]

ORDER GRANTING REHEARING AND STAY

AUGUST 15, 1944.

Upon application filed July 31, 1944, by Public Service Company of New Hampshire for rehearing on the Commission's order of June 21, 1944, authorizing issuance of a license (major) for the constructed Amoskeag project located on the Merrimack River at Amoskeag, New Hampshire, Project No. 1893;

It appears that the respondent company contends that:

(a) The order should indicate that the rights of the applicant in the mill buildings in which the Amory and Jefferson generating stations are situated are perpetual;

(b) The finding that the project is not best adapted to a comprehensive plan should be modified in respect to the Jefferson station which, in the opinion of the applicant, is nearly as efficient as the Amoskeag plant, and the addition in the Amoskeag plant of a generating unit of capacity substantially equivalent to that of the Jefferson station would be extremely difficult and expensive;

(c) The license period for the Jefferson plant should be the same as that for the Amoskeag plant;

(d) The Amory plant should be eliminated from the project because that plant is no longer used or useful for the production of energy;

(e) The use of condensing water through the applicant's steam plant should be protected not only to the extent of its present use but for the enlargement thereof to such capacity as the demands of the public may require.

The Commission finds that:

Under the circumstances, it is desirable and appropriate to grant the application for rehearing with respect to the aforesaid matters and to stay the Commission's order of June 21, 1944, as hereinafter provided.

It is ordered, That:

(A) The application for rehearing on the Commission order of June 21, 1944, with respect to the aforesaid matters, be and it is hereby granted, such rehearing to be held at a time and place to be hereafter fixed by the Commission;

(B) The order of June 21, 1944, be and it is hereby stayed until further order of the Commission.

By the Commission.

LOUISVILLE GAS AND ELECTRIC CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

AUGUST 16, 1944.

Notice is hereby given that on August 11, 1944, Louisville Gas and Electric Company, a Kentucky corporation, filed with the Federal Power Commission its application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, for authority to construct and operate:

(a) 62 miles of 8-inch and 3 miles of 12-inch transmission pipe line beginning at applicant's Cannons Lane mixing station at the city limits of Louisville, Kentucky, and extending in a southeasterly direction to a proposed point of interconnection with the pipe line of Tennessee Gas and Transmission Company, now under construction and situated approximately one mile and a half southeast of Calvary, Kentucky;

(b) A cross connection of 6-inch pipe line, for emergency use only, between applicant's existing 12-inch transmission pipe line and the 24-inch pipe line of Tennessee Gas and Transmission Company, where said lines cross in Menifee County, Kentucky;

(c) Requisite meters, regulators, valves and fittings for use in connection with the proposed facilities.

According to the application, Tennessee Gas and Transmission Company is willing for the applicant to establish a physical connection between the pipe line facilities of the two companies, and to discuss the execution of a contract for a natural gas supply to the applicant if and when some portion of the volume to be transported should be available for delivery.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should, on or before the 2nd day of September, 1944, file with the Federal Power Commission a petition or protest in accordance with the provisional rules of practice and regulations under the Natural Gas Act.

[Operations Order 1]

FEDERAL MANAGER OF MOTOR CARRIER TRANSPORTATION SYSTEMS AND PROPERTIES

POSSESSION, CONTROL AND OPERATION OF MOTOR CARRIERS

To each of the motor carriers named in Executive Order 9462[1] of the President of the United States concerning the possession and operation of certain motor carrier transportation systems:

1. Until further order, you are hereby directed to resume or continue the operation of your motor carrier transportation system in the usual and ordinary manner and course of business, as a going enterprise, in your present corporate, partnership, individual, or trade name, as the case may be, and by means of the instrumentalities, agents, officers, and employees customarily employed by you, as fully as if possession and control had not been taken and assumed by the United States, subject, however, to the terms of said Executive order and to all general and special orders, rules, regulations, and directions, which may be issued thereunder. Title to the properties and other assets of which possession has been taken remains in the owners thereof. Possession by the United States is not exclusive, and the United States asserts, and will assert, only such control over the properties in its limited possession as may be necessary to accomplish the purposes of operation and of said Executive order.

2. Each motor carrier shall forthwith indicate its acceptance or rejection of the directions contained in section 1 of this Operations Order No. 1. Such acceptance or rejection shall be in writing, signed by the owner or duly authorized agent, and shall be addressed to the Federal Manager. Such acceptance or rejection by a corporate motor carrier shall be accompanied by a certified copy of a resolution adopted by its board of directors, or other governing body, accepting or rejecting the directions contained in said section 1.

3. All personnel, officers, agents and employees, employed by you in the operation of the said system, are called upon to resume or continue the performance of their usual duties and in the customary manner until otherwise ordered. No such officer, agent, or employee shall be deemed to be an official or employee of the United States.

4. Subject to the terms of said Executive order, and except as hereinafter provided, wage scales and working conditions in effect on the effective date of this order shall be maintained, and full recognition shall be given to the rights of the employees and all classes thereof. Each carrier shall observe the terms and conditions of the directive order of the National War Labor Board dated February 7, 1944: Provided, That wage increases provided for by the said directive order of the National War Labor Board, which accrued prior to the taking possession of its motor carrier transportation system pursuant to said Executive order, shall be paid only out of the net operating revenue of said system. If, at the expiration of ninety (90) days from the date of this Operations Order No. 1, it appears that the net operating revenue of the motor carrier transportation system of any carrier, possession of which is so taken, is, or will be, insufficient to pay the said accrued wage increases provided for by the said directive order of the National War Labor Board, such carrier shall make a report to the Federal Manager with respect thereto. Nothing in this order shall be construed so as to prevent or preclude any carrier from paying said accrued wage increases out of any other funds or assets available to it which are not necessary for the operation of its transportation system.

5. All deductions for the benefit of employees now being made by law or agreement, including insurance payments, Social Security and Unemployment Compensation deductions, and other deductions of every kind, and all arrangements governing the payment of wages, including war bond purchase plans, shall be continued, subject to any legal right of discontinuance.

6. Each motor carrier shall maintain its books and records in such manner that all transactions occuring after 12:01 a. m. of August 12, 1944, and during the period its system and properties are in the possession of the United States, shall be separate, or may be readily separated, from previous transactions. Customary accounting procedures may be followed, and the records and books of account currently in use may be used so long as all transactions may be separated as provided in this section. Each motor carrier shall make such reports as the Federal Manager may, from time to time, request.

7. The operation of any motor carrier transportation system hereunder shall be in conformity with the Interstate Commerce Act, as amended, and other applicable existing Federal and State laws, executive orders, and local ordinances, and rules and regulations issued pursuant to such laws, executive orders, or ordinances. Each motor carrier shall be deemed to remain subject to suit in the same manner and to the same extent as it was so subject prior to the possession of its system and properties by the United States. However, except with the prior written consent of the Director of the Office of Defense Transportation, no attachment by mesne process, garnishment, execution, or otherwise shall be levied on or against any of the real or personal property, or other assets, tangible or intangible, in the possession of the United States under said Executive order. No motor carrier shall authorize or bring suit, accept service, or enter any legal proceedings, on behalf of the United States, the Director of the Office of Defense Transportation, or the Federal Manager. Information as to the pendency, necessity, or probability of any legal proceeding which in any manner questions any right of the United States, the said Director or Federal Manager, shall be promptly furnished to the Federal Manager. Criminal laws protecting properties of the United States shall be deemed applicable to the system and properties of any motor carrier in the possession of the United States under the Executive order.

8. If any regulation, order, direction, or instruction issued by the Federal Manager, or by any of his representatives, interferes with the accomplishment of the purpose for which possession and control are taken hereunder, the management of any motor carrier affected thereby shall promptly notify the Federal Manager and request a waiver or modification of such regulation, order, direction, or instruction.

9. Except and to the extent that a motor carrier objects to any action that it is required to take, pursuant to this or any other order, rule, regulation, or direction, of the Federal Manager, or of any of his representatives, pertaining to possession, control, and operation, under said Executive order, such action and the consequences thereof shall be the sole responsibility of the motor carrier. Failure to object to any such required action in the manner provided in section 10 hereof shall be deemed to be a waiver of the right of the motor carrier to assert any claim for liability against the United States or its officers or agents with respect to damage allegedly resulting from any specific action so taken by it.

10. (a) Any motor carrier which objects to assuming sole responsibility with respect to action which it is required to take pursuant to this or any other order, rule, regulation, or direction, issued by the Federal Manager, or by any of his representatives, pertaining to possession, control, and operation, under the said Executive order, shall protest such order, rule, regulation, or direction, to the Federal Manager, in writing, and in such protest shall specify:

(i) The particular order, rule, regulation, or direction, which the motor carrier protests;

(ii) The action to be taken which, it is asserted, is required by such order, rule, regulation, or direction, which action would not otherwise be taken, and which action if taken, it is claimed, will result in damage to the motor carrier;

(iii) The extent to which the motor carrier asserts such order, rule, regulation, or direction, will result in damage to it if complied with;

(iv) The nature of the damage which the motor carrier asserts it will suffer as a result of compliance with such order, rule, regulation, or direction and an estimate of the amount of such asserted threatened damage.

(b) Each such protest shall be made to the Federal Manager by registered mail or telegram within five (5) days after the issuance of the particular order, rule, regulation, or direction, so protested.

11. Upon the protest by a motor carrier of any order, rule, regulation, or direction as provided in section 9 hereof, the effectiveness of the order, rule, regulation, or direction shall be suspended as to the protesting motor carrier pending further consideration and direction by the Federal Manager, and such motor carrier shall not take any action to carry into effect such order, rule, regulation, or direction until further directed so to do by the Federal Manager. The Federal Manager may thereafter direct that the protested order, rule, regulation, or direction shall be forthwith placed into effect with such modification thereof, if any, as to the protesting carrier or others as he may deem necessary or desirable.

12. Unless otherwise specifically directed, all communications concerning possession, control, and operation, under this order shall be addressed to the Federal Manager, Metropolitan Life Building, Third Street & Second Avenue, Minneapolis, Minnesota.

13. A copy of this Operations Order No. 1 shall be posted by each carrier in the principal place of business or headquarters of its transportation system and in each terminal maintained in connection with its operations.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 11th day of August 1944.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

[File Nos. 54-102, 59-19, 54-34, 54-76]

GENERAL GAS & ELECTRIC CORP., ET AL.

NOTICE OF FILING AND ORDER FOR HEARING ON JOINT PLAN

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 17th day of August, 1944.

In the matters of General Gas & Electric Corporation, Trustees of Associated Gas and Electric Corporation with respect to a "Plan of Divestment of Assets, Simplification of Corporate Structure and Equitable Distribution of Voting Power of General Gas & Electric Corporation", File No. 54-102; General Gas & Electric Corporation, File Nos. 59-19; 54-34; and Trustees of Associated Gas and Electric Corporation, File No. 54-76.

The Commission having heretofore instituted a proceeding, designated as File 59-19, with respect to General Gas & Electric Corporation ("Gengas"), a registered holding company, under section 11 (b) (2) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, involving, among others, certain issues with respect to the simplification of its corporate structure, the equitableness of the distribution of voting power among its security holders, the necessity for its continued existence, the nature and extent of claims against it based upon its outstanding securities or otherwise, the relative rank of such claims, and whether and to what extent, if any, the claims held by Denis J. Driscoll and Willard L. Thorp, Trustees of Associated Gas & Electric Corporation ("Agecorp"), a registered holding company and the parent of Gengas, should be subordinated to any such claims held by the public (Holding Company Act Release Nos. 2545, 3766, and 4382); and

Gengas having filed a plan under section 11 (e), designated as File No. 54–34 (as set forth in Holding Company Act Release No. 2596), after the commencement of the proceeding under section 11 (b) (2) of the act; and, thereafter, said trustees having filed a separate plan with respect to Gengas under section 11 (e), designated as File No. 54–76 (as set forth in Holding Company Act Release No. 4382); and

Said proceeding under section 11 (b) (2) of the act, designated as File No. 59–19, and said proceedings under section 11 (e) of the act, designated as File Nos. 54–34 and 54–76, having been consolidated and public hearings having been held in said consolidated proceeding, wherein the evidence has been completed with respect to the plan of the Trustees, and the hearings in all other respects continued generally, and none of the issues involved having been submitted to the Commission for its determination;

Notice is hereby given that said trustees and Gengas have now jointly filed "a Plan of Divestment of Assets, Simplification of Corporate Structure and Equitable Distribution of Voting Power of General Gas & Electric Corporation" ("Joint Plan") under section 11 (e) of the act (designated as File No. 54–102), which, by its terms, is intended to supersede all plans with respect to Gengas heretofore filed under section 11 (e) of the act;

All interested persons are referred to said joint plan which is on file at the offices of this Commission for a full statement of the terms of the transactions proposed therein, which may be summarized as follows:

The joint plan represents that, as at December 31, 1943, the claims against Gengas and liquidation preferences of the outstanding securities of Gengas are:

[2] Excludes $278,880 of dividends declared but withheld from the Estate of Agecorp pending further order of the Commission.

In connection with the foregoing tabulation, the joint plan indicates that the Prior Preferred Stock is entitled to cumulative dividends of $5 per share per annum, and in liquidation to $100 per share and accrued dividends in priority to all other classes of stock; thereafter the cumulative preferred stocks are entitled to cumulative dividends at the rates specified above and in liquidation to $100 per share and accrued dividends, without distinction as to series. In liquidation the Class A stockholders, after $100 per share and accrued dividends have been paid on the prior preferred and cumulative preferred stocks, are entitled to receive $5.00 per share, and also participate equally with the Class B stockholders, on a share for share basis, after the Class B stockholders receive $5.00 per share. The Class A Stock is entitled to a non-cumulative dividend of 30¢ per share per year after provision for dividends on the prior and cumulative preferred stocks. The Class A Stock is also entitled to an equal distribution per share with the Class B Stock, after provision for Class B dividend of 30¢ per share per year.

The Joint Plan further represents that the assets of Gengas are stated on its books, at December 31, 1943, at $31,122,598.73, and that any distribution of the assets of Gengas among its security holders in accordance with the terms of their securities would fully cover the claims of Prior Preferred stockholders and, to some extent, those of Cumulative Preferred stockholders, but that the Gengas Common Stocks Class A and B would have no value whatsoever.

The Joint Plan recites that it has been claimed on behalf of the public holders of Gengas Common Stocks Class A and B, that causes of action exist against Associated Gas and Electric Company ("Ageco"), the parent of Agecorp, Agecorp and certain of their subsidiaries. The joint plan further recites that more importantly it has been claimed that the public holders of Gengas securities are entitled, by analogy to the principles announced by the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of Taylor v. Standard Gas & Electric Company, 306 U. S. 307 (the so-called "Deep Rock" case), to require subordination of the interests of the Agecorp Estate and thus of the creditors of Ageco and Agecorp in securities of and claims against Gengas to the interests of the public security holders of Gengas.

Accordingly, it is stated, the provisions of the joint plan are now proposed as a compromise of all issues between the public holders of the securities of Gengas on the one hand, and the Trustees of Agecorp and/or Ageco, and their subsidiary companies, on the other hand. In this connection, the joint plan further represents that its provisions have been approved by a Protective Committee representing certain public holders of Gengas Common Stock Class A, as well as the Trustees of Agecorp and the Board of Directors of Gengas, the latter acting upon advice of independent counsel.

Said joint plan proposes that the public holders of the outstanding securities of Gengas be accorded the following treatment:

1. The public holders of the $5 Prior Preferred Stock of Gengas are to receive, for each share held, $100 per share plus unpaid dividends at the rate of 5% per annum to the effective date of the joint plan, in cash or in shares of 5% Preferred Stock $50 par value of South Carolina Electric & Gas Company at par, at the option of Gengas.

2. The public holders of the $6, $7, and $8 Dividend Series Cumulative Preferred Stock of Gengas are to receive, for each share held, $100 per share plus unpaid dividends at contract rates from September 15, 1936, to the effective date of the joint plan, in cash or in 5% Preferred Stock $50 par value of South Carolina Electric & Gas Company at par, at the option of Gengas.

3. Said joint plan states that the outstanding shares of common stock of Florida Power Corporation, a subsidiary of Gengas, will be reclassified into a total issue of 857,143 shares of common stock of a par value of $7.50 per share, and provides that the public holders of the Common Stock Class A and B of Gengas are to receive, without regard to the dates of acquisition of their holdings, for each share of Gengas Common Stock Class A and B, $1.65 in cash and one-fifth (⅕) of a share of the reclassified common stock of Florida Power Corporation. The joint plan further provides that to the extent that shares of Gengas Common Stock Class A and B are presented in a lot of less than five or in a lot not evenly divisible by five, distribution shall be made in the ratio provided above, except that no fractional shares of Florida Power Corporation common stock shall be issued. In lieu of such fractional shares, temporary receipts shall be issued which, when combined with additional receipts together calling for one or more full shares of Florida Power Corporation common stock shall be exchangeable for full share certificates for such stock plus any dividends declared and payable thereon since the effective date of the joint plan. It is proposed that the holders of such receipts will not be entitled to any rights as shareholders of Florida Power Corporation until such receipts have been exchanged for full shares. At the end of six (6) years from the effective date of the Joint Plan, any such receipts remaining outstanding are to become null and void.

The joint plan further provides that to the extent that any dividends or other distributions are made upon the common stock of Florida Power Corporation between the date of said joint plan (August 11, 1944) and its effective date, the amount of any such dividend or other distribution allocable to each share of Florida Power Corporation common stock distributable under the joint plan will be distributed with the shares of the common stock.

4. The public holders of outstanding scrip certificates and miscellaneous claims for various securities of Gengas, when presented in full share equivalents, will receive the distributions applicable to the securities which the scrip certificates represent, subject to the terms of the respective scrip certificates and claims. If such scrip certificates or claims are presented in less than full share equivalents, Gengas may at its option make distribution as above indicated, or pay in cash the equivalent market value, at the date of presentation, of the Gengas security represented, or of the security, distribution of which is provided for above.

5. The joint plan further provides that six (6) years from its effective date, all securities of and all claims against Gengas affected by the joint plan will be and become in all respects null and void.

Upon the proposed distribution of the cash and other assets of Gengas to its public security holders, as above described, the joint plan states there will remain no claims against Gengas except those held by the Trustees of Agecorp. The joint plan proposes that such claims held by said Trustees at the effective date of the joint plan be cancelled or surrendered in consideration of the delivery to or upon the order of said Trustees or their successor in interest of the following:

1. All Florida Power Corporation common stock not distributable to public security holders under the Joint Plan;

2. The entire issue of a single class of new common stock of Gengas in such amount as said Trustees or their successor in interest shall determine to be appropriate, and as the Commission may approve;

3. Releases by Gengas to Ageco, Agecorp and their subsidiaries of any claims which may exist at the effective date of the joint plan in favor of Gengas, except the right of public security holders to receive the securities and cash distributable to them pursuant to the joint plan; and

4. All assets distributable to public security holders pursuant to the joint plan, not actually so distributed within six years from the effective date of the joint plan.

It is stated in the joint plan that the Trustees of Agecorp will consent to the entry by the Commission of a divestment order pursuant to section 11 (b) (1) of the act requiring that they divest themselves of all interest, direct or indirect, in the common stock of Florida Power Corporation distributable to them pursuant to the joint plan.

The joint plan then states that, upon its consummation, the principal asset of Gengas will be the common stock of South Carolina Electric & Gas Company, and at such time as tax and other relevant considerations permit, Gengas may be dissolved, or its outstanding securities distributed among the security holders of such company as may emerge as a result of the reorganization of Ageco and Agecorp, or otherwise disposed of, as may appear to be appropriate.

The joint plan provides that its consummation is subject to the following contingencies:

(a) The consummation of transactions affecting Florida Power Corporation and Georgia Power and Light Company, subsidiaries of Gengas, whereby Georgia Power and Light Company will become a subsidiary of Florida Power Corporation, the outstanding indebtedness of Georgia Power and Light Company will be reduced and its preferred stocks eliminated, and the outstanding preferred stocks of Florida Power Corporation will be refinanced. (Proceedings with respect to the foregoing program are pending before the Commission (Holding Company Act Release No. 5025).) In addition to the foregoing transactions, and in order to effectuate the provisions of the joint plan, the outstanding 3,000,000 shares of Common Stock, without par value, of Florida Power Corporation will be reclassified into 857,143 shares of Common Stock of a par value of $7.50 per share.

(b) Approval of the joint plan by the Commission in proceedings under section 11 (e) of the act by an order meeting the requirements of Supplement R of the United States Internal Revenue Code, so far as applicable.

(c) The entry by a court of competent jurisdiction of an appropriate decree finding the joint plan fair and equitable, and directing its consummation, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the delivery by Gengas to Ageco, Agecorp and their subsidiaries of releases of any claims which may exist in favor of Gengas, except the right on the part of the public security holders of Gengas to receive the securities and assets distributable pursuant to the joint plan; and

(d) An appropriate determination by the Treasury Department as to the tax consequences to the corporations involved of the various transactions required for consummation of the plan which, in the opinion of the Trustees and the Board of Directors of Gengas, shall not be unduly burdensome.

The joint plan provides that its effective date will be the date fixed by the Board of Directors of Gengas for the making of distributions pursuant to the joint plan upon advice of counsel that the foregoing conditions to consummation have been met and that the time to appeal from any material Commission or court determination relating to the joint plan has expired.

The joint plan further provides that any interested person may apply to the Commission, in proceedings for approval of the joint plan, for an allowance of reasonable compensation for services rendered and for reimbursement for proper costs and expenses incurred in connection with the joint plan and other proceedings related thereto.

The Commission being required by the provisions of section 11 (e) of the act, before approving any plan submitted thereunder, to find after notice and opportunity for hearing that such plan as submitted, or as modified, is necessary to effectuate the provisions of subsection (b) of section 11, and is fair and equitable to the persons affected by such plan; and it appearing appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that notice be given and a hearing be held with respect to said joint plan; and

It further appearing to the Commission that the proceeding with respect to said joint plan, designated as File No. 54–102, involves questions of law and fact common to the proceeding heretofore instituted by the Commission under section 11 (b) (2) of the act, designated as File No. 59–19, and that all of the evidence adduced in said proceeding under section 11 (b) (2) of the act and in the proceedings under section 11 (e) of the act, designated as File Nos. 54–34 and 54–76, may have a bearing upon the issues presented by said joint plan, and that a substantial saving of time and expense will result if such evidence adduced in said prior consolidated proceeding is considered in connection with the issues raised by said joint plan;

It is ordered, That the proceeding under section 11 (e) of the act with respect to said joint plan, designated as 54–102, and the pending proceeding under section 11 (b) (2), designated as File No. 59–19, be, and the same hereby are, consolidated;

It is further ordered, That the record of the consolidated proceeding, designated as File Nos. 59–19, 54–34, and 54–76, be, and hereby is, incorporated into the record of the proceeding with respect to said joint plan, designated as File 54–102, and that the records in such proceedings be, and hereby are, consolidated, subject, however, and without prejudice, to the Commission's right upon its own motion, or the motion of any interested party, to strike such portion of the record in respect of said consolidated proceeding, designated as File Nos. 59–19, 54–34, and 54–76, as may be deemed irrelevant to the issues raised by said joint plan;

It is further ordered, That a hearing be held under the applicable provisions of the act and rules promulgated thereunder at 10:00 a. m., e. w. t., on the 12th day of September, 1944, at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia 3, Pennsylvania, in such room as may be designated on that day by the hearing room clerk in room 318, before the trial examiner heretofore designated to preside. All persons desiring to be heard, or otherwise to participate in the proceeding, should notify the Commission in the manner provided by Rule XVII of its rules of practice on or before September 9, 1944;

It is further ordered, That, without limiting the scope of the issues presented in the consolidated proceeding, particular attention will be directed at said hearing to the following matters and questions, in respect to the joint plan:

1. Whether the joint plan as submitted, or as modified, is necessary to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the act;

2. Whether the treatment proposed to be accorded to the various persons affected by the joint plan is in all respects fair and equitable;

3. Whether the various related and incidental transactions proposed in connection with the joint plan, meet the requirements of the applicable standards of the act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, including the proposals as to the following matters:

(a) The reclassification of the no-par value common stock of Florida Power Corporation;

(b) The cancellation or surrender of all indebtedness of Gengas to Agecorp and all stockholdings of Agecorp in Gengas;

(c) The releases by Gengas to Ageco, Agecorp, and their subsidiaries, of any claims which may exist at the effective date of the joint plan;

(d) The delivery to the Trustees, or upon their order, of all shares of the reclassified common stock of Florida Power Corporation not distributable to the public security holders under the joint plan; and

(e) The reclassification of all securities of Gengas into a single class of new common stock, and the delivery to the Trustees, or their successors in interest, of the shares of such new common stock.

4. Whether any fees, expenses and other considerations which may be claimed in connection with the proposed joint plan and related proceedings, are for necessary services or purposes, reasonable in amount, and properly allocated;

5. Whether, and in what manner, the proposed joint plan should be modified to ensure adequate protection of the public interest and the interest of investors and consumers and compliance with all applicable provisions of the Act and Rules thereunder.

It is further ordered, That notice of said hearing be given to the Trustees of Agecorp and to Gengas by mailing a copy of this notice and order forthwith by registered mail, and that notice be given to all other persons by a general release of this Commission distributed to the press and mailed to the mailing list for releases under the act, and by publication of this notice and order in the FEDERAL REGISTER; and

It is further ordered, That Gengas give notice of said hearing to each of its public security holders (insofar as the identity of such security holders is available or known to Gengas) by mailing to each such security holder, to his last known address, a copy of this notice and order at least fifteen (15) days prior to September 12, 1944; and that Gengas furnish its security holders a copy of the joint plan upon request;

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction be and is hereby reserved to separate, whether for hearing, in whole or in part, or for disposition, in whole or in part, any of the issues, questions, or matters hereinbefore set forth or which may arise in this consolidated proceeding, or to consolidate with this proceeding other filings or matters pertaining thereto, or to take such other action as may appear conducive to an orderly, prompt, and economical disposition of the matters involved.

By the Commission.

(b) $6,484,000 principal amount of First Mortgage Bonds 4% Series of 1937 due 1967 at the redemption price of 106.

(c) 197,585 shares of Preferred Stock, $6 Series at the call price of $110 per share.

(d) 1,367 shares of Preferred Stock, $5 Series at the call price of $105 per share.

In connection with the proposed financing, Commonwealth proposes to make contributions to the common stock equity of Ohio Edison as follows:

(a) By donating to Ohio Edison the 110,000 shares of common stock, no par value, of Pennsylvania Power Company (being all of the outstanding common stock of said company), at the underlying book value, which at May 31, 1944 was $4,516,521.14.

(b) By giving up the right to receive payment for 12,134 shares of Ohio Edison's Preferred Stock, $6.60, $7 and $7.20 Series, which were surrendered and cancelled on December 31, 1943 (concerning which this Commission reserved jurisdiction), amounting to $1,149,707.25.

(c) By surrendering to Ohio Edison for cancellation 1,162 shares of Ohio Edison's Preferred Stock, $6 Series, at the cash cost thereof to Commonwealth, amounting to $96,856.28.

Ohio Edison also proposes to amend its articles of incorporation so as to reduce the stated capital represented by the 1,436,920 shares of its outstanding no par value common stock from an aggregate of $14,499,200 to an aggregate of $14,366,776; to credit the amount of such reduction ($132,424) to capital surplus; and to change the number of shares of common stock into 1,795,847 shares of common stock with a par value of $8 per share, or an aggregate of $14,366,776. It is stated that the purpose of such change is to facilitate the distribution of shares of the common stock of Ohio Edison pursuant to the Amended Plan to change the capitalization of Commonwealth, dated February 19, 1944, filed with the Commission under section 11 (e) of the Act (File No. 54–75), when and as such distribution can lawfully be made.

The application further states that Ohio Edison agrees that the Commission's order herein may contain a condition to the effect that, so long as any of the new bonds or new preferred stock shall remain outstanding it will not declare or pay any dividends on its common stock (other than dividends payable in common stock) or make any distribution of assets to holders of common stock by purchase of shares or otherwise, in an amount which, when added to the aggregate of all such dividends and distributions subsequent to the last day of the month in which the new bonds and new preferred stock are issued (referred to below as "said date"), would exceed the sum of the following amounts:

(a) 75% of the balance of the net income of Ohio Edison earned subsequent to said date available for the payment of dividends on the common stock, after deducting from such net income any dividends received during such period from any subsidiary company, plus.

(b) 100% of the amount of any dividends received subsequent to said date from any subsidiary company, if, at the time of the declaration of any such dividend or the making of any such distribution, the aggregate of the par value of, or stated capital represented by, the outstanding shares of common stock of Ohio Edison and of the consolidated surplus of Ohio Edison and subsidiary companies would be less than an amount equal to 25% of the total consolidated capitalization and surplus of Ohio Edison and subsidiary companies.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to the application and declaration and that the application and declaration shall not be granted or permitted to become effective except pursuant to further order of the Commission:

It is ordered, That a hearing on the application and declaration under the applicable provisions of the Act and the Rules of the Commission thereunder be held on September 6, 1944, at 11:00 a. m., e. w. t., in the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia 3, Pennsylvania. On such day the hearing room clerk in room 318 will advise as to the room in which such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That Charles S. Lobingier or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at such hearing. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's rules of practice.

It is further order, That without limiting the scope of issues presented by the filings, particular attention will be directed at the hearing to the following matters and questions:

(1) Whether the proposed mortgage bonds, preferred stock and promissory notes are reasonably adapted to the earning power and the security structure of Ohio Edison and are necessary and appropriate to the economical and efficient operation of the business or businesses in which Ohio Edison is presently engaged.

(2) Whether the terms and conditions of the issue and sale of the securities are detrimental to the public interest or the interests of investors or consumers.

(3) Whether the proposed capital contributions by Commonwealth to Ohio Edison comply with the applicable provisions of the act and the rules thereunder.

(4) Whether the fees, commissions, or other renumerations to be paid in connection with proposed transactions are for necessary services and are reasonable in amount.

(5) Whether it is necessary or appropriate to impose terms or conditions in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers, with particular attention to all accounting entries in connection with the proposed transactions, to intangibles and other inflationary items in the property and other accounts, to property which is not used or useful in the performance of utility services and to the adequacy of the provisions for maintenance and depreciation.

(6) Generally, whether, in any respect, the proposed transactions are detrimental to the public interest or to the interest of investors or consumers or will tend to contravene or circumvent any provisions of the Act or the Rules, Regulations or Orders promulgated thereunder.

It is further ordered, That the Secretary of the Commission shall serve by registered mail, a copy of this order on the applicants and declarants herein; and that notice of said hearing be given to all other persons by publication of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Any person desiring to be heard or otherwise wishing to participate in these proceedings shall file with the Secretary of the Commission on or before September 5, 1944, his request or application therefor, as provided by Rule XVII of the rules of practice of the Commission.

By the Commission.

[Docket No. AO 123–A 4]

LOUISVILLE, KY., MARKETING AREA

NOTICE OF HEARING ON HANDLING OF MILK

Proposed amendments to the tentatively approved marketing agreement, as amended, and order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Louisville, Kentucky, Marketing Area.

Pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 1940 ed. 601 et seq.), and in accordance with the applicable rules of practice and procedure (7 C.F.R., Cum. Supp., 900.1 et seq.), notice is hereby given of a hearing to be held at the Brown Hotel, Louisville, Kentucky, beginning at 10 a. m., c. w. t., August 24, 1944, with respect to proposed amendments to the tentatively approved marketing agreement, as amended, and order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Louisville, Kentucky, marketing area. These amendments have not received the approval of the War Food Administrator.

This public hearing is for the purpose of receiving evidence with respect to the economic or marketing conditions which relate to the amendments or any modification thereof, which are hereinafter set forth. The amendments which have been proposed are set forth below.

Proposed by the Falls Cities Cooperative Milk Producers Association, Louisville, Kentucky:

1. Delete subparagraph (6) of paragraph (d) in § 946.3 and substitute therefor the following:

(6) Determine the classification of milk received from producers as follows:

(i) Subtract from the total pounds of milk in each class the total pounds of milk which were received from other handlers and used in such class.

(ii) Subtract from the total pounds of milk in each class the total pounds of milk, except emergency milk, which were received from sources other than producers and handlers and used in such class.

(iii) Subtract from the remaining pounds of milk in each class, in series beginning with the lowest-priced Class III use, the pounds of emergency milk received during the delivery period. Skimmed milk or (the milk equivalent of) cream received from sources other than producers under an emergency supply permit issued by the proper health authorities shall be treated as emergency milk for the purposes of this section, if such skimmed milk or (the milk equivalent of) cream is reported to the market administrator in the manner provided for emergency milk in (2) and (3) of § 946 5 (a).

(iv) Subtract pro rata out of the remaining milk in each class the quantity of milk of the handler's own production.

2. Delete paragraph (e) of § 946.3 and substitute the following:

(e) Reconciliation of utilization of milk by classes with receipts of milk from producers. In the event of a difference between the total quantity of milk utilized in the respective classes as computed under paragraph (d) of this section and the quantity of milk received from producers, except for excess milk or milk equivalent of butterfat pursuant to § 946.6 (c), such difference shall be reconciled as follows:

(1) If the total utilization of milk in the various classes for any handler, as computed pursuant to (d) of this section, is less than the receipts of milk from producers, the market administrator shall increase the total pounds of milk in Class III for such handler by an amount equal to the difference between the receipts of milk from producers and the total utilization of milk by classes for such handler.

(2) If the total utilization of milk in the various classes for any handler, as computed pursuant to (d) of this section, is greater than the receipts of milk from producers, the market administrator shall decrease the total pounds of milk in Class III for such handler by an amount equal to the difference between the receipts of milk from producers and the total utilization of milk by classes for such handler.

3. Delete subparagraphs (1), (2) and (3) of paragraph (a) of § 946.4 and substitute therefor the following:

(1) Class I milk. The price for Class I milk shall be the price for Class III milk, plus $1.05.

(2) Class II milk. The price for Class II milk shall be the price for Class III milk, plus 50 cents.

(3) Class III milk. The price for Class III milk shall be the price resulting from the following computation by the market administrator: determine, on the basis of milk of 4 per cent butterfat content, the arithmetical average of the basic, or field, prices per hundredweight reported by, and ascertained by the market administrator to have been paid by, the following concerns at the manufacturing plants or places listed herein below, for ungraded milk received during the delivery period:

Concern:	Location
Kraft Cheese Co.	Lawrenceburg, Ky.
Armour Creameries	Elizabethtown, Ky.
Armour Creameries	Springfield, Ky.
Kraft Cheese Co.	Salem, Ind.
Ewing-Von Allmen Co.	Corydon, Ind.
Ewing-Von Allmen Co.	Madison, Ind.
Producers' Dairy Marketing Association	Orleans, Ind.

Provided, That if the price so determined is less than the price computed by the market administrator in accordance with the following formula, such formula price shall be used: multiply by 4 the average wholesale price per pound of 92-score butter in the Chicago market as reported by the War Food Administration (or by such other Federal agency as may hereafter be authorized to perform this price reporting function) for the delivery period during which such milk was received, and add 20 per cent: Provided, That such price shall be subject to the following adjustments: (1) add 3 cents per hundredweight for each full one-half cent that the price for dry skim milk for human consumption is above 5½ cents per pound, or (2) subtract 3 cents per hundredweight for each full one-half cent that the price of such dry skim milk is below 5½ cents per pound. For purposes of determining this adjustment the price per pound of dry skim milk to be used shall be the average of the carlot prices for roller powder for human consumption, as published by the War Food Administration in the Chicago market during the delivery period, including in such average the quotations published for any fractional part of the previous delivery period which were not published and available for the price determination of such dry skim milk for the previous delivery period. In the event the War Food Administration does not publish carlot prices for dry skim milk for human consumption, the average of the carlot prices for dry skim milk for human consumption, delivered at Chicago, shall be used. In the latter event the Class III price shall be subject to the following adjustments: (1) Add 3 cents per hundredweight for each full one-half cent that the price of dry skim milk for human consumption, delivered at Chicago, is above 6½ cents per pound, or (2) subtract 3 cents per hundredweight for each full one-half cent that such price for dry skim milk is below 6½ cents per pound. In the event the War Food Administration does not publish carlot prices for dry skim milk for human consumption in the Chicago market and the average of the carlot prices for dry skim milk for human consumption, delivered at Chicago, cannot be determined, the Class III price shall be adjusted by the market administrator in accordance with the latter event as stated in this subparagraph by making the applicable addition to or subtraction from the price of dry skim milk for human consumption, delivered at the nearest market to the city of Louisville for which such a price can be determined.

4. Delete § 946.6 and substitute therefor the following:

§ 946.6. Application of provisions—(a) Handlers who are also producers. No provision hereof shall apply to a handler whose sole sources of supply are receipts from his own production and from other handlers who are required to report to the market administrator pursuant to § 946.5 hereof, except that such handlers shall make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may request, and shall permit the market administrator to verify such reports.

(b) Receipts in bulk from other handlers. The market administrator, in computing the value of milk received by a handler operating a plant from which milk is disposed of in the marketing area, shall consider as Class III milk any milk or cream received in bulk from a handler who receives no milk from producers other than that of his own production. If such receiving handler disposes of such milk other than as Class III milk, the market administrator shall add to the total value of milk, computed pursuant to § 946.7 (a), the difference between the value of such milk at the Class III price and the value according to its actual usage.

(c) Payment for excess milk or butterfat. In the event that a handler, after subtracting receipts from his own production, receipts from other handlers, receipts from sources determined as other than producers or other handlers and receipts of emergency milk, has disposed of milk and/or butterfat in excess of the milk and/or butterfat which, on the basis of his reports, has been credited to his producers as having been delivered by them, such handler shall pay to producers, through the producer-settlement fund, the value of such milk and/or the milk equivalent of such butterfat in accordance with its utilization.

5. Delete § 946.7 and substitute therefor the following:

§ 946.7 Determination of uniform prices to producers—(a) Computation of value of milk for each handler. For each delivery period the market administrator shall compute, subject to the provisions of § 946.6, the value of milk of producers disposed of by each handler, by multiplying the quantity of such milk in each class by the price applicable to such class and by adding together the resulting class values: Provided, That if such handler has received milk (or cream), except emergency milk, from sources other than producers or handlers, as referred to in § 946.3 (d) (6) (ii), there shall be added to the value of milk determined for such handler pursuant to this paragraph an amount computed as follows: multiply the hundredweight of such milk (or milk equivalent of cream) by the difference between the Class III price and the price applicable to the class in which it was disposed.

(b) Computation and announcement of uniform prices. The market administrator shall compute and announce the uniform price per hundredweight of milk for each delivery period, as follows:

(1) Combine into one total the respective values of milk computed pursuant to (a) of this section, for each handler who made the report prescribed by § 946.5 (a) for such delivery period;

(2) Subtract, if the average butterfat content of all milk received from producers is in excess of 4 percent, or add, if such average butterfat content is less than 4 percent, the total value of the butterfat differential applicable pursuant to § 946.8 (f);

(3) Subtract for each of the delivery periods of April, May, and June an amount representing 15 cents per hundredweight of milk received from producers by the handlers whose milk values are included under (1) of this paragraph;

(4) Add an amount representing the cash balances in the producer-settlement fund, less the aggregate of the amounts held pursuant to (3) of this paragraph for payment to producers pursuant to (7) of this paragraph;

(5) Divide the amount computed pursuant to (4) of this paragraph by the total hundredweight of milk of producers;

(6) Subtract from the figure computed pursuant to (5) of this paragraph not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents per hundredweight for the purpose of retaining in the producer-settlement fund a cash balance to provide against errors in reports and payment or delinquencies in payments by handlers. This result shall be known as the uniform price for such delivery period for milk of producers containing 4 percent of butterfat; and

(7) For each of the delivery periods of September, October, and November one-third of the aggregate amount subtracted under (3) of this paragraph for the preceding delivery periods of April, May, and June shall be paid by the Milk Market Administrator to the producers and/or their duly authorized agent for the total hundredweight of milk received from producers an amount per hundredweight which shall be computed as follows: For each of the delivery periods of September, October, and November the amount per hundredweight shall be computed by dividing one-third of the aggregate amount subtracted under (3) of this paragraph by the total hundredweight of milk received from producers by handlers during each delivery period.

(8) On or before the 10th day after the end of each delivery period, notify each handler and publicly announce the uniform price per hundredweight computed pursuant to (6) of this paragraph and for the delivery periods of September, October, and November the uniform price per hundredweight computed pursuant to (7) of this paragraph, the Class III price, and butterfat differentials provided by § 946.4 (c) and § 946.8 (f).

Proposed by the Louisville Milk Distributors' Association, Louisville, Kentucky:

1. Delete § 946.1 (i) and substitute the following:

(i) "Milk" is hereby defined to be the clean, lacteal secretion obtained by the complete milking of one or more healthy cows, properly fed and kept, excluding that obtained within fifteen days before and ten days after parturition or such longer period as may be necessary to render the milk practically colostrum free, which has been graded and approved in accordance with the laws, rules and regulations applicable to milk intended for sale for human consumption as Grade "A" pasteurized milk in Louisville, Kentucky, New Albany, Indiana, and Jeffersonville, Indiana, respectively.

(j) "Emergency milk" is milk, skim milk or cream which has been approved by the Health Officers of Louisville and Jefferson County, Kentucky, New Albany, Indiana, and Jeffersonville, Indiana, for certain uses in Class I and Class II during a shortage of such milk as is defined in subparagraph (i) of § 946.1.

2. Delete § 946.3 (b) and substitute therefor the following:

(b) Classes of utilization. The classes of utilization of milk shall be as follows:

(1) Class I milk shall be all milk disposed of as milk and all milk drinks having a butterfat content in excess of 1 percent and all milk not especially accounted for as Class II milk, Class III milk and Class IV milk.

(2) Class II milk shall be all milk disposed of as cream (for consumption as cream) including any cream product disposed of in fluid form which contains less than the minimum butterfat content required for fluid cream, and all skimmed milk disposed of as buttermilk or milk drinks, whether plain or flavored and not classified in Class I.

(3) Class III milk shall be all milk accounted for (i) as used to produce a milk product other than those specified in Class I milk, Class II milk and Class IV milk, and (ii) as actual plant shrinkage but not to exceed 2 percent of the total receipts of milk from producers, emergency milk, milk from other handlers and other sources, and including the handlers own production.

(4) Class IV milk shall be that portion of the milk used to produce butter by a handler reporting utilization in Class III in excess of 10 percent of such handler's total receipts during the reporting period. No handler shall be permitted in any delivery period to report an amount of milk utilized in Class IV in excess of an amount equal to 10 percent of said handler's reported Class I sales for said delivery period.

3. Delete § 946.3 (c) and substitute therefor the following:

(c) Interhandler and nonhandler transfers of milk. (1) Milk disposed of by a handler to another handler or to a person who is not a handler but who distributes milk or manufactures milk products shall be Class I milk, and cream and skimmed milk so disposed of shall be Class II milk: Provided, That if the selling handler and the purchaser, on or before the 5th day after the end of the delivery period, each furnish to the market administrator similar signed statements that such milk, cream or skimmed milk was disposed of in another class, such milk, cream or skimmed milk shall be classified accordingly, subject to verification by the market administrator.

(2) Milk disposed of from a handler's plant to soda fountains, bakeries, restaurants and other retail food establishments which dispose of milk for both fluid and other uses shall be Class I milk: Provided, That milk disposed of in bulk from a handler's plant to any such establishment which, under the applicable health regulations, is permitted to receive milk other than of Grade A quality for non-fluid purposes shall be classified according to its ultimate use or disposition by such establishment, subject to verification by the market administrator.

(3) Cream and skimmed milk disposed of from a handler's plant to soda fountains, bakeries, restaurants, and other retail food establishments which dispose of cream and skimmed milk for both fluid and other uses shall be Class II milk: Provided, That cream and skimmed milk disposed of in bulk from a handler's plant to any such establishment which, under the applicable health regulations, is permitted to receive cream and skimmed milk other than of Grade A quality for non-fluid purposes shall be classified according to its ultimate use or disposition by such establishment, subject to certification by the market administrator.

4. Delete the phrase "and skimmed milk" from § 946.3 (d) (3); delete § 946.3 (d) (4), (5), and (6) and substitute therefor the following:

(4) Determine the total pounds of Class II milk as follows: (i) multiply the actual weight of each of the cream products of Class II milk by its average butterfat test, (ii) add together the resulting amounts and (iii) divide the result obtained in (ii) of this subparagraph by 4 percent, (iv) add total pounds of skimmed milk disposed of in the form of buttermilk or milk drinks, whether plain or flavored.

(5) Determine the total pounds of Class III milk as follows: (i) multiply the actual weight of each of the several products of Class III milk by its average butterfat tests; (ii) add together the resulting amounts; (iii) subtract the total pounds of butterfat in Class I milk and Class II milk computed pursuant to (3) (ii) and (4) (ii) of this paragraph and Class IV milk computed pursuant to (6) of this paragraph and the total pounds of butterfat computed pursuant to (ii) of this subparagraph from the total pounds of butterfat computed pursuant to (2) of this paragraph, which resulting quantity shall be allowed as plant shrinkage for the purposes of this paragraph (but in no event shall such plant shrinkage allowance exceed 2 percent of the total receipts of butterfat by the handler) and shall be added to the results obtained in (ii) of this subparagraph; and (iv) divide the result obtained in (ii) of this subparagraph by 4 percent.

(6) Determine the total pounds of Class IV milk as follows: (i) divide by 4 the total pounds of butterfat manufactured into butter or sold to a butter manufacturer to determine total cwt. pounds of 4 percent milk used for this purpose by each handler, (ii) add together the resulting amounts; (iii) determine the total pounds of Class III milk in excess of 10 percent of the total pounds of milk received from producers (including the handler's own production), received from other handlers, received as emergency milk and received from other sources; (iv) determine the total pounds of milk equal to 10 percent of each handler's Class I sales; (v) when the total pounds of milk as determined in (ii) of this paragraph exceed the total pounds of milk as determined in (iii) of this paragraph such total pounds of milk shall be considered to be each handler's Class IV usage provided such total pounds of milk do not exceed the total pounds of milk as determined in (iv) of this paragraph.

(7) Determine the classification of milk received from producers as follows:

(i) Subtract pro rata out of the milk in each class the quantity of milk of the handler's own production.

(ii) Subtract from the total pounds of milk in each class the total pounds of milk which were received from other handlers and used in such class.

(iii) Subtract from the total pounds of milk in each class the total pounds of milk, except emergency milk, which were received from sources other than producers and handlers and used in such class.

(iv) Subtract from the total pounds of milk in each class an amount which shall be computed as follows: divide the total pounds of milk in each class by the total pounds of milk in all classes and multiply the percentage for each class by the total pounds of emergency milk received. Skimmed milk or (the milk equivalent of) cream received from sources other than producers under an emergency supply permit issued by the proper health authorities shall be treated as emergency milk for the purposes of this section, if such skimmed milk or (the milk equivalent of) cream is reported to the market administrator in the manner provided for emergency milk in (2) and (3) of § 946.5 (a).

5. Delete § 946.3 (e) and substitute therefor the following:

(e) Reconciliation of utilization of milk by classes with receipts of milk from producers. (1) If the total utilization of milk in the various classes for any handler, as computed pursuant to (d) of this section, is less than the receipts of milk from producers, the market administrator shall increase the total pounds of milk in Class III for such handler by an amount equal to the difference between the receipts of milk from producers and the total utilization of milk by classes for such handler.

(2) If the total utilization of milk in the various classes for any handler, as computed pursuant to (d) of this section, is greater than the receipts of milk from producers, the market administrator shall decrease the total pounds of milk in Class III for such handler by an amount equal to the difference between the receipts of milk from producers and the total utilization of milk by classes for such handler. In the event such reconciliation exhausts the milk available in Class III for such handler, the market administrator shall decrease the total pounds of milk in Class II for such handler by an amount equal to such difference.

Proposed by Penley's Model Dairy, Louisville, Kentucky:

1. Add a new section as follows:

Emergency in the marketing of producers' milk—(a) Investigation. The market administrator may investigate problems affecting the marketing of milk received from producers for the marketing area, report the results of his investigation to the War Food Administrator, and recommend action by the War Food Administrator.

(b) Declaration by War Food Administrator. On the basis of findings of fact, the War Food Administrator may declare an emergency in the marketing of milk from producers either (1) in supplying fluid milk in the marketing area, or (2) in the utilization of milk received from producers.

(c) Shortage of fluid milk for the marketing area. In the event that the War Food Administrator declared an emergency in supplying fluid milk in the marketing area, the market administrator is authorized to take any or all of the steps outlined in (1) and (2) of this paragraph:

(1) Develop and recommend to the War Food Administrator an allocation program and, subject to the approval of the War Food Administrator, take such actions as are necessary or appropriate to administer such an allocation program. In developing or administering any such program, the market administrator may consult with an advisory committee of which he acts as chairman, which consists of representatives of fluid milk distributors in the marketing area and handlers operating pool plants, such committee to be appointed by the War Food Administrator. Such an allocation program may contain terms and conditions for the sale of milk by handlers to fluid milk distributors.

(2) Cancel the designation as a pool plant if the operator of such plant fails to cooperate in an allocation program set up pursuant to (1) of this paragraph or if, in the absence of such program, the market administrator determines that milk handled at such plant is no longer a reserve supply of fluid milk for the marketing area.

(d) Excess of fluid milk for the marketing area. The market administrator is authorized to establish an emergency fund from monies obtained from the producer-settlement fund. Upon the declaration by the War Food Administrator of an emergency in the utilization of milk received from producers, the market administrator may use the monies in such fund to facilitate the transportation of milk from plants where it cannot be utilized to plants where such milk can be utilized. The market administrator may also use the monies in such fund to carry out other programs for the utilization of milk received from producers, which programs are specifically authorized by the War Food Administrator. The market administrator may, before utilizing monies in such fund for any purpose, consult the advisory committee representing handlers. In the operation of any program authorized pursuant to this paragraph the market administrator may consult a sub-committee of those members of the advisory committee appointed pursuant to (c) of this section who operate pool plants.

Proposed by the Dairy and Poultry Branch, War Food Administration:

1. Delete § 946.3 (d) (6) (iii).

2. Renumber § 946.3 (d) (6) (iv) as § 946.3 (d) (6) (iii).

3. Delete subparagraph (2) of paragraph (b) of § 946.3 and substitute therefor the following:

(2) Class II milk shall be all milk, the butterfat from which is disposed of as cream (for consumption as cream), including any cream product disposed of in fluid form which contains less than the minimum butterfat content required for fluid cream.

4. Delete subparagraph (3) of paragraph (b) in § 946.3 and substitute therefor the following:

(3) Class III milk shall be all milk accounted for (i) as used to produce a milk product other than those specified in Class I milk and Class II milk, and (ii) as actual plant shrinkage, but not to exceed 2 percent of the total receipts of milk from producers (including the handlers' own production): Provided, That if milk or cream is received from producers, from handlers, or from sources other than from producers and handlers, such actual shrinkage shall be (i) prorated between the milk received from each source in proportion to the volume of milk and cream received from each, or (ii) allocated between the milk received from each source on the basis of the determined shrinkage of producers' milk utilized as Class I and Class II milk and the shrinkage of Class III milk determined as the difference between the milk accounted for as used to produce milk products other than those specified in Class I milk and Class II milk and the total receipts of milk available for Class III utilization including milk received from producers and transferred to Class III. In the absence of records from which transfers of producers' milk to Class III can be verified, shrinkage allocation shall be made pursuant to (i) above.

5. Delete paragraph (a) in § 946.3 and substitute therefor the following:

(d) Computation of milk in each class. For each delivery period the market administrator shall audit for mathematical correctness and obvious errors the reports submitted for the preceding delivery period by each handler and compute for each handler the amount of milk in each class, as defined in (b) of this section, as follows:

6. Amend § 946.4 by adding thereto a new paragraph designated as (e) to read as follows:

(e) Emergency price provision. Whenever the provisions hereof require the market administrator to use a specific price (or prices) for milk or any milk product for the purpose of determining class prices or for any other purpose, the market administrator shall add to the specified price the amount of any subsidy, or other similar payment, being made by any Federal agency in connection with the milk, or product, associated with the price specified: Provided, That if for any reason the price specified is not reported or published as indicated, the market administrator shall use the applicable maximum uniform price established by regulations of any Federal agency plus the amount of any such subsidy or other similar payment: Provided further, That if the specified price is not reported or published and there is no applicable maximum uniform price, or if the specified price is not reported or published and the War Food Administrator determines that the market price is below the applicable maximum uniform price, the market administrator shall use a price determined by the War Food Administrator to be equivalent to or comparable with the price specified.

7. Delete paragraph (d) (1) of § 946.5 and substitute therefor the following:

(d) Verification of reports and payments. (1) The market administrator shall verify all reports and payments of each handler by audit of such handler's records and of the records of any other handler or persons upon whose disposition of milk such handler claims classification. Each handler shall keep adequate records of receipts and utilization of milk and shall, during the usual hours of business, make available to the market administrator or his representative such reports and facilities as will enable the market administrator to:

(i) Verify the receipts and disposition of all milk required to be reported pursuant to this section and, in case of errors, or omissions, ascertain the correct figures;

(ii) Weigh, sample and test for butterfat content the milk received from producers and any product of milk upon which classification depends; and

(iii) Verify the payments of producers prescribed in § 946.8.

8. Amend the title of § 946.6 to read as follows:

§ 946.6 Application of provisions—(a) Handlers who are also producers.

9. Delete paragraph (b) of § 946.8 and substitute therefor the following:

(b) Producer-settlement fund. The market administrator shall establish and maintain a separate fund known as the producer-settlement fund into which he shall deposit all payments made by handlers pursuant to (c) and (e) of this section, and out of which he shall make all payments to handlers pursuant to (d) and (e) of this section: Provided, That the market administrator shall offset any such payment due any handler against payments due from such handler.

10. Delete § 946.10 and substitute therefor the following:

§ 946.10 (a) Expense of administration. As his prorata share of the expense of the administration hereof, each handler, on or before the 15th day after the end of each delivery period, shall pay to the market administrator, with respect to all milk received by him from producers or produced by him and all emergency milk allocated to Class I and Class II under § 498.3 (d) (iv) during such delivery period, an amount not exceeding 2 cents per hundredweight, the exact amount to be determined by the market administrator, subject to review by the War Food Administrator. Each cooperative association which is a handler shall pay such prorata share of expense on only that milk of producers caused to be delivered by it to plants from which no milk is disposed of in the marketing area.

11. Delete § 946.12.

Proposed by Salem Creamery and Rolling Green Dairy: 1. Delete paragraph (c) in § 946.1 and substitute therefor the following:

(c) "Louisville, Ky., marketing area", hereinafter called the "marketing area", means the territory within the city of Louisville, Fort Knox Military Reservation, and Jefferson County, in the State of Kentucky; and the city of Jeffersonville, the suburbs thereof and a distance of three (3) miles therefrom in all directions, and the towns of Sellersburg, Charlestown, Memphis, Speeds and Henryville in Clark County, Indiana, and the city of New Albany, the suburbs thereof and a distance of three (3) miles therefrom in all directions, and the towns of Galena, Georgetown, Greenville, and Floyd Knobs in Floyd County, Indiana.

EXECUTIVE ORDER 9467

AMENDMENT OF EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 1888 OF FEBRUARY 2, 1914, AS AMENDED, RELATING TO CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT IN THE SERVICE OF THE PANAMA CANAL AND THE PANAMA RAILROAD COMPANY ON THE ISTHMUS OF PANAMA

By virtue of the authority vested in me by section 81 of title 2 of the Canal Zone Code, as amended by section 3 of the act approved July 9, 1937, 50 Stat. 487, it is hereby ordered as follows:

SEC. 1. Paragraph 6 of Executive Order No. 1888 of February 2, 1914, as amended by the Executive order of February 20, 1920, is amended to read as follows:

"6. No employees shall receive compensation at a rate in excess of $100 a month or 50 cents an hour unless they are citizens of the United States or of the Republic of Panama; and such citizens shall be given preference for employment in all grades: Provided, however, (a) that aliens may be employed in positions for which the rate of compensation is in excess of $100 a month or 50 cents an hour (1) if they occupied the same or similar positions for two years or more during the construction of the Canal, or (2) if such action is deemed necessary by reason of an emergency, in which latter case, however, the aliens shall be replaced by citizens of the United States or of the Republic of Panama as early as practicable; and (b) that the Governor is authorized to increase the rate of compensation of not more than 200 alien employees to a rate exceeding $100 a month or 50 cents an hour."

SEC. 2. Paragraph 16 of the said Executive order is amended to read as follows:

"16. Employees may be granted such passes and reduced rates on the Panama Railroad, for use by the employees, dependent members of their families, or relatives temporarily residing with them, as may be authorized by the Governor in his discretion."

SEC. 3. Paragraph 19 of the said Executive order is amended to read as follows:

"19. All employees in cases of illness or injury will receive free medical care and attendance in the hospitals. If medical attendance is furnished in quarters, a charge may be made under regulations to be prescribed by the Governor. Employees shall be charged for medical care and attendance furnished members of their families at the hospitals and at their quarters at such rates and under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Governor."

SEC. 4. Paragraph 20 of the said Executive order, as amended by the Executive order of February 20, 1920, is amended to read as follows:

"20. All employees who are citizens of the United States, and alien employees who receive compensation at a rate in excess of $100 a month or 50 cents an hour, with the exception of those who receive such compensation under authority of subparagraph (c) in paragraph 6 of this Order, as amended, shall be entitled to leave privileges under this Order."

SEC. 5. Paragraph 24 of the said Executive order, as substituted in Executive Order No. 2514 of January 15, 1917, and amended by Executive Order No. 8931 of November 1, 1941, is amended to read as follows:

"24. Absences of one-half day or more when regularly authorized, and absences on account of illness or injury when supported by the certificate of an authorized physician in the service of The Panama Canal, shall be charged against annual leave."

SEC. 6. Paragraph 36 of the said Executive order, as substituted in Executive Order No. 2514 of January 15, 1917, is amended to read as follows:

"36. When an employee's service is terminated, a cash payment in commutation of leave will be made to him, or in the event of his death to his estate, for the number of days' cumulative leave due plus the annual leave due. When an employee has accumulated leave to the amount of 120 days or more, and the taking of leave by such employee has been deferred by order of the Governor for a period of, or periods aggregating, six months, and the employee at the expiration of such period or periods still cannot, in the judgment of the Governor, be spared to permit the employee to enter upon leave without detriment to the efficient maintenance, operation, sanitation, civil government or protection of the Panama Canal and Canal Zone, the Governor may in his discretion authorize cash payment in commutation of the leave accumulated in excess of 120 days: Provided, that the amount of leave which may be commuted during the employee's service year shall not exceed the amount of leave earned by the employee during the preceding service year: And provided further, that this sentence shall remain in effect only during the continuance of the present war and for six months thereafter."

SEC. 7. Executive Order No. 8986 of December 19, 1941,[1] and Executive Order No. 9164 of May 18, 1942,[2] are hereby revoked.

§ 256.1 Definitions. As used in these instructions, unless the context otherwise requires, the following terms will be construed respectively to mean:

(a) Eligible producer. An eligible producer shall be any person producing cotton in 1944 in the capacity of landowner, landlord, tenant, or sharecropper. Person, as used herein, means an individual, partnership, firm, corporation, association, joint-stock company, trust, estate, or other legal entity, or a State or political subdivision thereof, or an agency of such State or political subdivision. If the eligible cotton produced on a farm has been divided among the producers entitled to share in such cotton, the landlord, tenants, and sharecroppers may each obtain a loan on his separate share, or two or more such producers may obtain a loan jointly on their shares of such cotton. Share tenants and sharecroppers may not obtain a loan on cotton in which a landlord has an interest. However, a tenant and his landlord may obtain a joint loan on cotton in which they both have an interest. In any case where a landlord obtains a loan on cotton in which a share tenant or sharecropper has an interest, the 1944 Cotton Producer's Note and Loan Agreement (1944 C.C.C. Cotton Form A) (hereinafter referred to as "Form A") and the 1944 Cotton Mortgage Supplement (1944 C.C.C. Cotton Form FF) (hereinafter referred to as "Form FF") require that he have the legal right to do so, and that the share tenant or sharecropper be paid his pro rata share of the proceeds.

(b) Eligible cotton. Eligible cotton shall be cotton produced in 1944 by or for a producer, provided that the cotton meets the following requirements:

(1) Such cotton must be of a grade and staple specified in the applicable table appearing at the end of these instructions.

(2) In the case of warehouse-stored cotton, such cotton must be represented by warehouse receipts complying with the provisions of § 256.7 of these instructions. In the case of farm-stored cotton, the cotton must be covered by a Cotton Chattel Mortgage (C.C.C. Cotton Form F) (hereinafter referred to as "Form F") and Form FF which will give the payee of the Cotton Producer's Note (C.C.C. Cotton Form E) hereinafter referred to as "Form E") secured by such mortgage a first lien on such cotton.

(3) Such cotton must not be compressed to high density.

(4) Such cotton must be free and clear of all liens and encumbrances, except (in the case of warehouse-stored cotton) those in favor of the warehouse in which the cotton is stored, as specified in the Warehouseman's Certificate and Storage Agreement in Form A.

(5) Such cotton must be tendered for a loan by a person who has the legal right to pledge or mortgage it as security for a loan.

(6) The beneficial interest in the cotton must be, and must always have been, in the person tendering such cotton for a loan, or in such person and any share tenant or sharecropper having an interest in the cotton or its proceeds in case such person is a landlord and is placing under loan cotton in which both he and the share tenant or sharecropper have an interest.

(7) Such cotton must not have been received in payment of standing or fixed rent.

(8) All persons having an interest in the cotton must be entitled to loans on the cotton.

(9) Each bale of such cotton must weigh at least 300 pounds.

(10) American-Egyptian cotton and Sea-Island cotton shall be of normal character. No such cotton shall be accepted for loan with respect to which official classification indicates any reduction in grade and staple length because of irregularities or defects.

(c) Lending agency. Any bank, corporation, partnership, association or person who has executed a Lending Agency Agreement (C.C.C. Cotton Form D) covering loans on 1944 crop cotton.

(d) Eligible paper. A Form A or a Form E duly executed subsequent to July 31, 1944, and prior to May 1, 1945. State documentary revenue stamps should be affixed thereto where required by law. (A Form A or a Form E executed by an administrator, executor, or trustee will be acceptable only where valid in law and must be submitted for a direct loan in accordance with § 256.10 of these instructions, unless accompanied by a repurchase agreement of the lending agency. Copies of this agreement may be obtained from the regional office of Commodity Credit Corporation, New Orleans 12, Louisiana).

§ 256.2 Forms. The following documents must be delivered in connection with every loan:

(1) Form A.
(2) Warehouse receipts complying with the provisions of § 256.7 hereof.
(3) Producer's Letter of Transmittal (C.C.C. Cotton Form B) or Lending Agency's Letter of Transmittal (C.C.C. Cotton Form C).

(1) Form E.
(2) Form F covering the cotton tendered as security for the loan.
(3) Lending Agency's Letter of Transmittal (C.C.C. Cotton Form C) (unless the loan is being made direct by Commodity Credit Corporation).

Each of the forms A, B, E, F, and FF, representing American-Egyptian cotton or Sea-Island cotton, must have the words "American-Egyptian cotton" or "Sea-Island cotton," as the case may be, conspicuously stamped or typed at the top of each such form.

§ 256.3 Amount. All loans will be made on the net weight of the cotton. Loans will be made only on those grades and staple lengths shown in Tables Nos. 1, 2, and 3 of these instructions.

(a) Upland cotton. The base loan rate applicable at each approved warehouse will be shown in the "Schedule of Approved Warehouses," and the base loan rate under the farm storage program for each county will be shown in the "Schedule of Base Loan Rates by Counties for Farm-Stored Cotton." These schedules will be issued by Commodity Credit Corporation and will be available at the office of the county agricultural conservation committee (hereinafter called "county committee"). Premiums and discounts applicable to each grade and staple length are shown in Table No. 1. Loans on warehouse-stored cotton will be made at the rates shown in the "Schedule of Approved Warehouses," and loans on farm-stored cotton will be made at the rates shown in the "Schedule of Base Loan Rates by Counties for Farm-Stored Cotton," adjusted for the appropriate premiums and discounts for each grade and staple length.

§ 256.4 Classification of cotton. All cotton must be classified by a Board of Cotton Examiners of the War Food Administration. Warehousemen (in the case of warehouse-stored cotton) and the county committee (in the case of farm-stored cotton) should forward samples to the Board of Cotton Examiners serving the district in which the warehouse or county is located, and a list showing the class of the cotton will be returned by the board. Instructions have been issued to approved warehouses and county committees concerning sampling and forwarding of samples and recording the class of the cotton in the loan agreement or chattel mortgage. No separate charge is to be made to producers for this service. A Form 1 classification memorandum of the War Food Administration will also be accepted as evidence of the class of cotton.

A charge of 15 cents per bale shall be collected from the producer for all cotton from which samples are submitted to the Board of Cotton Examiners for classification. The Board of Cotton Examiners will make collections for classing charges from the warehousemen and county committees at the end of each month. A certified check, cashier's check, or postal money order, payable to Commodity Credit Corporation, must be sent to the Board of Cotton Examiners by each warehouseman and county committee in payment of these charges.

§ 256.5 Preparation of documents. All blanks must be filled in with ink, indelible pencil, or typewriter in the manner indicated therein, and no documents containing additions, alterations or erasures will be accepted by Commodity Credit Corporation.

(a) Warehouse-stored cotton. A producer desiring to obtain a loan may obtain the necessary forms from approved cotton warehouses, and also from persons approved by the county committees in the cotton-producing areas to assist producers in preparing and executing the loan forms. Only persons approved by county committees for such purpose may execute the Clerk's certificate on Form A. The Clerk's Certificate must be executed on each Form A tendered for a loan. Such persons are permitted to collect a fee from producers not to exceed the fees shown in the following schedule:

7–8	30 cents.
9–10	35 cents.
11–20	35 cents, plus 2 cents for each bale over 10.
21 and over	55 cents, plus 1 cent for each bale over 20.

Only the original copy of Form A is to be signed, the copy marked "duplicate" is to be retained by the producer. The schedule of warehouse receipts must represent cotton of only one grade and staple length.

(b) Farm-stored cotton. A producer desiring to obtain a loan on farm-stored cotton may obtain the necessary forms from, and will be assisted in their preparation by, the county committee. A service fee for upland cotton of $1 per bale and for American-Egyptian cotton and Sea-Island cotton of $1.30 per bale shall be collected by the county committee from the producer to cover services rendered under this program. Each Form E must be approved by the county committee, and the member signing such form in the space provided certifies on behalf of the county committee, as provided in 1944 Cotton Loan (Farm Storage) Part I, Revised, issued by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency.

§ 256.6 Approved warehouses. Warehouse receipts representing eligible cotton will be accepted as security for loans made pursuant to Form A only if issued by warehousemen approved by Commodity Credit Corporation. Warehousemen desiring to be approved should communicate with the regional office of Commodity Credit Corporation, New Orleans 12, Louisiana. When warehouses are approved, notification will be given either by letter or published lists. All cotton pledged as security for any one loan must be in the same warehouse.

The warehouseman is required, as provided in the Warehouseman's Certificate and Storage Agreement in Form A, to draw representative samples from the bales and to deliver or forward such samples to a board of cotton examiners for classing, except where Form 1 classification memorandum of the War Food Administration is used.

Since the loan will be made on net weight, it will be necessary for the warehouseman to determine the amount of tare on each bale and show the tare in the Schedule of Pledged Cotton in Form A. Instructions will be issued to the warehousemen for their guidance in determining tare.

§ 256.7 Warehouse receipts. Only negotiable warehouse receipts issued by an approved warehouse, dated on or prior to the date of the producer's note, and properly assigned by an endorsement in blank so as to vest title in the holders or issued to bearer will be acceptable. They must set out in their written or printed terms a description by tag number and weight of the bale represented thereby, and all other facts and statements required to be stated in the written or printed terms of a warehouse receipt under the provisions of section 2 of the Uniform Warehouse Receipts Act. Warehouse receipts issued prior to August 1, 1944, which by their terms will expire prior to August 1, 1945, must bear an endorsement of the warehouse extending the terms of the warehouse receipt for a period of 1 year from August 1, 1944. Block warehouse receipts will not be accepted.

§ 256.8 Warehouse charges. The warehouseman's charges are limited and his obligation defined by the Warehouseman's Certificate and Storage Agreement contained in Form A. This should be read carefully and must be executed by the warehouseman issuing the cotton warehouse receipts pledged as collateral to the producer's note. It must not be executed more than 10 days preceding the date of the note.

§ 256.9 Liens. Eligible cotton must be free and clear of all liens except (in the case of warehouse-stored cotton) those in favor of the warehouse in which the cotton is stored, as specified in the Warehouseman's Certificate and Storage Agreement in Form A. The names of the holders of all existing liens on cotton tendered as security for a loan, such as landlords, laborers, or mortgagees (but not the warehouseman, if the cotton is stored in a warehouse), must be listed in the List of Lienholders on each Form A and Form FF, and the lienholders so listed must execute the Lienholder's Waiver on such forms. A Form A or Form FF will not be acceptable unless all prior lienholders are listed in the List of Lienholders and have executed the Lienholder's Waiver. If the producer tendering the cotton for the loan is not the owner of the land on which the cotton was produced, all landowners and landlords must be listed in the List of Lienholders on the Form A or Form FF and must sign the Lienholder's Waiver on such form, whether or not they claim liens, unless they sign the note jointly with the borrower. A misrepresentation, as to prior liens or otherwise, will render the producer personally liable under the terms of the Loan Agreement and subject him to criminal prosecution under the provisions of section 35 (A) of the Criminal Code of the United States (18 U. S. C. 80 (1940). The Lienholder's Waiver must be signed personally by all lienholders listed, by their agents (in which case duly executed powers of attorney must be attached), or if a corporation, by the designated officer thereof customarily authorized to execute such instruments (in which case no authority need be attached).

§ 256.10 Direct loans. It is contemplated that producers will ordinarily obtain loans from a local bank or other lending agency which, in turn, may sell the paper evidencing such loans to Commodity Credit Corporation. Arrangements, however, have been made for making direct loans to producers prior to May 1, 1945. In each such case the note must be made payable to Commodity Credit Corporation and must be tendered to Commodity Credit Corporation, New Orleans 12, Louisiana, on a Producer's Letter of Transmittal (C.C.C. Cotton Form B) in duplicate, postmarked not later than April 30, 1945, if tendered by mail. Upon receipt of all necessary documents, properly executed, and upon approval, payment will be made in accordance with the directions of the producer contained in the C.C.C. Cotton Form B, which permits the producer, if he so desires, to designate persons other than himself to receive all or part of the proceeds of the loan.

§ 256.11 Time and manner of tendering loans for purchase and pooling. Loans made by a lending agency which has executed and delivered a Lending Agency Agreement (C.C.C. Cotton Form D) to the Regional Office of Commodity Credit Corporation, New Orleans 12, Louisiana, prior to the making of the loan, will be eligible for purchase or pooling by Commodity Credit Corporation. C.C.C. Cotton Forms D are obtainable only from the Regional Office of Commodity Credit Corporation, New Orleans 12, Louisiana. Under the terms of this agreement, lending agencies which are parties thereto are required to tender to Commodity Credit Corporation, New Orleans 12, Louisiana, on Lending Agency's Letter of Transmittal (C.C.C. Cotton Form C), executed in triplicate, all notes on Form A and Form E, with warehouse receipts and cotton chattel mortgages attached, representing loans made by the lending agency within 15 days of the dates of the notes. Forty notes shall be submitted on each Lending Agency's Letter of Transmittal except when fewer notes are listed thereon in order that the loans may be tendered within 15 days of the dates of their execution. The Lending Agency's Letter of Transmittal shall state whether the lending agency desires the Corporation to purchase the notes or to place them in a pool operated by the Corporation. Upon receipt by Commodity Credit Corporation, the loan papers will be examined and, if found correct, will be approved and purchased or will be transmitted to the Federal Reserve bank serving the district in which the cotton is stored and placed in a pool, as directed by the lending agency. In the event that the notes are pooled, a certificate of interest representing the interest in the pool, acquired as the result of the deposit therein of the notes shown on the letter of transmittal, will be issued to any approved lending agency designated by the lending agency tendering the eligible paper.

§ 256.12 Lending agency. The lending agency shall endorse the notes of producers as provided on Form A and Form E. Care should be exercised by the lending agency (in the case of warehouse-stored cotton) to determine that the warehouse receipts are genuine. No provision is made for any deduction from the loan proceeds by the lending agency as a charge for handling the loan documents, except the authorized clerk's fee in case the lending agency has executed the Clerk's Certificate on Form A.

Location	District Served

§ 256.14 Repayments—(a) Warehouse-stored cotton. No partial releases of the cotton securing a note will be permitted. If a producer desires to obtain the return of the note and the release of the collateral, he should notify Commodity Credit Corporation, care of the Federal Reserve Bank or branch thereof serving the district in which the cotton is stored, as stated in § 256.13 hereof. The notes and warehouse receipts will then be forwarded to an approved bank for release to said producer only and no other person, upon payment of the amount of the loan, the accrued interest and proper charges. Do not send requests for the return of notes and the release of collateral to Regional Offices of Commodity Credit Corporation, New Orleans, Louisiana, as this causes delay in making the release. If the producer desires to sell his equity in the loan cotton, he must complete the Producer's Equity Transfer on his copy of Form A. Upon the request of the producer or upon receipt of the request contained in the Producer's Equity Transfer on the producer's copy of Form A, the note and warehouse receipts will be forwarded to any approved bank designated by the person requesting the release of the cotton with directions to release such note and warehouse receipts upon payment of the amount of the loan, the accrued interest, and proper charges. In all such cases, the bank will be instructed to return the notes and warehouse receipts to the Federal Reserve bank if payment is not effected within 15 days. All charges and expenses of the bank to which the notes and warehouse receipts are sent shall be paid by the person requesting the release of the cotton. In the event that release of the cotton is requested by the submission of the Producer's Equity Transfer, the witness to the producer's signature to such form must be a person approved for such purpose by a county committee in the cotton-producing area.

(b) Farm-stored cotton. If a producer desires to obtain the return of the note and release of the collateral, he should notify the county committee of the county in which the cotton is stored. Partial releases will be allowed. Complete instructions on the release of farm-stored cotton may be obtained from the county committee.

PART 254—1944 HAY AND PASTURE SEED LOANS

SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS CONCERNING LOANS ON FARM-STORED SUDAN GRASS SEED

Sudan grass seed produced in 1944, which complies with the provisions of the Instructions (1944 C.C.C. Hay and Pasture Seed Form I), will be eligible for a loan, in areas designated by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency, when stored on farms, as set forth herein. Certified sudan grass seed will be eligible only for a warehouse loan.

254.32 Eligible seed.
254.34 Quantity and quality determination.
254.35 Delivery of collateral.
254.36 Loan rate.
254.37 Storage allowance.
254.38 Service fee.
254.39 Availability and maturity.
254.40 Insurance.
254.41 State and county committees of the Agricultural Adjustment Agency.

AUTHORITY: §§ 254.32 to 254.41, inclusive, are issued under 52 Stat. 43; 7 U. S. C., 1302; 58 Stat. 105.

§ 254.32 Eligible seed. Sudan grass seed produced in 1944, which complies with the provisions of these instructions and the instructions in 1944 C. C. C. Hay and Pasture Seed Form I, which is cleaned or can be cleaned to meet the specifications for weed and other crop seed, as shown in the schedule of loan rates, and which complies with the Federal Seed Law and the State Seed Law in the State where the seed is produced. However, in no event will a loan be made if the seed contains noxious weeds in excess of 45 seeds per pound of the following weeds: White Top, Canada Thistle, Dodder, Quackgrass, Johnson Grass, Bindweed, Russian Knapeweed, Perennial Sow Thistle, or Leafy Spurge. The beneficial interest in the seed must be and must always have been in the person tendering the seed for a loan, and the person tendering the seed for a loan must have the legal right to obtain a loan upon the security of the seed.

§ 254.33 Eligible storage. Sudan grass seed must be stored in such manner and kind of building as to preserve the quality and quantity of seed that are stored therein.

§ 254.34 Quantity and quality determination. County committees of the Agricultural Adjustment Agency shall be responsible for determining the quantity and quality of seed stored in each bin on each farm. They shall secure a representative sample for determination of quality. The sample shall be sent to a laboratory approved by the State committee of the Agricultural Adjustment Agency for analysis and germination test. The analysis shall show pure seed, other crop seed, weed seed, inert matter, and noxious weed seeds. The county committee shall secure measurements of the inside width, length (diameter if a round bin), and depth of seed stored in each bin. The quantity of seed shall be determined by multiplying the number of cubic feet in the bin times 30, times the percent of pure seed as determined by the analysis. The result will be the number of pounds of seed to be placed under loan. The producer requesting the loan shall pay the cost of the analysis and germination test.

§ 254.35 Delivery of collateral. Commodity Credit Corporation will accept delivery of all the seed in the bin or bins in which all or a portion of the seed therein is under loan. The producer will be given credit for the number of pounds so delivered at the loan rate applicable to the quality of seed delivered. If no loan rate has been established for the grade of seed delivered, the actual market value will be furnished by the regional director of Commodity Credit Corporation serving the area. The producer shall deliver such seed to the delivery point stated on the loan papers. On delivery the county committee of the Agricultural Adjustment Agency shall take a representative sample and submit it to a laboratory approved by the State committee of the Agricultural Adjustment Agency for analysis and germination test. Final settlement with each producer shall be made by multiplying the weight by the percent of pure seed and multiplying the product by the loan rate for the percent of germination of the seed delivered. Any deficiencies due the Commodity Credit Corporation will be deducted from any credits which may be due the producer from Commodity Credit Corporation.

§ 254.36 Loan rate. The loan rate per 100 pounds for thresher-run bulk farm-stored sudan grass seed shall be determined on a pure seed basis, according to the following:

Germination:	Rate
85 to 100 percent	$5.00
80 to 85 percent	4.75
75 to 80 percent	4.50
70 to 75 percent	4.25

Seed of lower than 70 percent germination is not eligible for a loan.

§ 254.37 Storage allowance. A storage allowance of 10 cents per 100 pounds on the quantity of seed shown on the loan documents, less any amount owing the Corporation, will be paid borrowers if the seed is delivered to Commodity Credit Corporation after April 30, 1945, provided there has been no fraudulent representation by the producer, conversion of any part of the collateral, or the collateral has not been abandoned. The storage allowance will also be paid if, pursuant to demand by the Corporation for repayment of the loan, the sudan grass seed is delivered to the Corporation before April 30, 1945, provided the demand for repayment was not due to any fraudulent representation on the part of the borrower or was not made because the seed was damaged, threatened with damage, abandoned, or otherwise impaired.

§ 254.38 Service fee. A service fee of $3.00 or 1 percent of the net amount of the loan, whichever is larger, will be collected by the county committee, in connection with each loan, to cover the expenses incurred in the operation of the program.

§ 254.39 Availability and maturity. Loans will be available after the 1944 harvest begins and through December 31, 1944. Loans will mature on demand, but not later than April 30, 1945.

§ 254.40 Insurance. Producers will not be required to insure seed pledged as collateral to a loan. Losses not occasioned by negligence on the part of the producer will be assumed by the Corporation.

§ 254.41 State and county committees of the Agricultural Adjustment Agency. State and county committees shall be responsible for the administration of the program. The county committee in the county where the seed is produced shall be responsible for determining eligible producers, eligible seed, arranging for the analysis of the seed, filling out and completing loan papers, arranging for receiving the seed in the event it is delivered to Commodity Credit Corporation, and otherwise administering the program.

Subchapter A—General Provisions

PART 903—DELEGATIONS OF AUTHORITY

[Directive 24, Interpretation 1 as Amended Aug. 21, 1944]

HOUSING CONSTRUCTION COVERED BY THE SCHEDULES TO DIRECTIVE 24

The following interpretation is issued in respect to Directive 24:

Directive 24 describes the kind of action which the National Housing Agency and its constituent operating agencies (Federal Housing Administration, Federal Public Housing Authority, and Home Owners' Loan Corporation) can take with respect to housing construction. Schedules A and B to Directive 24 set forth what is meant by housing construction for this purpose. If the construction is covered by Directive 24, persons (other than government units) who want permission to build should make application to the Federal Housing Administration on Form WPB-2896. Local public housing authorities apply on Form WPB-2896 to the FPHA. If the construction is not covered by Directive 24, Order L-41 will explain how to get permission to do the building. Schedules A and B of Directive 24 merely tell what kind of construction is reviewed by the National Housing Agency. They do not define residential construction for any other purpose. For example, Conservation Order L-41 establishes a dollar limit of $200 for residential construction which may be performed without permission. Schedules A and B have no bearing on the meaning of residential construction in L-41 for the purpose of determining the necessity for permission.

(a) Room count and floor area. Jurisdiction over hotel construction is determined by the number of rooms as provided in paragraph (c) of Schedule A. In cases of remodeling or additions, this room count should be applied to the completed structure and not to the structure before the remodeling or addition is made. Jurisdiction over new construction of structures which are partly commercial and partly residential depends on the percentage of floor area devoted to each use under paragraph (a) (3) of Schedule B. In cases of remodeling and additions, a change in the percentage of floor area devoted to living accommodations is sometimes involved. In such cases the determination of jurisdiction should be made on the basis of the floor area being remodeled or added, and should not be made on the basis of the floor area of the whole structure as it will be after completion of the remodeling or additions (see also paragraph (c) (2) (ii) of this Interpretation). Furthermore, if the remodeling or addition is wholly commercial, paragraph (h) of Schedule A applies; and if it is wholly residential, paragraph (a) (4) of Schedule B applies.

(b) Farm housing. As provided in paragraph (a) of Schedule A, farm housing is not covered by Directive 24. Whether a project is farm housing or other residential construction is ordinarily determined by its location. A farm house is a structure built on the farm and used primarily for housing agricultural workers required in the operation of that farm. A farm is a place primarily used for raising crops, livestock, dairy products, poultry, etc., for the market. A suburban house with a victory garden is not a farm. Except in unusual cases a place of less than five acres will not be considered a farm. Housing built off a farm for the purpose of housing farm laborers would not be farm housing. Housing constructed on a farm for the purpose of housing nonfarm workers would likewise not be farm housing, since running the rooming house or apartment house would be a separate nonfarming enterprise.

(c) Institutional housing. As provided in paragraph (d) of Schedule A, institutional housing is not covered by Directive 24. Housing which is owned or operated by an institution (whether or not it is rented to the occupant) primarily for accommodating its personnel, is institutional housing. The term includes, for example, a house being built by a church for a parson, or housing owned or operated by a university for its professors or other employees.

(d) Housing for petroleum operators. (Paragraph (f) of Schedule A). Application shall be made to the Petroleum Administration for War under P-98-b for housing to be built on or immediately adjacent to a "lease" (land where petroleum resources are being explored, developed, or depleted), or on an oil pipe line in a remote area, either by the operator for occupancy by his employees or by an employee for his own occupancy. Applications must be filed under P-55-c for all other types of housing needed in the Petroleum industry, including housing for refineries and other plants, and for petroleum distribution outlets.

(e) Commercial establishments. In many cases commercial establishments and dwelling units are either part of the same structure or are separate buildings which are part of the same project. The general rule is that for a single project only one application need be filed. Paragraph (h) of Schedule A and paragraphs (a), (b) and (g) of Schedule B tell how to determine whether or not a project containing commercial establishments is essentially a housing project for which a WPB-2896 should be filed.

(1) New project. New construction in which more than 50% of the floor area of each structure provides dwelling accommodations is a housing project under paragraph (a) (3) of Schedule B. In addition separate commercial establishments to serve the housing project may be constructed under the housing authorization if they meet the conditions of paragraph (g) of Schedule B. One of the conditions set forth in subparagraph (1) states that the commercial establishments must be "an integral part of" the housing project. This means that the commercial establishments must be located at or adjacent to the site of the dwelling accommodations, must be owned by the owner of the dwelling accommodations and must be part of the project as approved or as amended, providing the amendment is made before the dwelling accommodations have been completed. The building of separate structures for commercial purposes is an addition to a completed residential project is not housing construction. (See paragraph (b) of Schedule B).

(2) Existing structures. If an existing structure is being altered by remodeling or making additions so that the building will, when complete, include dwelling accommodations and commercial establishments, the remodeling or addition is a housing project under the following conditions:

(i) When the proposed construction involves the creation of additional dwelling units only. It is a housing project whether or not most of the floor area of the structure after remodeling is for commercial use. (See paragraph (a) (4) of Schedule B.) However, if the proposed construction involves only space to be used for commercial purposes the construction is not a housing project. (See paragraph (h) of Schedule A.)

(ii) If the addition or remodeling is partly for residential purposes and partly for commercial purposes the construction is a housing project only if more than 50% of the floor area of the addition or of the part of the structure being remodeled is to be used for dwelling accommodations. (See paragraph (h) of Schedule A and paragraph (a) (3) of Schedule B.)

(f) Accommodations for transient workers. Bunk houses and similar accommodations built by employers for transient workers such as train and engine crews who need living accommodations at division points and terminals during a lay-over period or for maintenance of way workers are housing construction covered by paragraph (a) (2) of Schedule B and not by paragraph (c) or (d) of Schedule A if the accommodations are intended for a fixed location. Trailers and other mobile housing units for transient workers are not housing construction and are covered by paragraph (s) of Schedule A.

(g) Repair. Preference ratings for maintenance and repair of houses are available under the provisions of CMP Reg. 5 or 9A, Order L-79, or other WPB Orders or Regulations. No applications for priorities assistance for maintenance and repair may be approved on Form WPB-3536 if other orders or regulations are adequate.

(1) CMP Reg. 9A provides repairmen with an allotment symbol and preference rating equivalent to the rating available under P-55-c for use in obtaining materials within the quantity limitations specified in the Regulation. However, if the applicant proposes to do his own work and cannot be considered as a person "in the business of making repairs", he is not entitled to use CMP Reg. 9A authorization.

(2) CMP Reg. 5 provides that a person managing property for profit may use an AA-5 rating to get materials for maintenance and repair. If the AA-5 rating is not sufficient to provide the needed materials, application should be made for a higher rating on Form WPB-541 as provided in CMP Regulation 5.

(3) Order L-79 authorizes repairs and replacements for plumbing and heating equipment subject to certain limitations.

(4) CMP Regs. 4 and 9 authorize warehouses and retailers to sell limited quantities of steel in the controlled material form and copper wire on unrated orders.

The National Housing Agency may consider applications on Form WPB-3536 for priorities assistance for maintenance and repair where (i) none of the above orders and regulations are sufficient to provide the needed materials and (ii) the maintenance and repair relates to housing covered by Schedule B of Directive 24.

Issued this 21st day of August 1944.

Subchapter B—Executive Vice-Chairman

PART 1075—CONSTRUCTION

§ 1075.1 Conservation Order L-41—(a) What this order does. This order limits construction. It is necessary in order to conserve materials, construction equipment, labor and transportation. In most cases, except where the construction is of a special kind, you must get permission from the War Production Board for construction. This permission (sometimes called "authorization to begin construction") must not be confused with preference ratings or priorities. If a construction job is allowed, either because it is not of the kind restricted by this order or because permission has been obtained, it may still be necessary to get preference ratings for the materials and fixtures which are needed. On the other hand, if you have ratings for materials, or materials on hand, you may still have to get permission to use them for a particular construction job.

(b) What is meant by construction. Construction covered by this order includes putting up or altering any sort of a structure, including a building, road, bridge, dam, sewer, and similar jobs; also the installing of equipment or fixtures. Certain special kinds of construction are excepted, as explained in paragraphs (c) and (d) below.

(c) How much construction is allowed without getting permission. You need not get permission under this order for construction which does not total more than the limits shown in the following list for all jobs begun in the same year. For an explanation of how to figure "cost," see paragraph (i). If a utility connection (electric, gas, water or central steam heating) will be required, it may be necessary to get War Production Board approval for the connection. If so, approval for the connection must be obtained before beginning construction, even if the cost of construction comes within the limits. The limits for all jobs begun in the same year are as follows:

(1) $200 for a house, including the entire residential property.

(2) $1,000 for a farm including the farm houses. However not more than $200 of this sum may be spent on any farm house on the farm. A "farm" means a place used primarily for raising crops, livestock, dairy products, poultry, etc., for the market.

(3) $1,000 for a hotel, apartment building or other residence for six or more families. Any residence for five or less families is considered a house under (1) above.

(4) $200 for an office, bank, store, laundry, garage, restaurant, or other retail service establishment, except that the limit is $1,000 for a unit containing more than five establishments of this kind.

(5) $1,000 for a church, hospital, school, college, U. S. O. Club, public playground for children, or for a publicly owned building or group of buildings used for public purposes.

(6) $1,000 for a bridge, overpass, underpass, tunnel, dock, pier, airport, bus terminal, truck terminal operated by a common or contract carrier by truck, or for a railroad or street railway building or group of buildings.

(7) $1,000 for an irrigation or drainage system serving more than one farm.

(8) $1,000 for a building or group of buildings which will be used for warehouse or for off-farm storage purposes, except that the limit is $200 for a frozen food locker plant.

(9) $1,000 for all monuments and structures on the same cemetery lot or for all cemetery buildings or structures in the same cemetery.

(10) $1,000 for a military exchange situated on a reservation of the Army or Navy.

(11) $1,000 for a building or a group of buildings which will be used directly in furnishing electric, gas, water or central steam heating utility services and which will be owned by a utility producer as defined in Order U-1, or which will be used directly in furnishing wire communications services, and which will be owned by an operator as defined in Orders U-3 and U-4, or which will be used directly for a sewage system and owned by a sewage system operator as defined in Order P-141.

(12) $5,000 for a factory, plant or other industrial unit which is used for the manufacture, processing or assembling of any goods, except that the limit is $200 if the goods are listed on Schedule A at the end of this order or if the productive floor area of the unit upon completion of construction is less than 10,000 square feet.

(13) $200 for any other kind of construction.

(d) Special kinds of construction which do not require permission. It is not necessary to get War Production Board permission under this order for the following kinds of construction, and the cost of such construction need not be charged against the cost limits stated in paragraph (c).

(1) Maintenance and repair; that is, work necessary to keep a building or structure in sound working condition or fix it when it has become unsafe or unfit for service because of wear and tear; also the minimum work necessary to prevent more damage to a building or structure (or its contents) which has been damaged by fire, flood, tornado, earthquake, acts of war, or the like. Changes in material are permitted in doing maintenance and repair work. Additions, structural alterations, or the completion of unfinished parts of buildings are not considered maintenance and repair. Rebuilding or restoring after damage caused by fire, flood, tornado, earthquake, acts of war, or the like, is not permitted as maintenance and repair, but is permitted in some cases as explained below.

(2) The rebuilding or restoring of a house (including a farm house) or other residential building damaged or destroyed after July 1, 1943, by fire, flood, tornado, earthquake, acts of war, or the like, if the cost of rebuilding or restoring is less than $5,000.

(3) The rebuilding or restoring of farm buildings damaged or destroyed by fire, flood, tornado, earthquake, acts of war, or the like, if the cost of rebuilding or restoring is less than $5,000, where the immediate reconstruction is determined by the United States Department of Agriculture to be essential to the agricultural program.

(4) The rebuilding or restoring of a building or structure damaged or destroyed by disaster, where the Red Cross has been given priority assistance to restore the disaster area, and where the rebuilding or restoring has been determined by the Red Cross to be essential.

(5) Construction necessary to prevent threatened loss of farm products, where immediate construction is determined by the United States Department of Agriculture to be essential to the agricultural program.

(6) Construction owned by the United States Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, War Shipping Administration, Coast Guard, Marine Corps, Civil Aeronautics Authority, Coast and Geodetic Survey, or Panama Canal.

(7) Insulating existing buildings with materials such as storm windows and doors, pipe covering, loose fill, blanket or bat insulation, plain or granule surfaced rigid insulation and weather stripping. Also the application of masonry veneer to existing houses. (This paragraph does not exempt the use of the above materials for any purpose other than the insulation of an existing building against exterior cold or heat without change in the function of the building. It does not apply to the use of insulation materials in the original construction of a building or in the conversion of a building from one purpose to another, or to the use of insulation materials to make an alteration to a building.) Also the installation of heating and combustion equipment designed for effecting fuel conservation where the total cost of the installation including the cost of the equipment does not exceed $25,000 and where the cost of installation excluding the cost of equipment does not exceed $5,000.

(8) [Deleted Mar. 7, 1944]

(9) Grading, ditch-digging or similar earth-moving operations, if no cement, lumber or other building materials are used, except clay tile and non-reinforced concrete pipe.

(10) Various kinds of construction connected with farms, public roads, railroad tracks, utilities, mines, smelters, wells, the petroleum industry, the lumber industry, the chemical industry, steel mills, broadcasting facilities, laboratories, and civilian aircraft facilities as described in Schedule B.

(11) A construction job which began before this order originally became effective (April 9, 1942), or at a time when the job was not limited by this order, and has gone on without interruption.

(12) Construction jobs which are classed as minor capital additions under CMP Regulation No. 5 or under CMP Regulation No. 5A. This exception applies only to:

(i) Additions to factories, plants and other industrial units which will have a productive floor area of 10,000 square feet or more, and which are for the manufacturing, processing or assembling of goods which are not listed in Schedule A.

(ii) Hospitals.

(e) All other construction forbidden without WPB permission. No person shall do any construction which has not been permitted by the War Production Board, unless it is of a kind described in paragraph (c) or (d) above. This prohibition applies to a person who does his own construction work, to one who gets a contractor to do it for him, and to any contractor or subcontractor who works on the job or gets others to work on it. It also applies to any supplier who furnishes material for the job if he knows or has reason to know that the construction has not been permitted.

(f) How to apply for permission. (1) Schedule C at the end of this order shows the various types of application forms, and where they should be filed.

(2) In case of emergency, application may be made by wire or in person instead of on a printed form. It must be made to the office in which a written application for the same construction should be filed. The following information must be given:

(i) Cause of the emergency (fire, flood, etc.).

(ii) What the building or structure is used for.

(iii) Type of construction.

(iv) Why immediate construction is necessary.

(v) Estimated cost of construction.

(g) Preference rating includes permission in some cases only. There are some forms of preference rating orders and certificates which are issued or have been issued for special kinds of construction and which include permission for construction although they do not say so. These are listed in Schedule D at the end of this order. In all other cases, a preference rating is not enough, unless the instrument which assigns the rating also states that construction is permitted under this order.

(h) Other restrictions on use of some items. Permission for construction or the exception of any construction from this order does not relieve any one from complying with the various WPB orders or directives which restrict the use of copper and other scarce materials or fixtures. If you do not know about these restrictions, consult the nearest War Production Board District Office.

(i) How to figure cost. (1) For the purpose of determining whether a construction job may be started without getting permission from the War Production Board, "cost" means the cost of the whole construction job as estimated at the time of beginning construction, except that the cost of used material or used fixtures may be disregarded.

(2) If any materials or fixtures which have not been used are obtained without buying them, their value must be included as part of the cost.

(3) [Deleted Aug. 19, 1944]

(4) The cost of labor must be included, but if labor is unpaid its value need not be included. Contractors' fees also must be included but architects' and engineers' fees need not be.

(5) All construction on the same unit must be included. The word "unit" means any group of buildings or structures (including roadways, pipelines, etc.) which are situated near to each other, and which serve the same general purpose, or closely related purposes. For example, each of the following is a unit: a house, together with a detached garage, tennis court, swimming pool, etc.; a farm, including the farm house, barn, hen house, dairy, etc.; a manufacturing plant with a number of buildings used for the same or different processes, together with administration buildings, cafeterias, etc. In no case may a single building or structure be treated as more than one unit.

(6) The cost per year must be determined on a calendar year basis, beginning with January 1, 1943, except that a company which regularly keeps its books on a fiscal year basis may use the fiscal year.

(j) Penalties for violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any Department or Agency of the United States is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining any further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

Issued this 19th day of August 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

SCHEDULE A

This schedule is referred to in paragraphs (c) (12) and (d) (12). In the case of a unit principally designed for the manufacture, processing or assembling of any of the following articles, the cost limit is $200 in any one year without getting permission:

(i) Athletic supplies, sporting goods, or toys or games.

(ii) Beverages, except milk.

(iii) Books, magazines, newspapers, greeting cards, or other printed or engraved matter.

(iv) Candy or chewing gum.

(v) Cigars, cigarettes, smoking or chewing tobacco or snuff.

(vi) Jewelry, watches, luggage, brushes, razors, pipes, and like articles for personal use or adornment.

(vii) Furniture, store fixtures, barroom fixtures, bowling alleys and the like.

(viii) Silverware, woodenware, household electrical appliances, draperies, rugs, and all other household appliances and equipment, but not including china and glassware.

(xi) Toiletries or cosmetic products.

(xii) Wearing apparel of every sort, except for the Army or Navy and their auxiliaries, and except safety equipment or safety clothing as defined in Order L-114.

SCHEDULE B

Permission under this order is not necessary for the following kinds of construction which are referred to generally in paragraph (d) (10).

1. Construction of structures which are to be used directly in the discovery, development or depletion of mineral deposits; also maintenance work, repairs and minor capital additions given priorities assistance under order P-56 (relating to mines and smelters).

2. Construction which is regulated by any petroleum administrative order or other order issued or administered by the Petroleum Administration for War (construction of this kind is permitted only to the extent authorized by the applicable petroleum administrative order or other order).

3. Construction of facilities (other than buildings) which will be used directly in furnishing wire communications services, and which will be owned by an operator as defined in Orders U-3 and U-4.

4. Laying of railroad tracks, together with the construction of necessary railroad operating facilities; also the construction of tunnels, overpasses, underpasses or bridges where the cost of those materials to be incorporated in the project which will be acquired under P–142 or will be withdrawn from inventory materials acquired with priorities assistance (excluding the cost of other materials and excluding the labor cost) is $2,500 or less. The above types of construction are controlled by P–142. The construction of tunnels, overpasses, underpasses or bridges where the cost of the materials acquired as stated above is more than $2,500 and the construction of railroad stations, warehouses, loading platforms and other similar structures are not excepted by this paragraph.

5. Construction of facilities (other than buildings) which will be used directly in furnishing electric, gas, water, or central steam heating utility services and which will be owned by a utility producer as defined in Order U–1.

6. Construction of facilities (other than buildings) which will be used directly for a sewerage system and will be owned by a sewerage system "operator" as defined in Order P–141.

7. Installation or erection of rationed farm machinery, or mechanical equipment, which has been obtained on a purchase certificate issued by a County Farm Rationing Committee under Food Production Order 14 of the War Food Administration, or of wire fencing which has been obtained on P.R. 19 certification, also the erection of farm silos which have been manufactured by a producer as defined in Order L–257.

8. Drilling and casing of water wells, but excluding any use of pipe to conduct water on the surface.

9. Use by any logger or lumber manufacturer of lumber, nails, gravel, or clay products in construction needed to change the site of logging or lumbering operations.

10. Construction which is given priorities assistance under Order P–80 (relating to facilities for the manufacture of chemicals).

11. Construction which is given priorities assistance under Order P–68 (relating to facilities for the manufacture of steel).

12. Rearrangement or expansion of facilities and equipment, other than buildings, by an international point-to-point radio communication carrier to the extent that priorities assistance is granted under P–133 for such work.

13. Construction which is given priorities assistance under paragraph (e) (2) of Order P–43 (relating to laboratories).

14. Construction of public highways and public streets owned by a Government Agency (construction of this kind is controlled by Order L–41–e).

15. Construction which is given priorities assistance under P–47 (relating to civilian aircraft facilities).

Schedule C

Note: Schedule C amended Aug. 19, 1944.

Interpretation 1

[Superseded by L–41, as amended November 1, 1943, which incorporates the substance of the interpretation.]

Interpretation 2

Conservation Order L–41 (§ 1075.1) does not apply to the construction or erection of temporary motion picture sets of a kind which may be stored between the taking of pictures, nor to the incorporation of such temporary sets into permanent sets for the taking of a single motion picture. However it does apply to the construction of permanent outdoor motion picture sets and foundations for sets of a kind which are designed for use in more than a single picture at one location. (Issued Nov. 13, 1943)

Interpretation 3

Earth-moving operations

Under the provisions of paragraph (d) § 1075.1 Conservation Order L–41 it is not necessary to get War Production Board permission for construction of a kind consisting of "grading, ditch-digging or similar earth-moving operations if no cement, lumber or other building materials are used except clay tile and non-reinforced concrete pipe." This applies only to projects which can be completed without the use of any other materials. It does not apply to earth-moving operations which are part of a construction job in which other materials will be incorporated before completion. (Issued Nov. 23, 1943)

Interpretation 4

Portable structures on skids

The erection of a portable or pre-fabricated building is construction and, consequently, is limited by Order L–41 whenever the building is either placed on a foundation constructed on the site or is placed on skids in a spot where it is intended to remain for an undetermined time. The only case in which the erection of a portable or pre-fabricated building is not "construction", is when it is placed on what is intended to be a temporary site with the purpose of moving it from time to time and without affixing it to the land by plumbing, public utilities connection, or in any other way. For example, the erection of a portable structure for use as a garage on a house lot is generally construction, but the erection of a shelter to be moved around for use on different parts of a farm from time to time is not construction. (Issued Mar. 24, 1944.)

Distinction between residential and farm construction

Under the terms of paragraph (c) (1) of L–41 not more than $200 may be spent on a house, including the entire residential property, over a year's period. Under paragraph (c) (2) of that order not more than $1,000 may be spent on a farm, "including the farm houses," and no more than $200 on any farm house on the farm. A property is not necessarily a "farm" because farm products are produced on it but only if it is used primarily for the raising of crops, livestock, dairy products, poultry, etc., for the market. (Issued April 19, 1944)

Interpretation 6

Maintenance and repair of sidings

Paragraph (d) (1) of L–41 excepts maintenance and repair work necessary to keep a building or structure in sound working condition. If an existing siding or roof needs repair, the minimum amount of repair work may be done to put the siding or roof in suitable condition. Thus if a siding can be put in proper condition by putting on paint it should be done in this way. If, on the other hand, the siding has so deteriorated that a paint job will not provide adequate protection a new siding may be put on the building. The new siding need not be of the same material as the old siding. This interpretation is not applicable where asbestos materials are used for re-siding or re-roofing as the use of these materials is governed by Order L–41–d. (Issued Apr. 4, 1944)

Interpretation 7

Use of insulation materials

Paragraph (d) (7) of Conservation Order L–41 provides that it is not necessary to get War Production Board permission under that order for "Insulating buildings" with certain materials. The exception applies only to the insulation of existing buildings. It does not apply to the use of these materials in the original construction of a building, nor does it apply to the use of materials for other purposes than insulating buildings; for example, making alterations to a building or converting the building from one purpose to another. The cost of new insulating materials used in building a new building or in making alterations to an old building or converting an old building from one use to another must be included in the cost of the job.

For example, if rigid insulating material is used for partitions to make a new room, the cost of the insulating material must be included in the cost of the job, as this use of insulating material is not insulating a building. If an existing building is being converted from a store to a frozen food locker plant, the cost of the insulation materials installed must be included as part of the cost of conversion, as these materials are being used to convert a store to a locker plant, not to insulate a store. (Issued May 23, 1944)

INSTALLATION OF EQUIPMENT AND FIXTURES

Paragraph (b) of L-41 describes the kind of work which is covered by the order under the term construction. It specifically states that "the installing of equipment or fixtures" is construction and is covered by L-41.

This means that if a piece of equipment or a fixture is attached to a building and used as a part of the building, or if a piece of equipment or a fixture is so firmly attached to the building that removal would result in material injury to the building or the fixture, construction under L-41 is involved and the limitations of L-41 apply.

The following kinds of installations are construction under L-41:

The installation of any piece of equipment or fixture which is attached to the plumbing system of a building; the installation of any piece of equipment or fixture which involves putting new wiring in a building; the installation of any piece of equipment or fixture for which a base or foundation must be built; the installation of any piece of equipment or fixture cemented to a floor or wall of a building; the installation of a furnace or stoker connected by pipes or flues or wiring to the building.

The following kinds of installations are not construction under L-41:

The installation of a counter, table or booth which is attached to the building only by nails or screws and which can be removed as a unit and will only make it necessary to fill up the holes left by the nails or screws (however, if the counter contains equipment which is attached to the plumbing system, construction is involved); the installation of a piece of equipment or fixture which requires only making a connection to an existing wiring outlet (if new wires must be run or a new outlet built into the wall or ceiling, construction is involved).

These examples illustrate the general principles. In case of doubt as to a particular installation, consult the nearest WPB office or file an application for permission to do the work, if the cost of the work plus the cost of other construction already done on the building during the calendar year exceeds the allowance given under the applicable paragraph of section (g) of L-41. [Issued July 7, 1944.]

BLANKET PERMISSION FOR MISCELLANEOUS CONSTRUCTION

(a) The War Production Board has been issuing blanket authorizations to applicants permitting them to carry on miscellaneous construction over a fixed period. Instructions as to how to apply for blanket authorizations have been described in WPBI-43 (formerly PDL-362). The need for blanket authorizations has been largely eliminated by the recent transfer of processing of small construction applications to the Field offices, by the simplification of War Production Board procedures under Direction 1 to CMP 6, and by the exception of certain types of minor capital additions under paragraph (d) (13) of L-41. For this reason blanket authorizations will no longer be issued generally but only in cases where it appears that the filing of individual project applications will interfere with the war effort or cause extreme hardship.

(b) In these circumstances applications for blanket authorization may be made on form WPB-617. Separate applications must be made for each "unit" as defined in paragraph (i) (5) of L-41. The applicant will prepare his application in the same way he would prepare an application to do a single job and in accordance with the instructions to form WPB-617. The need for a blanket authorization must be firmly established.

(c) Blanket authorizations will permit the builder to do miscellaneous routine construction but no materials may be acquired or used contrary to the Limitations which will be made a part of the authorization. In the case of equipment items which must be listed on the application, the builder may use only those which are specifically approved. The use of such items or deviations from the Construction Limitations will be approved only in exceptional cases. The applicant will be permitted to use the allotment symbol P-6 and the rating assigned for the procurement of material. While the blanket authorization will cover a number of jobs, no one job costing more than $10,000 will be authorized, and in certain cases a lower cost limit per job may be fixed. No reports of materials used will be required. No job for which tax amortization privileges will be requested may be included in a blanket application. A separate application should be filed for each such job at the time the request for tax amortization is made.

PRISONER OF WAR HOUSING

It is not necessary to get War Production Board permission under Order L-41 to construct facilities to house prisoners of war assigned by the Army to the builder if priorities assistance for the construction has been granted on Form CMPL-593 Navy (Army), pursuant to Direction 3 to CMP Regulation 6 and WPB Directive 31. INSTALLATION OF PROCESSING MACHINERY

Interpretation 8 to L-41, issued July 7, 1944, is superseded by paragraph (a) of Direction 2 to L-41 as amended August 19, 1944 which incorporates the substance of the interpretation.

PART 1075—CONSTRUCTION

[Conservation Order L-41, Interpretation 10]

INSTALLATION OF MACHINERY AND EQUIPMENT RATED ON WPB-541 AND WPB-542

The following interpretation is issued with respect to Conservation Order L-41:

Interpretation 9 to L-41 explains the circumstances under which an installation of a piece of equipment is restricted by L-41. If the installation of a piece of equipment is restricted by L-41 and is not within the appropriate exemption allowed by paragraph (c) of L-41 and not permitted under Direction 2 to L-41, permission under L-41 to make the installation must be obtained even though the machinery has been rated on Form WPB-541 or Form WPB-542. The reference to WPB-542, PD-9A and CMPL-593 Navy (Army) in Schedule D of L-41 applies only to those forms when used for command construction, Engineers Corps construction, Panama Canal construction, and CAA construction, as defined in paragraphs (c) (3), (4), (5), (6) of WPB Directive 31, when carried on under the supervision of the Armed Services. Paragraph (d) (6) of L-41 also exempts certain construction for which these forms may have been issued.

Issued this 19th day of August 1944.

[Conservation Order L-41, Direction 2 as Amended Aug. 19, 1944]

INSTALLATION OR RELOCATION OF MACHINERY AND EQUIPMENT

The following direction is issued pursuant to Conservation Order L-41:

(a) Installation. It is not necessary to get War Production Board permission under Order L-41 to install a single piece or a group of related pieces of (i) processing machinery or equipment (including used equipment) or (ii) machinery or equipment specifically rated or authorized by the War Production Board on a special form (including WPB-541 and WPB-542); including the building alterations necessary for the installation, if:

(1) The cost of the entire installation including the cost or value of the machinery and equipment does not exceed $25,000, and

(2) The cost of the installation excluding the cost of the equipment does not exceed $5,000, and

(3) No new buildings or additions to existing buildings are constructed.

The term "processing machinery or equipment" as used in this paragraph means machinery or equipment which is directly used in the manufacture, processing, or assembling of a product. It does not include such equipment as plumbing, heating, or air-conditioning equipment which is not used directly in the manufacture, processing, or assembling of the product.

If the installation of a single piece or a group of related pieces of processing machinery or equipment satisfies the requirements of this paragraph (a), the installation may be made, even if the machinery was previously installed in the same plant or another plant belonging to the same owner.

(b) Relocation. It is not necessary to get War Production Board permission under Order L-41 to relocate in a factory, plant, or other industrial unit, any piece or any group of related pieces of machinery or equipment (whether used for processing or not) if each piece of machinery or equipment has previously been used in the same plant and if the materials needed to relocate each piece do not cost more than $500 and if no building alterations are required by the relocation other than installing piping and wiring and constructing foundations for the relocated equipment. If a group of related machines is to be relocated and installation materials costing more than $500 are needed to install any one of the machines, this paragraph does not permit the installation of any of the group of machines (they may, however, be installed under paragraph (a) if they satisfy the requirements of that paragraph). Under this paragraph the value of the machinery or equipment being relocated does not matter. This paragraph does not give a person the right to install a piece of machinery or equipment (whether new or second-hand) which he is installing in his plant for the first time, as distinct from relocating machinery or equipment previously used in the same plant.

(c) Applications. Where permission to install or relocate machinery is required by Order L-41, application for such permission should be made on the appropriate form indicated on Schedule C of Order L-41. Also, such form should be used in applying for priorities assistance to buy installation materials where they cannot be bought under Direction 15 to CMP Regulation No. 5 or other order or regulation giving blanket MRO ratings for this purpose, even if permission to install or relocate is not required by Order L-41.

(d) This direction does not apply to the installation or relocation of machinery or equipment:

(1) For use in the future manufacture of items which at the time of installation is prohibited by an outstanding order of the War Production Board.

(2) In connection with construction of a kind which is limited by Order L-41. If permission under Order L-41 is required for the job the materials to install any equipment to be installed as part of the job must be obtained under the project authorization.

Issued this 19th day of August 1944.

[Limitation Order L-154, Revocation of Schedule VI]

AUXILIARY EQUIPMENT AND APPURTENANCES FOR STEAM TURBINES FOR LAND USE

Section 1288.7 Schedule VI to Limitation Order L-154, is revoked. This revocation does not affect any liabilities incurred under the order. The manufacture, delivery and installation of steam turbines for land use remain subject to all other applicable regulations and orders of the War Production Board.

PART 3175—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE CONTROLLED MATERIALS PLAN

USE OF MRO SYMBOL AND RATING TO BUY INSTALLATION MATERIALS WHERE AUTHORIZATION TO CONSTRUCT IS NOT REQUIRED UNDER L-41

The following direction is issued pursuant to CMP Regulation 5:

(a) Installing or relocating machinery or equipment. Any person engaged in a business listed on Schedule I or Schedule II of CMP Regulation 5 or assigned a rating by Direction 21 to CMP Regulation 5 may use the MRO symbol and rating assigned to him for maintenance, repair, and operating supplies by the Regulation to get materials to install or relocate equipment under the following conditions: (i) Where construction (as defined in Order L-41) is involved, he may get materials needed for the installation or relocation of machinery or equipment which Direction 2 to L-41 permits him to install or relocate without getting an authorization under that order. (ii) Where construction is not involved, he may get up to $500 worth of materials needed to install any piece of machinery or equipment specifically rated or authorized by the War Production Board on a special form (such as WPB-541, WPB-1319, etc.).

(c) MRO quota need not be charged. A person buying installation materials under this direction need not charge the amount he spends for them against his MRO quota under paragraph (f) of the regulation.

(d) Relation to minor capital addition provision of CMP Regulation No. 5. The purchase of installation materials under this direction is not affected by the restrictions on purchases of minor capital additions under paragraph (b) (3) of CMP Regulation No. 5. This direction applies only in cases where machinery or equipment which is installed or relocated is acquired without using the MRO rating for a minor capital addition under paragraph (b) (3) of the regulation. Under this direction, it does not matter whether the machinery or equipment costs more than $500. However, if machinery or equipment is acquired with the MRO rating under paragraph (b) (3) of the regulation, installation materials are considered part of the same capital addition, in which case the total must not exceed $500 and the cost of the installation materials as well as cost of the machinery or equipment must be charged to the MRO quota.

(e) Applications. Where permission to install or relocate machinery is required by Order L-41, application for such permission should be made on the appropriate form indicated on Schedule C of Order L-41. Also, such form should be used in applying for priorities assistance to buy installation materials where they cannot be bought under this direction, even if permission to install or relocate is not required by Order L-41.

PART 3285—LUMBER AND LUMBER PRODUCTS

ADVANCED ALLOTMENTS TO CONSUMERS OF HARDWOOD LUMBER

The following direction is issued pursuant to L-335:

(a) What this direction does. This direction permits Class I Consumers using hardwood lumber to receive a part of their fourth quarter requirements in the third quarter.

(b) Receipts of hardwoods in advance of fourth quarter. A Class I Consumer who has placed orders for all of the lumber that he has been authorized to receive in the third quarter and wishes to receive a part of his fourth quarter requirements in the third quarter of 1944 may order and receive in the third quarter over and above his third quarter authorization (whichever is the larger amount) either (1) an amount of hardwood lumber equal to 20 percent of the amount of hardwood lumber that he ordered for delivery in the third quarter prior to August 15, 1944; or (2) an amount of hardwood lumber equal to 20 percent of the hardwood lumber that he reported he held in inventory at the time he filed application on Form WPB-3640 for authority to receive lumber in the fourth quarter. For this purpose he must not use the inventory reported in his 3640 application which he filed for authority to receive lumber in the third quarter. For example, a manufacturer of farm machinery has been authorized on Form WPB-3640 to receive 80,000 board feet of lumber in the third quarter of 1944. Prior to August 15, 1944 he placed orders for 40,000 board feet of hardwood lumber and 40,000 board feet of softwood lumber for delivery in the third quarter. When he filed his fourth quarter application he showed an inventory of 60,000 board feet of hardwood lumber and 20,000 board feet of softwood lumber. Under this direction the manufacturer may place orders for the delivery of an additional 12,000 board feet of lumber in the third quarter of 1944—this being 20 percent of the hardwood inventory as shown in the fourth quarter application. If, prior to August 15, 1944 he had placed orders for the delivery of 70,000 board feet of hardwood lumber he would have been able to order and receive in the third quarter 20 percent of 70,000.

(c) Receipts of hardwood lumber under this direction to be charged against amounts authorized for fourth quarter. Any hardwood lumber that a Class I Consumer receives under this direction must be charged against the amount of lumber that he will be authorized to receive in the fourth quarter of 1944. For instance, if a Class I Consumer under this direction orders and receives 100,000 board feet of hardwood lumber in the third quarter and he is authorized on Form WPB-3640 to receive 400,000 feet of lumber in the fourth quarter of 1944 he may receive in the fourth quarter only 300,000 board feet.

(d) Certification and ratings to be used on orders. A Class I Consumer placing an order for the delivery of hardwood lumber under this direction will use the same certifications and ratings that he would have used had he been authorized to receive this lumber on Form WPB-3640.

(e) This direction does not permit receipts of softwood. No person may purchase or receive any softwood under the provisions of this direction.

[General Limitation Order L-6, as Amended Aug. 19, 1944]

DOMESTIC LAUNDRY EQUIPMENT

§ 3291.25 General Limitation Order L-6—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Domestic laundry equipment" means any of the following designed primarily for home use: (i) Washing machines, (ii) ironing machines, and (iii) warm air clothes driers, whether operated by gas, electricity or any other means.

(2) "Manufacturer" means any person engaged in the production or assembly of domestic laundry equipment or parts for domestic laundry equipment.

(3) "Special order" means any order for domestic laundry equipment stating on its face that the equipment is for shipboard use, or any order which is to be delivered to or for the account of the Army, Navy, United States, Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration. It also means any order for domestic laundry equipment to be delivered to or for the account of Army or Marine Corps Post Exchanges, Navy or Coast Guard Ships Service Departments and War Shipping Administration Training Organization Ships' Service activities, when the equipment purchased is not to be resold by those exchanges, departments or activities.

(b) Restrictions on production and delivery of domestic laundry equipment. (1) No manufacturer shall produce or assemble any domestic laundry equipment except as authorized by the War Production Board in response to an application by letter which should be filed in duplicate.

(2) The War Production Board will usually not approve production of any domestic laundry equipment except washing machines from fabricated parts in manufacturers' inventories prior to January 1, 1943, and will approve this production or assembly only in such quantities as shall be determined to fill special orders. Upon request, the War Production Board will inform any manufacturer of the production authorized.

(3) No manufacturer shall deliver any new domestic laundry equipment except as authorized by the War Production Board in writing to fill special orders. This restriction does not apply to ironing machines.

(c) Restrictions on production of parts. (1) No manufacturer shall make any part for domestic laundry equipment if he knows or has reason to believe that that part will be used for any other purpose than the repairing of used domestic laundry equipment.

(2) No manufacturer shall make any part for domestic laundry equipment if by making that part he would have more parts of that type in his inventory than twice the number he sold in the second preceding calendar quarter. However, a manufacturer making parts in order to bring his inventory of that type of part up to twice the number he sold in the second preceding calendar quarter need not make less than a minimum practical run of that part in order to comply with this paragraph (c) (2).

(3) It will be the general policy of the War Production Board to allocate controlled materials and give priorities assistance for the purchase of all other materials for the manufacture of parts for domestic laundry equipment under the Controlled Materials Plan, only to the extent that the manufacture of parts in any one plant or labor requirements therefor will not interfere with war production in that plant or any other plant located in the same area.

(d) [Deleted July 26, 1944.]

(e) Reports. Each manufacturer authorized to produce, assemble or deliver domestic laundry equipment must file with the War Production Board before the 15th day of each month, Form WPB-1600 (formerly PD-655) according to the instructions for filing that form.

(f) Applicability of regulations and other orders. The provisions of this order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board. If any other order of the War Production Board limits the use of any material in the production of domestic laundry equipment to a greater extent than this order does, the other order shall govern unless it states otherwise.

(g) Exceptions and appeals—(1) Production under Priorities Regulation 25. Any person who wants to produce or assemble any domestic laundry equipment, except washing machines, and any person who wants to make any part for domestic laundry equipment for purposes other than the repairing of used domestic laundry equipment, may apply for permission to do so as explained in Priorities Regulation 25. He may still, of course, apply for authorization by letter in accordance with paragraph (b) (1). Authorization to deliver domestic laundry equipment (except ironing machines) is still required under paragraph (b) (3) even when authorization to manufacture is obtained under Priorities Regulation 25.

(2) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of paragraphs (b) (3), (c) (2) or (e) of this order should be filed on Form WPB-1477 (in triplicate) with the field office of the War Production Board for the district in which is located the plant or branch of the appellant in which the appeal relates. No appeals should be filed from the restrictions of paragraphs (b) (1) or (c) (1).

(h) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(i) Communications. All reports to be filed and all other communications concerning this order, except appeals, should be addressed to the War Production Board, Consumers Durable Goods Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref.: L-6.

NOTE: The reporting requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

PART 3291—CONSUMERS DURABLE GOODS

[Supplementary Limitation Order L-7-c, as Amended Aug. 19, 1944]

DOMESTIC ICE REFRIGERATORS

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of iron and steel and other critical materials used in the production of Domestic Ice Refrigerators for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3291.16 Supplementary Limitation Order L-7-c—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Domestic ice refrigerator" means any non-mechanical ice chest or ice box designed for home use.

(2) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(3) "Iron and steel content" means the aggregate weight of iron and carbon steel contained in a finished domestic ice refrigerator, including but not limited to, latches, hinges, screws, nails, rivets, bolts, sheet steel, binder strips, drain tubes, drip pans and shelving.

(4) "Net ice capacity" means the maximum amount of standard scored ice which the ice chamber of a domestic ice refrigerator will hold.

(5) [Deleted June 23, 1944]

(b) General restrictions. (1) No person shall produce any domestic ice refrigerator:

(i) Containing any crude, reclaimed or synthetic rubber except as permitted in Rubber Order R-1 as amended, or any relief granted pursuant to appeal taken in accordance with the provisions of such Order;

(ii) Containing any metal other than aluminum iron and carbon steel (except metal used in galvanizing, plating, soldering, or coating steel);

(iii) Having a net ice capacity of other than 50 or 75 pounds, except that it may vary ten per cent from either of these amounts;

(iv) Having iron and carbon steel content of more than 6 pounds; or

(v) [Deleted June 23, 1944]

(2) (i) No person shall produce any domestic ice refrigerator except in accordance with a production quota assigned to him in a schedule issued by the War Production Board pursuant to this order. Such production quotas shall be assigned for periods of time to be specified in the schedule, and shall expire on the last day of the period for which they are assigned. Any person desiring to obtain a production quota shall file with the War Production Board at least 30 days before the expiration date of the schedule in effect at that time a written application to be assigned a production quota for such period as the War Production Board shall specify.

(ii) Such application should contain a statement as to the amount of iron and carbon steel, and other critical materials to be contained in each domestic ice refrigerator the applicant proposes to produce during such period. Whenever production quotas are assigned by the War Production Board, it will take into consideration the amount of iron and carbon steel, and other critical materials to be used by each applicant, the extent to which the domestic ice refrigerators which each applicant proposes to produce conforms to the performance specifications contained in Appendix A attached to this order as established by tests of the National Bureau of Standards, the labor and transportation situation in the area where the plant of each applicant is located and such other factors as the War Production Board shall deem appropriate.

(iii) [Deleted, October 5, 1943.]

(c) Applicability of other orders. In so far as any other order heretofore or hereafter issued by the War Production Board limits the use of any material in the production of domestic ice refrigerators to a greater extent than the restrictions imposed by this order, the restrictions of such other order shall govern unless otherwise specified therein.

(d) Applicability of regulations. This order (and any schedules issued pursuant thereto) and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(e) Avoidance of excessive inventories. No person authorized to produce domestic ice refrigerators shall accumulate for use in the production of such domestic ice refrigerators inventories of raw materials, semi-processed materials or finished parts in quantities in excess of the minimum amount necessary to maintain production at the rates permitted by this order and any schedules issued pursuant thereto.

(f) Records. All persons affected by this order or any schedule issued pursuant thereto, shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales.

(g) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(h) Reports. Each person who produces any domestic ice refrigerators shall file with the War Production Board, not later than 10 days after the end of each calendar month in which he produced any domestic ice refrigerator, a report on Form WPB-1600 (formerly Form PD-655), showing all domestic ice refrigerators which he produced during such month. Each person, before he offers for sale any new model of domestic ice refrigerator, shall file with the War Production Board a report on Form WPB-1117 (formerly Form PD-531), setting forth a bill of material for such model. Each person affected by this order, or any schedule issued pursuant thereto, shall file such other reports and answers to questionnaires as the War Production Board shall from time to time require.

(i) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or of any schedule issued pursuant thereto, or who, in connection with this order, or any such schedule, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(j) Exceptions and appeals—(1) Production under Priorities Regulation 25. Any person who wants to produce more domestic ice refrigerators than his quota fixed under paragraph (b) (2), and any person who has no quota but who wants to produce domestic ice refrigerators, may apply for permission to do so as explained in Priorities Regulation 25.

(2) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order other than the restrictions of paragraph (b) (2) should be filed on Form WPB-1477 (in triplicate) with the Field Office of the War Production Board for the district in which is located the plant or branch of the appellant to which the appeal relates. No appeal should be filed from the restrictions of paragraph (b) (2).

(k) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, or any schedule issued pursuant thereto, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the War Production Board, Consumers Durable Goods Division, Washington, D. C., Ref.: L-7-c.

By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
Recording Secretary.

APPENDIX A—PERFORMANCE SPECIFICATIONS FOR DOMESTIC ICE REFRIGERATORS

I. Temperature & Ice Meltage Performance

1. The refrigerator shall maintain with no load in the food compartment an average food compartment temperature of 48° F. or less and a temperature of 45.5° F. or less in the milk storage space at 60% of initial ice load with the room at an average temperature of 85° F. plus or minus 1° F.

2. The temperature at a point two inches above the bottom of the food compartment and two inches from the sidewall, located in the vertical plane perpendicularly bisecting a return air duct shall not be higher than the temperature of the air entering the return air duct. (The return air duct is defined as the duct or ducts through which the air in the refrigerator returns from the food compartment to the ice compartment.)

3. Ice meltage at 60% initial ice load for food compartment volumes between 2.75 and 5.5 cubic feet shall not exceed the value, in lbs/day, computed from the following formula:

M equals 7.28 plus 3.3V

where M is the ice meltage in lbs/day and V is the volume of the food compartment in cubic feet. Note: This formula applies only under the following conditions: Room temperature 85° F.; Average food compartment temperature 48° F.; and Food Compartment volumes ranging between 2.75 cubic feet and 5.5 cubic feet.

II. Construction Performance

4. Box deformation: The box shall show no permanent vertical deformation in excess of 3/16" per 3 feet of vertical elevation when subjected to a horizontal load of 350 pounds applied along one diagonal of the top from front to back with the box fastened to the floor at all four legs.

5. Door damage: The door and hinges shall show no permanent damage when the door is subjected to a vertical load of 100 pounds applied to the upper outside corner 2 inches from the outside vertical edge of the door with the door open and at an angle of 90° with the front of the box.

6. Ice shelf: The ice shelf shall be able to support a load of 200% of the normal ice load without fracturing the shelf or supports or causing permanent sagging of more than 1/16" at the center, sides and back.

7. Food shelves: Full width food shelves shall have sufficient strength to support an evenly distributed load of 50 pounds without fracturing or permanently sagging more than 1/16" at the center. Fractional width shelves around the milk storage space shall have sufficient strength to support an evenly distributed load of 25 pounds without fracturing or permanently sagging more than 1/16" at the center.

8. The back of the ice compartment shall withstand without damage an impact of 40 ft. lbs.

9. The refrigerator door shall withstand without damage to the door, hinges and latch a closing of 100 consecutive times from a fully opened position (opened through an angle of 180°) by an impact of 40 ft. lbs. applied at the center of door.

PART 3291—CONSUMERS DURABLE GOODS

[General Limitation Order L-18-b, as Amended Aug. 19, 1944]

DOMESTIC VACUUM CLEANERS

§ 3291.80 General Limitation Order L-18-b—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Domestic vacuum cleaner" means any vacuum cleaner designed primarily for household use.

(2) "New domestic vacuum cleaner" means any domestic vacuum cleaner which has never been used by an ultimate consumer. It includes a domestic vacuum cleaner which has been used only for demonstration purposes.

(3) "Attachment" means any special purpose device designed for use with a domestic vacuum cleaner.

(4) "Part" means any part manufactured for incorporation into a domestic vacuum cleaner or attachment.

(5) "Manufacturer" means any person who is or has been in the business of making domestic vacuum cleaners, attachments or parts since October 1, 1941. "Manufacturer" includes all subsidiaries, affiliates or other companies or enterprises under common ownership or control with the person who makes or has made domestic vacuum cleaners, attachments or parts.

(6) "Restricted private brand seller" means any person other than a manufacturer engaged in the business of selling new domestic vacuum cleaners under his own trade mark or brand name (including all subsidiaries, affiliates or other companies or enterprises under common ownership or control with him) who held for sale more than 500 new domestic vacuum cleaners on October 24, 1942, whether in his own or other person's warehouses or on consignment to wholesalers or dealers.

(b) Prohibition on production. No manufacturer shall make or assemble any new domestic vacuum cleaner or attachment. This does not prohibit the repair or rebuilding of used domestic vacuum cleaners or the manufacture of parts.

(c) Restrictions on the production of parts. (1) No manufacturer shall make or transfer any new domestic vacuum cleaner part if he knows or has reason to believe that that part will be used for any other purpose than the repairing of a used domestic vacuum cleaner.

(2) No manufacturer shall make any part if by making that part he would have more parts of that type in his inventory than twice the number he sold in the second preceding calendar quarter. However, a manufacturer making parts in order to bring his inventory of that type of part up to twice the number he sold in the second preceding calendar quarter, need not make less than a minimum practical run of that part in order to comply with this paragraph (c) (2).

(3) It will be the general policy of the War Production Board to allocate controlled materials and give priorities assistance for the purchase of all other materials for the manufacture of parts, under the Controlled Materials Plan, so that the manufacture of parts in any one plant or labor requirements therefor will not interfere with war production in that plant or any other plant located in the same area.

(d) Restrictions on transfer of new domestic vacuum cleaners. No manufacturer or restricted private brand seller shall transfer physical possession or title to any new domestic vacuum cleaner, except

(1) To or for the account of the Army or Navy of the United States.

(2) To any person outside of the United States its territories and possessions under export licenses issued by the Foreign Economic Administration.

(3) As authorized by the War Production Board on Form WPB–1319. Form WPB–1319 should be filed with the War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: L–18–b.

(e) Reports. All manufacturers and restricted private brand sellers must file a report with the War Production Board, on or before the fifteenth day of July, October, January and April on Form WPB–1600 (formerly PD–655) showing all new domestic vacuum cleaners shipped or delivered in the preceding quarter.

(f) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(g) Exceptions and appeals—(1) Production under Priorities Regulation 25. Any person who wants to make or assemble any domestic vacuum cleaners, or attachments, or to make or transfer any parts, the production or transfer of which is prohibited or restricted by paragraphs (b) or (c) of this order may apply for permission to do so as explained in Priorities Regulation 25. The transfer of physical possession or title to new domestic vacuum cleaners is still subject to the restrictions of paragraph (d) even when authorization to manufacture is obtained under Priorities Regulation 25.

(2) Appeals. Any appeal from the restrictions of this order, other than the restrictions of paragraphs (b) or (c) (1), should be filed on Form WPB–1477 (in triplicate) with the field office of the War Production Board for the district in which is located the plant or branch of the appellant to which the appeal relates. No appeal should be filed from the restrictions of paragraphs (b) or (c) (1).

(h) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the War Production Board, Consumers Durable Goods Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: L–18–b.

(i) Applicability of other orders and regulations. The provisions of this order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board. If any other order of the War Production Board limits the use of any material in the production of domestic vacuum cleaners, attachments or parts to a greater extent than this order does, the other order shall govern unless it states otherwise.

NOTE: The reporting requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

PART 3291—CONSUMERS DURABLE GOODS

[Limitation Order L–23–b, as Amended Aug. 19, 1944]

DOMESTIC ELECTRIC RANGES

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of materials and facilities for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3291.180 Limitation Order L–23–b—(a) What this order does. This order controls the manufacture and delivery of new domestic electric ranges. It provides for the resumption of production of these items on a limited basis.

(b) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "New electric range" means any range or cooking stove designed primarily for home use having as functional parts electric heating elements of a total rated wattage of 2½ kilowatts or over, and which has never been used by a consumer.

(2) "Consumer" means any person who gets an electric range for installation or use, including a builder of a housing project.

(3) "Manufacturer" means any person who produces or assembles new electric ranges, or who produced or assembled them during the base period.

(4) "Base period" means the twelve months period beginning July 1, 1940.

(5) "Distributor or dealer" means any person who buys new electric ranges for resale at the wholesale or retail price level.

(6) "Special order" means any purchase order or contract calling for delivery to or for the account of the Army or Navy of the United States, the U. S. Maritime Commission, the War Shipping Administration, the Federal Public Housing Authority, the Home Owners Loan Corporation acting for the National Housing Agency, or any purchase order or contract covered by an export license, release certificate, or Lend-Lease requisition approved or authorized by the Foreign Economic Administration.

(c) Production of electric ranges. (1) No person shall make any new electric ranges except in models and quantities specifically authorized by the War Production Board on Form CMPL–150–b. Application should be made by filing Form WPB–3700 with the field office of the War Production Board for the district in which the electric ranges will be made.

(2) Manufacture of new electric ranges will be authorized so that the total production will not exceed the approved War Production Board Program and so that production in any one plant or labor requirements therefor will not interfere with war production in that plant, or in any other plant located in the same area. Wherever practical, each manufacturer will be permitted under paragraph (c) (1) to make in each calendar quarter, for other than special orders, the number of new electric ranges set forth in Table A. However, to ensure full production of approved requirements, the War Production Board may assign additional quotas to qualified manufacturers. Authorization will be given to produce for special orders without reference to base period production. In general, no single manufacturer will be authorized to produce for other than special orders, more than one model of the standard size and one model of the low oven apartment house type electric range. Approval of models will be based largely on economy of production and the volume of production of the individual models by a manufacturer during the base period. The War Production Board will, from time to time or on request of any manufacturer, give notice to all manufacturers of the total production authorized and the percentage of his base period production authorized to each individual manufacturer.

(3) Manufacturers who are unable to produce in their own plant because of interference with war production may apply to the War Production Board for authorization to have another manufacturer make electric ranges for them. Each application should be made by filing Form WPB–3700 in accordance with the applicable instructions.

(d) Relief on outstanding appeals remains in effect. The provisions of paragraph (c) do not apply to the production or assembly of electric ranges under an appeal from Order L–23–b granted by the War Production Board before May 25, 1944.

(e) Restriction on production of parts. No person shall make any parts for an electric range (including repair and replacement parts) if by making those parts he would have more parts of that type in his inventory than a three months' supply. A person, however, is not required to make less than a minimum practical run of any parts (including repair and replacement parts) in order to comply with the provisions of this paragraph.

(f) WPB may direct distribution of ranges for specified purposes. The War Production Board, on Form CMPL–150–b or otherwise, may direct a manufacturer as to the number of new electric ranges he may distribute for specified purposes such as housing projects, and may state the conditions under which he may sell and ship the electric ranges.

(g) How new electric ranges may be sold to consumers. No person may sell or deliver any new electric range to a consumer except in accordance with the rules stated below.

(1) Sales may be made to fill special orders for which production has been authorized under paragraph (c) (1).

(2) Sales may be made to a person who furnishes a certificate in substantially the following form:

I certify to the War Production Board and to the seller: I own or occupy the residence at ..... It has the inside and outside wiring needed for an electric range, and my electric company has told me that electric service for range operation will be supplied. I do not have any electric range for this residence which can be used or repaired.

Signature of purchaser

(3) Sales may be made to fill orders for electric ranges to be installed in housing projects approved by the National Housing Agency or War Production Board under Preference Rating Order P–55–c if the purchaser endorses on his purchase order a statement substantially as follows:

This order is placed pursuant to authority granted under Order P–55–c. I have been authorized by the War Production Board or National Housing Agency to install these electric ranges in Project No. ..... located at .....

A distributor or dealer may not deliver on such an order any new electric ranges which were not delivered to him for housing projects, unless he is advised by the manufacturer that replacements will be shipped from the inventory of electric ranges which the manufacturer has been authorized to distribute for housing projects.

(4) Sales may be made on special authorization of the War Production Board granted on Form WPB–1319. Applications should be made on this form in accordance with the instructions for its use which are obtainable at field offices of the War Production Board. Authorizations will not be granted for electric ranges on Form WPB–1319 except for installation and use by Federal, state, and local governmental agencies, educational institutions and service institutions, such as the American Red Cross and the United Service Organization, where the use of commercial cooking equipment is not practicable, as for example in diet kitchens and domestic science classrooms.

(5) The standard certification provided for in paragraph (d) of Priorities Regulation 7 cannot be used in place of the certificates mentioned above. A seller may not sell to a person furnishing any of these certificates if he knows or has reason to believe that the facts stated are false.

(h) Policy for distribution of ranges. It is the policy of the War Production Board that each manufacturer shall distribute electric ranges through his normal distribution channels taking into consideration shipments to areas during 1941, migration of workers to certain areas, and such other factors as will provide equitable distribution to meet essential needs. This does not apply to electric ranges sold on special orders or for housing projects. The War Production Board may direct the distribution of specified quantities to any area from any manufacturer's production.

(i) Preference ratings not valid for purchase of new electric ranges. No preference rating lower than AAA shall be valid for the purchase of new electric ranges and orders bearing such preference ratings are to be treated as unrated orders.

(j) Reports. Every manufacturer producing or shipping electric ranges shall file Form WPB–1600, executed in accordance with the instructions for filing that form, with the War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: L–23–b, on or before the 15th day of July, October, January and April. This form is a report of the number of new electric ranges made and shipped during the preceding quarter.

(k) Applicability of other orders and regulations. This order and all transactions affected by it are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board. If any other order of the War Production Board limits the use of any material in making electric ranges to a greater extent than this order does, the other order shall govern.

(l) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(m) Exceptions and appeals—(1) Production under Priorities Regulation 25. Any person who wants to make new electric ranges and who has not been authorized to make them on Form CMPL–150–b (whether or not he made them in the base period), and any person who wants to make more new electric ranges than he was authorized to make on Form CMPL–150–b, may apply for permission to do so as explained in Priorities Regulation 25. He may still, of course, apply on Form WPB–3700 for an authorization if he desires. Distribution, sale and other restrictions of the order, with the exception of the restrictions of paragraph (c), must be complied with even when authorization to manufacture is obtained under Priorities Regulation 25.

(2) Appeals. Any appeals from the provisions of this order, other than paragraph (c), should be filed on Form WPB–1477 (in triplicate) with the field office of the War Production Board for the district in which is located the plant or branch of the appellant to which the appeal relates. No appeal should be filed from the provisions of paragraph (c).

(n) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the War Production Board, Consumers Durable Goods Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: L-23-b.

NOTE: The reporting and application requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 19th day of August 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

TABLE A

Quarterly production of electric ranges will be authorized when practical to manufacturers as follows:

Class A—9¼% of base period production, or 1200 units, whichever is greater.

Class B—4% of base period production, or 300 units, whichever is greater.

Class C—10% of base period productions.

Class A manufacturers are those who made more than 20,000 new electric ranges in the base period; Class B manufacturers are those who made between 3,000 and 20,000 in the base period, and Class C manufacturers are those who made less than 3,000 in the base period.

DOMESTIC ELECTRIC RANGES

Under Order L-22-b as amended May 25, 1944, new electric ranges may be sold to consumers who qualify under paragraphs (g) (2) or (g) (3) without obtaining authorization from the War Production Board. Persons who obtained electric ranges pursuant to an authorization of the War Production Board on Form WPB-1319 issued before May 25, 1944, may sell them under the above provisions if they are unable to use them for the purpose for which they were released. For example, if electric ranges were delivered to a dealer or builder pursuant to a WPB-1319 authorization for use in a specific housing project but cannot be used in that project, the dealer or builder may sell them to any "consumer" in accordance with paragraphs (g) (2) or (g) (3). PART 3291—CONSUMERS DURABLE GOODS

[Limitation Order L-27, as Amended Aug. 19, 1944]

§ 3291.100 Limitation Order L-27—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Merchandise vending machines" means any coin or token operated machine from which merchandise is sold. It includes for example, cigarette, candy, chewing gum, nut, bulk and bottle beverage and food vending machines, photograph vending machines, sanitary napkin vending machines, and drinking cup dispensers. It does not include automatic restaurants (so-called automats) or United States Postage Stamp vending machines.

(2) "Manufacturer" means any person who produces or assembles any merchandise vending machines or parts for merchandise vending machines, or any person who produced or assembled any merchandise vending machines during the twelve month period ending June 30, 1941, whether or not he now produces any.

(3) "Deliver" means to lease, sell, or transfer.

(b) Restrictions on production and delivery. (1) No manufacturer shall produce or deliver any merchandise vending machines except sanitary napkin vending machines, which may only be produced according to a quota approved by the War Production Board on Form WPB-2719 (formerly PD-880).

(2) Each manufacturer who wishes to produce or deliver any of these sanitary napkin vending machines must file this form with the War Production Board on or before the 15th day of December, March, June and September according to the instructions accompanying that form. A manufacturer asking permission to produce or assemble sanitary napkin vending machines must file with his first application a letter stating the total number of sanitary napkin vending machines which he produced, assembled or delivered during the twelve month period ending June 30, 1941 and the location of his plant and of any other plants which will produce parts for those machines. If the manufacturer intends to produce or assemble in his own plant, he should state the estimated man hours which will be consumed in the production or assembly of each unit. If the manufacturer intends to have the machines produced for him by another manufacturer, he should state that fact and give the name and location of the other manufacturer.

(c) Delivery of certain merchandise vending machines not covered. This order does not restrict the delivery of any merchandise vending machines completely finished before January 15, 1944.

(d) Reports. Each manufacturer producing or delivering sanitary napkin vending machines pursuant to an authorization on Form WPB-2719 under paragraph (b) (1) must file, with the War Production Board, quarterly reports on Form WPB-2719 (formerly PD-880) on or before the 15th day of December, March, June and September, according to the instructions for filing that form.

(e) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(f) Exceptions and appeals—(1) Production under Priorities Regulation 25. Any person who wants to produce any merchandise vending machines (including sanitary napkin vending machines), and any person who wants to produce more sanitary napkin vending machines than he has been authorized to produce on Form WPB-2719, may apply for permission to do so as explained in Priorities Regulation 25. The delivery of any machines so produced is not restricted by this order. A person may still, of course, apply on Form WPB-2719 under paragraph (b) (2) for authorization to produce and deliver sanitary napkin vending machines.

(2) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order other than the restrictions of paragraph (b) should be filed on Form WPB-1477 (in triplicate) with the field office of the War Production Board for the district in which is located the plant or branch of the appellant to which the appeal relates. No appeal should be filed from the restrictions of paragraph (b).

(g) Applicability of other orders and regulations. This order and all transactions affected by this order are subject to the applicable regulations of the War Production Board. If any other order of the War Production Board limits the use of any material in the production of vending machines to a greater extent than does this order, the other order shall govern unless it states otherwise.

NOTE: The reporting provisions of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget under the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

PART 3291—CONSUMERS DURABLE GOODS

[Limitation Order L-30-a, as Amended Aug. 19, 1944]

GALVANIZED WARE AND NON-METAL COATED METAL ARTICLES

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of materials and facilities used in the production of galvanized ware and certain non-metal coated metal articles for defense, for private account and for export, and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3291.150 Limitation Order L-30-a—(a) What this order does. This order states the rules governing production of galvanized ware and certain non-metal coated metal articles listed on Table A and Table B. It states the kinds and sizes of articles which may be made, and establishes quotas on the use of iron and steel in producing them. Preferred orders are exempt from these restrictions.

(b) What articles are covered; definition of "restricted". This order covers only articles on Tables A and B which are made of iron or steel which is zinc-coated or has a plain, japanned, painted, lithographed or lacquered finish. For convenience the term "restricted" is used in this order to describe such articles. An article, however, is "restricted" only if 50 percent or more of it by weight consists of iron or steel which is zinc-coated or has a plain, japanned, painted, lithographed or lacquered finish.

(c) Definition of preferred orders. "Preferred orders" are those purchase orders or contracts for articles which will be ultimately delivered to the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration, or to other persons pursuant to authorization by the United States Maritime Commission on Form WPB-646 (formerly PD-300).

(d) Restrictions on production and assembly. (1) A manufacturer may not produce or assemble any restricted articles listed on Table A.

(2) A manufacturer may not produce or assemble restricted articles listed on Table B unless they conform to the provisions of that Table.

(3) These provisions do not apply to articles produced to fill preferred orders. This means that any restricted articles listed on Tables A and B may be produced for those orders without regard to size or other restrictions.

(e) Quota restrictions. A manufacturer may not use more iron and steel in making restricted articles than the quotas computed in accordance with Table B, subject to the following rules:

(1) Preferred orders exempt. Iron and steel used in making articles to fill preferred orders need not come out of a manufacturer's quota, but may be used in addition to his quota.

(2) Unused quotas. A manufacturer may use for any restricted articles during any quarter, in addition to his quota for that quarter, any unused balance of his previous quarter's quota for such articles.

(3) The War Production Board may reduce quotas for interference with war production. The War Production Board may issue directions reducing any quotas if the Board finds after investigation that production in any one plant, or labor requirements therefor, will interfere with war production in that plant or in any other plant located in the same area.

(4) Special permission to exceed quotas. The War Production Board from time to time may permit manufacturers to exceed their quotas, but will not authorize total production to exceed the approved War Production Board programs. This will be done only in special cases and for limited periods of time. For example, if some manufacturers are unable to use their full quotas, because of interference with war production or otherwise, the War Production Board may permit others to use the unused amount where that can be done without interference with war production in their plants or in any other plants located in the same areas. In addition, authorizations may be granted to exceed quotas in filling orders for special purposes, such as for export or for delivery to the National Housing Agency. Authorizations under this paragraph will be granted either in the form of individual letters or of published directions supplementary to this order.

(f) Applicability of other orders and regulations. This order and all transactions affected by it are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board. If any other order of the War Production Board limits the use of any material in the production of articles covered by this order to a greater extent than this order does, the other order shall govern.

(g) Reports. (1) Each manufacturer shall file on or before August 1, 1944, a report on Form WPB-3768 showing the number of units produced and the amount of iron and steel which he used in the production of each of the restricted articles listed on Tables A and B during the twelve months ending June 30, 1941.

(2) Each manufacturer shall file with the War Production Board on or before January 20, April 20, July 20 and October 20 of each year, a report on Form WPB-1600 (formerly PD-655) showing his production, shipments, and inventory for the preceding quarter.

(h) Exceptions and appeals—(1) Production under Priorities Regulation 25. Any person who wants to produce or assemble any restricted articles listed in Table A, and any person who wants to use more iron and steel in making restricted articles listed on Table B than the quotas fixed in paragraph (e), Table B Column (4) or a direction to this order (including a person who has no quota), may apply for permission to do so as explained in Priorities Regulation 25. He may still, of course, apply for special permission to exceed quotas under paragraph (e) (4).

(2) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order, other than the restrictions of paragraph (d) (1) or the quota restrictions of paragraph (e) and Table B Column (4), should be filed on Form WPB-1477 (in triplicate) with the field office of the War Production Board for the district in which is located the plant or branch of the appellant to which the appeal relates. No appeal should be filed from the restrictions of paragraph (d) (1), or the quota restrictions of paragraph (e) of Table B Column (4).

(i) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(j) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the War Production Board, Consumers Durable Goods Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref. L-30-a.

Issued this 19th day of August 1944.

Quarterly quotas. No manufacturer may use in any calendar quarter more iron and steel in making any restricted articles listed in column (1) than his quarterly quotas for such articles shown in column (4). A quota is calculated by taking the percentage shown for an item and multiplying it by one-fourth of the total amount of iron and steel used in making that item during the twelve months ending June 30, 1941, the base period. Unless otherwise noted, the base period production shall include all restricted articles included in any item in column (1) produced in the base period, whether or not they conformed to the limitations of columns (2) and (3).

The gross weight of iron and steel when first put into production, whether in the form of raw materials or purchased parts, is considered the amount of iron and steel used and to be used in figuring these quotas.

PART 3291—CONSUMERS DURABLE GOODS

[Limitation Order L–30–b, as Amended Aug. 19, 1944]

ENAMELED WARE

§ 3291.155 Limitation Order L–30–b—(a) What this order does. This order states the rules governing the manufacture of household, cooking and hospital articles made of vitreous-enameled iron and steel. The kinds and sizes of enameled ware which may be made are described, including hospital ware which was formerly covered by Schedule I to Order L–214. Quotas are placed on the use of iron and steel. Special provisions are made for military and export orders.

(b) Definitions. When used in this order:

(1) "Enameled ware" means any of the articles listed on Table A when made of vitreous-enameled iron or steel. It does not include any furniture, electrical or gas appliance or power-driven equipment.

(2) "Preferred orders" means any purchase order or contract for enameled ware which will be ultimately delivered to the Army or Navy of the United States, the U. S. Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration.

(3) "Export orders" means any purchase order or contract for enameled ware for delivery outside the United States, its territories and possessions.

(4) "Civilian order" means any purchase order or contract other than a preferred order or export order.

(c) What enameled ware may be made. (1) No manufacturer shall produce or assemble any enameled ware that does not conform to Table A. Exceptions to this rule are stated below.

(2) A manufacturer may complete the following operations on enameled ware which was otherwise completed by December 31, 1942; making and attaching handles, baffs, spouts and ears; welding together fabricated parts; applying a vitreous-enameled or other coating.

(3) The War Production Board may authorize on Form WPB–1319 (formerly PD–556) enameled ware not conforming to Table A to fill export orders.

(4) The provisions of Table A do not apply to enameled ware which is produced to fill preferred orders or for experimental use in a scientific laboratory in connection with the development of enameled ware standards.

Quota Restrictions

(d) General. No manufacturer shall use more iron and steel in making enameled ware than the amounts stated below. Each manufacturer has a quota for civilian orders and a separate quota for preferred orders and export orders. In each calendar quarter a manufacturer is limited to a percentage of the iron and steel he used in his total production of enameled ware in the twelve months ending June 30, 1941, the "base period." The gross weight of iron and steel when first put into production, whether in the form of raw materials or as purchased parts, is considered the amount of iron and steel used and to be used in figuring out the quotas. A manufacturer who purchases black shapes and covers them with an enamel coating should include the weight of these black shapes in his "use" of iron and steel, while a manufacturer who fabricates the black shapes should consider the gross weight of the sheets he cuts up as part of his "use" of iron and steel.

(e) Civilian quotas—(1) General rule. In his production for civilian orders of all enameled ware (except roasters), a manufacturer is limited in each calendar quarter to one-fourth of 70% of the iron and steel which he used for all enameled ware (except roasters) in the base period. No manufacturer may produce during any calendar year more enameled roasters than 15% of the number he produced in the base period.

(2) Optional quotas for manufacturers of hospital ware. Instead of following the general rule any manufacturer may use in any calendar quarter in producing hospital enameled ware (See Table A) not more than one-fourth of 100% of the iron and steel which he used for that ware in the base period. If he does this, however, his civilian quota for non-hospital ware (except roasters) is reduced to one-fourth of 60% of the iron and steel he used for that ware in the base period. Any manufacturer who chooses this alternative or who later decides to follow the general rule stated in the preceding paragraph shall notify the War Production Board by January 15, 1944 or before the first day of the quarter in which he intends to do this.

(3) Division of quota among different articles. In allocating his iron and steel among the items listed in column (2) of Table A, a manufacturer should use his best efforts to divide his quota of iron and steel among all the articles which he customarily makes in such a way as to meet the essential needs for those articles. If it is found that an undue shortage exists in certain articles or that production is being concentrated too much on other articles, the War Production Board may issue written instructions to any manufacturer directing him to allocate a specified share of his production to articles which are considered most essential. Failure to comply with a specific direction shall be deemed a violation of this order.

(f) Quotas for preferred orders and for export. In addition to his civilian quota, a manufacturer may use during any quarter in producing enameled ware to fill preferred orders and export orders not more than one-fourth of 55% of the iron and steel which he used in the base period for all enameled ware.

(g) Unused quotas. A manufacturer may use for civilian orders during any calendar quarter, in addition to his quota for that quarter, any unused balance of his previous quarter's civilian quota. A manufacturer may also use to fill preferred orders and export orders during any calendar quarter, in addition to his quota for that quarter, any unused balance of his previous quarter's quota for such orders.

(h) Special permission to exceed quotas. The War Production Board from time to time may permit manufacturers to exceed their quotas. This will only be done in special cases and for limited periods of time. For example, if one or more manufacturers are unable to use their full quota in any quarter, other manufacturers may be permitted to use the unused amount in addition to their own quotas. Similarly, if additional iron or steel becomes available at any time, the War Production Board may authorize its use in addition to the quotas. As far as practicable increases will be permitted for all manufacturers of the articles to be made in proportion to their quotas. Permission will be granted either in the form of individual letters or of published directions supplementary to this order.

Miscellaneous Provisions

(i) Overruns, rejects and cancellations. Enameled ware made to fill a preferred order, which, because of overruns, rejects, cancellations of orders or any other reasons cannot be used to fill that order, may be used or disposed of only as allowed in § 944.11, paragraph (b) of Priorities Regulation No. 1.

(j) Reports. (1) [Deleted Apr. 8, 1944]

(2) Each manufacturer shall file with the War Production Board on or before January 20, April 20, July 20, and October 20 of each year, a report on Form WPB–1600 (formerly PD–655), showing his production, shipments, and inventory of enameled ware for the preceding quarter.

(3) These reporting provisions have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(k) Applicability of other orders and regulations. This order and all transactions affected by it are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board. If any other order of the War Production Board limits the use of any material in the production of enameled ware to a greater extent than does this order, the other order shall govern unless it states otherwise.

(l) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(m) Exceptions and appeals—(1) Production under Priorities Regulation 25. Any person who wants to use more iron and steel in making enameled ware than the amounts fixed in paragraphs (d), (e) or (f) (including a person who has no quota under this order) may apply for permission to do so as explained in Priorities Regulation 25. He may still, of course, apply for special permission to exceed quotas under paragraph (h).

(2) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order, other than the restrictions of paragraphs (d), (e) or (f) should be filed on Form WPB–1477 (in triplicate) with the field office of the War Production Board for the district in which is located the plant or branch of the appellant to which the appeal relates. No appeal should be filed from the restrictions of paragraphs (d), (e) or (f).

(n) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the War Production Board, Consumers Durable Goods Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: L–30–b.

§ 3291.103 Supplementary Limitation Order L-30-d—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Manufacturer" means any person who produces or assembles any article listed on Schedule A or Schedule B attached to this order, or any part for any such article.

(2) "To produce" or "to assemble" an article does not include the application of a coating or finish or the attaching of bails, handles, spouts or ears to articles which are otherwise completed.

(3) "To put into process" means for a person to perform the first manufacturing or assembly operations on material or parts received by him.

(4) "Base period" means the twelve months ending June 30, 1941.

(5) "Joining hardware" means nuts, screws, nails, bolts, clasps, rivets and other similar items of small hardware used for joining or other similar purposes.

(6) "Repair parts" means any part for an article or product which is not produced for or used in a new article or product.

(7) "Preferred order" means any purchase order, contract, or subcontract for delivery to or for the account of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, or the War Shipping Administration.

(b) Prohibition of production of articles on Schedule A. No manufacturer shall produce or assemble any of the articles listed on Schedule A or parts (including repair parts) for such articles containing any metal.

(c) Restrictions on production of articles on Schedule B. No manufacturer shall produce or assemble any articles listed on Schedule B or any parts (including repair parts) for such articles containing any metal except in accordance with the provisions of that schedule.

(d) Exceptions. (1) The provisions of paragraphs (b) and (c) do not apply to (i) articles produced to fill preferred orders; (ii) articles containing not more than 5% by weight of iron and steel, including joining hardware; (iii) articles covered by other orders in the L-30 series, as amended from time to time, or by supplements or directions issued under those orders; or (iv) articles produced from iron or steel which, on November 17, 1942, had been cut, blanked or otherwise formed to size or shape for the articles, and is not in mill standard gauges and sizes.

(2) The War Production Board from time to time may issue directions under this order controlling the production of articles it covers. When a direction is issued its provisions will supersede the provisions of this order for the articles it covers, unless the direction states otherwise.

(e) Provisions concerning distribution. (1) For the purpose of this paragraph:

(i) "Special order" means a rated purchase order or contract bearing a statement that the preference ratings were assigned pursuant to Form WPB-547 (formerly PD-1X). It is the policy of the War Production Board to assign such ratings only to take care of emergencies or to fill special needs arising from war conditions.

(ii) "Total quarterly production" means either the total dollar value or the total number of units of each article produced under this order during a calendar quarter. Articles produced or sold on preferred orders shall be disregarded in this calculation.

(2) Of his total quarterly production of any article each manufacturer shall allocate his sales so that 25% are sold on special orders and 75% on other orders. Fifteen days after the end of the quarter any balance of the 25% for which he has no special orders may be sold on other orders. For example, articles produced in the third quarter and held for sale on special orders may be sold on or after October 15th on other orders.

(3) It is hereby declared to be the policy of the War Production Board that each manufacturer shall distribute equitably all articles sold on other than special orders. In line with this policy, each manufacturer should follow his 1942 pattern of distribution, making any adjustments necessary to take care of population and other changes resulting from war conditions. Upon complaint of any person or without such complaint, the War Production Board may investigate any case of supposed failure of any person to distribute his product equitably, and may issue such instructions as are necessary to obtain equitable distribution. Any instructions pursuant to this paragraph to be valid must be in writing.

(4) [Deleted July 6, 1944.]

(5) In complying with the provisions of subparagraph (3) above, each manufacturer shall fill all rated orders (other than special orders) in accordance with applicable War Production Board regulations. However, it should be noted that under Priorities Regulation No. 3, as amended, articles produced under this order are not subject to preference ratings assigned by any regulations or orders of the War Production Board for maintenance, repair or operating supplies (including CMP Regulation Nos. 5 and 5A).

(f) Applicability of other orders and regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board. If any other order of the War Production Board limits the use of any material in the production of articles covered by this order to a greater extent than this order or any direction issued under it, the other order shall govern unless there is a provision stating otherwise.

(g) Exceptions and appeals—(1) Production under Priorities Regulation 25. Any person (including a person who has no quota under this order) who wants to use more iron and steel in making articles listed on Schedule B or parts (including repair parts) containing metal than the quotas fixed in Column (5) of that schedule, may apply for permission to do so as explained in Priorities Regulation 25. Similar application may be made under that regulation to produce or assemble articles (or parts for articles) listed on Schedule A containing metal.

(2) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order, other than the restrictions of paragraph (b) and the quota restrictions of Schedule B, Column (5) should be filed on Form WPB–1477 (in triplicate) with the field office of the War Production Board for the district in which is located the plant or branch of the appellant to which the appeal relates. No appeal should be filed from the restrictions of paragraph (b) or the quota restrictions of Schedule B Column (5).

(h) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control, and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

PART 3291—CONSUMERS DURABLE GOODS

[Limitation Order L-36, as Amended Aug. 19, 1944]

UMBRELLA FRAMES

§ 3291.185 Limitation Order L-36—(a) What this order does. This order states the rules governing the manufacture of umbrella frames and repair parts for them. It sets quotas for the number of frames and repair parts which may be made in each quarter and limits the number and length of ribs in each frame.

(b) Definition of "frame". "Frame" means the framework of an umbrella made out of iron, steel or plastic, including ribs, stretchers, notch, runner, springs, cap, ferrule, tips and connecting hardware.

(c) How many frames may be made. (1) Beginning with the fourth quarter of 1943, no manufacturer shall produce during any quarter more than 9½% of the frames he made in the calendar year 1941.

(2) A manufacturer may not devote more than 90% of his quota for any quarter to the production of frames designed for a woman's umbrella.

(d) Specifications for frames. No manufacturer shall produce any frames which do not meet the following specifications:

(1) No frame for a man's umbrella may have more than 8 ribs.

(2) Ribs for a man's umbrella may not be more than 25 inches in length.

(3) No frame for a woman's umbrella may have more than 10 ribs.

(4) Ribs for a woman's umbrella may not be more than 20 inches in length.

(e) Repair parts. Beginning with the fourth quarter of 1943, no manufacturer of frames shall put into process during any quarter more iron and steel in making repair parts for frames than 10% of the iron and steel he is entitled to use in making his quota of frames for that quarter. In computing this amount for repair parts, a dozen umbrella frames shall be considered to use 5.3 pounds of iron and steel.

(f) Special rule as to parts manufacturers. No manufacturer of parts for frames shall make or deliver any parts if he knows or has reason to believe that they will not be used as repair parts or in the production of frames in accordance with this order.

(g) Reports. On or before January 20, April 20, July 20, and October 20 of each year, beginning January 20, 1944, each manufacturer shall file with the War Production Board Form WPB–1600 (formerly PD–655) showing his production, shipments and inventory of umbrella frames during the preceding quarter. This reporting provision has been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(h) Applicability of other orders and regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board. If any other order of the War Production Board limits the use of any material in the production of umbrella frames to a greater extent than this order, the other order shall govern unless it states otherwise.

(i) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priorities control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(j) Exceptions and appeals—(1) Production under Priorities Regulation 25. Any person who wants to produce more umbrella frames than the quota fixed in paragraph (c) (1) (including a person who has no quota), and any person who wants to put into process more iron and steel in making umbrella repair parts for frames than the quota fixed in paragraph (e), (including a person who has no quota) may apply for permission to do so as explained in Priorities Regulation 25. The restrictions of paragraph (c) (2) do not apply to umbrella frames made under Priorities Regulation 25.

(2) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order other than the quota restrictions of paragraph (c) (1) and (e) should be filed on Form WPB–1477 (in triplicate) with the Field Office of the War Production Board for the district in which is located the plant or branch of the appellant to which the appeal relates. No appeal should be filed from the quota restrictions of paragraphs (c) (1) or (e).

(k) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the War Production Board, Consumers Durable Goods Division, Washington (25), D. C., Ref: L–36.

PART 3291—CONSUMERS DURABLE GOODS

[Supplementary Limitation Order L-65-a, as Amended Aug. 19, 1944]

ELECTRIC IRONS

§ 3291.316 Limitation Order L-65-a—(a) What this order does. This order controls the manufacture and delivery of electric irons. It provides for the resumption of production of these items on a limited basis. Notwithstanding the provisions of Limitation Order L-65, no person shall manufacture any electric irons except under the terms of this order.

(b) Definition. For the purpose of this order: "Electric iron" means any portable iron designed primarily to be used in ironing or pressing wearing apparel and having a self-contained heating element in which heat is generated by the passage of electricity.

(c) Production of electric irons. (1) No person shall make any electric irons except in models and quantities specifically authorized by the War Production Board on Form CMPL-150-b. Application should be made by filing Form WPB-3550.1 with the field office of the War Production Board for the district in which the plant where the irons are to be made is located.

(2) Each person who has a production quota assigned on Form CMPL-150-b may make in addition to that quota, electric irons in approved models to fill purchase orders or contracts calling for delivery to or for the account of the U. S. Army, Navy, Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration. Irons may not be made to fill even these orders by any person who has not been assigned a production quota.

(3) Manufacture of electric irons will be permitted only if labor is available and if such production can be made without interference with existing or potential war contracts. Wherever practical, each manufacturer will be permitted under paragraph (c) (1) to make his pro rata share of the total production authorized, based on his production during 1940. However, to insure full production of approved requirements, the War Production Board may assign additional quotas to qualified manufacturers. In general, no single manufacturer will be authorized to produce more than one model of the automatic type and one model of the non-automatic type. Approval of models will be based largely on economy of production and the volume of production of the individual models by a manufacturer during 1940. The War Production Board will, from time to time or on request of any manufacturer, give notice to all manufacturers of the total production authorized and the percentage of his 1940 production authorized to each individual manufacturer.

(4) Manufacturers who made electric irons in 1940 and who are unable to produce because of interference with war work may apply to the War Production Board for permission to have another person make irons for them. Each application should be made by filing Form WPB-3550.1 in accordance with its instructions.

(d) Restriction on production of certain parts. No person other than those authorized to make electric irons on Form WPB-3550.1 shall make any sole plates (either cast, stamped or forged) or handles for electric irons, in a Group I labor area, except as permitted by the nearest field office of the War Production Board in writing.

(e) Distribution. It is the policy of the War Production Board that each manufacturer shall distribute his production through his normal distribution channels, taking into consideration shipments to areas during 1941, immigration of workers to certain areas, and such other factors as will provide equitable distribution to meet essential needs. The War Production Board may direct the distribution of specified amounts from any manufacturer's production to meet emergencies.

(f) Preference ratings for purchase of electric irons prohibited. No preference rating for electric irons shall be valid for any purpose. All orders bearing preference ratings may be filled as unrated orders. This does not apply to any purchase order or contract calling for delivery to or for the account of the U. S. Army, Navy, Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration.

(g) Reports. Every manufacturer producing electric irons shall file Form WPB-1600, executed in accordance with the instructions for filing that form, with the War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: Order L-65-a, on or before the 15th day of April, July, October and January. This form is a report of the number of electric irons made and shipped during the preceding quarter.

(h) Applicability of other orders and regulations. This order and all transactions affected by this order are subject to the applicable regulations of the War Production Board. If any other order of the War Production Board limits the use of any material in the production of electric irons to a greater extent than does this order, the other order shall govern unless it states otherwise.

(i) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provisions of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(j) Exceptions and appeals—(1) Production under Priorities Regulation 25. Any person who wants to make electric irons and who has not been authorized to make them on Form CMPL-150-b (whether or not he made them in 1940), and any person who wants to make more electric irons than he was authorized to make on CMPL-150-b may apply for permission to do so as explained in Priorities Regulation 25. He may still, of course, apply on Form WPB 3550.1 for an authorization. Also a person located in a Group 1 labor area who wants to make sole plates or handles or who wants to make more sole plates or handles than he has been authorized by the War Production Board under paragraph (d) may apply for permission to do so under Priorities Regulation 25.

(2) Appeals. Any appeals from the provisions of this order other than paragraph (c) and (d) should be filed with the field office of the War Production Board for the district in which is located the plant or branch of the appellant to which the appeal relates. No appeals should be filed from the provisions of paragraph (c) and (d).

(k) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the War Production Board, Consumers Durable Goods Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: L-65-a.

NOTE: The reporting provisions of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget under the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

PART 3291—CONSUMERS DURABLE GOODS

[Limitation Order L–71, as Amended Aug. 19, 1944]

DRY CELL BATTERIES AND PORTABLE ELECTRIC LIGHTS OPERATED BY DRY CELL BATTERIES

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of materials and certain facilities used in the production of dry cell batteries, zinc shells for dry cell batteries and portable electric lights for defense for private account and for export and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3291.125 Limitation Order L–71—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Circular C435" means Circular C435 of the National Bureau of Standards, issued February 18, 1942, entitled "American Standard Specification for Dry Cells and Batteries."

(2) "Dry cell battery" means any primary cell or assembly of cells in which the electrolyte is nonspillable and in which electric current is produced by electrochemical action.

(3) "Portable electric light" means any flashlight or other portable electric light operated by one or more dry cell batteries. It does not include bulbs, dry cell batteries, electric flares covered by L–158, aviation ground lighting equipment covered by L–235, aircraft lighting equipment covered by L–327, or devices specifically designed and built for use in military operations, marine navigation or lifesaving.

(4) "Manufacturer" means any person engaged in the business of making or assembling dry cell batteries, zinc shells for dry cell batteries or portable electric lights.

(b) Restrictions on use of materials in the manufacture of portable electric lights. No manufacturer shall use any metal or crude, reclaimed or synthetic rubber in the manufacture of portable electric lights or parts for portable electric lights, except

(1) Iron and steel, provided that no steel except tin mill blackplate rejects and wasters is used in the manufacture of tubes for flashlight cases.

(2) Aluminum.

(3) Copper and copper base alloy for plating current carrying parts other than cases.

(4) Tin in solder.

(5) Zinc for plating, electrical contact fittings and reflectors.

(6) Crude, reclaimed or synthetic rubber as permitted by Rubber Order R–1.

(c) General restrictions on production and delivery. (1) No manufacturer shall make or deliver any dry cell batteries or portable electric lights except according to a quota authorized by the War Production Board on Form WPB–2719 (formerly PD–880).

(2) Each manufacturer must file this form with the War Production Board on or before the 10th day of March, June, September and December, showing his proposed production and delivery.

(3) Manufacture of portable electric lights will be authorized to qualified manufacturers so that total production will not exceed the approved War Production Board program and so that production in any one plant or labor requirements therefor will not interfere with the war production in that plant or in any plant located in the same area.

(4) The War Production Board when assigning quotas on Form WPB–2719 (formerly PD–880) or at any other time, may direct any manufacturer in writing to distribute specified amounts of his production for certain purposes or for certain end uses. If at any time the War Production Board finds that the supply of zinc shells for the production of dry cell batteries authorized under paragraph (c) (1) is not sufficient to complete that production, it may direct any manufacturer of dry cell batteries to reduce or cancel his orders for zinc shells, or it may limit the number and type of zinc shells which may be received and used by such manufacturer.

(d) Special restrictions on delivery. (1) No manufacturer shall sell any new portable electric lights except to fill orders rated AA–5 or higher.

(2) No person shall resell any new portable electric lights which he bought from a manufacturer after July 18, 1944, except to fill orders rated AA–5 or higher or orders certified under Priorities Regulation No. 19 as amended from time to time.

(3) No manufacturer shall sell any dry cell batteries knowing or having reason to believe that they will ultimately be used in a radio set designed primarily for the reception of broadcasts on standard wave lengths 550 to 1500 KC, except (i) Batteries having cells designated "D" in Table 1 of Circular C435 with modifications as permitted in section 2.2 of that circular, or larger sized cells than those designated "D", (ii) "C" batteries as described in Table 8 of Circular C435.

(e) Special exemptions. The restrictions contained in paragraphs (b) and (d) do not apply to the manufacture or sale of dry cell batteries or portable electric lights made to fill specific orders calling for delivery to or for the account of the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, War Shipping Administration, Office of Scientific Research and Development, Panama Canal, Coast and Geodetic Survey, or orders approved by the Maritime Commission on Form WPB-646 (formerly PD-300).

(f) Applicability of other orders and regulations. This order and all transactions affected by this order are subject to the applicable regulations of the War Production Board. If any other orders of the War Production Board limits the use of any material in the production of dry cell batteries or portable electric lights to a greater extent than does this order, the other order shall govern unless it states otherwise.

(g) Exceptions and appeals—(1) Production under Priorities Regulation 25. Any person who wants to make more dry cell batteries or portable electric lights than he has been authorized to make on Form WPB-2719 under paragraph (c) (1), and any person who has received no such authorization may apply for permission to do so as explained in Priorities Regulation 25. Sale and other restrictions of the order and any direction to it, with the exception of the manufacturing restrictions of paragraph (c), must be complied with even when authorization to manufacture is obtained under Priorities Regulation 25.

(2) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order, other than the manufacturing restrictions of paragraph (c), should be filed on Form WPB-1477 (in triplicate) with the field office of the War Production Board for the district in which is located the plant or branch of the appellant to which the appeal relates. No appeal should be filed from the manufacturing restrictions of paragraph (c).

(h) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provisions of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making, or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(i) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the War Production Board, Consumers Durable Goods Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: L-71.

(j) Reports. All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports as the War Production Board may specify from time to time, subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

PART 3291—CONSUMERS DURABLE GOODS

[Limitation Order L-104, as Amended, Aug. 19, 1944]

METAL HAIR PINS AND METAL BOB PINS

§ 3291.260 Limitation Order L-104—(a) What this order does. This order states the rules governing the manufacture of metal hair pins and bob pins. It sets quotas for the use of steel in each quarter and also limits the length of each hair pin and bob pin which may be made and the number which may be packaged together.

(b) How much steel may be used. (1) No manufacturer shall use more steel in making hair pins and bob pins than the amount stated below. In each quarter he is limited to a percentage of the steel he used in 1941, the base year. For this purpose the net weight of all the metal hair pins and bob pins made is considered the amount of steel used.

(2) [Deleted Aug. 19, 1944.]

(3) In the quarter from January 1 to March 31, 1944, and in each later quarter, a manufacturer's quota is 12½% of the steel he used in 1941; in other words he may not use steel at a rate greater than 50% of his average rate for 1941.

(4) If a manufacturer is unable to complete in any quarter his full quota of hair pins or bob pins, he may use any unused balance in the first month of the next quarter. This is in addition to his quota for that quarter.

(c) Special restrictions on manufacturing and packaging. (1) No manufacturer shall make hair pins or bob pins of any metal other than carbon steel.

(2) No manufacturer shall make any metal hair pins or bob pins more than two inches long.

(3) No manufacturer shall sell any metal hair pins or metal bob pins in packages or on cards containing more than 100 hair pins or bob pins.

(d) Reports. On January 20, April 20, July 20, and October 20 of each year, beginning October 20, 1943, each manufacturer of metal hair pins and metal bob pins shall file with the War Production Board a report on Form WPB-1600 (formerly PD-655) showing his production and shipments for the preceding quarter. This reporting provision has been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

[1] Formerly Part 1179, § 1179.1.

(e) Applicability of other orders and regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board. In so far as any other order of the War Production Board limits the use of any material in the production of metal hair pins and metal bob pins to a greater extent than the limits imposed by this order, the restrictions of such other order shall govern unless otherwise specified therein.

(f) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(g) Exceptions and appeals—(1) Production under Priorities Regulation 25. Any person who wants to use more steel in making hair pins and bob pins than he is permitted to use by paragraph (b) (including a person who has no quota under this order) may apply for permission to do so as explained in Priorities Regulation 25.

(2) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order, other than the restrictions of paragraph (b), should be filed on Form WPB–1477 (in triplicate) with the field office of the War Production Board for the district in which is located the plant or branch of the appellant to which the appeal relates. No appeal should be filed from the restrictions of paragraph (b).

(h) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the War Production Board, Consumer's Durable Goods Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: L–104.

FLATWARE AND HOLLOW WARE

§ 3291.176 Limitation Order L–140–b—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Restricted flatware" means knives, forks, spoons and similar implements used for eating or serving food at the table, which have metal blades, tines or bowls as well as handles made of metal. It does not include gold or sterling silver flatware, knives with sterling silver or gold handles and steel blades, carving sets, or articles of cutlery covered by Order L–140–a, or any order in the L–30 series.

(2) "Restricted hollow ware" means all articles commonly known as hollow ware in the trade, containing any metal. It does not include gold or sterling silver hollow ware or flatware or any articles covered by any order in the L–30 series, or electrical appliances covered by Order L–65.

(3) "Preferred order" means any purchase order, contract or subcontract for delivery to or for the account of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration, and orders authorized by the Maritime Commission on Form WPB–646. A purchase order placed with a manufacturer by a distributor or dealer to replace in inventory flatware or hollow ware sold on a preferred order, is also a preferred order. Orders from Post Exchanges, Ships' Service Stores, Officers' and Enlisted Men's Service Clubs on military or naval reservations are not preferred orders.

(4) "Manufacturer" means any person engaged in the business of making, assembling or plating any restricted flatware or restricted hollow ware or any parts for such ware.

(5) "Distributor" means any person or firm other than a retail dealer engaged in the business of selling restricted flatware or restricted hollow ware not manufactured by that firm.

(b) Restriction on the production of restricted flatware. (1) No person shall manufacture any restricted flatware for any orders except according to a quota approved by the War Production Board on Form WPB–2719, which must be filed with the War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: L–140–b, on or before the 15th day of November, February, May and August. When one person makes restricted flatware and another person plates it, this restriction applies only to the first person.

(2) The War Production Board will assign production quotas to meet approved requirements. Total production which would exceed such requirements will not be authorized. No person will be authorized to produce flatware if that production would interfere with his or other war production. Production will be authorized so as to avoid increased labor requirements in labor shortage areas. The War Production Board will give notice to each manufacturer of the total and individual authorizations.

(c) Restrictions on production of restricted hollow ware. (1) No manufacturer shall make or assemble any restricted hollow ware.

(2) The restrictions of paragraph (c) (1) do not apply to restricted hollow ware made to fill preferred orders actually received.

(d) No specifications for restricted flatware for preferred orders. Restricted flatware made to fill preferred orders may be made from any material and according to any specifications called for in the preferred order.

(e) Metal restrictions and specifications for restricted flatware for other than preferred orders. (1) No person shall use any metal in the manufacture of restricted flatware made for other than preferred orders, except metals listed in Schedule A.

(2) No manufacturer shall make any restricted flatware for other than preferred orders except knives, dessert size forks, dessert spoons and teaspoons.

(3) All carbon steel silver plated restricted flatware made for other than preferred orders shall be plated with an undercoating of nickel of an average thickness of 0.0002 inch and the whole metal coating of nickel and silver shall be of an average thickness of not less than 0.0005 inch.

(4) Restricted flatware made for other than preferred orders shall not be made of any metal of a lighter gauge than 0.050 inch for teaspoons, 0.055 inch for dessert spoons and 0.065 inch for dessert forks.

(f) Distribution of stainless steel restricted flatware. (1) No manufacturer or distributor shall sell any stainless steel restricted flatware except to fill preferred orders, or to manufacturers, distributors, hospitals, institutions for the aged, sick or poor, prisons, educational institutions, orphanages, hotels, restaurants, canteens, clubs, cafeterias, lunch rooms, lunch counters, and public eating places (including those operated by common carriers), Officers, and Enlisted Men's Service Clubs; and the following Post Exchanges and Ship's Service Departments for use on the premises in eating places operated by them: U. S. Army or Marine Corps Post Exchanges, U. S. Navy or Coast Guard Ship's Service Departments, and War Shipping Administration Training Organization Ship's Service activities.

(2) No manufacturer or distributor shall sell stainless steel restricted flatware for export, except to Officers' and Enlisted Men's Service Clubs and to the Post Exchanges and Ship's Service Departments listed in paragraph (f) (1) for use on the premises in eating places operated by them.

(g) Reports. Each manufacturer shall file Form WPB–2719 (formerly PD–880) showing the amount of restricted flatware manufactured according to the instructions accompanying that form.

(h) Applicability of other orders and regulations. This order and all transactions affected by this order are subject to the applicable regulations of the War Production Board. If any other order of the War Production Board limits the use of any material in the production of flatware and hollow ware to a greater extent than does this order, the other order shall govern unless it states otherwise.

(i) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(j) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the War Production Board, Consumers Durable Goods Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: L-140-b.

PART 3291—CONSUMERS DURABLE GOODS

[Limitation Order L-227, as Amended Aug. 19, 1944]

FOUNTAIN PENS AND MECHANICAL PENCILS

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of materials and certain facilities used in the production of fountain pens and mechanical pencils for defense, for private account and for export, and it is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense to continue restrictions on the production of those articles but to modify the restrictions by assigning individual quotas to producers, instead of a general percentage of 1941 production, so as to give small producers a proportionately larger share in the production, to adjust production in the light of critical shortages of manpower in certain areas, and to adjust production on account of changes since 1941 with respect to location of plants and nature of products. At the same time materials restrictions are being somewhat relaxed to permit the use of certain materials which have become less scarce.

§ 3291.210 Limitation Order L-227—(a) Effect on outstanding authorizations. This order and the quotas assigned in Schedule A supersede all authorizations for the manufacture, assembly or delivery of fountain pens or mechanical pencils granted by the War Production Board, on appeal or otherwise, before April 1, 1944.

(b) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Fountain pen" means a writing device which can hold more fluid than that retained by capillary attraction on the surface of its pen nib. A dip pen is a fountain pen whether or not a pen nib is attached to it.

(2) "Mechanical pencil" means a writing instrument having a movable core of marking material encased in a housing.

(3) "Part" means any part made specifically for incorporation into a fountain pen or mechanical pencil.

(4) "Special order" means any purchase order, contract or subcontract calling for delivery:

(i) To or for the account of the Jersey City Quartermaster Depot of the United States Army, bearing Symbol No. W-1913-QM or 28-021-QM; or to or for the account of the Procurement and Accounting Division of the Office of the Secretary of War, or to or for the account of the Corps of Engineers of the United States Army for civilian functions;

(ii) To or for the account of the Navy (including ship service stores and Marine Post Exchanges);

(iii) To or for the account of the Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration;

(iv) Outside the United States, its territories and possessions if it bears an export license issued by the Foreign Economic Administration.

(5) "Civilian production" means production of fountain pens or mechanical pencils for any order, contract or subcontract not included in special orders. It includes production for inventory other than production for anticipated special orders as permitted by this order. It does not include production for direct orders from Army Post Exchanges, and such orders may not be filled at all.

(c) Restrictions on manufacture and delivery of fountain pens and mechanical pencils. (1) During the calendar quarter beginning April 1, 1944, and during each calendar quarter after that until further notice from the War Production Board, no manufacturer shall make, assemble, or deliver any fountain pens or mechanical pencils for any purpose, except that each manufacturer listed on Schedule A may make or assemble at the location listed on that schedule and may deliver the quota of pens and pencils indicated after his name on the schedule for special orders and civilian production respectively.

(2) Any manufacturer who is not assigned a quota on Schedule A but who actually produced fountain pens or mechanical pencils during the first calendar quarter of 1944, in compliance with applicable orders and regulations of the War Production Board, is hereby assigned a provisional production and delivery quota during the second calendar quarter of 1944 only, for combined civilian production and special orders of one-half the amount of fountain pens and mechanical pencils, respectively, actually made by him during the first quarter of 1944. Any such manufacturer, and any other manufacturer who is not assigned a quota on Schedule A, may file an application with the War Production Board for a quota. Also, a manufacturer who wishes a quota increased or who wishes to manufacture at a location other than the one listed on the schedule may make application.

(d) Materials restrictions for fountain pens, mechanical pencils and parts. No person shall use any copper, copper base alloy, or crude, reclaimed or synthetic rubber in the manufacture of fountain pens, mechanical pencils or parts except:

(1) Copper in the production of silver or 14 karat gold pen nibs; and

(2) Crude, reclaimed or synthetic rubber as permitted in Rubber Order R-1, as amended, or any relief granted on appeal under that order.

(e) Special restrictions on plating. No person shall use in the manufacture of fountain pens, mechanical pencils or parts, any plating, coating or other metal finish containing:

(1) Tin, cadmium or nickel; or

(2) Copper unless permitted by Order M-9-c.

(f) Distribution of civilian production. In any case where a distributor of fountain pens or mechanical pencils either under his own brand name or under the name of the manufacturer is unable to get what he considers an equitable share of the civilian production of fountain pens or mechanical pencils he may apply to the War Production Board on Form WPB-547 for a rating.

(g) Special restrictions on purchase and sale of fountain pen parts. No person shall buy or accept delivery of any fountain pen parts except for the manufacture, production and assembly of fountain pens (including dip pens) as permitted by this order or for use or resale as repair parts. No person shall sell or deliver any fountain pen parts if he knows or has reason to believe that the purchaser is getting them in violation of this provision.

(h) Reports. Each manufacturer who makes fountain pens or mechanical pencils shall file within 15 days after the close of each calendar quarter a report of his production on Form WPB–1600 in accordance with the filing instructions for that form.

(i) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(j) Exceptions and appeals—(1) Production under Priorities Regulation 25. Any person who wants to make, assemble, or deliver more fountain pens and mechanical pencils than his quota as fixed in Schedule A, or who wishes to make, assemble or deliver any of those products in a plant at a different location than is stated in that Schedule; and any person who does not have a quota for the manufacture of fountain pens and mechanical pencils under this order may apply for permission to manufacture, assemble and deliver fountain pens and mechanical pencils as explained in Priorities Regulation 25. Applications for quotas or, for increase of quotas, may, of course, still be made under paragraph (c) (2).

(2) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order, other than the quota restrictions in paragraph (c), should be filed on Form WPB–1477 (in triplicate) with the field office of the War Production Board for the district in which is located the plant or branch of the appellant to which the appeal relates. No appeal should be filed from the quota restrictions of paragraph (c).

(k) Applicability of other orders and regulations. This order and all transactions affected by this order are subject to the applicable regulations of the War Production Board. If any other order of the War Production Board limits the use of any material in the production of fountain pens and mechanical pencils to a greater extent than does this order, the other order shall govern unless it states otherwise.

(l) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the War Production Board, Consumers Durable Goods Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: L–227.

NOTE: The reporting requirements in this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

SCHEDULE A

(1) Pursuant to paragraph (c) of Limitation Order L–227, the following production and delivery quotas for fountain pens and mechanical pencils are hereby established for the calendar quarter beginning April 1, 1944, and for each calendar quarter after that until further notice from the War Production Board.

(2) Each manufacturer listed may make and deliver the number of fountain pens and mechanical pencils set forth opposite his name for special orders and civilian production respectively.

(3) Quotas for special orders, include special orders actually on hand and received and also anticipated special orders, but the amount made for anticipated special orders by any one manufacturer listed may not in any event exceed 50% of his quarterly production quota for civilian production.

(4) Manufacturers may make their quotas only at the locations stated on the Schedule.

(5) In assigning production and delivery quotas the War Production Board has been guided by the following general policies:

(i) Manufacturers in Group 1 and Group 2 labor areas and manufacturers whose facilities are substantially engaged in war work have not been assigned quotas which would permit them to increase their production above the amounts actually produced in the fourth calendar quarter of 1943.

(ii) Small manufacturers producing less than 100,000 units in 1941 have been given a larger percentage of their pre-war production than larger manufacturers.

(iii) The War Production Board has attempted to allocate production to fill special orders so that all manufacturers making a pen or pencil which will satisfy military requirements will have a chance to secure special order business.

PART 3291—CONSUMERS DURABLE GOODS

[General Limitation Order L–267, as Amended Aug. 19, 1944]

PHOTOGRAPHIC AND PROJECTION EQUIPMENT, ACCESSORIES, AND PARTS

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of iron, steel and other critical materials for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3291.145 General Limitation Order L–267—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Restricted photographic equipment" includes any of the following, when containing any critical materials except in joining hardware: Still cameras (except aerial), motion picture cameras (except aerial gun sight aiming point), motion picture projectors (except 35 mm. motion picture projectors), still projectors and enlargers. It does not include: (i) any equipment covered by Limitation Order L–54–c (office machinery); (ii) Any equipment covered by Limitation Order L–206 (X-ray equipment); (iii) X-ray tanks, X-ray hangers, X-ray illuminators, X-ray driers and X-ray cabinets; (iv) Any equipment covered by Limitation Order L–226 (printing and publishing machinery, parts and supplies); (v) Any equipment covered by Limitation Order L–190 (scales, balances and weights).

(2) "Restricted photographic accessories" includes any of the following, when containing any critical materials except in joining hardware or fasteners: Camera accessories, 16 mm and 8 mm projection accessories, 35 mm reels and cans, darkroom and studio accessories, photographic lenses in mounts, photographic shutters for still cameras other than built-in shutters, and photographic carrying cases.

(3) "Critical materials" means iron, carbon steel, alloy steel, zinc, copper and copper base alloy.

(4) "To put into process" means the first change by a manufacturer in the form of material (whether raw, semi or fully fabricated material) from that form in which it is received by him, or the first assembly by a manufacturer of material which is not changed in form, when the change or assembly takes place in the production of restricted photographic equipment, restricted photographic accessories or parts for those products.

(5) "Preferred order" means any purchase order or contract for the Account of the Army, Aircraft Resources Control Office (ARCO), Navy, Coast Guard, Marine Corps, Maritime Commission, Office of Strategic Services, or armed forces of foreign governments allied to the United States, or any order stating on its face that the products ordered are for eventual delivery to one of those organizations.

(b) Production of certain cameras and projectors prohibited. No manufacturer shall make or assemble portable hand cameras of the amateur box or fixed focus type, amateur 8 mm cameras, 8 mm projectors or parts for such products.

(c) Restrictions on production and delivery for preferred orders. (1) No manufacturer shall produce or deliver any restricted photographic equipment, restricted photographic accessories, or parts for such equipment or accessories to fill preferred orders, except in accordance with quotas specifically approved by the War Production Board on Form WPB–3038.

(2) Each manufacturer must file Form WPB–3038 with the War Production Board on or before the fifteenth of March, June, September and December, showing his proposed production and delivery for preferred orders.

(3) In passing on these forms it will be the general policy of the War Production Board to distribute preferred orders for restricted photographic equipment, restricted photographic accessories, and parts for such equipment and accessories throughout the industry, taking into consideration the productive capacities of the various plants, the needs of the preferred claimants, the adaptability of various plants to the production of the specific items ordered, and the nature of the labor market. The War Production Board will give notice to all manufacturers of the total estimated dollar value of preferred order shipments and the individual percentage of such total tentatively allocated to each manufacturer.

(d) Restrictions on production for other than preferred orders. (1) No manufacturer shall put into process in any calendar quarter to fill other than preferred orders more critical material than 12% of the average quarterly amount (by weight) of critical materials put into process by him in 1941.

(2) The restrictions on the use of critical materials in paragraph (d) (1) do not apply to critical materials put into process in the production of the following items to fill other than preferred orders: photographic lenses in mounts, photographic shutters, other than built-in shutters, film reels and cans, photo copy equipment, identification equipment, micro filming equipment. However, these items shall not be manufactured except according to a quota approved under paragraph (d) (3).

(3) No manufacturer shall produce any restricted photographic equipment, restricted photographic accessories or parts for such equipment or accessories for other than preferred orders, except according to quotas specifically approved by the War Production Board on Form WPB–3038.

(4) Each manufacturer must file Form WPB–3038 with the War Production Board on or before the fifteenth of March, June, September and December, showing his proposed production and delivery for other than preferred orders.

(e) Restrictions on delivery for other than preferred orders. No manufacturer shall deliver any new restricted photographic equipment or new photographic accessories or new parts for those products for other than preferred orders except:

(1) To fill an order bearing a rating of AA–5 or higher.

(2) As authorized by the War Production Board on Form WPB–1319 in response to an application on that form filed with the nearest field office of the War Production Board.

(3) Any restricted photographic accessory or restricted photographic equipment which has a manufacturer's list price, including federal excise tax, of ten (10) dollars or less.

(4) Any part for restricted photographic accessories or restricted photographic equipment delivered to a manufacturer for use in the production of those products as permitted by this order.

(5) Any part for use as a repair or replacement part.

(f) Applicability of regulations and other orders. This order and all transactions affected by this order are subject to the applicable regulations of the War Production Board. If any other order of the War Production Board limits the use of any material in the production of restricted photographic equipment, restricted photographic accessories, or parts for such equipment and accessories to a greater extent than does this order, the other order shall govern unless it states otherwise.

(g) Exceptions and appeals—(1) Production under Priorities Regulation 25. Any person who wants to make or assemble portable hand cameras of the amateur box or fixed focus type, amateur 8 mm cameras, 8 mm projectors or parts for such products, and any person who wants to make more restricted photographic equipment or restricted photographic accessories than he has been authorized to make on Form WPB–3038 either under paragraph (e) (1) or (d) (3) (including a person who has no such authorization) and any person who wants to put into process more critical materials to fill other than preferred orders than the quota fixed in paragraph (d) (1) (including a person who has no quota under that paragraph) may apply for permission as explained in Priorities Regulation 25. The delivery restrictions of paragraph (c) (1) do not apply to articles so produced. A person may still, of course, apply on Form WPB–3038 under paragraphs (c) (2) or (d) (4) for permission to produce restricted photographic equipment, photographic accessories or parts.

(2) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order other than the restrictions of paragraphs (b), (c) (1), (d) (1) and (d) (3) shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate with the War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C., Reference Order L–267, referring to the particular provisions appealed from and stating the grounds of the appeal. No appeal should be filed from the restrictions of paragraphs (b), (c) (1), (d) (1) or (d) (3).

(h) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

PART 1001—TIN

[General Preference Order M–43, as Amended Aug. 21, 1944]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of tin for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1001.1 General Preference Order M–43—(a) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(b) Applicability of order. The prohibitions and restrictions contained in this order shall apply to the use of material in all items or articles hereafter manufactured irrespective of whether such items or articles are manufactured pursuant to a contract made prior or subsequent to January 10, 1944, or pursuant to a contract supported by an allotment symbol or a preference rating. Insofar as any other order of the War Production Board may have the effect of limiting or curtailing to a greater extent than herein provided the use of tin in the production of any items or article, the limitations of such other order shall be observed.

(c) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Tin" means and includes both pig tin and secondary tin.

(2) "Pig tin" means metal containing 98% or more by weight of the element tin, in shapes current in the trade (including anodes, small bars, and ingots) produced from ores, residues or scrap.

(3) "Secondary tin" means any material (except tin plate and terne plate as those terms are defined in Supplementary Order M-21-c) which contains less than 98% but not less than 1.5% by weight of the element tin.

(4) "Manufacture" means to fabricate, assemble, melt, cast, extrude, roll, turn, spin, produce, coat, or process in any way, but does not include the processing of tin ore, concentrates, residues or scrap into metallic tin.

(5) "Inventory" of a person includes the inventory of affiliates and subsidiaries of such person, and the inventory of others where such inventory is under the control of or under common control with, or available for the use of such person.

(6) "Implements of war" means combat end-products, complete for tactical operations (including, but not limited to, aircraft, ammunition, armaments, weapons, ships, tanks, military vehicles and radio and radar equipment), and any parts, assemblies or materials to be incorporated in any of the foregoing items. This term does not include facilities or equipment used to manufacture the foregoing items.

(7) "Base period" means the corresponding calendar quarter of 1940.

(8) "Distributor" means any person regularly engaged in the business of buying and selling tin, and includes warehousemen and jobbers.

(d) General restrictions on use of tin. (1) No product or article or part thereof shall be manufactured of pig tin if it is possible to use secondary tin for such purpose.

(2) No tin in any form shall be used in the manufacture of any item or in any process appearing on List A of this order; nor shall tin be used for any purpose except to manufacture the items or for the purposes listed in Schedule I, II, III or IV of this order, and then, only within the limitations and restrictions specified in Schedule I, II, III or IV with respect to such item or purpose.

(e) Restrictions on the use of certain tin products. Except with the specific permission in writing of the War Production Board granted pursuant to appeal under paragraph (k) no person shall use any of the tin-bearing products on List B of this order in the manufacture or treating of any other product or article; Provided, That when any such tin-bearing product is listed in Schedule I, II, III or IV it may be used for the purposes for which it is permitted to be manufactured as specified in Schedule I, II, III or IV.

(f) Restrictions on deliveries. (1) No person shall deliver or accept delivery of pig tin without the specific authorization in writing of the War Production Board; Provided, however, That in the absence of a contrary direction by the War Production Board, pig tin may be delivered without specific authorization:

(i) To the Metals Reserve Company or to any other corporation organized under section 5(d) of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act as amended (15 U. S. C., sec. 606 (b)), or to any duly authorized agent of any such corporation.

(ii) By any distributor in lots of three long tons or less up to but not exceeding a total of five long tons to any one customer in the same calendar month; Provided, That the aggregate of such deliveries which any person may receive from all distributors pursuant to the authority of this paragraph shall in no event exceed five long tons in any calendar month; and provided further, that any person seeking such a delivery shall, at the time of placing his purchase order, file with the distributor a statement substantially in the following form, signed manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 7 by an official duly authorized for such purpose:

The undersigned hereby certifies:

(a) That no allocation of pig tin has been made to the undersigned by the War Production Board during the calendar month in which delivery of the pig tin covered by the accompanying purchase order is specified;

(b) That such pig tin if delivered will not cause the undersigned's total receipts of pig tin from all distributors during the same calendar month pursuant to the authorization of paragraph (f) of General Preference Order M-43, as amended, to exceed five long tons; and

(c) That such pig tin will not be used or disposed of by the undersigned in violation of any order or regulation of the War Production Board.

(Name of purchaser)

By _____
(Duly authorized official)

(2) On or before the 10th day of each calendar month, each distributor shall report to the War Production Board in such form and detail as said Board may from time to time prescribe, (subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942) his transactions in all pig tin during the previous month.

(g) Allocations. The War Production Board will from time to time allocate the supply of pig tin, including all pig tin released by the Metals Reserve Company, and issue specific directions as to the source, destination, and the amount of pig tin to be delivered or acquired. The War Production Board may also specifically direct the purposes and end products for which any person may convert, process or fabricate pig tin allocated to him.

(h) Applications for, and reports of pig tin. Application for allocations of pig tin or for specific authorization to accept delivery thereof under paragraph (f) shall be made to the War Production Board not later than the 20th day of the month next preceding the month in which delivery is desired, on Form WPB-412 or such other form as the War Production Board may from time to time prescribe. Any person who on the first day of a calendar month has in his possession or under his control two long tons or more of pig tin or who used during the preceding calendar month, 3,000 pounds or more of pig tin, shall, not later than the 20th day of such month, report to the War Production Board on Form WPB-412 in accordance with the instructions accompanying such form, regardless of whether or not he seeks an allocation of pig tin or specific authorization to accept delivery thereof during the next succeeding month.

(i) Prohibitions against sales or deliveries with knowledge of intended misuse. Notwithstanding the authorization by the War Production Board of a sale or delivery of tin, no person shall sell or deliver any tin or tin-bearing material or product thereof in the form of raw materials, semi-processed materials, finished parts or sub-assemblies to any person if he knows or has reason to believe such material or any product thereof is to be used in violation of the terms of this order. A supplier may rely upon the written statement of the customer seeking delivery of any such material, as to the purposes for which it will be used, unless the supplier knows or has reason to believe such statement to be false, and any such statement shall constitute on the part of the person making the same, a representation to the War Production Board within the meaning of section 35 (A) of the United States Criminal Code, 18 U. S. C. Sec. 80.

(j) Limitation on inventories. No person shall receive delivery of tin, or products thereof, in the form of raw materials, semi-processed materials, finished parts or sub-assemblies nor shall he put into process any raw material, in quantities which in either case shall result in an inventory of such raw, semi-processed or finished material in excess of a minimum practicable working inventory, taking into consideration the limitations placed upon the production of tin products by this order. In the absence of special permission to acquire or hold a greater supply of pig tin, forty-five days' inventory of such tin shall, for the purpose of this order, be deemed a practicable working inventory for any person except a manufacturer of tin plate as tin plate is defined in Supplementary Order M-21-c, as from time to time amended. Application for such special permission shall be made by letter to the War Production Board setting forth fully the facts upon which the applicant relies.

(k) Appeals and communications. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal. Appeals, reports and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the War Production Board, Tin and Lead Division, Washington 25, D. C., reference: M-43.

(l) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

Issued this 21st day of August 1944.

The tin content of all solder used in the manufacture of "Implements of War", where required by specifications, is wholly exempt from this quota restriction.

SCHEDULE III—BABBITT

In the manufacture of babbitt metal and similar alloys used as babbitt, the tin content shall be limited as follows, according to the purpose for which it is to be used: Provided, however, (1) That no manufacturer or wholesale distributor of babbitt shall deliver any babbitt containing more than 12% tin by weight to any wholesale distributor of babbitt, and no wholesale distributor of babbitt shall accept delivery from a manufacturer or another wholesale distributor, unless the wholesale distributor shall have furnished the manufacturer or other wholesale distributor with a statement on his purchase order to the effect that he will not re-sell such babbitt containing more than 12% tin by weight to any user unless he has received the certificate from the user called for by this order; and (2) that no manufacturer of babbitt or wholesale distributor of babbitt shall deliver any babbitt containing more than 12% tin by weight to any user, and no user shall accept delivery of any babbitt containing more than 12% tin by weight from any manufacturer of babbitt or wholesale distributor of babbitt, unless the user shall have furnished the manufacturer or wholesale distributor with the following certificate.

The undersigned purchaser certifies, subject to the penalties of section 35 (A) of the United States Criminal Code, to the seller and to the War Production Board that the tin contained in the material covered by this order shall be used solely for the purpose listed in Schedule _____ section ____ of General Preference Order M-43, or is to be incorporated in an "Implement of War" and the tin content of the material has been definitely specified.

1. Repair, maintenance or replacement in existing diesel engines, turbines, locomotive connecting rod or coupling rod bearings, and irrigation water pumping engines and equipment—not more than 90% tin by weight.

2. Manufacture, repair, maintenance or replacement of multivane crosshead linings in locomotives and for lining aluminum crossheads—no restriction.

3. Repair, maintenance or replacement in an industrial engine, compressor, or pump being used by operator engaged in the petroleum industry: Provided, In any such case, that any priorities assistance required for such repair, maintenance or replacement is obtained in accordance with Preference Rating Order P-98-b, as amended—not more than 90% tin by weight.

4. Repair, maintenance or replacement in vessels or shipping facilities pursuant to a preference rating duly established or assigned by the United States Maritime Commission—not more than 90% tin by weight.

5. Manufacture, repair, maintenance or replacement of connecting rod and main engine bearings for trucks and tractors, and for passenger carriers having a seating capacity of not less than 11 persons as defined in Limitation Order L-158—not more than 90% tin by weight.

6. For all other purposes—not more than 12% tin by weight and only secondary tin shall be used.

The total quantity of tin which any person may use in the manufacture of babbitt metal, or other similar alloys used as babbitt, during any calendar quarter, shall be limited to 40% of the quantity used by him in the manufacture of babbitt during the base period. The tin content of all babbitt used in the manufacture of "Implements of War", where required by specifications, is wholly exempt from this quota restriction.

SCHEDULE IV—BRASS AND BRONZE

A. CAST ALLOYS

(1) Restrictions on new uses of copper-base alloy foundry products. The restrictions of this sub-paragraph are in addition to those contained elsewhere in this order and in other orders and regulations of the War Production Board. No person shall use for any purpose in manufacture, any copper-base alloy foundry product, either rough or finished, containing more than 74% copper or 2% tin, unless one or more of the following conditions is satisfied:

(i) He was lawfully using copper-base alloy for the particular purpose some time during the last six months of 1943;

(ii) A War Production Board order or regulation specifically allows an alloy with a higher copper or tin content;

(iii) The specifications of the Army or Navy of the United States, the U. S. Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration, applicable to the contract, sub-contract or purchase order call for an alloy with a higher copper or tin content, or

(iv) He has been specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board to use an alloy with a higher copper or tin content. (Applications for specific authorization under this sub-paragraph to use copper-base alloy foundry products containing more than 74% copper or 2% tin, where such use would otherwise be in violation of the restrictions stated above, should be made by letter in duplicate addressed to the Copper Division of the War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M-9-c. A provision similar to this paragraph (1) appears in Order M-9-c and one application is sufficient under both Orders M-9-c and M-43.)

(2) General restrictions. In any case where the tin content of brass or bronze foundry products used by a person is not restricted by the provisions of paragraph (1) of this Schedule IV, the tin content of the brass and bronze foundry products which he uses shall be limited as follows, according to the purpose for which such products are used:

(a) For the manufacture of high ratio worm gears, fire engine pump gears, jack nuts, feed nuts, elevating nuts, thrust washers or disks, machine tool spindle bearings, hydraulic pump bodies and ends for gear pumps, grinder spindle sleeve bearings or step bearings—not more than 12% tin by weight.

(b) For the manufacture of heavy, slow cooling castings (such as, for example, steel mill screw-down nuts) where the performance characteristics require that the alpha-delta eutectoid must be retained—not more than 18% tin by weight.

(c) For the manufacture of piston rings for airbrake equipment—not more than 21.5% tin by weight.

(d) For the manufacture of piston rings for locomotives—not more than 20% tin by weight.

(e) For all other purposes, a maximum tin content of 9% tin by weight, unless the lead content of the alloy is equal to, or greater than, the tin content, and in such event, not to exceed 12% tin by weight.

B. WROUGHT ALLOYS

(3) Restrictions on new uses of wrought copper-base alloy products. The restrictions of this sub-paragraph are in addition to those contained elsewhere in this order and in other orders and regulations of the War Production Board. No person shall use for any purpose in manufacture, any wrought copper-base alloy product, containing more than 2% tin, unless one or more of the following conditions is satisfied:

(i) He was lawfully using copper-base alloy for the particular purpose some time during the last six months of 1943;

(ii) A War Production Board order or regulation specifically allows an alloy with a higher tin content;

(iii) The specifications of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration, applicable to the contract, subcontract or purchase order call for an alloy with a higher tin content; or

(iv) He has been specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board to use an alloy with a higher tin content. (Applications for specific authorization under this sub-paragraph to use wrought copper-base alloy products containing more than 2% tin, where such use would otherwise be in violation of the restrictions stated above, should be made by letter in duplicate addressed to the Tin and Lead Division of the War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M-43.)

(4) General restrictions. In any case where the tin content of wrought brass or bronze products used by a person is not restricted by the provisions of paragraph (3) of this Schedule IV, the tin content of the wrought brass and bronze products which he uses shall be limited as follows, according to the purpose for which such products are used:

(i) For the manufacture of thermostatic discs or diaphragms, bronze welding rods, fourdrinier warp wire or rifle nuts in air hammers—not more than 9% tin by weight.

(ii) For all other purposes—not more than 5.8% tin by weight.

PART 1029—FARM MACHINERY

[Limitation Order L-257, Direction 4 as Amended Aug. 21, 1944]

SPECIAL APPLICATIONS FOR ADDITIONAL QUOTA

The following direction is issued pursuant to Limitation Order L-257:

(a) What this direction does. In order to encourage the use of "idle and excess" inventories in making more farm machinery and equipment, the War Production Board has set up a reserve of 15,000 tons of carbon steel (and other controlled materials in proportion) for delivery under third quarter 1944 allotments. This direction states the rules on how this reserve is to be given out to manufacturers and covers all persons who can qualify even if they are not "producers" as defined in paragraph (b) (1) of Order L-257. Thus, if you can make more than your L-257 quota under these rules, this direction tells you how to apply for the necessary permission.

(b) How to apply. If you want to make more than your quota of any item of farm machinery and equipment (as listed in schedule B of Order L-257), you must apply on Form WPB-3788 in accordance with the instructions on the form. You can get copies of this form from your local WPB field office. When you have filled out the form, you should send it to your local WPB Field Office. If you need any allotment of controlled material, you should also accompany your application with Form CMP-4B as explained in the above instructions.

(c) Date for filing applications. To be assured of consideration under this direction, your application should be received not later than September 15, 1944.

(d) Standards to be used in granting applications. In its consideration of applications properly filed under this direction, the War Production Board will be guided by the following standards:

(1) Extent to which you can match any allotments of controlled material needed with maximum use of "idle and excess" materials. Your local WPB field office will tell you what these materials are and how to get them. In general, they include materials which you can buy under Priorities Regulation 13, and surplus inventories on hand (excluding material obtained with priorities assistance to make your regular quotas as described in paragraph (e) (3) below), as well as used material which you can get without priorities assistance.

(2) Critical materials and components. It is not expected your application will be granted if it involves substantial allotments of the following critical materials:

STEEL

Plates
Sheet
Strips
Tin mill products
Forgings
Seamless tubing
Wire rope and strand

COPPER AND COPPER BASE ALLOY PRODUCTS

Rod ½" and smaller
Fine wire
Cable
Tubing 4" and over

Likewise, your application will not be granted if it appears that critical non-controlled materials or components will be needed, i. e., those which you could not get with a rating of AA-4.

(3) Labor requirements. The following are the standards with respect to labor:

(i) In general, there are no restrictions as to labor requirements for "small plants", i. e., if your plant employs and will continue to employ 100 production workers or less (50 or less in the critical West Coast labor areas of San Diego, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Portland and Seattle).

(ii) However, for small plants in any of the above West Coast areas, or in any other Group #1 Labor Market Area where an Area Production Urgency Committee has been established, the exemption in subparagraph (i) above will apply only if your proposed production under this direction will not cause any increase in your total employment of production workers. For example, if you have a plant employing 35 production workers in the San Francisco Labor Area, you will qualify under this exemption only as long as you will not need to hire any additional production workers. Otherwise, you are governed by the rule set out in (iv) below.

(iii) If your plant is in a Group #3 or #4 (or unclassified) Labor Market Area and is not a small plant under (i) above, the standard is whether or not your proposed production in that plant, or the labor requirements for it, will interfere with war production in that plant or in any other plant located in the same area.

(iv) If your plant is in a Group #1 or #2 Labor Market Area and is not exempted under (i) and (ii) above, your application will not be granted except in unusual circumstances.

(e) Authorizations to produce. Any application properly filed under this direction and conforming to the required standards may be granted by the War Production Board. This grant will be in the form of an authorized production schedule and any necessary allotments on Form CMPL-150 or other applicable form. If you get such an authorization, you are governed by the following provisions unless the authorization states otherwise:

(1) You must schedule your production of the item as if the orders for it bore a rating of AA-4.

(2) You may use a rating of AA-4 to get non-controlled materials and components

(no "upratings" will be granted under any circumstances). You may not use the rating of AA-6 which may have been assigned to the production of your regular quotas under L-257.

(3) You may not use materials or components obtained or to be obtained with allotments or preference ratings for the manufacture of farm machinery and equipment or repair parts under your regular quotas. You may use other materials in your own inventory obtained with priorities assistance, but only as permitted under paragraph (u) of CMP Regulation 1 (for controlled materials) and in § 944.11 of Priorities Regulation 1 (for other materials).

(4) Use of lumber is subject to Order L-338 and any other applicable WPB orders.

(5) You must file by October 10, 1944, an interim report of what you have produced through September 30 under the authorization, and a final report, if necessary, when the production is completed. These reports should be by letter (and not on Form WPB-1768).

(f) Small plants do not need special permission in certain cases. Direction 3 to Order L-257 removes quota restrictions on certain small plants who can make items without needing any allotments of controlled material or other priorities assistance higher than a rating of AA-4. If you qualify under that Direction 3, you do not have to apply for permission under this Direction 4. However, if you need any allotment to make more than your regular quota of farm machinery and equipment, you may apply for and must get permission under this direction.

(g) Order L-257. To the extent that any provision of this direction is inconsistent with the terms of Order L-257, the provision in this direction controls.

NOTE: The reporting requirements in this direction have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

PART 1226—GENERAL INDUSTRIAL EQUIPMENT

DICHLORODIFLUOROMETHANE

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of dichlorodifluoromethane for defense, for private account, and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense.

§ 1226.27 Conservation Order M-28—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "F-12 gas" means dichlorodifluoromethane (sometimes called "freon-12").

(2) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency or any organized group of persons whether incorporated or not.

(3) "Producer" means any person engaged in the production of F-12 gas.

(4) "Supplier" means any person to the extent that he is engaged in the business of distributing F-12 gas to persons using the same for installation in refrigerating or air conditioning systems. The term shall include an equipment manufacturer to the extent that he engages in the sale of F-12 gas which has not been installed in such systems. "System" means any "system" as defined in General Limitation Order L-38.

(5) "Equipment manufacturer" means any person to the extent that he uses F-12 gas for charging new refrigerating or air conditioning systems or parts of systems manufactured by him. It does not include affiliates, subsidiaries, branches, divisions or sections or an enterprise, if not actually engaged in the manufacture of systems or refrigerant containing parts of systems.

(6) "Insecticide manufacturer" means any person to the extent that he uses F-12 gas in the production of insecticide.

(7) "User" means any person who installs F-12 gas in a refrigerating or air-conditioning system, other than an equipment manufacturer. It includes suppliers, service agencies, owners or lessees, to the extent that they engage in installing F-12 gas in any system.

(8) "Contract agent" means any person to whom or for whose account F-12 gas is delivered by a producer for distribution to suppliers.

(If the same person, or two or more branches, divisions or sections of the same enterprise, acts in two or more capacities as contract agent, supplier, equipment manufacturer, or insecticide manufacturer, the particular provisions of this order which apply to the respective activities must be followed, to the extent to which the various provisions are applicable to each activity.)

(b) Systems for which no deliveries are permitted. (1) No person (including users, dealers, and other suppliers, and producers) shall deliver, or accept delivery of, any F-12 gas for use in, or for resale for use in any new or used system which is of a type referred to in List A. Exceptions from this restriction may be authorized in the following cases (although this does not preclude appeals under paragraph (f) (4) in other cases):

(i) When the major portion of the space to be air conditioned is used as a radio broadcasting studio, auditorium, hotel, restaurant, cafeteria, school, office or office building, or department store, and one of the following conditions exists: The building is "windowless" or one in which the windows cannot be opened for ventilation (such as glass brick, or glass set in a fixed frame which was built into the surrounding wall in an immovable way); or the rooms needing air conditioning are interior ones having no other means of adequate ventilation and are either served by a separate system or constitute a major portion of the space regularly occupied by persons and are served by one central system; or

(ii) When the system is used to air condition a room or rooms in a single family residence or a single apartment and its continued operation is essential to protect the life or restore the health of a person suffering from a serious ailment or disease and under care of a licensed physician, and a statement to that effect by such physician is also furnished with the application referred to below.

Application for WPB permission to get F-12 gas for such a use should be made by the owner or operator of the system by letter in duplicate (or in an emergency, by wire confirmed immediately by letter) to War Production Board, General Industrial Equipment Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref. M-28 giving the address and a description of the building(s) in which the system is located and stating the extent to which the system comes within either of the cases described above, the quantity of F-12 gas needed, and the name and address of the probable supplier. The authorization, if granted, will be sent to the applicant, who should show it to his supplier when requesting delivery, in addition to furnishing the certification required under paragraph (c) (2) below.

(2) During the period from November 12, 1943, through September 30, 1944, no person (including users, dealers, and other suppliers, and producers), shall deliver, or accept delivery of, any F-12 gas for use in, or for resale for use in any new or used system of any type (not in List A) unless the system must be operated under one or more of the following conditions:

(i) Where an air-cooled condenser is used and the ambient temperature is 110° F or higher; or

(ii) Where the saturated refrigerant temperature corresponding to the suction pressure is less than minus 10° F; or

(iii) Where aluminum or magnesium alloys or rubber (except synthetic rubber) have been used in construction of the system and come in contact with the refrigerant, and are not easily replaceable; or

(iv) Where the system is for use aboard ship, or outside of the continental United States by the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration; or

(v) Where the total operating charge required to operate the system is ten (10) pounds or less of F-12 gas and the system was in operation on November 12, 1943, and is used for food preservation or for storage of penicillin, blood serum, blood for plasma, blood plasma, biologicals and bacteriologicals; or

(vi) Where the use of no Group 2 or Group 3 refrigerants, as defined in the American Standard Safety Code for Mechanical Refrigeration, ASRE Circular No. 15, ASA-B9-1939, as approved by the American Standards Association April 20, 1939, is permitted by that Code; or

(vii) Where the system is used in a sealed railroad car or sealed bus.

(The above restrictions apply not only to systems used for ordinary civilian purposes, but also to those owned, operated, or used within the continental United States by the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration, including post exchanges and ships service stores, other than those used aboard ships.)

(3) Attention is called to paragraph (c) (2), which prohibits a supplier from delivering F-12 gas except on certified orders.

(c) Deliveries by suppliers. (1) No supplier or any other person (except a producer) shall deliver any F-12 gas for export outside of the continental United States, or for use by any of the following non-retail users (or to any ship yard or other person for use in a system to be delivered to any of them), namely: The Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, War Shipping Administration, post exchanges, ships service departments and activities, equipment and insecticide manufacturers, for new or used systems, or for use in insecticide, without specific authorization from the War Production Board. Subject to the foregoing restriction, any supplier or any other person (except a producer) may deliver F-12 gas to any other person, for use in any new or used system not referred to on List A of this order, if it must be operated under one or more of the conditions stated in (b) (2) (i) to (b) (2) (vii) both inclusive.

No person shall accept from a supplier or other person any delivery of F-12 gas which is prohibited by the restriction in this order.

(2) Whenever the owner of a system or any other user wishes to obtain F-12 gas for installation in a system or systems for which deliveries by suppliers are permitted under this order, he may place his order with any supplier for the minimum quantity, which the available cylinder or cylinders permit, necessary to bring the charge in the system or systems up to a normal operating charge. He must certify his order, or the vendor's delivery receipt, by a certificate endorsed on or attached to it, showing that the F-12 gas is to be used for such purposes only, and that he is not holding any empty cylinders not owned by him, which shall be in substantially the following form:

> The undersigned purchaser certifies to the seller and the War Production Board that he does not have any F-12 gas cylinders not owned by him, which have been empty for more than 15 days; and that the F-12 gas covered by this order will not be used or resold for any purposes not permitted by Order M-28.

The standard certification in the form described in Priorities Regulation 7 cannot be used instead of that described above. Such certificate, which must be signed by the purchaser or his authorized official, will constitute a representation that what is stated in it is true. A supplier must not deliver any F-12 gas except under certified orders; and he must not make delivery under any order which is certified if he knows, or has any reason to believe that the certificate furnished with such order is untrue, incomplete, or inaccurate. In such a case the supplier must reject the order, and should explain why he is doing so, so that the prospective purchaser can comply with this order. Each supplier must keep all accepted orders and certificates which he receives, for a period of two years, for inspection by the War Production Board. (Certificates in the form required by this order before its amendment on November 12, 1943, may continue to be used for 30 days after that date, in place of the above form.)

This restriction shall not prevent a person who services several systems for which deliveries are permitted by this order from purchasing a cylinder of F-12 gas from a supplier, if the amount purchased is the smallest quantity practicable considering the sizes of the standard commercial cylinders and the amount needed in his current operations.

(3) No "standby charge" or any other quantity of F-12 gas, over and above that needed to bring the total charge in a system or systems up to the normal operating charge, shall be delivered to or accepted by any person for use in a system which he owns, leases, or operates (except the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration): except, however, that a "standby charge" may be maintained for a system which is operated primarily for one of the following purposes: air conditioning or refrigeration for the production and storage of penicillin, or blood serum; or refrigeration for the storage of blood for plasma, or the production or storage of blood plasma.

(d) Deliveries by producers. Each producer shall hold his entire inventory of F-12 gas, together with all additional quantities produced or otherwise obtained by him from time to time, for delivery under such orders and for such uses as may be authorized or directed from time to time by the War Production Board. No deliveries of F-12 gas shall be made by a producer except pursuant to specific authorizations or directions heretofore or hereafter issued by the War Production Board.

(e) The provisions of this order shall be followed by every producer, contract agent, supplier, user, equipment manufacturer, insecticide manufacturer, and any other person buying, selling or delivering F-12 gas, without any regard to any preference ratings which have been assigned or which may hereafter be assigned to particular contracts or orders.

(f) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board, as issued and amended from time to time.

(2) Reports.[1] (i) Each equipment manufacturer who wishes to secure delivery of F-12 gas during any month for charging systems or parts produced by him, or for factory repair and charging of sealed or hermetic condensing units, shall file with the War Production Board, on or before the 15th day of the preceding month a report on Form WPB-3326, prepared in accordance with the instructions for such form.

(ii) Any person wishing to secure F-12 gas during any month for ultimate uses (such as testing coaxial cable for leaks) other than the charging of new or used refrigeration or air conditioning systems or parts or use in insecticide, shall file with the War Production Board, on or before the 20th day of the preceding month, a report by letter, in triplicate, showing the minimum amount required for the month, the purpose for which required, and the amount used during the preceding calendar month for that purpose.

[1] The reporting requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(3) Violations. Any person who willfully violates any provisions of this order, or who, in connection with this order, willfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, materials under priority control, and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(4) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order, or any direction thereunder, shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(5) Communications. All reports to be filed and other communications concerning this order should be addressed to: War Production Board, General Industrial Equipment Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref. M-28.

Issued this 21st day of August 1944.

INTERPRETATION 1

[Interpretation 1 revoked November 12, 1943]

INTERPRETATION 2

(a) Quantities which may be obtained by system owner. Subparagraphs (c) (2) permits the owner (or lessee) of a refrigerating or air conditioning system (not on List A) who does his own installation of F-12 gas, to place his order for the minimum quantity "which the available cylinder or cylinders permit", necessary to bring the charge in his system up to a normal operating charge.

The standard commercial cylinders are generally available in sizes which contain four pounds, ten pounds, twenty-five pounds, and one hundred forty-five pounds of the gas, and a particular supplier may not have all four sizes in stock at all times. Questions will therefore arise as to the number and sizes of cylinders which the owner of a system is permitted to obtain, if the particular supplier with whom his purchase order is first placed should not happen to have the sizes of cylinder from which the minimum quantity needed by the system can be furnished the owner.

In such a case, the owner of the system should make a reasonable effort to obtain the minimum quantity which he needs, from some other supplier in his locality, rather than purchase an excessive quantity from the first supplier upon whom he calls. While the order does not prescribe rigid rules as to exactly what effort the purchaser should make in every case, it is required that he do whatever is practicable, under his particular conditions, to obtain the minimum quantity which he needs, and no more.

Where he is located in a large community in which there are a number of suppliers, he should contact several, if necessary in order to obtain the quantity needed. If he happens to be located in a small community where there is only one supplier who cannot furnish the exact quantity needed and the F-12 gas must be obtained immediately in order to avoid spoilage of a substantial quantity of food, the restriction would not prevent him from obtaining a larger amount, if that is unavoidable without letting his food spoil.

As a guide to the number and size of cylinders which should normally be obtained, for the different quantities of F-12 gas which may be needed in different cases, the following table is furnished:

	Number of cylinders
	4 pounds	10 pounds	25 pounds	145 pounds
5-9		1
10-14	1	1
15-24		2 or	1
25-29	1		1
30-39	1	1	1
40-49	1	2	1
50-59		1	2
60-69		2	2
80-89	1	1	3
90-110		1	4
111-145				1
146-170			1	1
171-195			2	1
196-220			3	1
221-245			4	1
246-290				2
291-315			1	2
316-340			2	2
341-365			3	2

The above interpretation applies only where the system owner buys his F-12 gas he has a service shop install the gas, the shop will always be able to furnish no more than the amount actually needed, from its service from a supplier, and installs it himself. If cylinders, and there will be no problem.

(b) Installation of F-12 gas in systems or parts held by equipment manufacturers or dealers. Paragraph (b) (1) prohibits deliveries of F-12 gas for systems on List A; (b) (2) prohibits deliveries for any other system, unless it must be operated under one or more of the conditions specified. These restrictions are intended to prevent deliveries of F-12 gas where there is a sale or other delivery of the gas. They prevent an equipment manufacturer or other person from delivering F-12 gas in any new or used system or refrigerant-containing parts if charged with F-12 gas furnished by him after the effective date of the applicable restriction, for any prohibited use.

These restrictions do not prevent the withdrawal and reinstallation of F-12 gas in the course of repairing a used system or refrigerant-containing part, where no additional F-12 gas is added to what was already in the system or part.

Neither do they restrict the delivery of new or used systems or refrigerant-containing parts which had already been charged at the time the applicable restriction became effective; nor do they prevent the owner or lessee of any installed system who had F-12 gas in his possession on the effective date of the applicable restriction, from charging the system with such gas, or having someone else do this charging for him, where no transfer of possession or ownership is involved. (Issued November 30, 1943.)

(1) "Portable lamp" means any detachable device (excluding lamp shades and incandescent, fluorescent or electric discharge lamps or tubes covered by Limitation Order L-28), the primary function of which is to furnish light for interior illuminating purposes by means of incandescent, fluorescent or electric discharge lamps or tubes. "Portable lamp" does not include any flashlight or other battery-operated lighting device, mechanics' lamp, industrial lamp designed specifically for use in conjunction with any industrial machine, tool or assembly bench or other similar factory equipment, or any overhead suspended fixture (whether portable or not).

(2) "Socket" means any receptacle on a portable lamp designed to receive an incandescent, fluorescent or electric discharge lamp or tube.

(3) "Lamp cord" means any insulated cord used to conduct electricity to the socket on a portable lamp.

(4) "Plug" means any device attached to a lamp cord and fitting into a fixed receptacle for the purpose of transmitting electric current through the lamp cord.

(5) "Separate switch" means any one- or two-circuit switch control which operates one or more sockets.

(6) "Lamp shade" means any shade or metal reflector designed for use with a portable lamp.

(7) "Manufacturer" means any person engaged in the business of manufacturing or assembling portable lamps or lamp shades or parts for such products.

(8) "Preferred order" means any purchase order, contract or subcontract for delivery of portable lamps or lamp shades to or for the account of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration.

(b) General restrictions. (1) [Deleted May 23, 1944]

(2) No manufacturer shall make or assemble any portable lamps or parts for portable lamps. This does not restrict the decoration of completely assembled lamps even though it requires disassembly and reassembly.

(3) The restrictions contained in paragraph (b) (2) do not apply to the manufacture of portable lamps or parts for portable lamps made to fill preferred orders. However, lamps or parts made to fill such orders shall not contain (i) any iron or steel except in sockets, separate switches, plugs, lamp cords, auxiliary ballasts, starter switches, center pipes, steel wire harps, socket covers and husks, outer tubing and casings, coating and checking rings, locknuts, washers, screws and bolts; or (ii) any other metal except in sockets, separate switches, plugs, lamp cords, auxiliary ballasts and starter switches.

(i) No. 20 B and S Gauge copper conductor cords in cut lengths of not more than 11 feet.

(ii) Sockets, provided that neither the caps, shells or screw shells contain any copper or copper base alloy other than plating.

(iii) Molded plugs.

(iv) Plugs, other than molded, provided that such plugs contain no copper or copper base alloy other than in screws or in plating materials.

(5) [Deleted May 23, 1944]

(6) No manufacturer shall produce any lamp shades or parts therefor containing any silk or phenolic plastics or any metal, except that iron and steel may be used to produce wire frames. The War Production Board will make allotments of controlled materials for the production of lamp shades only to the extent that such materials are needed to produce lamp shades to fill preferred orders. The iron and steel used in producing lamp shades to produce other than preferred orders must be obtained without priority assistance. One way of obtaining such materials is described in Priorities Regulation No. 13.

(c) Avoidance of excessive inventories. No manufacturer shall receive for use in the manufacture of portable lamps or lamp shades any materials which he cannot use under the terms of this order or any materials which when received will give him an inventory of such materials in excess of the minimum amount necessary to maintain production as permitted by this order.

(d) [Deleted Aug. 21, 1944]

(e) [Deleted Aug. 21, 1944]

(f) Reports. Each manufacturer who produces any portable lamps or lamp shades in fulfillment of preferred orders shall file on or before the tenth day of each calendar month, beginning January 10, 1943, a report on Form WPB-1600 (formerly PD-655), showing all shipments made pursuant to such preferred orders during the preceding calendar month. Each manufacturer shall also file such other reports and answers to questionnaires as shall from time to time be required, subject to approval of the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(g) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. (h) Exceptions and appeals—(1) Production under Priorities Regulation 25. Any person who wants to produce portable lamps or parts for portable lamps for other than preferred orders may apply for permission to do so as explained in Priorities Regulation 25. All restrictions other than those in paragraph (b) (2) continue to apply when authorization to make or assemble is obtained under Priorities Regulation 25.

(2) Appeals. Any appeals from the provisions of any paragraph in this order except paragraph (b) (2) should be filed on Form WPB-1477 (in triplicate) with the Field Office of the War Production Board for the district in which is located the plant or branch of the appellant to which the appeal relates. No appeal should be filed from the restrictions of paragraph (b) (2).

(i) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(j) [Deleted May 23, 1944]

PART 3291—CONSUMERS DURABLE GOODS

[Limitation Order L-49, as Amended Aug. 21, 1944]

BEDS, BED SPRINGS, MATTRESSES AND DUAL SLEEPING EQUIPMENT

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of iron and steel, wood and textiles for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense.

§ 3291.70 Limitation Order L-49—(a) What this order does. This order regulates the production of bedding products. It assigns maximum manufacturing quotas for such products regardless of the materials from which they are made. It also limits the amount of iron and steel which may be incorporated in any item.

(b) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) The term "bedding products" includes metal beds; metal bed frames; metal cots, metal bunks and metal roll-away cots (including springs). It also includes the following products whether or not containing metal: innerspring mattresses, pads, pillows; coil, flat or fabric bedsprings; box springs; mattress foundations; crib springs; and dual sleeping equipment (studio couches, sofa beds, lounges, and chair beds designed for dual seating and sleeping purposes).

(2) "Manufacturer" means any person who manufacturers or assembles bedding products, but does not include a person who repairs or reassembles a bedding product.

(3) "Base period" means the twelve month period ending June 30, 1941.

(4) "Preferred order" means any purchase order, contract or subcontract for delivery to or for the account of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, War Shipping Administration, Aircraft Resources Control Office, or Federal Public Housing Authority, or for delivery outside the United States, its territories and possessions.

(c) Restrictions on production for other than preferred orders. (1) During each calendar quarter beginning January 1, 1944, no manufacturer shall produce more bedding products, for other than preferred orders, than the percentage as shown in Schedule A of his unit production of such products during the base period. If in any calendar quarter a manufacturer produces less than his permitted production, he may produce the unused portion of his quota in the following quarter.

(d) [Deleted Aug. 21, 1944.]

(e) Reports. Each manufacturer producing bedding products must file with the War Production Board quarterly reports on Form WPB-1600 (formerly PD-655) on or before the 15th day of April, July, October and January, according to the instructions for filing that form.

(f) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(g) Exceptions and appeals—(1) Production under Priorities Regulation 25. Any person who wants to produce more bedding products than the quotas fixed in paragraph (c) (1) and Schedule A (including a person who has no quota under this order), may apply for permission to do so as explained in Priorities Regulation 25.

(2) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order, other than the quota restrictions of paragraph (c) (1) and Schedule A should be filed on Form WPB-1477 (in triplicate) with the field office of the War Production Board for the district in which is located the plant or branch of the appellant to which the appeal relates. No appeal should be filed from the quota restrictions of paragraph (c) (1) and Schedule A.

(h) Applicability of regulations and other orders. This order and all transactions affected by it are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board. If any other order of the War Production Board limits the use of any material in the production of bedding products to a greater extent than does this order, the other order shall govern unless it states otherwise.

(i) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the War Production Board, Consumers Durable Goods Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: L-49.

NOTE: The applications and reporting requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 21st day of August 1944.

By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

INTERPRETATION 1: Superseded Mar. 16, 1944.

INTERPRETATION 2: Superseded Mar 16, 1944.

INTERPRETATION 3

BEDS, BED SPRINGS, MATTRESSES AND DUAL SLEEPING EQUIPMENT

This interpretation is to explain the effect of L-49 upon the repairing or reassembling of bedding products. Paragraph (b) (2) of L-49 defines a manufacturer as "any person who manufactures or assembles bedding products, but does not include a person who repairs or reassembles a bedding product." Certain examples may help to clarify this definition.

A person who buys a number of used or second-hand coil, flat and fabric bedsprings, tears them down and reassembles the usable parts into bed springs is not a manufacturer any more than is a person who adds a piece to a single bed spring to put it into usable condition. However, a person who buys used automobile seat springs and assembles them into a bedding product is engaged in manufacture and not in making repairs or reassembling, as the material with which he works was never a bedding product.

A person who acquires a new innerspring construction and assembles it into an innerspring mattress is obviously a manufacturer of that mattress. Conversely, a person who acquires a used innerspring mattress, or an innerspring construction which has previously been incorporated into an innerspring mattress, and remakes these items is not engaged in manufacture, but in repair or reassembly.

The essential thing to bear in mind in construing paragraph (b) (2) is that for an operation to be classified as repairing or reassembling, the article or articles with which a person is working must have at one time been a bedding product or part of a bedding product. (Issued Mar. 16, 1944.)

PART 1388—DEFENSE-RENTAL AREAS

[Housing,[2] Amdt. 32]

HARDSHIP FROM INCREASE IN TAXES OR COSTS

Rent Regulation for Housing is amended in the following respects:

1. The third unnumbered paragraph of section 5 is amended and the following paragraphs are added to the unnumbered paragraphs of section 5 to read as follows:

In all other cases except those under paragraphs (a) (7), (a) 12), (c) (6), and (c) (9) of this section, the adjustment shall be on the basis of the rent which the Administrator finds was generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date: Provided, That in cases under paragraph (c) (8) of this section due consideration shall be given to any increased occupancy of the accommodations since that date by subtenants or other persons occupying under a rental agreement with the tenant.

In cases under paragraph (a) (12) of this section, the adjustment in the maximum rent shall be in the amount the Administrator finds necessary to relieve the substantial hardship: Provided, That the adjustment shall not result in a maximum rent higher than the rent generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

In cases under paragraph (c) (9) of this section, the adjustment in the maximum rent shall be in the amount the Administrator finds warranted by the modification or elimination of the necessity for the increase in the maximum rent granted under paragraph (a) (12) of this section: Provided, That no decrease shall be ordered in an amount greater than the adjustment ordered under paragraph (a) (12) of this section.

2. Section 5 (a) (12) is added to read as follows:

(12) Substantial hardship from increase in property taxes or operating costs. Substantial hardship has resulted from a substantial decrease in the net income of the property for the current year as compared with a representative period prior to the maximum rent date, due to a substantial and unavoidable increase in property taxes or operating costs.

For the purposes of this paragraph (a) (12) the term:

(i) "Net income (before interest)" means the amount determined by subtracting unavoidable property taxes and operating costs actually paid or accrued from total income earned.

(ii) "Property taxes and operating costs" includes all expenses necessary to the operation and maintenance of the property actually paid or accrued and properly allocated, including depreciation but excluding interest.

(iii) "Property" includes one or more structures operated as a single unit or enterprise.

(iv) "Total income earned" includes rental and other income earned from the property and the rental value of housing accommodations in the property occupied without the full payment of rent.

(v) "Current year" means a period of twelve calendar months beginning on or after the effective date of regulation. The most recent calendar or fiscal year used by the landlord or the twelve calendar months immediately prior to the filing of the petition for adjustment may be used.

This section 5 (a) (12) shall not apply to maximum rents established under section 4 (f) where the accommodations are first rented after the maximum rent date or to maximum rents established under section 4 (c), (d), (e), or (j).

3. Section 5 (c) (9) is added to read as follows:

(9) Modification or elimination of necessity for increase under section 5 (a) (12). There has been a modification or elimination of the necessity for the increase in the maximum rent granted under paragraph (a) (12) of this section, since the order issued under that paragraph.

This amendment shall become effective September 1, 1944.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 19th day of August 1944.

PART 1388—DEFENSE-RENTAL AREAS

[Hotels and Rooming Houses,[1] Amdt. 29]

HARDSHIP FROM INCREASE IN TAXES OR COSTS

Rent Regulation for Hotels and Rooming Houses is amended in the following respects:

1. The third unnumbered paragraph of section 5 is amended and the following paragraphs are added to read as follows:

[MPR 120,[1] Amdt. 117]

BITUMINOUS COAL DELIVERED FROM MINE OR PREPARATION PLANT

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation No. 120 is amended in the following respects:

In § 1340.213, new paragraph (e) is added to read as follows:

(e) In paragraph (b) (2) of this section, a differential of 25 cents per net ton is established between coals produced at a strip mine and coals produced at a deep mine. A producer of coals from a strip mine, or a producer who buys coals from strip mines for preparation and resale, may apply for the removal of this differential, and the differential will be removed by order, upon a showing: First, that his coals are such that they can be prepared so as to be generally acceptable in coal consuming markets. Second, that his preparation plant or tipple is equipped with screens, picking tables and, in general, with adequate facilities for preparing coal by removing refuse before loading into transportation facilities; third, that his coal as loaded into transportation facilities is adequately prepared by use of such facilities.

If such preparation is not maintained, the Administrator may at any time reestablish the price differential.

This amendment shall become effective August 19, 1944.

NOTE: All record keeping and reporting requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

PART 1351—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[FPR 1,[1] Amdt. 2 to Supp. 7]

PACKED FRUITS, BERRIES AND VEGETABLES OF 1944 AND LATER PACKS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

1. The table in section 1 (a) is amended by adding item 4 to read as follows:

Column 1 Item No.	Column 2 Product	Column 3 Section	Column 4 Section	Appendix
4	Peas	5	15	C.

[1] 9 F.R. 9493.

2. The following definition is added to section 3 (a):

"Area" or "pricing area" means the area in which the processor's factory is located, as shown in the applicable appendix.

3. In section 4 (a) the third and fourth undesignated paragraphs are amended to read as follows:

If the processor sold the particular product during the base period, but only in a grade, style, or container type or size which is different from the one being priced, or for which no price range is provided, he figures his maximum price by the same general pricing method, supplemented by the use of conversion factors (for different container types and sizes, different styles, and different grades). Whenever figuring a conversion from metal containers to glass containers the processor must first construct a maximum price for the item packed in metal and then convert it to a maximum price for the item packed in glass, even though the item was packed in glass containers during the base period. The reason for this is that the permitted increases and price ranges are constructed entirely on products packed in metal containers. In each case the conversion factors to be used are set forth in the appendix applicable to the product.

If the processor was not in business during 1941 or if he made no sales of the product during the base period, he figures his gross maximum price for the item being priced by using as his gross maximum price the specific dollars-and-cents price named in the applicable appendix. (However, if he is subject to section 14 (g) covering transfers of business or stock in trade, he uses the base price of his transferor and figures a maximum price in the same manner as his transferor would have figured it.) In cases where a specific dollars-and-cents price is not provided for the item, he figures his gross maximum price by applying the appropriate conversion factors to the specific dollars-and-cents price named for the nearest container size, style and grade of the product.

4. In section 5, an undesignated paragraph is added immediately preceding paragraph (a) to read as follows:

The processor shall figure a maximum price for each factory at which he processes and sells the item being priced. (However, he may then elect to combine prices as provided in section 10 (f)).

5. The following undesignated paragraph is added to section 5 (a) (1) (i):

In figuring weighted average prices during the base period, the processor may, if he wishes, figure a single weighted average for all factories located in the same pricing area. For this purpose, the time when the first factory included in group started packing operations shall be considered "the beginning of the 1941 pack".

6. In section 5 (c) the undesignated paragraph preceding subparagraph (1) is amended to read as follows:

A processor who meets the conditions of section 11 (b) as to any item may, if he elects, figure maximum prices for the item on the basis of subgrades. He may make this election for one or more factories selected by him, provided that the maximum prices for the item at the selected factories are the same. However, any such election applies only to that part of the combined packs of those factories which he has not sold and delivered prior to the filing of the statement of his election. When he makes this election as to any item, the processor may sell it at whatever prices he pleases, subject to the following limitations:

7. In section 16, Appendix A, the following caption is added to Table 4 following the table heading, "Standard Grade Water Pack"

8. In section 15, Appendix C is added to read as follows:

APPENDIX C—PEAS

Explanation of how maximum prices for packed peas are figured. In making conversions for grade, for variety, for sieve size, and for container type and size under subparagraph (2), (3) or (4) of section 5 (a) of this supplement, in the case of packed peas the order in which the steps in figuring the maximum price are to be taken differs from those specified in the note at the beginning of section 5 (a) 2. In figuring maximum prices under those paragraphs for packed peas, steps are to be taken in the order indicated below in all cases, although in many cases not all of the steps are necessary.

In each case where the processor is figuring a maximum price for a grade or a variety of peas different from that sold in the base period, he must add the permitted increase for the same grade and same variety of peas as that sold in the base period, before converting for the change in variety or change in grade, for the reason that the permitted increases for each grade and each variety of peas are different.

Conversions from metal containers to glass containers must be made in the 1944 prices and not in the base period prices, for the reason that the permitted increases and price ranges are based on cost increase and base period price data for metal containers only. In each case of conversion from metal to glass, the processor must first construct a maximum price for the item when packed in metal and then add the conversion factor named in Table 6, even though he packed the item in glass during the base period.
